FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

Now engaged in its 110th year of service to the citizens of Florida and the nation, Florida State University is a coeducational, public institution of higher learning with a 1966 fall enrollment of more than 14,000 students, and a projected enrollment of 25,000 students by 1975.

As one of the state's two senior universities in a rapidly expanding system of higher education, Florida State University plays a significant role at both the graduate and undergraduate levels of teaching, research and service to the state.

Located in the state's capital city of Tallahassee, Florida State's main campus comprises 332 highly-populated acres of land. Founded in 1875 as the Seminary West of the Suwannee, the institution marked its 109th birthday in February, 1966. Its evolution to full, coeducational university status in 1947 was marked by steady growth and strength — through several stages of development as a liberal arts college for women and/or men, as history dictated.

The University's academic divisions currently include the Graduate School (in which more than 2,200 students are currently enrolled), nine undergraduate schools and colleges, and professional College of Law which opened in September of 1966. The undergraduate divisions include the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Education, School of Music, School of Home Economics, the Library School, School of Social Welfare, School of Business, School of Nursing and the School of Engineering Science. The Graduate School administers eight major research facilities and institutes of graduate research and faculty research programs. These facilities include the Institute of Government Research, Institute of Human Development, Institute of Human Learning, Institute of Social Research, Institute of Molecular Biophysics, the Oceanographic Institute, a Computing Center and a Nuclear Research Program.

Currently under construction on the northwest corner of the campus is a rapidly expanding network of modern facilities for space-age research known as the University's Science Center. This center will have 22 classroom and laboratory buildings when completed under the 10 year plan which spans the current 1965-75 decade and projects some 55 major additions or improvements to the physical plant of the campus.

DR. JOHN E. CHAMPION

Dr. John E. Champion is the fourth distinguished educator to serve as full-time president of the Florida State University since it became coeducational and achieved university status in 1947. The youngest of 10 chief executives in the University's 110-year history, he has served as President since June 22, 1965.

Born on May 11, 1922, in Chipley, Ga., (now called Pine Mountain) the 44-year-old business educator began his professional career in college teaching at the University of Georgia's College of Business Administration, his alma mater. From 1948 to 1956 he taught accounting there, leaving with the rank of associate professor to join the faculty at Florida State.

Dr. Champion's 10-year affiliation with Florida State has included service as professor of accounting, assistant dean of the School of Business and three years as vice president for administration — from August, 1962, until his appointment as acting president of the University, in 1965. As vice president, he supervised a $26 million building program — the largest in the history of the University.

He and Dr. Homer A. Black, a fellow professor of accounting at FSU, are authors of a textbook, Accounting in Business Decision, published by Prentice-Hall in 1961. This book, being revised this year, is widely used in colleges and universities.

The President holds the Ph.D in business administration from the University of Michigan, and the B.S. and M.S. degrees from the University of Georgia, which designated him, this year, as a "Distinguished Alumnus" of its College of Business Administration.

Dr. Champion was married on June 4, 1955, to Mary Lanier of West Point, Ga., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cam B. Lanier and a kinswoman of the famous 19th Century poet, Sidney Lanier. She is a graduate of Auburn University. The Champions have two children, Sally Lanier, 9, and John E. Jr., 7.

Following graduation from the University of Georgia he entered the Army and during World War II served both in the infantry and as a quartermaster officer in the South Pacific. He was discharged as a captain in 1946.

Dr. Champion is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Beta Gamma Sigma, Omicron Delta Kappa, Gold Key, Alpha Phi Omega, Beta Alpha Psi, Delta Sigma Pi, American Accounting Association and the American Institute of Accountants. He was named an honorary member of the FSU Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi in February, 1966 — thus becoming one of only two honorary members in the 40-year history of the chapter.

J. K. (BUD) KENNEDY (1907-1966)

Florida State Basketball Coach J. K. (Bud) Kennedy died of cancer June 24, 1966. With his passing an era ended, and a legend began.

Kennedy, 59, coached at Florida State for 18 years. His teams compiled a record of 234 victories and 208 defeats.

He appeared on the Florida State athletic scene shortly after the school became coeducational in 1947. As a coach he quickly advanced the Seminoles into the top echelon of small-college basketball, and soon had his teams playing on even terms with a major schedule.

His birthplace was Lawrence, Kansas, and in the year of his birth, his father, A. R. (Bert) Kennedy, coached the University of Kansas football team to its only undefeated season. Bud was an athlete at Kansas, Baker and Kansas State Teachers College.

He had a basketball background that few could match. While at Kansas he became a personal friend of Dr. James A. Naismith, the game's founder who was a physical education instructor there at the time. He gained wide experience in teaching and coaching in the Midwest and during a three-year Navy hitch during WWII before coming to Florida State as athletic business manager and assistant basketball coach in January of 1948. He became head coach the following season.

By 1954-55 Kennedy fielded a team that had a 22-4 record. In 1956-57 he attacked Florida State's first big-time schedule, moved into Tully Gym, and first met rival Florida.

