HALL of FAME ~ 2017

On behalf of the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame and Recognition Committee, welcome to our annual induction of "the best of the best" in intercollegiate athletics.

We are very fortunate to enjoy an athletics program which reflects the integrity achieved by an academic institution with over 150 years of success.

Tonight we welcome seven outstanding new members to our Hall of Fame. It is always a thrill to see so many of our earlier inductees return to honor those who continue the tradition of Seminole excellence.

We would like to thank our Athletic Director Stan Wilcox and his staff, our Varsity Club, and the Seminole Boosters. They all work to provide the support and resources which give our student athletes the best opportunities to succeed for the Garnet and Gold.

We hope you enjoy this Hall of Fame Weekend. It's a wonderful part of the year-long celebration that is Seminole athletics!

Sincerely,

FSU Athletics Hall of Fame and Recognition Committee

RAFEEQ CURRY
M. Track & Field (2003-2006)

Rafeeq Curry signed with Florida State as the nation's No. 1 triple jumper out of ACE Academy in Miami, Fla. His prep credentials would prove accurate as he eventually became one of the finest athletes in the history of Florida State track & field.

Curry was a star from the start of his freshman season and finished his rookie season as the ACC Freshman of the Year (indoors) after winning the triple jump and also starred on sprint relays events. He won the triple jump at the NCAA East Regional and competed at the NCAA Outdoor championships in both the triple jump and on the 4x400 relay.

His career exploded from that point forward and Curry's achievements are truly remarkable. He was a four-year NCAA All-American and set both the indoor (64-5.5/16.60m) and outdoor (54-9.5/16.70m) school records in the triple jump, which still stand today. He won the 2006 NCAA Outdoor Championship in the triple jump and was a nine-time All-American, including once in the long jump. He was a six-time ACC Triple Jump champion (2003-06 indoor and 2005-06 outdoor), the 2006 outdoor long jump champion and a three-time ACC 4x400 relay champion.

Curry represented the United States in the 2008 Olympic Games.

WILLIAM FLOYD
Football (1991-1993)

William Floyd is one of the legendary figures of Florida State football and one of the finest leaders in the history of the program.

Floyd starred at Lakewood High in St. Petersburg, Fla. where SuperPrep magazine listed him as the nation's No. 2 fullback prospect.

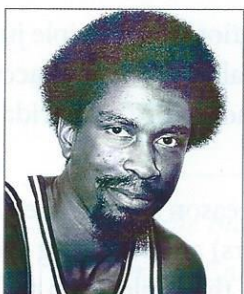

He signed with the Seminoles prior to the 1990 season and redshirted his true freshman season. William saw his first action in 1991 when he backed up NFL star and FSU Hall of Famer Edgar Bennett, but still played in every game. He had several huge plays as a rookie including scoring on a fake field goal in the historic win at Michigan.

Floyd emerged as the vocal leader of the Seminoles as a sophomore in 1992 when he led the team in touchdowns with 10. He rushed for 222 yards that year and ranked second on the team in scoring. But was even more valuable as a blocker.

One of the leaders and anchors of FSU's first national title team in 1993, Floyd was nearly impossible to stop on short yardage as a junior. He totaled 321 yards on 63 carries during the regular season. His fourth quarter touchdown plunge against Nebraska in the national championship game kept the Seminoles in position for the win.

Floyd was drafted in the first round by San Francisco, where he won a Super Bowl ring. He set an NFL record for rookies with three rushing touchdowns in a playoff game (1995), and he played a total of seven seasons in the NFL.

HALL of FAME ~ 2017

GREG GRADY
M. Basketball (1973-76)

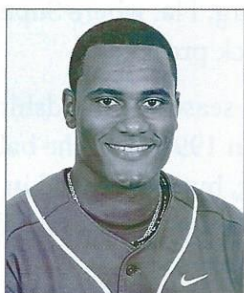

Greg Grady was recruited by Hugh Durham to play basketball for the Seminoles from his hometown of New York City in 1973. He would play on some of the most successful teams in FSU men's basketball history as one of the school's best inside players.

In an era where blocked shots were not a part of the official statistics, Grady was a tremendous defender in the paint recording 13 blocks against Stetson as a freshman in 1973. He was a four-year letter winner for the Seminoles and a three-year starter at center.

Grady's top year statistically was in 1975 when, as a junior, he averaged 13.3 points, 10.3 rebounds and shot 58.1% from the field. He totaled 14 double-doubles in 1975 and nine the previous season.

Following his senior season, Grady's 100 games played was the third most in FSU history, he was the fourth all-time leading rebounder with 793, and his career field goal percentage of 56.4 percent ranked as the third best in the record book.

Grady's era was one of the most consistently successful in FSU history with the Seminoles finishing 18-8 in each of his first three seasons before a 21-6 campaign in 1976.

TONY THOMAS
Baseball (2005-07)

Valrico, Fla., native Tony Thomas played second base for the Seminoles from 2005-07 and his final season was one for the college baseball and FSU records books.

Thomas was named National Player of the Year by Collegiate Baseball and Rivals.com following his junior year (2007) when he led the Seminoles to a 45-13 record (21-6 ACC) and No. 10 final ranking by Collegiate Baseball. He was the ACC Player of the Year, a first team All-ACC selection and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, Dick Howser Trophy and Brooks Wallace Award the same season.

