WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM GROWS ON AND OFF THE COURT

By Senior Vanessa Fuchs

y first three years as a member of the Florida State women's basketball team has been a blast, and I can't think of a better way to begin my senior season than with a 10-day adventure to Europe. Not only did the trip we took this summer give the team a confident head start for the upcoming season, but it also brought us closer as a group as we toured through the beautiful European cities.

After 10 days of practice in Tallahassee, we departed for Paris, France on August 10th. We stayed three days at a hotel that was just one street over from the famous Champs d' Elysees. Paris was the shopping hot spot where art was the favorite purchase of almost everyone. Many of us bought original works. Then there were the few of us who bought what we thought to be original black and white pencil sketches, but upon applying the eraser test, we found that that was not necessarily the case.

Our group of 29, which included players, coaches, staff took scheduled tours of the Notre Dame Cathedral, Eiffel Tower, Arc Du' Triomphe, Palace of Versailles, The Louvre Art Museum, The Monmarthe District and took a boat tour down the Seine River. We definitely made the most of our time in Paris. It was very educational.

Our next adventure was a six-hour drive to Lyon, where the main attraction was our first basketball game. Led by Lauren Bradley's 22 points and nine rebounds, we defeated A.L.G.M., 86-40. It was exciting to take the court for the first time in five days, but it was an even bigger thrill to see everyone contribute in big ways. In an effort to fit in with the natives, we broke from our team huddles by shouting words in French. However, that backfired on us. Coach Sue asked our tour guide what the French word was for "win" and he misunderstood her as saying "when." So there we were, cheering "quand" (pronounced con) instead of "gagner" (pronounced gonyay). After about three of those huddles, the guide came over to us and informed us of the mixup! From that point on, we stuck with good old-fashioned English.

Switzerland was our next destination. After a three-hour bus ride, we arrived the city of Vevey. Our hotel was very quaint had a breathtaking view of Lake Geneve. The mountains along with the grape vineyards and comfy Swiss cottages made for magnificent scenery. To start things off, we scaled to the top of a tower overlooking the Alps to get a panoramic view. The pictures we took were great! Our two-day stay in Vevey was my favorite part of the trip. Switzerland had the best scenery, the tastiest food and unbelievable chocolate. Did I mention that we took a tour through the Nestle Chocolate Factory?? We definitely took advantage of the free samples. Those who did not go to the factory went water skiing on the lake. Many of them were sore and stiff-armed for the next couple of days since only a few had ever been before.

The stiff arms did not seem to affect us much on the court as we picked up two more wins in Switzerland. Again, every player got solid minutes for us. Our biggest victory of the trip came against Sion Helios — a 133-43 final. With the big lead, we had a chance to try some new things on offense and defense. I really benefitted from this game and led the team with 25 points. The next night we defeated Troistorrents, a team had a couple of Swiss National Team players, 108-79. Seniors Brooke Wyckoff and Levys Torres came up big for us with 21 and 19 points, respectively. Would you believe that prior to the game Levys was sick and had to seclude herself in the hotel room? Maybe we should keep her sick throughout the season as long as she keeps putting up those numbers.

Our final stop was the French Riviera in Nice. We flew in from Vevey and as soon as we got our bags up to the rooms, we suited up in our best beach attire and made our way to the beach of the Mediterranean Sea. We all enjoyed a relaxing day in the sun and as far as beach toys go, we played with them all. Parasailing, jet skiing, tubing — we had a blast! The view along the beach was gorgeous, but you just don't get the full experience unless you go up and see it while parasailing. What a peaceful ride! For a not-so-peaceful ride, try tubing. Some players decided to be dare devils and went twice. I guess they like soreness, whiplash and elbow burns, because those things abuse your body.

Our fourth and final game of the trip came against Nice University. We handled them pretty easily as well, winning 97-54. We were pumped to go through the entire trip undefeated. It was no easy accomplishment though, as we faced tough calls by the officiating and had to adjust to the different rules and ball sizes that the European game uses.

We spent our final day getting a last dose of the Riviera sun, and later in the evening we drove to Monaco, where we saw the Prince's palace and did some more shopping. The Monte Carlo Casino was right next door to the restaurant where we ate dinner. While waiting for some of our group to finish their meals, many of us stood along the street outside the casino doors and gawked at all the hot cars that pulled up. We were definitely among Monaco's elite.