However vital and illuminating statistics may be, the essence of a Bud Kennedy is found in the relationships he formed and the friends he made.

He was a coach by strict definition, one of whom it can honestly be said: He cared more for his players than he did for points on the scoreboard. He demanded hard work and loyalty, and returned an equal measure of both.

His players were real to him, and he adopted a paternal attitude towards his boys which transcended their college careers. Each year his former players received a thick packet of mimeographed material which contained information—names, addresses, career and family notices on every basket-ball player and student manager who had ever served under Kennedy at Florida State.

The door to his home was open at all hours to friends, coaches and players, and many a game was previewed and reviewed on his coffee table.

On the court he was a competitor, and no one relished the uplift of victory or felt the despair of defeat more sharply. He battled with every tool at his command, and several officials will remember the sting of Kennedy's tongue, and the vigorous shake of his white thatched head. However, he never carried the game off the floor, and Seminole opponents could always expect praise regardless of the score.

Bud Kennedy was Florida State basketball's best promotor, its greatest ambassador. His vision, for which he worked tirelessly, was of a great coliseum for the Seminoles. Although he won't see it, it will surely be built one day, and his efforts in its behalf will be remembered.

VAUGHN MANCHA

Vaughn Mancha is in his seventh year as Director of Florida State's broad Intercollegiate Athletic Program. Since his appointment in 1959 to this important responsibility the athletic program has grown and prospered to the point of bringing Florida State's athletics to National prominence.

In his time the scholarship program, the sports schedule, as well as the facilities have been greatly improved.

One of Mancha's chief concerns has been improvement of staff, program and facilities. In his tenure Campbell Stadium has grown from 15,000 to 42,000 capacity with a modern press box; an athletic field house and the latest project, furnishing Florida State with the installation of a modern lighted baseball field which is to be completed this spring. Future attention is being given to a large coliseum for basketball.

In his short tenure one of his chief goals was the upgrading of the scholarship program to match the other institutions in the country, as well as build a sports schedule with the best competition possible in the Southeast.

Mancha's ultimate goal is to provide the University Students, Alumni and Supporters with the strongest over-all athletic program in the country.

Mancha graduated from the University of Alabama in 1948 where he received All-America football honors and played on three Crimson Tide Bowl teams.

He first came to Florida State in 1952, and served as an assistant football coach for five years. After two years at Columbia University where he worked on his doctorate, and was an assistant coach, Mancha returned to Florida State as Athletic Director.

Married to the former Sybil Little, of Birmingham, Alabama, Mancha is the father of three children, Clare, 17, Nan, 14, and Dit, 7.

HUGH DURHAM

One of the most versatile and vigorous athletes ever to enroll at Florida State, Hugh Durham was an "automatic choice" to become the third head basketball coach in school history.

This is the Seminoles' 20th season of basketball, and Durham has been energetically associated with more than half of Florida State's basketball history.

The Seminoles inaugurated the sport in 1947 under Don Loucks. In 1948 Bud Kennedy became the head coach and guided Florida State through the great obstacles of its basketball youth to a position of high respect and competence before his death last year.

During much of this time Durham was the man Coach Kennedy most relied upon in the forward fight. He became freshman coach at the start of the 1960 season, posting a 9-1 record that still stands as FSU's top one-year freshman mark. In 1961 he was named Kennedy's full-time assistant coach, and continued in that position until he became head coach.

Considered the finest guard in Florida State history, Durham came to the school as a freshman out of Eastern High in Louisville, Ky., in 1955. During three varsity seasons he scored 1,381 points, with two 500-plus seasons, and received All-America mention.

Though basketball is firmly his game — one that he has frequently discussed with many of the nation's great coaches until the wee hours—Durham has a lively interest in many sports and many things.

He earned 14 letters in high school at Louisville—four each in basketball and baseball, three each in football and track. An outstanding halfback, he turned down college scholarship offers from several schools to accept Kennedy's offer to play basketball at Florida State.

During his student days here, Durham made Gold Key, the Dean's List and was named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. While an assistant coach in basketball, Durham doubled for four years as head golf coach of the Seminoles, with his teams notching an outstanding record of 48-6 during that span. He found time, too, to become city badminton champion. He started playing golf himself five years ago, now shoots consistently in the 70's.

The 29-year-old Durham is married to the former Malinda Dixon of Jacksonville. They have two sons, David, 6, and Doug, 2.

Durham's coaching quest is for basketball of high excellence at Florida State, and those who have observed his intense progress rate him one of the most knowledgeable, hardest working men in the game.

BILL CLENDINEN, ASSISTANT COACH

Bill Clendinen, 28, holds BS and MA degrees from Florida State and has an outstanding coaching record in Florida high school and junior college ranks.

Clendinen, a native of Evansville, Ind., graduated from Fort Lauderdale High. He received his BS degree in education from Florida State in 1959 and his MA in 1961.

