Betsy Hosey, FSU Varsity Club Director

On behalf of the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame and Recognition Committee, welcome to our annual induction of "the best of the best" in intercollegiate athletics.

We are very fortunate to enjoy an athletics program which reflects the integrity achieved by an academic institution with over 150 years of success.

Tonight we welcome eight outstanding new members to our Hall of Fame. It is always a thrill to see so many of our earlier inductees return to honor those who continue the tradition of Seminole excellence.

Special thanks tonight to Athletics Director Randy Spetman and his staff, our Varsity Club, and to the Seminole Boosters. They all work to provide the support and resources which give our student athletes the best opportunities to succeed for the Garnet and Gold.

We hope you enjoy this Hall of Fame/Varsity Club Weekend. It's a wonderful part of the year-long celebration that is Seminole athletics!

Sincerely,
Doug Mannheimer

and Recognition Committee

MICKEY ANDREWS

Coaches and Administration

Mickey Andrews came to Florida State in 1984 as the defensive coordinator and immediately began to build a defense that matched the Seminoles' high-powered offense, creating a dynasty the likes of which college football had never seen. He would coach at FSU for 26 years before retiring after the 2009 season.

An All-SEC defensive back at Alabama (1961-64), Andrews won a national championship as head coach at North Alabama in 1976. He went on to serve as an assistant coach at Clemson, Florida and the USFL's Arizona Wrangler before Bobby Bowden chose him as his right-hand man and the FSU program vaulted to the hierarchy of college football. FSU would finish among the Associated Press Top 5 for an unprecedented 14 straight seasons and won its two national titles, 1993 and 1999, during Andrews' tenure.

Andrews' defenses developed into feared units that combined blazing speed and relentless pressure. He coached many of the biggest names in college football history including 18 first-round NFL draft picks and 80 players who went on to the NFL.

He was named the nation's top assistant coach in 2000 by the All-American Football Foundation and 1991 by Athlon's Magazine. He was named the national defensive coordinator of the year in 1998 by American Football Coaches' Magazine and was the first-ever winner of the Frank Broyles Award as nation's top assistant in 1996.

TONYA CARTER

Track and Field

Tonya Carter came to Florida State in 1997 following an outstanding high school career at Alexander High in Douglasville, Georgia that had established her as one of the nation's top prep sprinters. She left FSU four years later as one of the greatest sprinters in FSU and collegiate track history.

As a senior in 2000, Carter won the ACC indoor 60m with an FSU and conference record time of 7.15 that was the second fastest time ever run by a collegian in the event. She went on to win the 60m indoor NCAA Championship just a few weeks later making her the first FSU woman, in 15 years, to win an individual NCAA Championship. At the time, her individual national championship was just the sixth in the history of Seminole women's track.

Carter finished her career as a three-time All-American earning the honor in the 60 and 100-meters in 2000 and the 60m as a junior in 1999. She still holds the ACC record for the 100m outdoor with a time of 11.31 set in 2000. She helped her FSU team win its first-ever ACC Women's Team Outdoor Championship in 2000 and was an outstanding student as well earning ACC Academic Honor Roll distinction.

BOBBY COCHRAN

Golf

Bobby Cochran enrolled at Florida State in 1989 following an outstanding high school career at Christian Brothers High School in Cordova, Tennessee. After a redshirt season, he finished with four individual Top 20 finishes as a freshman in 1990-91, including a season-high 10th place finish (twice).

Cochran had a solid sophomore season before emerging as the Seminoles' top player as a junior in 1992-93. He won his first-ever collegiate tournament that year at the Imperial Lakes and went on to earn four additional Top 10 finishes. His senior season would go down as one of the finest in Seminole golf history. Cochran led the 1993-94 Seminoles to a school-record-tying three tournament victories and the team finished among the Top Five in all but one of the regular season tournaments. FSU would finish 16th at the NCAA Championships in 1994.

Cochran earned first team PING All-America honors as a senior along with being named the 1994 ACC Player of the Year and a member of the 1994 All-ACC team. Over his career, he won three individual tournament championships and finished in the Top 10 in all 12 tournaments he played in as a senior including a runner-up finish at the ACC Championships.

