Florida State won by forfeit 1-0

Statement from Virginia athletics:

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. – Virginia director of athletics Carla Williams announced today (March 18) the Cavaliers' volleyball staff, including head coach Aaron Smith, have been relieved of their duties. On March 17, Williams announced the staff had been placed on paid administrative leave during a review of a personnel matter.

As a result of these actions, UVA is cancelling the remainder of its 2020-21 season. Virginia (2-12, 0-11) had four road matches remaining on its spring schedule.

"While I am unable to comment on the details," Williams said, "I do want to commend our student-athletes for their leadership and express my gratitude for how they have handled a very difficult situation. We will continue to support them as our program moves forward."

Virginia will immediately begin a national search to fill the head coaching position.
