“...the finest article of football ever seen on the local gridiron.”

That’s what the Lake City Florida Index newspaper had to say about the 1904 State Inter-collegiate Champions, Florida State College. FSC won all four of their games to sweep the competition.

The Index writes, during the game between the University of Florida and Florida State College on October 28, 1904:

“On the part of the State College team, we can say, aside from fumbling, which they did on many occasions, and their off-side plays, they put up the finest article of football ever seen on the local gridiron.”

The final score was FSC 23, UF 0, in an uncompleted game. “Owing to darkness, the game was called with the ball in Florida’s possession on her own 26 yard line,” added the Index.

In 1905, FSC became Florida State College for Women, thus terminating college football in Tallahassee, until 1947, when Florida State University fielded its first football team.

In 1904, the Lewis State Bank was forty-eight years old, and had been offering professional financial guidance to friends in Tallahassee that long. The Lewis State Bank is your family bank. Use it. People have for over a century.

The Library And The Labs Are Busy Night And Day . . .

Florida State's vast complex of science and research buildings is quite a contrast to the scientific facilities used on the campus back in the 1850s. Back then, they boasted of a microscope that could magnify a drop of vinegar "to 20 feet in diameter."

The University's student enrollment has had an equally phenomenal growth since its early (1857) Seminary days of 130 pupils. Today, its 10 schools and colleges are filled with more than 17,000 students who live, study and learn in classrooms, laboratories, dormitories and campus facilities valued at $100 million. Students may pursue careers ranging from drama to zoology in colleges of arts and sciences, law and education, as well as the schools of nursing, social welfare, business, engineering science, home economics, music and library science.

I am gratified that so many of Florida State's loyal supporters in athletics are with us in Campbell Stadium for this exciting Seminole football season. Speaking for the entire University, I extend a warm welcome to all of our fans in the stands today. We hope that your stay on our campus will be enjoyable.

We have every reason to be proud of our athletic teams which, year after year, have established outstanding records in intercollegiate athletics. Florida State University might be said to have just entered Phase Three of its program of development in intercollegiate athletics. Phase One extended from the University's birth as a full-fledged university in 1947, to about 1960. Those were the years in which the foundation was laid for a sound program of athletics all across the board, as Florida State's name was carried throughout the region as an institution that would make its mark in athletics as it was doing in the academic arena.

Phase Two extended from about 1960 to the present. It was a period when Florida State joined the major competition, the time when we ceased to be "a breather," even for the best, and a time, incidentally, when scheduling the good teams became more difficult.

Phase Three has begun. It began on the first of January, 1971, when Larry Jones accepted our offer to become the University's sixth head coach of football. Another giant step was taken in April when Clay Stapleton agreed to become our Director of Athletics. This is the period when membership in the big leagues will pay off . . . when our acceptance as a member in full standing with other major universities engaged in athletics will bring the University and the Tallahassee community added recognition and stature and support in countless ways that go beyond the playing field.

Our success in athletics is due as well to the remarkable response of Seminole fans, whose enthusiastic support has never failed to inspire our coaches and players to demonstrate the best in sportsmanship and skill on the playing field.

Let me say a further word about community support. Your presence here today indicates that we have it in significant measure, and for that we are deeply grateful. We shall continue to solicit the support of this community and, indeed, all of Florida and beyond, for it is an essential ingredient in the recruiting of athletes, in scheduling, and in the all-important area of financial support. You may be certain that those of us at the University will do everything we can to merit the continued support and loyalty of all.

Southern's sporting proposition will save you money!

Southern has two special fare deals that are ideal for you avid sports fans. Either one lets you fly in style to those important "away" games anywhere on Southern's system and save 2/3 of your return air fare.

LONG WEEKEND FARE

If you can leave on Saturday and return on Monday, you'll save 2/3 on the return air fare. (This same savings is offered if you leave on Monday and return on Saturday.)

GROUP 10 FARE

Great for parties of ten or more people. Everyone saves 2/3 of their return air fare providing they all depart on the same flight. Coming back though, each member of your group may return separately. Group 10 Fares are good anytime.

Southern has other reduced fare plans for individuals, families, young adults and military personnel. They're well worth asking about. For full details, see your Travel Agent or Call Southern.