KARYN PALGUT

Volleyball

Karyn Palgut was one of the finest athletes in Florida State history, earning letters in volleyball, basketball and softball from 1982-86 and eventually competing in two Olympic Games.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Palgut came to FSU in 1981 on a volleyball scholarship after earning all-state honors in high school in all three sports. She would prove she could do that at the highest level over her collegiate career becoming one of the Seminoles' all-time greats in volleyball. She earned All-Metro Conference honors in 1982, '83 and '84. She earned Metro Conference Most Valuable Player honors as a sophomore and junior and was FSU's team captain as a senior in 1984. Her name is still peppered throughout the FSU record books including a sixth place all-time listing for career matches with 153 and seventh place listing in career service aces with 132.

Palgut's amazing athletic skills continued after her FSU career when she began competing in team handball and represented the United States in two Olympic Games finishing seventh in Seoul, Korea in 1988 and sixth in Barcelona, Spain in 1992.

COREY SIMON

Football

The photo of Corey Simon embracing the 1999 National Championship trophy after the Seminoles had defeated Virginia Tech in the Sugar Bowl is one of the iconic images of college football. A consensus All-America defensive lineman as a senior in 1999, Simon takes his rightful place as one of the finest players in FSU's storied football history.

Simon was the defensive leader of FSU's wire-to-wire national championship team and led the ACC with 21 tackles for loss that season. He finished with 84 tackles as a senior ranking fourth on Bobby Bowden's only undefeated team. He was a finalist for both the Outland and Lombardi Trophies as a senior. He battled injuries during the early part of his career before his break-out season as a junior when he earned first team AP All-America honors and won the ACC's Brian Piccolo Award.

Simon was selected by the Philadelphia Eagles with the sixth overall pick of the 2000 NFL Draft and had an outstanding professional career before being forced to retire in his prime for medical reasons while he was with the Tennessee Titans.

PETER WARRICK

Football

Peter Warrick earned back-to-back consensus All-America honors as a wide receiver for the Seminoles in 1998 and 1999 and caught more touchdown passes (32) than any other player in FSU history. Warrick finished his legendary collegiate career with an acrobatic touchdown reception in the 1999 Sugar Bowl that sealed the Seminoles' National Championship.

A native of Bradenton, Florida, Warrick had a remarkable career leading FSU in yards per catch as a freshman in 1996 with 21.2 and finishing at or near the top of virtually every FSU receiving record. His 207 career receptions is second only to Ron Sellers in FSU history and his average of 4.81 career receptions per game also still stands as second best all-time. He came just 81 yards shy for the most receiving yards in FSU history with 3,517 and had 15, 100-yard receiving games over his career.

During an era when most underclassmen left early for the NFL draft, Warrick returned for his senior season teaming with eventual Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Chris Weinke to lead FSU, which went the entire 1999 season ranked No. 1 in the AP poll – the first time that feat was accomplished in college football.

MOORE STONE AWARD
DR. TOM HANEY

Tom Haney went to medical school at Emory University and it didn't take long before he figured out orthopedic surgery was calling his name. Haney completed his medical training in 1970 and then served as Flight Surgeon for the United States Air Force. In 1975, he and Emory classmate, Doug Henderson founded the Tallahassee Orthopedic Clinic in Florida's sports-loving capital city.

Henderson and Haney's Tallahassee Orthopedic Center was the first medical practice in north Florida dedicated exclusively to sports medicine. Haney has done surgery after surgery on athletes from Florida

State that have gone on to perform at the highest professional level. Being on the sideline and part of Seminole history has been life altering for Haney.

With memories of a lifetime, like the National Championship game against Nebraska in the Orange Bowl, Haney has handed over his team doctor duties to his partners. TOC has grown to 17 full-time doctors that serve as the team behind the team for athletes at Florida State, FAMU, several junior colleges and approximately 45 high schools within a 75 miles area.

DR. DOUG HENDERSON

For more than 35 years, Dr. William "Doug" Henderson and his partner Dr. Tom Haney served as FSU's primary team physicians. Their exceptional medical care and countless hours devoted to student-athletes in all FSU sports were vital in the growth and development of Seminole Athletics on the national stage.

A Tallahassee native, Doug Henderson, received his Bachelor of Science degree and medical degree from Emory University School of Medicine. Before he could complete his medical training, Dr. Henderson was drafted and served as a surgeon for the U.S. Air Force. Though he thought he was headed into Cardiovascular specialty, his direction changed when his commanding officer made him the orthopedic surgeon in charge of his unit and then left for 10 days for R&R. Henderson stepped up to challenge and found a new calling in orthopedic surgery.

Together, Dr. Haney and Dr. Henderson founded the Tallahassee Orthopedic Clinic in Florida's capital city. Dr. Henderson was one of the Team Physicians for The Florida State University and A&M University for 35 years. He was also the team physician for multiple area high schools.
