AUBURN, Ala. - Auburn's Frankie Sullivan scored 24 points to lead the Tigers to a 78-72 win over Florida State at Auburn Arena. Florida State generated a 12-point first-half advantage but Auburn clawed back to within one at 36-35 by halltime. The Tigers then grabbed the lead back less than two minutes into the second half. It was a lead the hosts wouldn't relinquish primarily because of a huge discrepancy in free throw opportunities. The Tigers went to the free-throw line 41 times and made 28 of those attempts while the Seminoles managed just 15 trips to the charity stripe and connected on only seven of them. Michael Snaer led the way offensively for Florida State with 18 points to go along with his 12 rebounds and Terry Whisnant had a strong game with a career-high 16 points on 4-of-8 shooting from 3-point range. Okaro White and Devon Bookert added eight points apiece. The Seminoles started the game 10-of-16 shooting from the field but made just 18 of their next 42 shots over the course of the game. Still, Florida State shot a respectable 48.3 percent from the field compared to Auburn's 34.9 percent. The Tigers' ability to generate offense at the free-throw ultimately proved to be the

Then, after White's free throws had pushed FSU's lead to 68-63, lan Miller nabbed the ensuing inbounds pass and sank 1-of-2 free throws before Clemson's Milton Jennings drilled a 3-pointer with four seconds left to tt FSU's lead back to just three at 69-66. CHAPEL HILL, N.C. -- James Michael McAdoo scored 17 of his 21 points in CHAPEL HILL, N.C. — James Michael McAdoo scored 17 of his 21 points in the first half and sparked the run that gave North Carolina a big lead on the way to beating Florida State 79-58. Reggie Bullock added 20 points and 10 rebounds for the Tar Heels who won their fifth straight game. North Carolina shot 58 percent in the opening half to build a 19-point lead at the break, then never let it slip below double figures. Florida State got some good news with the return of Terrance Shannon. The forward had been out since January when he was carried off the court with a neck injury suffered against Virginia. Coach Leonard Hamilton had said last month that the 6-foot-8 redshift junior could miss the rest of the year, but he returned at the 8:35 mark of the opening half after missing 11 straight games. He finished with three points in 3 minutes.