Next week Florida State's freshman team takes over Campbell Stadium when the Seminole Frosh host Florida's Baby Gators in the Shrine Club Charity Football Game. Kickoff is slated for 7:30.

The Seminole frosh split their first two contests, losing to Georgia Tech 6-3 on a last second field goal, and defeating a highly regarded Miami freshman team, 17-3.

Like their varsity counterparts, the Seminole freshmen are relying on a strong defense and lots of team spirit. Unlike years past when the freshmen have served as the "scout squad" for the varsity, this year they have been able to work on their own.

As a result they are developing a more spirited and exciting team.

Next week's encounter with the Baby Gators is the only home game of the season for the Seminole freshmen, who have road games left against Southern Mississippi (at Panama City) and Nicholls State (at Thibadaux, La.).

HEAD COACH LARRY JONES

Larry Jones is the sixth man to lead Florida State's modern football fortunes and has already shown himself to be the most energetic of all Tribe coaches.

The youthful Jones had no sooner accepted his appointment from President Stanley Marshall, than he was out firming up his first two signees. He has been on the go ever since.

The first task was to set up a coaching staff and Coach Jones accomplished that with outstanding success. He has brought to Florida State some of the most talented young coaches in the country.

A native of Arkansas, Jones played his college ball at LSU. He joined Coach Paul Dietzel's coaching staff the day he graduated and went with him to Army and South Carolina. In 1970 he took a position with Bill Battle at Tennessee and developed the Sugar Bowl Champion's fine defense.

Larry and his wife, Judy, have three children, Bruce 9, Kevin 7, and Laura 5.

FLORIDA STATE

STEVE SLOAN

First Assistant and Head of Offense

Considered one of the brightest young offensive coaches in the business, Steve came to Florida State after three years under Bear Bryant at his Alma Mater, Alabama. He is Coach Larry Jones, chief assistant and in charge of the offense. On the field, his duties have him working with the quarterbacks and running backs.

An All-America at Alabama, Sloan led the Crimson Tide to bowl games in 1963, '64 and '65. In the latter two seasons, the Tide was National Champion. After two seasons in the National Football League (Atlanta), he returned to 'Bama to work with Bryant.

A native of Cleveland, Tenn., he is married to the former Brenda Fan, also of Cleveland. They have one son.

BILL CANTY

Freshman Coach

Bill comes to the Seminoles after eight years as an assistant at his Alma Mater, Furman. The Pascagoula, Miss., native joined the Paladin staff after graduating in 1962.

At Florida State his primary responsibility will be to head the freshman unit. Unlike recent years, when the freshmen have been used mainly as a "scout squad" for the varsity, the frosh, this season, are on their own. Canty's big chore will be to familiarize the newcomers to the Seminoles' system and develop a winning spirit among them.

Bill is the older brother of Bob Canty, who captained the Seminole baseball team in 1968. Bill is married to the former Ann Lockridge of Delta City, Miss. They have two children.

JOHN DEVLIN

Defensive Ends and Tackles

Seminole fans are well acquainted with John's coaching abilities, even though this will be the Norristown, Pa., native's first season in Tallahassee. He comes to the Tribe from Virginia Tech where he helped mold the Gobbler defenses which caused the Seminoles so much trouble.

John will head up the Seminoles' defensive "front wall." It is actually the second time that the Former West Chester State College standout has worked with Coach Larry Jones. Both were assistants under Paul Dietzel at the U.S. Military Academy in the mid-Sixties.

A former Army staff sergeant, John married Irma Kleeman of Regensburg, Germany. They have four children.

BOB HARBISON

Interior Offensive Line

Coach Larry Jones calls Harbie "Mr. Florida State." The former Indiana star has spent his entire coaching career at Florida State and that 23-year period includes all but the first season of the Seminoles' modern football history.

This year Bob switches from defense to offense where he will be in charge of the offensive line. But his value does not stop on the playing field. His general knowledge of the game and outstanding recruiting ability have been an invaluable asset to the five head coaches he has worked under.

Bob and his wife, the former Jane McEntee of Washington, D.C., have four children.