This trip definitely left its mark on all of our lives. Seeing these places firsthand gave us the full feel for how wonderful Europe really is. We are all so thankful for the opportunity to grow in so many ways. It was great to get back to the states, enjoy an ice cold coke, talk in English, and share with everyone our experience of a lifetime!

Hi everyone! We made it safely to Paris at about 8:30 Friday morning. After we went through customs and picked up our luggage, we began an extensive bus tour of Paris. As we drove around the city, we saw the Louvre Notre Dame Cathedral, the Eiffel Tower and the Arc de Triomphe. During the tour, we stopped and had some wonderful French pastries. We took a tour of the inside of Notre Dame Cathedral. We were in awe of how big and beautiful the Cathedral was. We took the Metro, the Paris subway system, to the Arc de Triomphe. Some of us went right up, but most waited to go to the top when it was a little darker out and the lights of the city would be shining bright. It was such a beautiful view

Bon jour Seminole fans! Today was a long but fun day. We went to the Palace of Versaille. The tour took us room by room and we saw some unbelievable paintings and decoration. It was amazing and beautiful and we took a lot of pictures. Outside in the back of the Palace was a HUGE garden with many flowers, sculptured hedges, water fountains and statues. It was so big, we didn't have enough time to go around the whole thing. We had about four hours for lunch and free time. Some of us went shopping, and some of us went back to the hotel to nap. We had dinner, as a group, at the Brasserie Café de la Paix. It was an awesome restaurant — by far the best meal we've had so far. We ended the evening with a boat tour on the Seine River. We saw the Eiffel Tour light up like a flashing Christmas tree and saw some familiar sites like Notre Dame Cathedral and the

AUGUST 13, 2000

Hello friends and family! Today started with an early wake up call. After breakfast we boarded the bus for a day of sightseeing. Our first stop was to Rodin's "The Thinker." We posed for a picture and all looked as if we were "thinking" ourselves. We then went to the Louvre, where we had two hours to see it all. When we finally found the Mona Lisa we could not get within 10 feet of it, because of the people that surrounded it. After lunch at a local café, we headed to Sacre Coeur — a beautiful church with one of the best views of Paris that I have seen. Outside the back of the church were several little shops with anything and everything you could imagine in them. We were on our own for dinner. Me and some of my teammates had a delicious Italian meal. Tomorrow, we hit the road for Lyon, where we'll play our first game.

of the city. Although we were all very tired, it was a great first day and we are so excited to see all the many more wonderful sites of Europe! ROPEAN 0

AUGUST 14, 2000

Hello all! We didn't leave Paris today until 1 p.m., which gave everyone one last opportunity to finish up their shopping in the morning. The bus ride was about seven hours to Lyon, so most took this time to catch up on their sleep. I took the time to write about Paris in my journal. All of the architecture and history behind the French culture was an amazing experience. The pictures and memories everyone will take away from this trip are ones that will last a lifetime. We finally arrived at our hotel in Lyon around 8:30 p.m., after driving in Lyon for about an hour to find it. Tony, our bus driver, stopped buses, driving cars and people on the street to ask directions. It was really funny. We all went as a group to a local restaurant called Pizza Pino that was packed with people and desert hot. Everyone enjoyed their meals and the service was very good. We walked back to our hotel and went right up to our rooms so we could all get rest for tomorrow when we play our first game.

AUGUST 15, 2000

Good day Seminole fans! We started our day with another tour. This one was to the Basilique Notre Dame de Fourviere. In English, a very big and pretty church. We also saw a dynamic view of Lyon. We then headed to an outdoor court for practice. The backboards were small and they didn't have nets, but worst of all was the broken glass all over the court. Despite the distractions, we did our best to get a few shots and drills in. Later on after pregame meal, we headed for the game. The gym was very small, dark and warm with no ventilation. But we were still excited to play. It felt good to be back in the swing of things and actually get to play some ball. We actually had some "French fans" in the stands and some of our support staff taught them the war chant. It was great. It didn't take us long to put points on the scoreboard! We won the game 86-40.