During his career, Thomas became the first Seminole to register 30 doubles, 100 hits and 30 stolen bases in a single season. He finished that junior campaign with 33 doubles, which tied for the second most in a single-season at FSU.

Thomas led the ACC in batting average with a .430 mark while ranking first in six other offensive categories as junior. He also finished among the Top 10 in four other categories on the way to earning consensus All-America honors. Thomas' 14 career triples are still the fourth most in school history.

He was selected in the third round of the MLB draft by the Chicago Cubs.

HALL of FAME ~ 2017

INDIA TROTTER
SOCCER (2003-2006)

India Trotter, who was the first NSCAA First Team All-American in the history of Florida State's soccer program, becomes the second soccer player inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Trotter would earn All-America honors twice (2005, 2006) over her FSU career, and she led FSU to College Cup appearances in 2003, 2005 and 2006, and earned NCAA All-Tournament honors every season at FSU.

The state of Florida Player of the Year in 2005 and 2006, Trotter was the first Seminole ever to be named a M.A.C. Hermann Trophy semi-finalist.

Trotter finished her FSU career as the fifth-leading goal scorer in school history and with the second-most game-winning goals ever recorded by a Seminole. She also held the distinction of having scored more goals, game-winning goals and points than any other FSU player in postseason play at the time of her induction.

She appeared in a then school record 97 career games and her 95 career starts was just one shy of the most in school history when she graduated.

PAT KENNEDY
Coaches & Administration
(1986-1997)

Pat Kennedy took over as head coach of the Men's Basketball program prior to the 1986 season when the Seminoles were still competing as members of the Metro Conference. Not only did he lead FSU to the top of the Metro before he left but he captained the program through the transition into the ACC, and returned Seminole basketball to national prominence.

Kennedy won both a Metro Conference regular season title and the tournament championship (1991) before taking on the ACC schedule beginning with the 1991-92 season. He was the NABC District Coach of the Year at Iona in 1984 and the MAAC Coach of the Year in 1985. He was named ACC Coach of the Year in 1992.

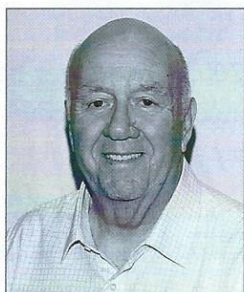

Kennedy led the Seminole to five NCAA Tournament berths and two NIT appearances in his 11 years at FSU. The Seminoles advanced to the Elite Eight of the 1993 NCAA Tournament, which was the second-best season in FSU history.

Florida State went 202-131 under Kennedy, posting a .607 winning percentage. In his first season coaching in the ACC, Kennedy set a then-record for road wins (6) and total ACC wins (11) by a first-year coach.

Kennedy's teams featured high-flying offense with some of the best players in FSU history. His 1992-93 team included four NBA first round draft picks (Charlie Ward, Bob Sura, Sam Cassell and Doug Edwards). Seven of Kennedy's 11 FSU teams recorded 19 or more wins and he reached the 20-win plateau five times.

Kennedy, who came to FSU after succeeding Jim Valvano at Iona, went on to coach DePaul, Montana, Towson and Pace.

LARRY STROM

MOORE-STONE AWARD WINNER

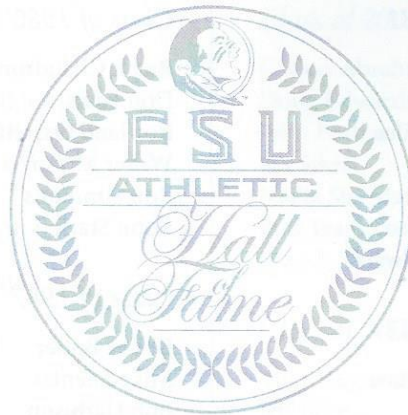

From his playing days as a Seminole Basketball star more than fifty years ago to his status today as a Micco contributor, ambassador, board member, volunteer, campaign chairman and more, Larry Strom will always be a model for every loyal and passionate Seminole supporter to aspire.

Strom has been a major contributor to both capital and annual Seminole Booster campaigns for the entire life of the modern organization. However, even more impressive, and even more important, have been his quiet contributions of personal energy and talent in support of Seminole Boosters behind the scenes. Strom was an architect of the Seminole Booster Club structure and later served as a founder of the Dynasty Campaign, the first major capital campaign for athletics, and he has made a leadership difference each subsequent campaign.

Strom served as volunteer assistant to football recruiting coordinator Gene McDowell in the mid-1980s and helped develop a modern, competitive recruiting infrastructure. More recently he served as chairman of the Seminole Boosters Winning Edge Campaign in 2012, helping to raise $15 million for what became the Al Dunlap Athletics Training Facility, while making the lead gift of $1 million. Whenever Florida State has needed support for its Athletics program, he has answered the call.

Strom became a very successful automobile dealer, selling tens of thousands of vehicles over the years. In achieving this success, he and wife Hilda have always made Florida State a priority. Their steadfast giving of time, leadership and financial contributions have made them monumental University supporters.