ASSISTANT COACHES

GENE HENDERSON

Head of Defense, Defensive Backs

Like Steve Sloan, Gene learned to play football under Bear Bryant. After two seasons of junior college ball, the Sonora, Tex., native transferred to Texas A & M where he was a member of the 1954 squad which survived the infamous early fall workouts at Junction, Texas.

His collegiate coaching experience includes stints at Texas Tech and TCU. He headed the TCU defense last year, before coming to Florida State.

Gene and his wife, the former Sue Wyatt of Sonora, have four children.

PAT HODGSON

Wide Receivers and Tight Ends

An All-SEC receiver at Georgia, Pat is perhaps best remembered for sparking the Bulldogs to an 18-17 win over defending National Champion Alabama on National TV in 1965. A key figure (he threw the pass) in the memorable "Flea-flicker" play which closed the gap to 17-16, Pat then caught the two-point conversion pass for the win.

After two years in the pros, he returned to Georgia as an assistant coach, heading up the freshman offense last year.

The Columbus, Ga., native was All-SEC in 1964 and '65 and led the conference in receiving in 1963.

Pat is married to the former Nancy Williams of Athens, Ga. They have two children.

BILL PARCELLS

Linebackers

This is Bill's second season with the Seminoles, as he is one of two holdovers from last year's staff (the other being Bob Harbison).

The Oradell, N.J., native came to the Tribe last year after four years at Army where he developed some of the Cadets' finest linebacking corps. He has also had coaching experience at his Alma Mater, Wichita State and Hastings College.

At Wichita, Bill was twice an All-Missouri Valley Conference selection, playing guard, tackle and linebacker. Following his graduation he was a fourth round pro-draft choice.

Bill is married to the former Judy Goss of Wichita. They have three children.

MIKE POPE

Director of High School Relations

Mike's duties keep him off the field and "on-the-go," but his task is a crucial one as he heads up the Seminole recruiting operation.

The Monroe, N.C., native stepped into the position this year, after serving a season as a graduate assistant for the Tribe last year. Mike played his college ball at Lenior Rhyne, where he was a quarterback and fullback in the Bear's single wing backfield. He had several highly successful seasons as a high school coach before coming to Florida State in 1970.

Mike is married to the former Lee Lambie of Arlington, Va.

TONIGHT'S GAME

By Lonnie Burt

Sports Information Director

This is another of those "Teacher vs. Pupil" battles since Florida State Coach Larry Jones played and coached under South Carolina's Paul Dietzel.

In fact, Jones helped recruit a number of the Gamecocks his team will be facing tonight while he was an assistant at South Carolina before moving over to Tennessee in 1970.

South Carolina and Florida State come into the game with identical 5-1 records with the Gamecocks winning their fifth last Saturday by taking Maryland 35-6. At the same time, the Seminoles were suffering their first loss, bowing to Florida 17-15.

South Carolina's lone loss was to powerful Duke, 28-12. The Gamecocks have also beaten Georgia Tech (24-7), North Carolina State (24-6), Memphis State (7-3) and Virginia (34-14).

Carolina has one of the South's better defensive clubs, led by All-America halfback Dick Harris and tackle John Leheup, a Temple Terrace, Fla., native.

Harris, a senior speedster from Point Pleasant Beach, N.J., has already returned three punts for touchdowns, tying a NCAA single-season record. He scored on a 77-yard dash against Georgia Tech, went 48 yards against Virginia and scored from 59 yards out against Maryland.

Leheup, at 6-2 and 237 pounds, is a tower of strength at his right tackle spot.

The Gamecock offense has been gaining momentum with each game since it needed experience in the beginning. Injuries to running backs have also been a drawback.

Chevrolet. Building a better way to see the U.S.A.

Our Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe at Portland Head Light, Maine.

Chevelle for 1972. It fits more families, more budgets, more garages and more vacations.

It fits so well that in the last eight years it has become an American standard—a yardstick to measure how far your money can go. And how much comfort and room your money can buy.

Our Chevelle fits families so well, in size and price, it's become America's favorite mid-size car. This year we've added improved pollution controls and a long lasting generator, among other things. Improvements with a purpose. We want your 1972 Chevelle to be the best car you ever owned. It's our way of building a better way to see the U.S.A.