AUGUST 18, 2000

Hello Americans! Today we were up, dressed, fed and on the bus by 8 a.m. to take a flight to the French Riviera. It was not even 2:00 and we were lying on the beach just 20 feet from the Mediterranean Sea. The temperature was hot, hot, hot. We did all kinds of water sports like tubing, parasailing and jet skiing. They were all fun and adventurous in their own way. Finally, it was time to take our sun burned bodies in for a couple of hours and clean up for dinner. We walked to the restaurant, Le Cocodile, which was across the street from the beach. To my surprise, the highlight of dinner was watching our waiter cook Nikki (Whiting) and I fish in front of everyone by lighting it on fire right next to our table. After dinner some of us walked around the city. There were many people out walking around as if it were a Saturday afternoon. The shops were open, people were eating at cafes, and artists were painting pictures. To say the least, Nice is very, very nice.

Revoir and Bonne Soire.

AUGUST 19, 2000

Hola Seminole fans! Just about everyone spent the day at the beach. It was a blast and although we were really tired after all of the water rides, it was worth it. By the time 4:00 rolled around, we had about as much sun and fun that we could handle. We ate a wonderful pregame meal in the hotel. Following our meal, we had just enough time to rest for awhile before our last European game against Nice Universite. The gym was the worst of the four we played in on the trip. It was so hot and stuffy. We had a slow start, probably because we had had a full day of fun in the sun, but we managed to pull out another victory to go a perfect 4-0. The game was very physical. After the game, the Nice team had a reception for us with pizza and pastries. Since we had played our last game, Coach Sue let us stay out

AUGUST 17, 2000

Bon jour! Today we began a three-hour journey to the land of the Swiss, no not Swiss cheese, but beautiful Switzerland. After we grabbed a quick bite, we headed for a tour of the Swiss Alps. The sight of the mountain was unbelievable. We arrived at dancing, while others did some late-night shopping or went out to eat. The beach, the game and the dancing made the day really great.

August 20, 2000

Hi ya'll. We spent much of our last day at the beach. I must say, three days on the beach has brought out skin color tones that I never knew we had! Later on in the afternoon we got cleaned up, put on some spiffy clothes, and headed for the luxurious country of Monaco. There was plenty of scenery to pass the time — Elton John's mansion, several capes and harbors filled with boats,

a little later. Some of us went watched the changing of the guards, and had some free time to shop and, of course, take pictures. Our whole entourage ate dinner at a fancy restaurant called Café Du Paris. They seated us on the outdoor patio right across from the famous Monte Carlo Casino. There must have been some high rollers in the casino because the cars parked outside were impressive. We left Monaco about 9:30 p.m., and headed back to Nice and even on Sunday, the place was hop-ping. Life in the French Riviera! We've had a great trip, but we are ready to and the Monaco soccer stadium. We stopped by the palace of the king,

Come home! full #22

the hotel and ate our pregame meal, before even checking in. Our hotel rooms remind me of the Flintstones. There are twin beds in each room and no air conditioning. Finally, we arrived at the gym for the game. We had to drive about 45 minutes from Vevey to Sion. I felt out of place being in coach's attire rather than a uniform, but until my knee gets better, I have to settle for taking stats. We played great today and won the game by 90 points. The trip is making us a better team on and off the court. After the game, we returned to the hotel where some of us experienced our first taste of horse meat. Then a few of us took a walk around the town and others took a walk along Lake Geneva, which also happens to be very pretty.

Hi everyone! Today, we were given a long list of possible activities to try and fit in before the game at 8:15 p.m. Because I am hopelessly addicted to chocolate, I couldn't pass up the chance to visit the Nestle factory. It was like a real live Willy Wonka Factory. Afterwards, a lot of the team and staff went water skiing. Coach Sue was the star of the show. She's an expert skier and made it look effortless! The town where we stayed, Vevey, was very quaint and a lot less touristy than Paris and there were a lot of neat little shops and cafés in walking distance of the hotel. Almost everyone managed to get a little shopping in. A couple of hours later we were on our way up a mountain to our game. This was our toughest game so far although we ended up winning by 29 points. We had a lot of fun and continued to learn a lot about each other on the court. Switzerland is so beautiful. It was definitely my favorite place so far.