His first coaching job was at Clewiston High where he was named "coach of the year" in the Suncoast Conference after his only season there.

He then moved to Pensacola Junior College where he produced four winning teams, including one state championship club. He was named Florida's JC "coach of the year" in 1963.

He was at Jacksonville University as assistant basketball coach and assistant professor of physical education for one year.

"I have always realized the potential of Florida State University and wanted to have a part in building a dynamic basketball program," said Clendinen.

Head Coach Hugh Durham is highly complimentary of his assistant. "Bill is one of the most thoroughly organized and hardest working young coaches in the field. His knowledge of the game and ability to recruit will be of invaluable assistance in our total program."

While a student at Florida State, Clendinen was president of his freshman and sophomore classes and was elected to Omicron Delta Kappa, Gold Key and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Clendinen is married to the former Carlyn Donath, a former Seminole cheerleader. They have a son, Billy, 5.

DENNIS CLIFFORD, FRESHMAN COACH

Dennis Clifford, a graduate assistant, comes to Florida State after lettering three years at the University of Louisville.

Clifford, 24 and single, will coach the Seminole freshman while working on a Master's Degree in education.

PHILOSOPHY OF FSU BASKETBALL PROGRAM by Hugh Durham, Head Basketball Coach

"In all areas of endeavor, strive to reach the ultimate of your abilities." This, in essence is the philosophy of the basketball program at Florida State University.

Although our players are individuals and each has his own interests and goals, there are four areas, academic, athletic, social, and moral, in which all our young men should strive for excellence. And, not only are we interested in outstanding individual achievement, but we are dedicated to excellence in our total basketball program.

What contribution will our basketball program have made to each player upon his graduation? At Florida State, we feel athletic letters and school records are not enough. Pride, self-discipline, perserverance, and loyalty are not letters to be forgotten or records to be broken. We feel it is important that our young men develop these qualities, and using them as a foundation, they will be prepared to strive successfully for excellence in their chosen fields. This carry-over value is an integral part of our basketball program at Florida State University.

As interested as we are in the individual, we are dedicated to the development of a winning basketball team. Winning is important—our society dictates this. As coach, I have established three goals for our basketball team. They are for Florida State to be represented in one of the national tournaments, for Florida State to be listed consistently in the top ten, and for Florida State to win the National Championship.

Florida State University is recognized nationally for excellence in the fields of accounting, chemistry, marine biology, mathematics, music and physics. In recent months, new academic programs at Florida State have been acclaimed in four national magazines and Dr. Mulliken, of our Chemistry and Physics Department, was awarded the Nobel Prize in November.

Academically, Florida State has earned national prominence, and at our university, academics come first. Now it is time for our basketball program to obtain the same prominence. To do this, our men must learn to compete, meet the challenge, and pay the price to be a winner. I believe it can be done.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

Florida State University is exceptionally proud of the academic success of the members of its basketball team. The team grade average is better than a 2.5, which is higher than the overall men's average at Florida State.

Bill Glenn and Ian Morrison lead the team, with better than 3.5 grade averages, academically. Glenn is a member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and is President of ODK. Brian Murphy, the team captain, is also a member of ODK.

The Academic program for athletes at Florida State University is somewhat unique because it has a full-time academic counselor. His main responsibility is to see that the athletes are making adequate progress toward their degree. He also helps in planning their majors as well as in the selection of courses.

The Athletic Department requires that all full scholarship athletes spend at least five nights a week studying during their freshman year. All necessary study aids are provided and tutors are available when needed. Textbooks are furnished at all times, and many students check them out over the summer holidays as well. No stone is left unturned in seeing to it that a Florida State University athlete gets a quality education.

THE 1966-67 OUTLOOK

This is definitely a rebuilding year at Florida State since there is only one senior on the squad.

Coach Hugh Durham, who took over the head job following Bud Kennedy's death, isn't kidding himself—or any Seminole fans. "We know we have a long, long way to go because of our inexperience," said the former Florida State star.

"Just how much we progress during the season will determine our record. I don't expect too much out of our kids until mid-season at least. We have a number of boys who have never played together and it will take some time until they learn our system."

The Seminoles have seven lettermen returning, but only one starter in guard Darrel Stewart. The 6-1 junior from Seelyville, Ind., is the squad's top defensive performer.

Florida State will play a deliberate type game because of its lack of speed. There will be times when the Seminoles will run, but these won't come often.

Two transfers have excellent chances of gaining starting spots. Ian Morrison, a former high school All-America from St. Petersburg, apparently will join Stewart in the backcourt. Morrison played his sophomore year at North Carolina before switching to Florida State and sitting out a season.

Lenny Hall comes to Florida State from St. Petersburg Junior College following an outstanding season. The 6-3 Camden, N.J., native has fine rebounding ability for his size and is counted on for some scoring. Hall is the first Negro basketballer to perform on the Seminole varsity.

