HALL of FAME ~ 2012

On behalf of the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame and Recognition Committee, welcome to our annual induction of "the best of the best" in intercollegiate athletics.

We are very fortunate to enjoy an athletics program which reflects the integrity achieved by an academic institution with over 150 years of success.

Tonight we welcome seven outstanding new members to our Hall of Fame. It is always a thrill to see so many of our earlier inductees return to honor those who continue the tradition of Seminole excellence.

Special thanks tonight to Athletics Director Randy Spetman and his staff, our Varsity Club, and to the Seminole Boosters. They all work to provide the support and resources which give our student athletes the best opportunities to succeed for the Garnet and Gold.

We hope you enjoy this Hall of Fame/Varsity Club Weekend. It's a wonderful part of the year-long celebration that is Seminole athletics!

Sincerely,

Doug Mannheimer

MOORE-STONE AWARD WINNER

DeVoe Moore is a man who truly believes that ours is a land of opportunity based on the principle of free enterprise and the value of hard work in success. He came to Tallahassee to attend Florida State and major in criminology, but found his entrepreneurial skills instead.

Through his success in business DeVoe and Shirley Moore have become gracious contributors to the University and the Athletic Department. Their gift, the largest in school history, has not only been a huge financial contribution, but an inspiration to other alumni and friends of Florida State. Most importantly, it has secured student-athletes the opportunity to attend this great University and given a chance to achieve their dreams.

DeVoe and his wife Shirley have two daughters and six grandchildren all living in the Tallahassee and surrounding area.

BEV BURNETT
Basketball

Tallahassee native Bev Burnett played in all 28 games as a freshman averaging over 19 points a game. The Godby graduate followed up the stellar rookie year by averaging 17 points per game the next season. The 5'9" forward earned Metro Conference player of the week honors after back-to-back 30-point games during her sophomore year. She later earned All-Metro Conference First team honors in 1988 and '89 and led the Seminoles in scoring both seasons. Her 21.3 points per game average as a senior still ranks as the second highest single-season mark in Florida State women's basketball history.

Burnett is a teacher for Exceptional Students and works with troubled youths in Hillsboro County.

JOHN-FORD
GRIFFIN
Baseball

John-Ford Griffin starred for the Seminoles for three seasons culminating in the rare achievement of consensus All-America status as a junior in 2001. He led the Seminoles that season with a .450 batting average that included 19 home runs, 30 doubles and 75 RBI. He was named the ACC's Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award.

A Sarasota native, John-Ford was a remarkable hitter throughout his FSU career. His .427 career batting average not only set the Florida State record, but is the best career average for any player in the history of the ACC and was 16th best in college baseball history. The left-handed power-hitter was drafted by the New York Yankees with the 23rd overall pick in 2001. He totaled over 150 home runs and 700 RBI over a nine-year professional career before retiring in 2010.

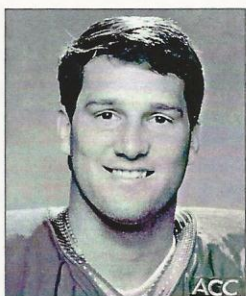

John-Ford and his wife Taryn live in Tallahassee with their young son. He is the owner of Hollachaboy Clothing and a partner in the PowerMill training facility.

DANNY KANELL

Football

Danny Kanell led the Seminoles to a 10-1-1 season including that mind-boggling 28 point 4th quarter comeback over Florida his junior season. Just over a month later, Kanell led Florida State to a 23-17 win over the same Florida team, now ranked fifth nationally, in the Sugar Bowl elevating the Seminoles to No. 4 in the country in the final polls.

The Ft. Lauderdale native was one of the nation's top players as a senior in 1995 and led the Seminoles to a 10-2 finish and a repeat of the number four final ranking in the Associated Press poll. He led FSU to a dramatic 31-26 win over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl to finish his career with another win. He was named a second team All-American and remains among the Top 10 in both season and career records in eight different categories.

In 1996, the New York Giants drafted Danny in the 4th round. He spent seven years playing in New York, then for the Falcons and the Broncos. He also spent one season playing professional baseball before changing his career to broadcast journalism. He is now a familiar face on ESPN as a commentator for college football and baseball. Danny and his wife Courtenay have three beautiful daughters.

CHRISTIAN RAYNOR

Golf

Christian Raynor led the Seminoles golf team to nine team victories and seven runner-up places during his career at Florida State. He was twice named All-ACC, was a two-time Academic All-American and a second team All-American in 1995. He set a new FSU scoring average at 71.31 strokes per round, which ranked third best in the country.

Raynor's Hall of Fame career at FSU included leading the Seminoles to two NCAA Tournament appearances, winning three individual tournament titles and finishing second in two others.

Raynor spent the next four years after graduation as a professional golfer, which included one season on the Nike Tour. He won three mini-tour events on the Tommy Armour Tour in Orlando before reinstating his amateur status in 2001. The Gulf Breeze native now works as a Merrill Lynch Financial Advisor in Atlanta and he and his wife Suzanna have three children Alexander, Avery and Asher.

SUE HALL

Coaches and Administration

Sue Hall spent 21 years of her life at the right hand of college football's greatest coach. Much of her time was spent handling Coach's dizzying travel and speaking schedules along with answering countless phone calls, emails and nearly 250 letters a day at times. But she also served as a surrogate mother to the players and even a foster parent to several.

Not only is Sue a founding member of the Extra Point Club, but she also established the Garnet and Gold Girls and served as the director of the recruiting group for 10 years. She was also instrumental in starting traditions at senior day and parents' weekend that continue to be a part of the Seminole football program today.

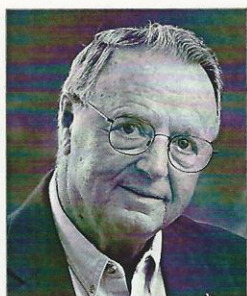

Sue and her husband Charles still live in Tallahassee and have been married for over 50 years.

BOBBY BOWDEN

Coaches and Administration

Bobby Bowden and Florida State football are so closely associated that they are nearly synonymous. Over the course of his legendary 34 year career, he led the Seminoles to two national championships and the most successful run in the history of college football.

Bowden's 1993 team gave FSU its first national title after coming close several times over the previous 12 years. His 1999 team was ranked #1 from start to finish in the Associated Press poll.

Coach Bowden set hundreds of records during his FSU career, but perhaps most outstanding was his unmatched mark for consistent success and his remarkable record in bowl games. FSU finished no lower than fifth in the AP polls for a record 14 consecutive years (1987-2000) and never posted fewer than 10 wins over that time. He took Florida State to 28 consecutive bowl games (31 overall) and won more bowl games (22) than any coach in history.

The list of accomplishments compiled by Coach Bowden is even more impressive when considering the fact that he took over an FSU program in 1976 that had won just four games over the previous three seasons. In fact, ESPN.com declared after a lengthy study in 2012, that Bowden was more important to his school than any other coach in college football history.

Coach Bowden is major college football's all-time winningest coach with a 389-129-4 record and was 316-97-4 at FSU. He coached two Heisman Trophy winners, 12 other major award winners, 26 consensus All-Americans, a Rhodes Scholar and many of the greatest players in the history of both college and NFL football. Florida State joined the ACC in 1992 and Coach Bowden went on to win 12 conference championships.

Coach Bowden was awarded the Gold Medal by the College Football Hall of Fame, was a six-time national coach of the year and the national Fellowship of Christian Athletes Trophy for Citizenship was named in his honor.