Tallahassee-leon County Civic Center

A FLORIDA STATE BASKETBALL GAME at the Tallahassee-Leon County Civic Center is as exciting as it gets! FSU fans are spoiled by more than just a great basketball team playing in the nation's finest conference. They also get to watch the game in surrounds that are as modern as any in the country. While the FSU women's basketball team has played games in the Tallahassee-Leon County Civic Center over the years, the facility became the new home for the Seminoles in 1998-99.

So impressive is the facility and the general atmosphere of an FSU basketball game that the Civic Center and Florida State University served as the host of the first round of the 1995 Men's NCAA Basketball Tournament. Since that time, numerous improvements have been made to the already-outstanding structure.

The Civic Center completed a 21-million luxury suites and club seat expansion project which began in October of 1998 in which 34 luxury suites and 468 clubs seats at mid-level in the arena were added. In addition, the upper level seating has been configured to offer better viewing and additional concession stands and restrooms have been added. 12,200 seats are available for fans of FSU Basketball, who are treated to one of the most spectacular shows in college hoops. A new four-sided center hung Megavision video display, a state-of-the-art sound system and four new scoreboards in the upper corners of the arena have also been added. When there is a break in the action, the video display comes alive with highlight tapes, animated games and other crowd pleasing bits.

Adding even more appeal to the facility is the Civic Center's new restaurant, the Spotlight Grill, which was completed in

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

November. This 450 seat arena-view restaurant includes an outdoor patio and ledge seating for viewing arena events.

The multipurpose facility, which opened its doors in 1981, covers over 22 acres in the heart of Tallahassee's thriving downtown district. The Civic Center is only two blocks from the Capitol building and is just across the street from FSU's Center for Professional Development and nationally-acclaimed Law School.

The complex covers over 18,000 square feet with 119 foot ceilings in the main arena. The Civic Center is actually three different areas combined under one roof. The main arena, where FSU hosts its home games, is also the center for East Coast Hockey League contests featuring the Tallahassee Tiger Sharks, some of the nation's top musical concerts as well as Broadway plays and even a circus. The Exhibition Hall, which joins the main arena via a spacial hallway, can seat 5,000 for an event or serve as an indoor display area. The complex also features a terrace which is popular for outdoor hosting.

As one of Florida's busiest venues, the Civic Center completed a $1.2 million renovation to its six meeting rooms covering some 16,000 sq. ft. in July. Because of its versatility and accessibility, the Civic Center continues to be a popular location for trade shows and conventions.

of New Home For the Seminoles

The Seminole men's and women's basketball programs are close to seeing the foundation laid for their new $6 million home. The 40,000-square-foot office and practice complex will be owned by the athletic department and attached to the Tallahasse Leon County Don Tucker Civic Center, providing the teams with a permanent home for practice and games. Each team will have its own practice floor, locker rooms, coaches offices, meeting rooms and players' lounge with a reception area, tradition room and offices for support staff.

CONSISTENCY. It's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor. However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 48th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 79 national championships, including 39 in men's competition and 40 in women's. In addition, 118 men and 28 women have earned the coveted title of NCAA champion.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA history. The men's and women's basketball programs have combined for 20 trips to the Final Four in the last 19 years, and 41 appearances overall. Following the North Carolina women's national championship season of 1994, the first-ever for the league, ACC men's and women's teams have claimed eight titles while finishing second on 12 occasions.

The league's women's basketball program ranks among the best in the country in terms of the NCAA Tournament. With 78 appearances and 105 wins, the conference is listed second best in total appearances and total wins.

Over the years, ACC women's basketball teams have gained global recognition through their NCAA Tournament success and television exposure. The 2000-01 schedule will feature 19 TV games on the league's regional sports network, five games on ESPN2, one game on FOX, one Game on FOX Sports Net, and one on the Oxygen network.

ACC Basketball is more than numbers though. The faces behind both programs account for 26 national player of the year honors and 19 national coach of the year awards, including Dawn Staley's player recognition in 1991 and 1992. Coach's distinctions include Duke's Gail Goestenkors (1999), North Carolina's Sylvia Hatchell (1994), Maryland's Chris Weller (1992), Virginia's Debbie Ryan (1991) and NC State's Kay Yow (1990). In women's play, the ACC has produced 27 first-team All-Americans, eight Olympians, including coaches and student-athletes. NC State's Kay Yow, assisted by Sylvia Hatchell of North Carolina, headed up the 1988 gold medal-winning Olympic team. Maryland's Vicky Bullett was a member of both the 1988 and 1992 Olympic teams and Virginia's Dawn Staley was a member of the 1996 gold-medal winning Olympic squad in Atlanta.

