President J. Ollie Edmunds, A.M., LL.B., LL.D., took office as Stetson's President last spring. He is a graduate of Stetson University and replaces William Sims Allen who retired because of ill health.

Stetson University

H. A. DeLand, of Fairport, N. Y., established, in 1883, the DeLand Academy that became, in 1889, John B. Stetson University, named for the hat manufacturer who gave freely of his time and wealth toward the advancement of the young college. The Stetson College of Law was organized in 1900.

DeLand Hall, now housing the Stetson School of Music, is the oldest college building in Florida.

Stetson's football history dates back to the turn of the century. Stetson has joined the Dixie Conference, an organization of a group of schools pledged to preserve the strict amateur standing of their football players.

Welcome Alumni . . .

Welcome to Stetson campus—your Alma Mater and mine. I hope you enjoy your visit during this Homecoming period and that you return often. Some improvements have been made. Others are in the immediate offing. More are planned for the future. We want you to have a part in building a Greater Stetson. Without your help, we cannot go forward.

OWNER

President Doak Sheridan Campbell, M.A., Ph.D., LL.D., became president of FSU in 1941. He received Doctor of Laws degrees from Stetson and Florida Southern at Lakeland.

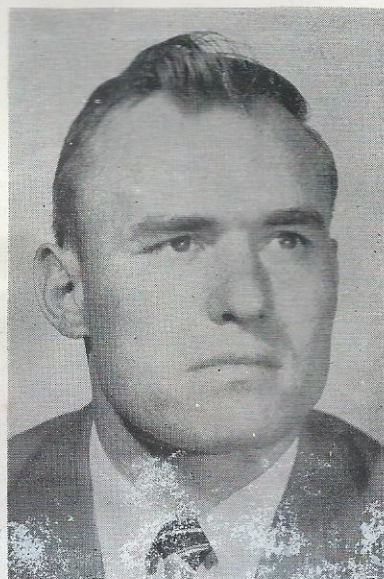

Florida State University

Florida State University received its name on May 15, 1947 when Governor Caldwell signed a bill passed by the 1947 session of the state legislature making the institution co-educational and changing its name from Florida State College for Women.

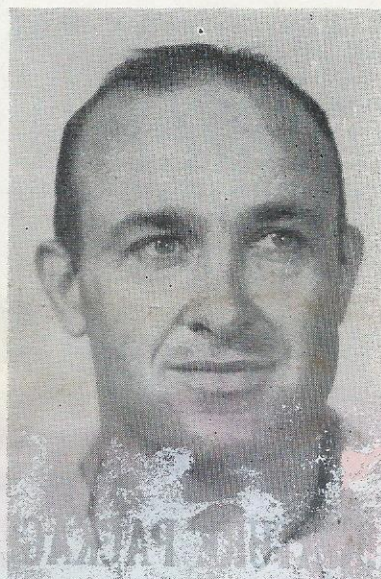

The college was founded in 1857 and became a women's college in 1905. Florida State now has 4,500 students on the Tallahassee campus, both men and women. FSU is a member of the new Dixie Athletic Conference.

STETSON SONGS

Stetson Victory Song

We are the guys from Stetson U
You hear so much about;
The other schools all envy us whenever we go out,
So fill your lungs and sing it out,
And shout it to the skies,
The Green and White forever
We'll be loyal till we die.
As we march and the band begins to play
You'll hear us shouting,
Stetson U will win the day.

Dear Alma Mater

Dear Alma Mater, we love your spirit;
We love your valor true and fine;
Your colors waving in all their glory
All the honors won through time.
Our school we cherish in all its glory
Not another can compare.
We love your vic-to-ries
And Hatters all will fight for dear ole Stetson U.

Stetson Hatters

S - T - E - T - S - O - N
Stetson Hatters, Hatters
S - T - E - T - S - O - N
Stetson Hatters, Hatters
Guard our line
Now see us shine
For we're the gang from Stetson U.
(Now sing it).
