1995 YEAR IN REVIEW

A youth movement swept through the Lady Seminole volleyball program in 1995. Ten underclassmen, including six newcomers, piloted the youngest team in FSU history through a tough ACC and non-conference schedule.

While the Lady Seminoles' final record may reflect an atypical season for FSU, it also shows great promise for the future of the program. Coach Cecile Reynaud in her 20th season as head coach experienced her first losing season at 11-19.

The youngsters started the season off in Tampa at the South Florida Classic where they took second place to South Florida. As the team took the court, they were learning the FSU system as well as learning about each other since three of the starters were freshmen and the fourth starter had little game experience. The first weekend spelled success for the Lady Seminoles, both Valerie Broussard and Holly Schneider earned a spot on the All-Tournament team.

The following weekend, the competition heated up as the team faced #13 Washington, Rhode Island and George Mason in the Rhode Island Classic. Valerie Broussard once again racked up the All-Tournament honors for FSU in Rhode Island. These non-conference matches prepared the young team for the rugged Atlantic Coast Conference road ahead.

Hurricane Opal's attack on the Florida panhandle threw yet another spin into the Lady Seminole's whirlwind season. Opal forced the postponement of Florida State's battle with in-state rival Florida.

Through a season of ups and downs, the Lady Seminoles surprised many opponents as the University of Florida can attest. When the undefeated Lady Gators visited Tallahassee, the Lady Noles promptly stole game one of the match, only the second game in Florida's 15 matches that the Lady Gators had lost. That game was a glimpse of the success that the future holds for the Lady Seminoles.

It only figures that FSU's night of firsts early in the 1995 season would come on Friday the 13th. On this October night, the Lady Seminoles wrestled with the Lady Tar Heels of North Carolina in their first television appearance of the season. The two-hour 40-minute, five-game match ended in Florida State's favor — 8-15, 15-10, 15-11, 10-15, 17-15 — the team's first ACC win of 1995.

As Florida State continued to improve, its freshman stars began to pick up Atlantic Coast Conference honors. LaToya Presberry was honored as Rookie of the Week to end October following a 30-kill performance at Virginia. Fellow freshman and roommate Holly Schneider garnered the same honor in the final week of the regular season with outstanding performances against Maryland and Virginia in Tallahassee.

It was Presberry and Schneider who led the Lady Seminoles to their biggest win of the season, an upset of the ACC Tournament host Clemson. Earlier in the season, Florida State had fallen twice to the Lady Tigers, the tournament's second seed. Exceptional play from FSU's underclassmen led the seventh seeded Lady Noles to a surprising first-round five-game victory (15-8, 6-15, 6-15, 16-14, 15-13).

With their stellar tournament performances, Presberry and Schneider landed two of the six positions on the All-Tournament squad.

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

THE TRADITION

Consistency. It's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 43rd year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive inter-collegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

1995-96 IN REVIEW

The 1995-96 academic year concluded with the league pocketing two more national team titles and seven individual NCAA crowns.

In addition, seven ACC schools - North Carolina (6), Virginia (21), Florida State (23), Clemson (27), N.C. State (32), and Duke (39) - were ranked in the top 40 of the Sears Directors' Cup, an all-sports award honoring the Division I school with the best performance by women's and men's athletic teams during the 1995-96 academic year.

The ACC placed at least one team in the Top 10 nationally in 13 of the 23 sports sponsored by the league. Six ACC teams, in six different sports, earned a No. 1 ranking during the course of the past academic year.

The ACC Academic Honor Roll record was broken for the 10th straight year as 1,185 student-athletes were recognized for their work in the classroom.

THE HISTORY

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, near Greensboro, N.C. with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, North Carolina, North Carolina

State, South Carolina and Wake Forest.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again and officially admitted the University of Virginia. The only withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971 when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The conference operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was added. The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State.