Dick Danford, 6-8 junior from Clearwater, has the inside track for the pivot spot. The big center has added 20 pounds—he's up to 220—since his sophomore year and this extra weight hopefully will be thrown around on the backboards.

His top competition comes from another junior, 6-8, 245-pound Ken Doyle.

Hall's front court playmate is expected to be Bill Glenn, 6-4, 190-pound junior from Tallahassee, who is an outstanding shot.

The squad's lone senior, Brian Murphy, figures as the squad's sixth man while sophomore Jeff Hogan (6-0, 165 pounds) could make a run for one of the backcourt spots.

"Defense has to be our byword this season," says Coach Durham. "We can't stand many mistakes. We'll try to control the ball and make sure we only take good shots. We plan to use the shuffle offense but hopefully we'll get our shots off a little sooner than in previous seasons."

BRIAN MURPHY

Senior Guard

Height: 5-10 Weight: 170

Age: 21 (3-5-45)

Hometown: Pompano Beach

High School: Palm Beach

Coach: Joe Cerauolo

Major: Marketing

High School Honors: Athlete of week; MVP Christmas Tourney

... is the lone senior on this year's Seminole basketball team. Murphy's strong point is his defensive ability, and even though he has never been a regular starter for the Tribe, he has been one of the team's most dependable performers. When he is on the floor the 5-10 Pompano Beach native can be counted on to give 100%. Although he will probably be the Seminoles' No. 1 back-up man again this year, his aggressiveness and leadership abilities made him the team's unanimous choice for captain.

DARREL STEWART

Junior Guard

Height: 6-1 Weight: 175

Age: 20 (6-19-46)

Hometown: Seelyville, Ind.

High School: Gerstmeyer

Coach: Howard Sharp

Major: Math Ed.

High School Honors: MVP '63, '64, Outstanding

Player

... is the lone 1965-66 starter who returns to the Seminole fold this season. The junior guard was the team's leading defensive ball player last season and had the job of containing the opposition's most potent offensive guard — a role he is likely to reassume this year. Coach Hugh Durham describes Stewart as "a coach's ball player" who gives 100% every game. A great competitor, Stewart is quick to analyze a situation and take the challenge. In addition to his ability on the basketball court, he is in the running for the starting catcher's spot on the Seminole baseball team.

LENNY HALL

Junior Forward

Height: 6-3 Weight: 190

Age: 23 (7-10-43)

Hometown: Camden, N. J.

High School: Camden

Coach: Tony Alfrono

Major: Phys. Ed.

High School Honors: All-City, Conference, Y, State

and Tourney

... a Junior College All-America last year at St. Petersburg J.C., is the first Negro athlete to perform in varsity competition at Florida State. An excellent team player, Hall fits into the Seminole pattern of play extremely well. He is an above average shooter, but is more concerned with winning than personal point achievement and will pass off frequently. A strong jumper with big sure hands, Hall is expected to play a big role under the boards for the Seminoles this season also.

IAN MORRISON

Junior Forward

Height: 6-1 Weight: 175

Age: 21 (8-6-45)

Hometown: St. Petersburg

High School: St. Petersburg

Coach: Gene Jenkins

Major: Crim. & Corr.

High School Honors: High

School All-America

... comes to Florida State after playing one season of varsity ball with North Carolina. A red shirt last year under NCAA regulations, Morrison is expected to be a strong addition to the Seminoles this year. An outstanding shooter, he can pick a zone defense apart with deadly accuracy from 30 feet or more. Morrison has a keen desire and dedication to excel, and spent the entire summer improving his play. His quickness and competitive spirit should make him an outstanding defensive player as well.

BILL GLENN

Junior Forward

Height: 6-4 Weight: 190

Age: 21 (2-25-45)

Hometown: Tallahassee

High School: Leon

Coach: Claude Stoutamire

Major: English

High School Honors: MVP, Cpt., All-Star team and conference.

pected to win the starting forward spot opposite Lenny Hall. The Tallahassee native was slowed by an ankle injury early last season, but came on strong through the latter part of the season and should be ready to make a big contribution this year. A dedicated ball player, Glenn passed up an opportunity to study in Florence, Italy, this year in order to play basketball. An excellent shooter, he is one of the best basketball players to come from Florida's "Big Bend" area. He is also president of Florida State's chapter of Omicron Delta Kappa, a national leadership honorary fraternity. Glenn was recently named a candidate for a Rhodes Scholarship.

DICK DANFORD

Junior

Center

Height: 6-8

Weight: 220

Age: 21 (11-1-45)

Hometown: Clearwater

High School: Clearwater

Coach: Jim Karr

Major: Ind. Arts Edu.

High School Honors: All-State and Conference,

Outstanding Athlete

... faces one of the Seminoles' toughest jobs, taking over for Gary Schull who left via graduation. Danford has an unusually soft touch for a big man, and can be counted onto score from anywhere within 20 feet. His big contribution, however, will be as a rebounder. His ability on the boards could be the key to Seminoles' success this season. He worked hard over the summer and added 25 pounds to his lanky 6-8 frame. If his hard work and dedication carry over he should have a good season.

