FSU'S HEAD FOOTBALL COACH TOM NUGENT

Tom Nugent, originator of the "I" formation, the type-writer huddle, the double quarterback, and recognized as one of the nation's most imaginative young football coaches, picks up the reins this fall for his second campaign as headmaster of Florida State University football fortunes.

Nugent came to State last year from a highly-successful four-year tenure as boss man of VMI's colorful Keydets of the Southern Conference. In four seasons at the Lexington, Va., institution, Nugent injected new life into the VMI eleven. His record there was a respectable 19-18-2.

Nugent took over the Seminoles in 1953 and did the near-impossible. Starting with only 13 holdovers and an entirely new system, Nugent built a team that won half of its 10 games, the last three in a row.

Nugent's coaching record dates back to his college days. After starring on the Ithaca College eleven three seasons and graduating in 1936, Nugent coached the Ithaca frosh while doing graduate work.

A native of Lawrence, Mass., Tom became head coach of football, basketball, and baseball at Essex Training School in his hometown. Three seasons produced two undefeated teams.

The Air Force summoned Nugent in 1941. But Tom and football soon joined forces again. He was named head coach of the Rosecrans (Mo.) Air Base Flyers. Other duties included writing, directing, and presenting shows for the entertainment of troops. Nugent was then—and still is—quite a song and dance man. He's a showman, as his formations and style of play of his teams attest.

After his discharge in 1946, Nugent was appointed head coach at Williamsburg, Va., High, coached four undefeated athletic teams there in '46, then moved to Hopewell, Va., High. Three years of high school coaching produced a record of 24 wins, 4 losses for Nugent.

Then came Nugent's big chance—head coach at VMI. Armed with the same optimistic outlook and that "Nugent

TOM NUGENT

Head Coach of FSU

Golden Touch," Tom stepped into the VMI job. It wasn't long before VMI hit the headlines, sharing the Southern Conference title with Maryland in 1951, when the Keydets won seven and lost three.

Tom and Mrs. Nugent (Peg) have six children: Tommy 11, Kerry 10, Peggy 8, Terrance Daniel 5, Pattie 4, and Timothy David, four months.

In a football game, the power of the whole team can be wasted by penalties.

So, too, in motor fuels. An additive in a premium gasoline can cause a harmful metallic deposit—can make your car pay a penalty in lost power.

Amoco-Gas has no additive because it needs none. It's pure petroleum. It delivers power without penalty. Just test it!

"FRESH AS A DAISY"

ABOUT VILLANOVA'S TEAM

Frank Reagan, former collegiate star at the University of Pennsylvania and more recently backfield coach of the Philadelphia Eagles, took up the coaching duties at Villanova during the summer. He succeeded Art Raimo, who resigned at the end of the 1953 season.

Coach Reagan is faced with the problem of building a football team around sophomores, since thirteen lettermen graduated last year. The young squad will have to be screened carefully if such stars as Gene Filipski, All-American halfback; Joe Faragalli, tackle; Tom Fitzpatrick and Pete Carrieri, guards, and Ralph Cecere, another great halfback, are to be replaced.

COACH REAGAN

Reagan has, however, thirteen lettermen returning who will provide a strong nucleus for his 1954 team. Of the thirteen, four were regular starters last year.

Joe Leichtweis, 225-pound tackle; Jack Helm, fullback, and Nelson Marshall, a center, are the only regulars who will be ready to see action this year since Don McComb, returning end, will probably be unable to participate because of an early injury.

A 6-foot 1-inch 200-pounder, Marshall's play in Villanova's last three or four games was sensational. He rates as the key man in the line for 1954 and is regarded as one of the finest pivotmen ever to play for Villanova.

To replace Filipski at the left halfback position, Reagan is counting on three sophomores who were outstanding in spring practice. Most promising of the three is John Bauer, former gridder at Philadelphia's West Catholic High. Larry Fennessey and Al Ciarochi are the other two candidates definitely slated for halfback duty.

Sophomores also enter the picture at the vital quarterback position with John Ferruolo, Art Roach and John Lammers the strong candidates. At right halfback John Giordano looks like the best bet, with sophs John Gianantonio and John Barrett pressing hard for starting nods.

At fullback, Reagan can call on Frank D'Alonzo who showed well last year in spite of an injury. Tony Esgro and Joe Ryan, another pair of sophomores, will provide additional strength at the fullback slot.

Mike Mayock and Pat Haley, reserves last year, look like good prospects for the end posts with Pete Cassidy and Van Injaian also very much in the picture. Mike Potenza and George Karras, second-stringers last year, will have to beat out Ron Wood and Mike Flynn, both sophomores, for the guard positions.

Stan Brzenk and Dan Hurley, who saw frequent duty last year as reserves, are figured with Leichtweis for the tackles. Frank Beeunas and Ron Cherubini were also outstanding during the spring drills.

Reagan will have to rely heavily upon his new men. How quickly and how effectively they develop will determine what kind of team Villanova fields this year.

A HISTORY OF VILLANOVA

For over one hundred years, Villanova has served the cause of Catholic education under the direction of the Order of St. Augustine. Better known as the "Augustinians," one of the really old, religious teaching orders of the Catholic Church, the group founded Villanova in 1842 as its first institution of higher education in America and one of the oldest universities in the Philadelphia area.

Villanova traces its New World lineage from Old St. Augustine's Church, founded in Philadelphia in 1795, and St. Augustine's Academy, opened in 1811. From all those bases, the Order expanded enough by October of 1841 to arrange for the purchase of the present site of the university.

The property selected was the Belle Air estate in Radnor Township, about twelve miles from Philadelphia, country home of John Randolph, Revolutionary officer and merchant. Several months later, in January of 1842, legal titles were cleared, and Villanova College got its start with 200 acres and the old Randolph mansion.

Wasting little time in getting the project under way, Villanova opened the doors of the Randolph mansion to 13 boys in the fall of 1843. Rev. John P. O'Dwyer, first president, headed the staff of nine faculty members whose early labors inspired future Villanova achievements.

From these small beginnings the Augustinians have developed Villanova, now a university, through a century to its present size—a faculty and staff of several hundred and a student body that exceeds 2,000.

Villanova is located in the heart of Philadelphia's most exclusive suburban residential area—the Main Line. Many of the nation's leading families have estates and homes in the section. It is without doubt one of the most beautiful suburban locations in the United States.
