Lindsay Allman

Head Coach - 1st Season

Lindsay Allman was hired as the Florida State volleyball head coach on February 5, 2026.

Allman, who spent the previous four seasons as FSU's associate head coach, brings five years of collegiate head coaching experience to the role. In addition to her time leading Indiana State, Allman also has experience as an assistant coach at Wake Forest, Bradley and Southern Miss.

Allman's previous responsibilities included serving as FSU's recruiting coordinator and primarily working with the Seminoles' outside hitters and Serve Receive, an area that has ranked in the top three of the ACC throughout her tenure. The 2025 season featured Iane Henke earning AVCA All-America honors, as well as first-team All-Region and second-team All-ACC recognition, and Kyleene Filimaua joining her on the all-region and all-conference teams. The duo ranked fourth and sixth, respectively, in the ACC in kills per set while also ranking in the top 10 of the conference in attacks per set, points per set, total kills and total attacks. Filimaua has developed into one of the top passing outsiders in the country under Allman's guidance.

In 2024, Allman helped lead Audrey Koenig and Khoré Louis to All-America accolades. That year, the Seminoles had the ACC's third-highest hitting percentage as a team while Louis led the conference and ranked eighth nationally in hitting percentage. Koenig ranked in the top 10 in the conference in aces per set, kills per set, points per set and service aces.

Allman helped lead Florida State to the 2023 ACC championship with a 16-2 mark in conference play. The Seminoles ranked second in the ACC in hitting percentage and kills and had the conference's third-highest blocks total. Among individuals, Koenig was named the ACC Player of the Year, while Louis was second in the ACC and fourth in the country in hitting percentage. The ACC title was Florida State's first conference crown since 2012. Prior to the season, Allman was named to the Volleyball Magazine Coaching Hotshots List.

Allman's five seasons at Indiana State culminated in 2021 with an 18-13 record, the program's most wins since joining the Missouri Valley Conference in 1983. She also led the Sycamores to the semifinal round of the conference tournament and a bid to the National Invitational Volleyball Championships, the program's first postseason appearance, that year. In her first season, she led Indiana State to a tie for fifth in the MVC standings, the program's first top-five placing since 2003, and into the MVC Tournament semifinals for the first time in program history.

While at Indiana State, Allman recruited a nationally recognized class in 2020, which included Prep Volleyball All-American Mallory Keller. Allman developed multiple all-conference performers, led by second-team selections Laura Gross and Madeline Williams. She coached two MVC Freshman of the Week honorees after the program had only one recipient of the conference's weekly honor in its history. Additionally, Allman's squad earned the AVCA All-Academic Award in each of her five seasons.

Prior to her time as a head coach, Allman was Wake Forest's assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the 2016 season, where she helped Caroline Rassenfoss and Caitlyn Della earn spots on the All-ACC Freshman Team. After the season, she was named interim head coach and was tasked with retaining current student-athletes and recruits while the program underwent a coaching transition.

She spent four seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Bradley. In 2013, she helped the Braves reach the MVC Tournament for the first time since 2005 after earning 13 wins and seven conference victories, both the program's highest totals since 2005. While at Bradley, she recruited Erica Haslag who became the first freshman in program history to record 250 kills, 24 aces, 150 digs and 40 blocks and bookended her career with two first-team all-conference honors and being one of 30 players nationally named a Senior CLASS Award finalist.

Allman began her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Southern Miss from 2009-10 before being promoted to assistant coach for the 2011 season. She coached under Olympic gold medalist Ricci Luyties and helped the Golden Eagles to a 27-5 overall record and the school's first regular season conference title.

An accomplished collegiate student-athlete, Allman recorded more than 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs during a four-year playing career at Maine. She was a first-team all-conference performer and team captain her senior year and made the America East Honor Roll three times.

Originally from Saint Louis, Allman earned her bachelor's degree in mass communication with minors in public relations and child development from Maine in 2009 and completed her master's degree in social work from Southern Miss in 2011. Allman and her husband, Tallahassee native and Florida State graduate William Dehler, have two children.

Angel Perez

Associate Head Coach - 1st Season

Ángel Pérez was named an assistant coach for Florida State women's volleyball on June 2, 2026.

Pérez has a distinguished background as he spent the last three seasons as the head coach of the Columbus Fury in the MLV. Pérez, a Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico, native, had a great run as the leader of the Las Pinkin de Corozal in Puerto Rico's Women's Superior Volleyball League. Pérez led the team to championships in 2022 and 2023 and was named the league's Manager of the Year in back-to-back seasons.

"It is a true privilege to join the staff of a program that seamlessly pairs elite athletic tradition with absolute academic excellence," Pérez said. "This is a fantastic opportunity for me and my family, and we are all excited to establish ourselves down in Tallahassee. I am deeply thankful to Vice President and Director of Athletics Michael Alford and most of all to Head Coach Lindsay Allman for this incredible opportunity. From day one, my focus is to seamlessly support Coach Allman's leadership and collaborate with the awesome and dedicated staff she has assembled here in Tallahassee. I am stepping into this gym humble, hungry, and entirely eager to grow and give our student athletes my absolute best."

Pérez was one of the most decorated Puerto Rican volleyball players as he had professional stints in France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Romania and Slovenia. As a member of the Puerto Rican National Team, he helped them to a silver finish at the 2007 NORCECA Championship and a bronze finish at the 2010 Pan-American Cup. Perez served as the team captain from 2013-18.

Pérez played one season of college volleyball at BYU before returning to Puerto Rico to play at Polytechnic University from 2002-06.

"We are excited to welcome Ángel to the program! He will fit in perfectly with the continuity we already have within our staff and bring a different lens coming from the professional level both as a player and a head coach. I am excited for him to bring his wealth of knowledge to the program, and I have no doubt he will make an impact quickly." Head Coach Lindsay Allman said.