JEFF HOGAN

Sophomore Guard Height: 6-0 Weight: 165

Age: 19 (8-18-47)

Hometown: Akron, Ohio

High School: Ellet

Coach: Gene Vinciguerra

Major: Business

High School Honors: All-

Metro, All District

... joins the Seminole varsity after leading the freshmen in scoring last year. Hogan was drawn to Florida State by the strong basketball-baseball program here and should be a leading contender for the Seminole shortstop position in the spring. An excellent outside shooter Hogan will see a lot of action against zone defenses. He must improve his defensive play before becoming a regular, however.

KEN DOYLE

Junior Center

Height: 6-8 Weight: 245

Age: 22 (11-14-44)

Hometown: Tampa

High School: Plant

Coach: Fred Lapper

Major: Business

High School Honors: All-State, South, Conference,

America

District, City & All-

... is the "other" big man on the Seminoles' roster. Doyle is expected to fill a big reserve role behind Dick Danford. He has the necessary size and strength to make him a strong rebounder, but needs to improve his defensive ability. A strong competitor Doyle showed a desire to give Danford a run for the center position when he reported in top physical condition. Should improve rapidly with experience.

DAVE ROSS

Sophomore Forward

Height: 6-4 Weight: 180

Age: 21 (9-20-45)

Hometown: Erie, Pa.

High School: Lawrence Park

Coach: Tom Barringer

Major: Education

High School Honors: All-State & Conference, MVP & Player of the Week

. . . is one of the biggest question marks on the team this season. A strong jumper and with the quickness to play college ball, Ross has yet to reach his potential. He will be used a lot on the press to take advantage of his speed and quickness. Must improve to give needed depth at forward.

RUSS FORKEY

Sophomore Forward

Height: 6-3 Weight: 180

Age: 19 (1-16-47)

Hometown: Spencer, Mass.

High School: David Prouty

Coach: Dan Gearin Major: Government

High School Honors: All-

Western Mass.

... moves up to the varsity after a year on the red shirt team. He is a smart ball player, but so far lacks speed and jumping ability. A good shooter, he will be counted on to add depth at forward.

FRESHMAN PROFILES

LARRY MOORE

Freshman

Height: 6-2 Weight: 190 Hometown: South Bend, Indiana

High School (Coach): John Adams (Warren

Seaborg)

...one of the finest prospects Florida State has had...experienced...played on AAU All-Service championship team...great quickness...fine ball handler and variety of shots...led service team in scoring with a 27.8 point average.

RANDY CABLE

Freshman

Height: 6-0 Weight: 160 Hometown: Massillon, Ohio

High School (Coach): Jackson Memorial (Rich

Thomas)

...one of Ohio's top prospects...selected Florida State over many of the country's top basketball schools...deadly shooter from outside and drives well enough to keep defense honest...he'll probably "quarterback" this year's frosh club.

DAVE COWENS

Freshman

Height: 6-7 Weight: 200 Hometown: Newport, Kentucky

High School (Coach): Newport (James Connor)

...tremendous desire plus outstanding ability on defense...he should be one of the South's best when experience catches up with ability...pulled down 567 rebounds in senior year. Team lost only two games in Cowens' final season.

JAN GIES

Freshman

Height: 6-5 Weight: 190

Hometown: Deerfield Beach, Florida

High School (Coach): Pompano Beach (Tucker

Morris)

...came highly recommended ... unusual shot, but hits with regularity...his prep team was fast break club. . . has potential. . . should be a good one. Came from same high school as Gary Schull . . . broke many of Schull's records.

CARL REYNOLDS

Freshman

Height: 6-2 Weight: 175 Hometown: Fairborn, Ohio

High School (Coach): Fairborn (Jack Gayheart)

. . . should do well making adjustment from forward to guard. . . has good speed and outside shot...sound fundamental basketball player...was All-Dayton selection.

BOB DePATHY

Freshman

Height: 6-2 Weight: 175 Hometown: West Palm Beach

High School (Coach): Chaminade (Andy

Tonkovitch)

...averaged 31 points per game in high school and has ability to be a high scorer in college...has ability to drive as well as shoot from outside . . . was Catholic All-America.

DAVE MACOMBER

Freshman

Height: 6-8 Weight: 190

Hometown: Port St. Joe

High School (Coach): Port St. Joe (Bobby Brown)

...very good shooter for big man...needs experience to blend with desire. . . must put on weight to go with height.

VALDOSTA STATE

Dec. 1, 1966 Tallahassee Tully Gym (5,000) 8:00 p.m.