FOOTBALL GLOSSARY

Audible — A vocal signal by the quarterback changing the play called in the huddle. Also called Check Off.

Blitz — Commitment by defensive backs and/or linebackers to rush the passer.

Blocking — Legally hindering the progress of an opponent by contacting him with any part of the blocker's body.

Bomb — A long pass attempt for a touchdown.

Buttonhook — A pass pattern in which the receiver goes downfield and U-turns back sharply to receive the ball.

Clipping — Running or diving into the back of an opponent, or throwing the body across the back of the leg or legs of an opponent other than the ball carrier.

Dive-Tackle Play — A quick-handoff running play over tackle.

Draw-Play — Quarterback drops back as if to pass but instead hands ball to running back, after quarterback's teammates have assumed pass-blocking positions.

Fair Catch — The opportunity for a player of the receiving team to catch a kicked ball that has crossed the scrimmage line, without being tackled or blocked by an opponent, after signaling his intention by completely extending one arm above his head.

Kickoff — A free kick with which each half is opened, and which is employed also following each try-for-point or Field Goal. A kickoff must be either a Placekick or a Dropkick.

Lateral Pass — A live ball thrown toward or parallel with the passer's own goal line.

Linebacker — A defensive player operating immediately behind his line where he can either aid linemen in stopping a running play or cover an opponent's receiver if a pass develops.

Look-In Pass — Receiver runs straight pattern and looks for the ball immediately over his inside shoulder.

Man-To-Man Coverage — Pass defense plan wherein defensive backs cover receivers wherever they go, rather than field areas.

Mike — Middle linebacker, so designated because he usually lines up opposite middle of the offensive line.

Monster — A roving linebacker who may position himself on either side of his team's defensive formation.

Neutral Zone — The space between the scrimmage lines of the offense and defense, approximating 11 inches (the length of the football).

Onside Kick — A kickoff that travels 10 yards or more is anybody's ball. The so-called "onside kick" is an effort by the kicking team to kick the ball barely beyond 10 yards and recover it before the receiving team can do so.

Pocket — Area of protection for the passer, formed by blockers. Passer drops straight back from scrimmage behind the blocking shield into what resembles a "cup" or pocket.

Post — A pass pattern in which the receiver goes downfield to pre-determined depth then cuts at an angle toward the goalposts.

Prevent Defense — A strategem replacing linebackers with additional backfield pass defenders, sacrificing strength against short gainers in order to prevent a long pass completion. Most often employed by a team protecting a lead late in either half.

Pulling Guard — Guard who pulls out behind scrimmage line for a trap block or to lead sweep blocking for ball carrier.

Reverse Play — A running play with backfield action suggesting one direction while ball carrier goes in opposite direction.

Roll-Out pass — Quarterback runs laterally with blockers before throwing, instead of dropping straight back to pass.

Sam — Strong linebacker, so designated because he usually lines up opposite the "strong side" of the offensive line.

Screen Pass — Pass to a receiver behind a wall of blockers, who have permitted defenders to penetrate.

Scrimmage Line — The yard line (marked or unmarked) that passes through point of the ball nearest a team's own goal line.

Slot Back — Back stationed in slot between interior linemen and end. Must be one yard behind the line of scrimmage.

Snap — A quick, continuous motion by which the ball is handed or snapped back with the ball leaving the hands of the snapper on the motion. The snap normally is made by the center.

Strong Side — Overbalance of offensive or defensive linemen to either side of the Center.

Stunting — Defensive players changing positions as the ball is snapped, to confuse offensive strategy.

Sweep — End run with wave of blockers leading the ball carrier.

Spearing — Illegal use of the head and helmet to ram an opponent after his momentum has stopped.

Tackling — Grasping or encircling an opponent with hands or arms.

Tight End — Offensive end who lines up in close formation (as opposed to Split End's wide set) where he can either block for a ball carrier or be employed as a pass receiver.

Widereceiver — A lineman and/or a back who is set wide for pass receiving purposes. Also called Split End, Flanker or Wideout.

Willie — Weak linebacker, so designated because he usually lines up opposite the "Weak side" of the offensive line.

Zone Coverage — Plan of pass defense wherein areas are covered rather than individual receivers Opposite of Man-To-Man.