The ACC also stands at the forefront of intercollegiate athletics in terms of academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. Since 1983, 292 women's basketball players have received ACC Academic Honor Roll recognition. The 1999-2000 academic year included 33 selections. In addition ACC basketball players have earned firstteam Academic All-America honors six times. In 1997 NC State's Jennifer Howard was tabbed GTE CoSIDA Academic Player of the Year after posting a 4.0 grade point average throughout her career. Eight players have earned ACC Postgraduate scholarships, while three others were named NCAA Postgraduate Scholars.

1999-2000 In Review
The 1999-2000 academic year concluded with the league

pocketing four more national team titles and five individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 36 national team titles the last ten years.

The ACC's 1999-2000 national champions were Maryland in field hockey and women's lacrosse, North Carolina in women's soccer and Florida State in football. Overall, ACC teams posted a 62-46 (.574) mark in NCAA Tournament play.

The ACC placed at least one team in the Top 10 nationally in 19 of the 25 sports sponsored by the league. Other records of note during the 1999-2000 season include 90 teams competing at NCAA Championships, five bowl teams and 34 Top 10 show-

Fourteen ACC teams, in ten different sports, representing seven of the nine member institutions, earned a No. 1 ranking during the course of the past academic year.

The ACC Academic Honor Roll record was broken for the 13th-straight year in 1998-99 as 1,631 student-athletes were recognized for their work in the classroom.

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 1999-2000 academic year — 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet being held in tennis at Wake Forest University. Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

A History
The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest — drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Con-

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971 when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school withdrew from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State.

1999-00 SEASON REVIEW

- 1999-00 Review
- 1999-00 Statistics
- Game-By-Game Results
- Team Highs & Lows
- Game-By-Game Statistics
- ACC Statistics

Tough Slate
The Seminoles played eight games against ranked opponents in the 1999-2000 season. FSU also played 12 games against NCAA Tournament teams. According to the RPI rankings in Collegiate Basketball News, the Atlantic Coast Conference was listed second among the Top 10 Conferences in the nation. The SEC ranked first, followed by the ACC, Big East, Big 12, Big Ten, Conference USA, Pac 10, Sun Belt, Missouri Valley and West Coast.

League Honors

Three Seminoles were recognized for outstanding performances this season:

AllACC

Latavia Coleman	2nd Team
Brooke Wyckoff	3rd Team
April Traylor Hono	orable Mention
All Defensive Team Brooke Wyckoff

Latavia Coleman

Tay In The Tournament

Although a senior, this year's ACC Tournament was just second tourney appearance for Latavia Coleman. Coleman missed the last two tourneys with injuries. In her freshman season Coleman led FSU with 21 points and five rebounds in 33 minutes of play in the loss vs. Wake Forest. She made the most of her appearance this season — scoring 31 points vs. Maryland and averaging 23 points and six rebounds for the two games. She earned ACC Tournament First Team honors, becoming the first FSU player to do so since Tia Paschal in 1993.

Tay and the 30-Point (lub

Latavia Coleman's 31 points vs. Maryland in the ACC Tournament was the second time this season and the fourth time in her career that the senior hit the 30-point plateau. Her season-high was 32 points vs. Tulsa in the season-opener. Coleman did it twice last season with 30 vs. No. 3 La. Tech and a career-high 38 vs. No. 8 North Carolina.

ACC Tourney Records
Latavia Coleman's 15 field goals vs. Maryland in the ACC

Tournament tied the ACC Tournament record for most field goals in a single game and was a season-high for the senior. It had beer done three times before in ACC Tourney history with the last time being in 1993 by FSU's Tia Paschal, also vs. Maryland. The 31 points also tied for fifth best in single-game points in ACC Tourney history.