Nickname: Rebels Conference: Georgia Intercollegiate

Location: Valdosta, Georgia Athletic

Athletic Director: Gary Colson Series: 6-0, Florida State Coach: Gary Colson, 8 years, 137-54 1965-66 Record: 25-5

Enrollment: 2,000 Lettermen Returning: Five

OUTLOOK: Valdosta State lost the services of Bobby Ritch (All-America), Letson Plant (All-Conference), Ray McCully (All-Conference), Tom Johnson and Paul Weitman. With the loss of these five athletes VSC will definitely be at a handicap but will hope to overcome this with red shirts and with some of last year's holdovers.

RICE

Dec. 5, 1966 Tallahassee Tully Gym (5,000) 8:00 p.m.

Nickname: Owls Conference: Southwest Location: Houston, Texas Series: 2-1, Florida State Athletic Director: Jess C. Neely 1965-66 Record: 1-22 Coach: Don Knodel, first year Lettermen Returning: Five

Enrollment: 2,488

OUTLOOK: Don Knodel takes over the reins of the Owls following the resignation of George Carlisle in March and faces a big rebuilding job. Eight veterans including five lettermen return from last year's team, but with a "new regime" the Owls will remain a "mystery" team through their early games. The veterans are led by 6-6 senior Bill Doty, who averaged 13.8 points last year. 6-7 Jim Hubenak, who averaged nearly 20 points a game as a freshman, could be a valuable starter.

FLORIDA

Dec. 7, 1966 Gainesville Florida Gym (6,920) 7:30 p.m.

Feb. 22, 1967 Tallahassee Tully Gym (5,000) 8:00 p.m.

Nickname: Gators Location: Gainesville Athletic Director: Ray Graves Basketball Coach: Tommy Bartlett, first year

Enrollment: 16,890 Conference: Southeastern Series: 14-4, Florida 1965-66 Record: 16-10 Lettermen Returning: Eight

OUTLOOK: Although they are led by a new coach, the Florida Gators are looking forward to the 1966-67 season with much anticipation. Tommy Bartlett inherits a team loaded with experienced personnel at every position. With veterans Gary Keller (6-9), and Jeff Ramsey (6-11) on the floor along with sophomore Neal Walk (6-11), Florida will boast one of the nation's tallest teams. Captain Skip Higley is the team's floor leader at guard, and is rated one of the best little men (6-0) in the South.

KANSAS STATE

Dec. 9, 1966 Lawrence, Kansas Allen Fieldhouse (17,000) 7:30 p.m., CST

Nickname: Wildcats Location: Manhattan, Kansas Athletic Director: Bebe Lee

Basketball Coach: Tex Winter, 13 yrs.,

226-100

Enrollment: 11,000 Conference: Big Eight Series: First meeting 1965-66 Record: 14-11 Lettermen Returning: Seven

OUTLOOK: Seven lettermen are back, all of them starters under Coach Tex Winter's "try everybody" system—and among them are four of the top five scorers of last season. But it was a low scoring year for Wildcat individuals, and only Nick Pino (7-1) hit double figures (10.9). Two JC transfers and a pair of players from last year's "red shirts" should add the speed and quickness that was missing from the Wildcats last season.

KANSAS

Dec. 10, 1966 Manhattan, Kansas Ahearn Fieldhouse (12,500) 7:05 p.m., CST

Nickname: Jayhawkers Location: Lawrence, Kansas Athletic Director: Wade R. Stinson Basketball Coach: Ted Owens, 2 years, 40-12 Enrollment: 15,000 Conference: Big Eight Series: First meeting 1965-66 Record: 23-4 Lettermen Returning: Five OUTLOOK: Last March Kansas lost an 81-80 double overtime verdict to eventual national champion Texas Western in the Western Regional Finals. Although the three top scorers are gone from that Jayhawker club, Kansas expects to have another Big Eight Conference champion contender. Ted Owens, who is in his third year as Jayhawker coach, has four top veterans back this season, including Ron Franz (6-7) and Jo-Jo White, who averaged better than 20 points a game between them.

AUBURN

Dec. 27, 1966 Mobile, Alabama Mobile Municipal Auditorium 8:30 p.m., CST

Nickname: Tigers Location: Auburn, Alabama Athletic Director: Jeff Beard Basketball Coach: Bill Lynn, 4 years, 48-33

Enrollment: 12,600 Conference: Southeastern Series: 13-3, Auburn 1965-66 Record: 16-10 Lettermen Returning: Six

OUTLOOK: The Tigers should sport a more balanced attack this season and an improved defense. Sophomores Larry Cantrell, David Hurt and Rex Etheredge should provide Auburn with strength on the boards. The guard play should be as good as any in the SEC but the front line will be inexperienced.

ALABAMA

Dec. 28, 1966 Mobile, Alabama Mobile Municipal Auditorium 7:15 p.m., CST

Nickname: Crimson Tide Location: Tuscaloosa, Alabama Athletic Director: Paul W. Bryant Basketball Coach: Hayden Riley, 6 yrs., 81-75 Enrollment: 13,300 Conference: Southeastern Series: 6-4, Florida State 1965-66 Record: 16-10 Lettermen Returning: Five OUTLOOK: Hayden Riley has five lettermen returning and they will form the Crimson Tide's first team. The reserves will all lack experience and Alabama's strength will depend on how fast they come along. A good season this year could mean two in a row for 'Bama. The entire squad will be made up of Sophomores and Juniors.

MIAMI

Jan. 7, 1967 Tallahassee Tully Gym (5,000) 8:00 p.m.

Nickname: Hurricanes Location: Coral Gables Athletic Director: Andy Gustafson Basketball Coach: Bruce Hale, 12 years, 205-101 Mar. 1, 1967 Miami Beach Miami Beach Auditorium (4,000) 8:15 p.m.

Enrollment: 14,500 Conference: Independent Series: 18-15, Miami 1965-66 Record: 15-11 Lettermen Returning: Six OUTLOOK: Miami returns four of the five starters that built a 15-11 record last year and Coach Bruce Hale expects to be tournament-bound at season's end. The Hurricanes have two-year veterans Junior Gee and Rick Jones returning to the guard spots and Mike Wittman and Rusty Parker at forward. Four centers left the Hurricane camp via graduation but Charles Soens, a 6-8 transfer from Villanova, is expected to pick up the slack there.

TULANE

Jan. 14, 1967 New Orleans, La. Tulane Gymnasium (5,000) 8:00 p.m., CST

Nickname: Green Wave Location: New Orleans, La. Athletic Director: Dr. Nix R. Yard Basketball Coach: Ralph Pedersen, 2 years, 12-38 Feb. 11, 1967 Tallahassee Tully Gym (5,000) 8:00 p.m.

Enrollment: 8,000 Conference: Independent Series: First Meeting 1965-66 Record: 9-16 Lettermen Returning: Nine

OUTLOOK: The Green Wave is looking to make a big improvement in its 9-16 record of last year as Tulane returns its six top scorers from 1965 and a crop of talented sophomores who failed to lose a single ball game in 19 outings last season. The Greenies will rely on the sophomores to spark their running game through a tough schedule.

MEMPHIS STATE

Jan. 16, 1967 Memphis, Tennessee Mid-South Coliseum (12,500) 8:00 p.m. CST

Nickname: Tigers

Location: Memphis, Tennessee Athletic Director: Billy Murphy Basketball Coach: Henry (Moe) Iba, first year

Feb. 4, 1967 Tallahassee Tully Gym (5,000) 8:00 p.m.

Enrollment: 13,500

Conference: Missouri Valley Series: 9-4, Memphis State 1965-66 Record: 10-15 Lettermen Returning: Nine

OUTLOOK: Nine lettermen, including the club's top five scorers, met new coach Henry (Moe) Iba this fall as the Tigers began preparation for the 1966 campaign. Junior Guard Mike Butler was Memphis State's leading scorer last year with a 19.2 average, and will be expected to lead a predominately junior team this year. The Tigers will be young by most standards, but their starters will be experienced.

JACKSONVILLE

Jan. 23, 1967 Tallahassee Tully Gym (5,000) 8:00 p.m.

Nickname: Dolphins Location: Jacksonville

years, 27-22

Feb. 8, 1967 Jacksonville Jacksonville Coliseum (10,000) 8:00 p.m.

Enrollment: 2,700 Conference: Independent Series: 4-1, Florida State 1965-66 Record: 12-11 Lettermen Returning: Four OUTLOOK: Florida State graduate Joe Williams will have four of his five starters returning this year at Jacksonville, but the roughest schedule in the school's history faces the Dolphins. Dick Pruett, 6-9 senior center, is the top returnee. Last year Pruett averaged 19.4 points a game and pulled in 10.6 rebounds per contest. He is expected to make a strong bid for national honors. Pruett will be flanked by 6-6 forwards Gene Martineau and Don Lee. Both are seniors. Junior Wayne Kruer returns at the guard spot.

MARSHALL

Jan. 25, 1967 Tallahassee Tully Gym (5,000) 8:00 p.m.

Nickname: Thundering Herd Location: Huntington, West Virginia Athletic Dir.: Neal B. (Whitey) Wilson Basketball Coach: Ellis T. Johnson, 3

years, 22-49

Enrollment: 8,000

Conference: Mid-American Series: 1-0, Marshall 1965-66 Record: 12-12 Lettermen Returning: Eight

OUTLOOK: Marshall returns the neucleus of a squad that has played together the last two years and posted a 12-12 record against a strong schedule last season. The team's top three scorers are among those returning along with 6-9 center Bob Allen. The Thundering Herd should be stronger on the boards and their shooting ability is above average. With an improved defensive game and Allen providing more assistance on the boards, it could be an outstanding year for Marshall.

GEORGIA TECH

Jan. 28, 1967 Tallahassee Tully Gym (5,000) 8:00 p.m.