JOIN THE UPRISING support FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

"In my opinion the importance of intercollegiate athletics to a university has not diminished one whit . . . I suspect we need a high quality, strong athletic program now more than ever" — President Stanley Marshall, June, 1971.

"Athletics at Florida State University is moving into a new era . . . an era in which the fans and friends of Florida State will play an unprecedented role with their support. The object of the National Seminole Club is to organize this support and direct it into one of the most meaningful and personally rewarding areas within the scope of our program . . ."

TOMMY WARREN BO MITCHELL

Florida State's football games, whether played at home or away, will be heard throughout "Seminole Territory" on the Seminole Football Network.

With Tallahassee's WTNT acting as the originating station, 30 stations will carry every play to Seminole fans in Florida, South Georgia and South Alabama. In addition, several Florida State games will be heard from time to time as "Pick of Dixie" games.

Heading up the Seminole Network broadcast team once again will be Bo Mitchell. A veteran of more than 20 years broadcasting, Mitchell will be in his ninth season as the Seminoles' play-by-play man. In addition to Seminole games, Mitchell has also done play-by-play for the AFL All Star game, Senior and Tangerine Bowl games.

Joining the former Florida Sportscaster of the Year and station manager of WTRL in Bradenton will be former Seminole quarterback Tommy Warren. The Miami native moves from the playing field to the broadcast booth after directing the Tribe to a 7-4 season last year. Now enrolled in Florida State's Law School, Warren will serve as color man.

The Star Spangled Banner

O, say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that Star-spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and home of the brave?

FOOTBALL STAFF

FRANK DEBORD

Equipment Manager

This will be Frank's second season as the Seminoles' equipment chief after serving three years as the assistant.

A native of Marion, Va., the Quincy resident attended Virginia Tech where he lettered in football and wrestling before receiving his B.S. degree in 1942.

Frank was an assistant football coach at Franklin, Va., High School and also played two seasons with Norfolk in the Continental League.

He is not only in charge of all the Seminoles' grid equipment, but also he directs the practice field's upkeep as well.

Frank and his wife, the former Marian Bradshaw of Franklin, Va., have three children. A fourth, David, was a member of the Marshall football team killed in last fall's tragic air crash.

DON FAULS

Head Trainer

"Rooster," as he is affectionately known by present and former Seminoles alike, will be starting his 18th season at Florida State this fall.

The Ithaca, N.Y., native started his training career in the St. Louis Cardinals' minor league system, working with the Greensboro, N.C., team in 1950-51 and with the Omaha, Neb., club from 1952-54.

Don was honored by being named head trainer for the United States Pan-Am Games team in 1963 and is currently on the Olympic Trainers' Selection Committee.

He lettered in baseball and basketball while attending Ithaca College in his hometown.

Don's success can be underscored by the large number of his former assistants who have gone on to head jobs at other institutions.

Don and his wife, the former Marguerite Morgan of Naples, N.Y., have three children.

DOUG MAY

Assistant Trainer

This will be this Meridian, Miss., native's second season as Don Fauls' assistant.

Since coming to Florida State, Doug has traveled with the Seminole basketball and baseball teams.

A graduate of Ole Miss, he served as a student trainer while attending college, handling the Rebels' freshman football team along with the varsity basketball and baseball clubs.

Doug is married to the former Cissy Knott of Yazoo City, Miss.

THE NCAA

ATHLETIC VOICE OF THE NATION'S COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

The National Collegiate Athletic Association — the NCAA — evolved out of crisis 65 years ago and it has matured into the most viable force in intercollegiate athletics.

In 1905, President Theodore Roosevelt was considering a ban on intercollegiate football because of the viciousness of play in that era. Faced with the possible extinction of the game, football representatives from 13 institutions met in early December of that year to bring about reforms in college football. At a subsequent meeting later that month the NCAA was conceived.

Today the NCAA is a name recognized by Webster's Dictionary and, more important, recognized by every sports-minded individual in the country. The reason for its prominence lies in the scope of the sports activities of its members, which number over 700.

While the existence of the NCAA is well recognized, its functions might be more obscure. Probably most well known are the 26 national championships in 17 different sports the NCAA conducts each year. In addition, the NCAA enforces a detailed code of regulations, is a means of professional communication for administrators and coaches, and a source of films, records and statistics.