Notables

- FSU's 12 wins is the program's most since the 1992-93 season when the Seminoles finished 13-14. FSU went 9-18 in Semrau's first season. FSU's last winning season was in 1991-92 at 17-11.
- FSU's win at Georgia Tech was the program's first ACC road. win since the Seminoles defeated Wake Forest in Winston-Salem on February 8, 1998.
- FSU's wins over Maryland and Georgia Tech mark the first time since 1994-95 that the Tribe has won back-to-back ACC games
- 29-point wins over Ga. Tech and Wake Forest were FSU's second biggest by margin since joining the ACC.
- Seven of 12 ACC losses were by five points or less
- FSU outrebounded its opponent in 10 of 16 league games.
- In six of 12 ACC losses, FSU had either been tied, down a point, or up a point around the one-minute mark of the second half.

Bombs Away For Brooke

Brooke Wyckoff scored a season-high 22 points, including 7 of 8 from the free throw line and 3-for-3 from three-point land, in FSU's win at Georgia Tech. It was a career-high in three-pointers for the junior.

Second Half Team?
FSU's 68 percent shooting in the second half of the Maryland game in the ACC Tournament was a season-high in the second half, but the sixth time the Tribe shot 60 percent or better in the second half of a game this year. The Seminoles were 6-0 in those games.

Still Among The Best

Despite missing the majority of her junior season with a torn ACL, Latavia Coleman will still finish her career among FSU's best in three statistical areas: She now ranks 5th in points with 1,428 in 91 games, 5th in scoring average at 15.7 points per game and 10th in rebounds with 603.

Threes Please

The Seminoles were 5-for-9 from three-point land in both Georgia Tech wins. Four different players hit treys in the first game ... including junior Lako Brown. It was her first career three pointer! In the second game with Tech, Brooke Wyckoff hit a career-high three trevs.

FSU hit a season-high seven threes in the first UVA game. The Seminoles have hit five or more threes in a game seven times this season. Last year, FSU hit 63 three-pointers for the year. The Tribe had 87 this year.

Good Golly Miss Molly!
Freshman Molly Beal's

team-leading 27 three-pointers helped the Seminoles improve in the category. The Seminoles hit five or more threes in a game seven times this season, including a seasonhigh seven vs. Virginia and Beal had five of them. Last year, FSU hit 63 three-pointers for the year, while the Tribe had 87 this year. The Seminoles were 5-for-9 from three point land in both Georgia Tech wins. Four different players hit treys in the home game with Tech, including Lake Brown. It was her first career three-pointer!

FSV and Free Throws

The Tribe had its best outing from the free throw line at Georgia Tech, shooting 86 percent on 18-of-21. April Traylor was a perfect 8-of-8 in that game.

Getting To The Line

With 51 total fouls called in the first UNC game, the Tribe made it to the free throw line a season-high 32 times! FSU made 30 or more free throw attempts seven times this season, including a season-high 36 attempts in the season-opener vs. Tulsa. FSU averaged 21.0 free throw attempts per game. It's season-low attempts was 10 in the final regular-season game at Clemson.

April Traylor

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY of Team Win Indeed!

It took everyone to beat the Yellow Jackets the first time around. Five Seminoles hit double figures in FSU's win over Georgia Tech. The only other time this season that this has happened was in the Oakland game. Everyone who could, played against the Yellow Jackets and 10 of 12 Seminoles scored!

Double Trouble

Latavia Coleman recorded her second double-double of the season at Virginia with 12 points and a game-high 10 rebounds. Her first double-double of the season was 13 points and 11 rebounds vs. St. John's. Brooke Wyckoff earned her first doubledouble of the year with 12 points and 10 boards vs. NC State and had another with 18 points and 10 rebounds in the first game vs. Virginia. April Traylor picked up a double-double of her own with 12 points and 10 assists vs. Duke in the ACC Tournament.

Watch Your Back

The Seminoles ranked first in the ACC in blocked shots per game average at 3.4 and was second in the ACC with a 11.1 steals per game average.

Torres Takes Control

Levys Torres led all players with 10 rebounds vs. Wake Forest — a season-high for the junior.

Springle Sets Mark Lakesha Springle recorded a career-high seven assists in just 15 minutes in the Wake win.

Swat Team

As a team, FSU recorded nearly double the blocks than its opponents. The Tribe had 100 swats to its opponents' 57. Brooke Wyckoff led the team with 34.

Shooting Accuracy

Latavia Coleman, who was second in the ACC in scoring at 16.1 points per game, was among the league leaders in field goal percentage. Coleman shot 51 percent from the field (3rd in ACC) overall and is was first at 50 percent in ACC games.

> Wyckoff Takes Over On The Boards

Brooke Wyckoff led the team in rebounding in 11 of 16 ACC games. She averaged 7.3 rebounds per game in league action.

All fround

Brooke Wyckoff is truly an all-around player. Wyckoff recorded at least one assist, block, steal, rebound and point in 18 of 24 games this season.

April's New Position

Sophomore April Traylor played point guard this season — a new position for the young Seminole. Her 5.2 assists per game ranked second in the ACC. But she was still a scoring threat. Traylor ed the team in scoring seven times, including a gamehigh 22 points in the Tribe's first ACC win of the season. She scored in double figures in 16 games total, including four games of 22 points or more!

Rebound That Basketball

Florida State added height to its roster this season and it paid off in the rebounding department. FSU outrebounded its opponent in 16 of 29 games, including 10 of 16 ACC games, and six different players led the team. The Tribe's largest rebounding margin this season was 24 vs. Loyola while in ACC action, FSU recorded a season-high 55 rebounds vs. Wake Forest and outrebounded the Deacons by 21.

Herenge Time

Florida State's win over Florida International not only snapped a two-game losing streak to the Golden Panthers, but the Sun & Fun tournament title also gave the Seminoles some sweet revenge. FIU won FSU's tournament in both 1997-98 and 1998-99.

Classic Honors
Latavia Coleman, who averaged 16.0 points and 8.0 rebounds through the two games at the FIU Sun & Fun Classic, earned tournament Most Valuable Player honors while Brooke Wyckoff was named to the All-Tournament Team with averages of 11.0 points and 6.5 rebounds.

> Coleman ~ ACC Player Of The Week Honors

Latavia Coleman was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Women's Basketball Player of the Week on Monday, November 22, after scoring a game-high 32 points and grabbing a team-high nine rebounds in FSU's 77-70 win over visiting Tulsa. Coleman shot 80 percent from the field on 12-of-15 shooting, 62 percent from the free throw line on 8-of-13 and had nine rebounds.

Coleman's MVP performance at the FIU Sun & Fun Classic earned the senior her second ACC Player of the Week honor Jan. 3rd. She averaged 16.0 pts and 8.0 rebs and had her first doubledouble of the season.

> Our Kind Of Jown - Chicago Was!

The Seminoles won their two games in Chicago by a margin of 23 points and outrebounded their opponents by an average of

Vujas Had Ramblers' Number

Freshman Katelyn Vujas had her best game of the season with 18 points and eight rebounds vs. Loyola. The rookie center shot 82 percent from the field on 9-11 and her eight boards tied for team honors. Vujas made the start vs. Chicago State in place of Lauren Bradley, who was ill, and again scored in double figures with 12 points.

Century Mark
Florida State's 102 points vs. Loyola was the first time the Tribe has reached the century mark this season and 21st time in the program's history. FSU did it last year in its 112-101 overtime loss to North Carolina. The Seminoles nearly reached the plateau earlier this season with 99 points vs. Oakland.

> Season Superlatives All In One Game!

FSU shot a season-high 59 percent vs. Loyola and had its largest margin of victory this season at 32 points. FSU outrebounded the Ramblers by 24 — also a season-high.

Springle Springs It On 'Em

Lakesha Springle not only scored a career-high 16 points against Oakland, but the total was the first time in her career that she has scored in double digits and she doubled her previous high of eight points vs. USF last year.

Whiting Wows Em

After starting the first two games of the season, Shinikki Whiting came off the bench to score a game-high 21 points and helped the Seminoles overcome a 17-point deficit to defeat Oakland, 99-90. Whiting also had five rebounds, three assists and two steals.

Attendance Is On The Rise

The Seminoles enjoyed their best-ever following this season. More than 1,700 fans were in attendance to watch the Tribe take on rival-Florida. Overall, FSU women's basketball attendance increased by 16 percent from the previous year.

> Seminoles fre Strong In The Classroom

The Florida State women's basketball program has always prided itself for its strong academic standards. The 1999-2000 Seminoles have carried on this tradition. Here's a look at some of the Tribe's academic superlatives...