Nickname: Yellow Jackets Location: Atlanta, Georgia

Athletic Director: R. L. (Bobby) Dodd Basketball Coach: John (Whack) Hyder,

15 years, 198-169

Feb. 25, 1967 Atlanta, Georgia Alexander Memorial Coliseum (6,966) 8:00 p.m.

Enrollment: 7,500 Conference: Independent Series: 4-2, Georgia Tech 1965-66 Record: 13-13 Lettermen Returning: Ten OUTLOOK: The Yellow Jackets are expecting this year's team to be one of the most exciting in Tech history. Coach John (Whack) Hyder will have the "finest group of shooters" Tech has had, but the team will be handicapped by a lack of height. Starters from last year's club who will return are Pres Judy, Phil Wagner and Pete Thorpe. Also back are Dave Clark, Charles Kenny and Stan Guth, who all played big reserve roles for the Jackets.

TAMPA

Jan. 30, 1967 Tallahassee Tully Gym (5,000) 8:00 p.m.

Nickname: Spartans Location: Tampa

Athletic Director: Sam Bailey Basketball Coach: Dana Kirk, first year Feb. 27, 1967 Tampa George B. Howell Field House (2,000)

Enrollment: 2,000

8:00 p.m.

Conference: Florida Intercollegiate

Series: 26-9, Florida State 1965-66 Record: 18-7 Lettermen Returning: Four

OUTLOOK: Tampa returns only one senior to this year's starting five, but the younger players in the Spartans' fold are all talented and show potential. Dana Kirk, who is in his first year as Spartan coach, has two juniors and a sophomore returning from last year's starting five. Several fine freshmen will be in the running for the starting berths also. A rugged December schedule may season the Spartans early and make them tough in the final stretches of the schedule.

FLORIDA SOUTHERN

Feb. 18, 1967 Lakeland George W. Jenkins Field House (4,500) 8:00 p.m.

Nickname: Moccasins Enrollment: 1,525

Location: Lakeland Conference: Florida Intercollegiate

Athletic Director: Thomas H. Greene
Basketball Coach: Tom Greene
Series: 14-8, Florida State
1965-66 Record: 16-9
Lettermen Returning: Eight

OUTLOOK: Eight returning lettermen, led by senior guard Bobby Bowman, give the Moccasins a large group of experienced personnel. Bowman, considered a strong "Little All-America" candidate, is a three-year veteran. He missed last season because of an injury. The team's top two rebounders are gone and it could be a problem this season.

1,000 POINT CLUB

JIMMY OLER (1952-56)

A guard during the Seminoles' final years as a small college team, Jimmy Oler amassed 1,820 points in four varsity seasons. His 762 free throws still stand as a career record. The 743 points he scored in his senior year is also the pacesetter in that category.

Years	FG	FT	Pts.	Games	Aver.
4 (1952-56)	529	762	1820	91	20.0

DAVE FEDOR (1959-62)

Dave Fedor was one of the finest field shooters ever to wear the Garnet and Gold, and his record 20.2 lifetime score average and 72 game-string of double figure games attest to that. A forward from 1959-62, Fedor started every game the Seminoles played during his eligibility. The 16 field goals he made against Miami in 1959 still stand as a Seminole record.

Years	FG	FT	Pts.	Games	Aver.
3 (1959-62)	585	283	1453	72	20.2

HAM WERNKE (1951-55)

Another four-year varsity veteran, Ham Wernke, totaled 508 field goals and 393 free throws during his career. He and Jimmy Oler shared the honor of becoming the Seminoles' first 1,000 Point Clubbers in 1955.

Years	FG	FT	Pts.	Games	Aver.
4 (1951-55)	508	393	1409	73	19.3

HUGH DURHAM (1956-59)

Hugh Durham's 1,381 points rank him fourth among the Seminoles' all-time scorers. A guard from 1956-59, Durham averaged nearly 19 points a game for Florida State. During his sophomore season, Durham hit a record high of 43 points in a single game, a mark he holds jointly with Dave Fedor who equaled that output three years later.

Years	FG	FT	Pts.	Games	Aver.
3 (1956-59)	470	441	1381	73	18.9

GARY SCHULL (1963-66)

One of the finest big men ever to play for Florida State, Gary Schull became the latest member of the 1,000 Point Club with a 1,090 point total in 76 games from 1963-66.

Years	FG	FT	Pts.	Games	Aver.
3 (1963-66)	393	304	1090	76	14.3

RAY SWAIN (1959-62)

Ray Swain almost did not make the 1,000 Point Club. Near the end of his last varsity game, Coach Bud Kennedy took the three-year Seminole center-forward out of the game for a well-earned rest. With a little over a minute to play, Kennedy was informed that Swain lacked only a single field goal of joining the golden circle of Seminole scorers. Kennedy immediately returned Swain to the floor, and as the final seconds of his Florida State career ticked away, Swain made the all-important shot.

Years	FG	FT	Pts.	Games	Aver.
3 (1959-62)	403	194	1000	73	13.8