In essence, the NCAA is the athletic voice of the nation's colleges and universities. When the membership voted itself legislative and executive powers shortly after World War II, the NCAA moved from a discussion group to an important and vital force in the conduct and administration of intercollegiate athletics. In the shift, the NCAA progressed from pondering primarily over playing rules to considering and acting upon any athletic problem which has spread across regional lines and become national in character.

The NCAA enforcement program has been another source of publicity, and its administration emphasizes the make-up of the NCAA. In enforcement, the NCAA acts, not as a separate entity, but in cooperation with its member institutions and allied conferences which have assured compliance with the legislation they themselves adopt.

Similarly in other areas, the NCAA is simply the nation's colleges and universities, themselves, speaking of and acting on athletic matters at the national level.

In detail, the NCAA:

... conducts 26 national championships in 17 sports. Two championships (College and University Division) are held in baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, swimming, tennis, track and field and wrestling. One meet is sponsored in fencing, ice hockey, indoor track, skiing, water polo, soccer, volleyball and lacrosse. The National Collegiate Championship series dates back to 1883 and over this 88-year span, more than 60,000 student-athletes have competed in these events with over 5,000 earning the coveted title "National Collegiate Champion"

... maintains 13 rules committees to formulate, copyright and publish rules of play for the government of collegiate sports. Members of these committees are elected by representatives of member institutions at the NCAA's annual Convention in January.

... publishes annually "Official Guides" for nine sports through the College Athletics Publishing Service in Phoenix, Arizona.

... collects, compiles and distributes to the press and college officials the official statistics of college football, basketball and baseball. National Collegiate Sports Services of New York City performs these and other functions commonly associated with a record-keeping agency.

... maintains its national headquarters in Kansas City, Missouri, under the supervision of Executive Director Walter Byers.

... conducts studies as a means of developing solutions to athletic problems. Recent surveys have been made on television, post-season events, length and time of playing and practice seasons, participation and budgets for intercollegiate baseball, activities and facilities of member institutions, etc.

... participates in the U.S. Olympic, Pan American Games and International University Sports Federation movements as the administrative agency for the colleges in fund raising, sports organization and the providing of coaches and athletes for the United States' teams.

... annually awards 80 Postgraduate Scholarships of $1,000 each to outstanding senior student-athletes who have excelled in sports, in the classroom and on the campus.

... enacts legislation to deal with athletic problems when they spread across regional lines and member institutions concur that national action is needed.

... administers group insurance programs whereby member colleges can provide catastrophe medical coverage for student-athletes injured in practice, play or transport. More than 85,000 persons are enrolled annually in the athletic medical and travel accident programs.

... maintains a central clearing and counseling agency in the field of college athletic administration.

... provides financial and other assistance to various groups interested in the promotion and encouragement of intercollegiate and intramural athletics; actively assists the various national coaches' associations in projects which provide better teaching, better competition and sounder administration.

... maintains a large film library, covering play in national meets and tournaments. This library of more than 300 titles includes films on baseball, basketball, boxing, gymnastics, ice hockey, swimming, track and field and wrestling.

Versatility — The NCAA conducts 26 national championships in 17 sports. Colorful NCAA events feature everything from pretty cheerleaders to swift half-backs and exciting lacrosse stars. Whatever the season, there is always an NCAA sport to thrill the fans and offer thousands of young collegians the finest in organized competition.

Florida State's 1971-72 Basketball Team promises to be one of the Seminoles' most exciting ever. Three of the top four scorers return, four starters are back, plus some top-notch sophomores coming up from the freshman ranks. Among those returning to COACH HUGH DURHAM'S club this season are RON KING, who broke the Seminole single game scoring record with a 46-point effort; also big REGGIE ROYALS, one of the nation's top rebounders, although only a sophomore last year. And don't forget other exciting players like 5-7 passing whiz OTTO PETTY, leaping ROWLAND GARRETT and slick GREG SAMUEL.

The Seminoles will play 12 big games at home and season tickets can now be ordered. Don't be left out — Tully Gym's limited capacity puts a premium on seats. Order your season ticket now by sending your order with a check for $20, payable to Florida State University, to:
