“...the finest article of football ever seen on the local gridiron.”

That's what the Lake City Florida Index newspaper had to say about the 1904 State Intercollegiate Champions, Florida State College. FSC won all four of their games to sweep the competition.

The Index writes, during the game between the University of Florida and Florida State College on October 28, 1904:

“On the part of the State College team, we can say, aside from fumbling, which they did on many occasions, and their off-side plays, they put up the finest article of football ever seen on the local gridiron.”

The final score was FSC 23, UF 0, in an uncompleted game. “Owing to darkness, the game was called with the ball in Florida's possession on her own 26 yard line,” added the Index.

In 1905, FSC became Florida State College for Women, thus terminating college football in Tallahassee, until 1947, when Florida State University fielded its first football team.

In 1904, the Lewis State Bank was forty-eight years old, and had been offering professional financial guidance to friends in Tallahassee that long. The Lewis State Bank is your family bank. Use it. People have for over a century.

The Library And The Labs Are Busy Night And Day . . .

Florida State's vast complex of science and research buildings is quite a contrast to the scientific facilities used on the campus back in the 1850s. Back then, they boasted of a microscope that could magnify a drop of vinegar "to 20 feet in diameter."

The University's student enrollment has had an equally phenomenal growth since its early (1857) Seminary days of 130 pupils. Today, its 10 schools and colleges are filled with more than 17,000 students who live, study and learn in classrooms, laboratories, dormitories and campus facilities valued at $100 million. Students may pursue careers ranging from drama to zoology in colleges of arts and sciences, law and education, as well as the schools of nursing, social welfare, business, engineering science, home economics, music and library science.

I am gratified that so many of Florida State's loyal supporters in athletics are with us in Campbell Stadium for this exciting Seminole football season. Speaking for the entire University, I extend a warm welcome to all of our fans in the stands today. We hope that your stay on our campus will be enjoyable.

We have every reason to be proud of our athletic teams which, year after year, have established outstanding records in intercollegiate athletics. Florida State University might be said to have just entered Phase Three of its program of development in intercollegiate athletics. Phase One extended from the University's birth as a full-fledged university in 1947, to about 1960. Those were the years in which the foundation was laid for a sound program of athletics all across the board, as Florida State's name was carried throughout the region as an institution that would make its mark in athletics as it was doing in the academic arena.

Phase Two extended from about 1960 to the present. It was a period when Florida State joined the major competition, the time when we ceased to be "a breather," even for the best, and a time, incidentally, when scheduling the good teams became more difficult.

Phase Three has begun. It began on the first of January, 1971, when Larry Jones accepted our offer to become the University's sixth head coach of football. Another giant step was taken in April when Clay Stapleton agreed to become our Director of Athletics. This is the period when membership in the big leagues will pay off . . . when our acceptance as a member in full standing with other major universities engaged in athletics will bring the University and the Tallahassee community added recognition and stature and support in countless ways that go beyond the playing field.

Our success in athletics is due as well to the remarkable response of Seminole fans, whose enthusiastic support has never failed to inspire our coaches and players to demonstrate the best in sportsmanship and skill on the playing field.

Let me say a further word about community support. Your presence here today indicates that we have it in significant measure, and for that we are deeply grateful. We shall continue to solicit the support of this community and, indeed, all of Florida and beyond, for it is an essential ingredient in the recruiting of athletes, in scheduling, and in the all-important area of financial support. You may be certain that those of us at the University will do everything we can to merit the continued support and loyalty of all.

A MAN NAMED SHAUGHNESSY

by RUBE SAMUELSEN

Clark Shaughnessy

Call the roll of coaches whose names are etched in bold type on the pages of college football history . . . Knute Rockne, Pop Warner, Walter Camp, A. A. Stagg, Bill Roper, "Hurry-Up" Yost, Percy Haughton, John Heisman, Bob Zuppke, Andy Smith, Gil Dobie, Tad and Howard Jones, Wallace Wade and so many more.

Add the names, and quickly, of Dana X. Bible, Fritz Crisler, Frank Leahy, Bud Wilkinson, Bill Alexander, Bob Neyland, Don Faurot, Andy Kerr, Pappy Waldorf, Frank Cavanaugh, Jess Neely, Ossie Solem, Slip Madigan, Red Sanders, Bernie Bierman, Lou Little and Buck Shaw.

The list goes on. Nor are the giants of today, their careers now in full flower, to be overlooked. On them the record book is not closed but their deeds are certain to live in golden memory.

Most of the pace-setters gained added lustre because they were identified with one university. One man, however, was not so catalogued. His name is Clark Shaughnessy.

Shaughnessy coached at Loyola (New Orleans), Tulane, Chicago, Stanford, West Virginia and Pittsburgh, not to mention with three more teams in pro ball. Indicative of his restless, challenging spirit, he moved around just like the teams he coached. Perhaps that dimmed the overall recognition he was accorded. Nonetheless and conceivably, Shaughnessy contributed more to football strategy, offense and defense alike, than any man who ever lived. Off the field as well, he was indeed quite a man.

Changed Football's Face

Shaughnessy, who died last year, changed the tempo and face of football so that it is almost unrecognizable from that of 50, even 25 years ago. He didn't invent the T-Formation, but he took it out of its swaddling clothes, constantly streamlined it and wrote the doctoral thesis. Literally, and figuratively as well, he put wings on the football.

This dedicated man, who weight hardly varied an ounce from the 198 pounds of his Minnesota playing days some 60 years ago, took virtually the same Stanford team, which had won but one game in 1939, and coached it to an unbeaten 1940 season. As the "T", with its ball-handling wizardry, deception, brush blocking and so much more, provided the key, a 21-13 win over Nebraska in the Rose Bowl followed. That turned on, electrically, the entire college football world — turned it on receptively, so that the T-Formation almost became standard procedure.

Before he died, Gus Welch, who starred at Carlisle with Jim Thorpe, and whose life spanned Shaughnessy's, turned to George Reiffenach at a football gathering, pointed toward the noted innovator, and said:

"There's the man who has filled every stadium in the country."

Tom Fears, who played under Shaughnessy, pin-points it well with:

"Shaughnessy's dedication and his tremendous new concepts changed football immeasurably. Never has he received his just due, while others used his ideas and theories to their profit, and often took the bows. But more than anyone else, Clark Shaughnessy remains in the hearts of those who played for him."

Impressive Integrity

His influence and character also were acknowledged outside of the football sphere. To illustrate, back in the 30's, he was summoned to New York by George Whitney, head of the J. P. Morgan Company, in the hope of securing Shaughnessy's assent to coach Harvard, his alma mater. Clark declined, but the impression of his integrity upon Whitney was deep. A few weeks later the financier called the coach who was then at the University of Chicago.

"Can you recommend some young man in the midwest who would fit well into the J. P. Morgan Company program?" he asked.

Clark recommended Elmore Patterson, who played with Jay Berwanger, at the Maroon school. Patterson rose to the company's presidency.

The trail-blazing mentor was also the man most sought, largely by Jake Gaither, Florida A&M's coach, to help in opening pro football's gates wider for Negro players.

In the 30's as well, Shaughnessy was approached by representatives of the Temple Shalom, in Chicago. They asked his advice concerning Rabbi Louis Binstock of New Orleans, who Clark knew well. Later Rabbi Binstock became head of the Temple Shalom.

That was Clark Shaughnessy, who was 99 per cent Irish. To repeat, he was quite a man . . . and on all counts. Perhaps it figures. Daniel was his middle name.

HEAD COACH LARRY JONES

Larry Jones is the sixth man to lead Florida State's modern football fortunes and has already shown himself to be the most energetic of all Tribe coaches.

The youthful Jones had no sooner accepted his appointment from President Stanley Marshall, than he was out firming up his first two signees. He has been on the go ever since.

The first task was to set up a coaching staff and Coach Jones accomplished that with outstanding success. He has brought to Florida State some of the most talented young coaches in the country.

A native of Arkansas, Jones played his college ball at LSU. He joined Coach Paul Dietzel's coaching staff the day he graduated and went with him to Army and South Carolina. In 1970 he took a position with Bill Battle at Tennessee and developed the Sugar Bowl Champion's fine defense.

Larry and his wife, Judy, have three children, Bruce 9, Kevin 7, and Laura 5.

FLORIDA STATE

STEVE SLOAN

First Assistant and Head of Offense

Considered one of the brightest young offensive coaches in the business, Steve came to Florida State after three years under Bear Bryant at his Alma Mater, Alabama. He is Coach Larry Jones, chief assistant and in charge of the offense. On the field, his duties have him working with the quarterbacks and running backs.

An All-America at Alabama, Sloan led the Crimson Tide to bowl games in 1963, '64 and '65. In the latter two seasons, the Tide was National Champion. After two seasons in the National Football League (Atlanta), he returned to 'Bama to work with Bryant.

A native of Cleveland, Tenn., he is married to the former Brenda Fan, also of Cleveland. They have one son.

BILL CANTY

Bill comes to the Seminoles after eight years as an assistant at his Alma Mater, Furman. The Pascagoula, Miss., native joined the Paladin staff after graduating in 1962.

At Florida State his primary responsibility will be to head the freshman unit. Unlike recent years, when the freshmen have been used mainly as a "scout squad" for the varsity, the frosh, this season, are on their own. Canty's big chore will be to familiarize the newcomers to the Seminoles' system and develop a winning spirit among them.

Bill is the older brother of Bob Canty, who captained the Seminole baseball team in 1968. Bill is married to the former Ann Lockridge of Delta City, Miss. They have two children.

JOHN DEVLIN

Defensive Ends and Tackles

Seminole fans are well acquainted with John's coaching abilities, even though this will be the Norristown, Pa., native's first season in Tallahassee. He comes to the Tribe from Virginia Tech where he helped mold the Gobbler defenses which caused the Seminoles so much trouble.

John will head up the Seminoles' defensive "front wall." It is actually the second time that the Former West Chester State College standout has worked with Coach Larry Jones. Both were assistants under Paul Dietzel at the U.S. Military Academy in the mid-Sixties.

A former Army staff sergeant, John married Irma Kleeman of Regensburg, Germany. They have four children.

BOB HARBISON

Interior Offensive Line

Coach Larry Jones calls Harbie "Mr. Florida State." The former Indiana star has spent his entire coaching career at Florida State and that 23-year period includes all but the first season of the Seminoles' modern football history.

This year Bob switches from defense to offense where he will be in charge of the offensive line. But his value does not stop on the playing field. His general knowledge of the game and outstanding recruiting ability have been an invaluable asset to the five head coaches he has worked under.

Bob and his wife, the former Jane McEntee of Washington, D.C., have four children.

ASSISTANT COACHES

GENE HENDERSON

Head of Defense, Defensive Backs

Like Steve Sloan, Gene learned to play football under Bear Bryant. After two seasons of junior college ball, the Sonora, Tex., native transferred to Texas A & M where he was a member of the 1954 squad which survived the infamous early fall workouts at Junction, Texas.

His collegiate coaching experience includes stints at Texas Tech and TCU. He headed the TCU defense last year, before coming to Florida State.

Gene and his wife, the former Sue Wyatt of Sonora, have four children.

PAT HODGSON

Wide Receivers and Tight Ends

An All-SEC receiver at Georgia, Pat is perhaps best remembered for sparking the Bulldogs to an 18-17 win over defending National Champion Alabama on National TV in 1965. A key figure (he threw the pass) in the memorable "Flea-flicker" play which closed the gap to 17-16, Pat then caught the two-point conversion pass for the win.

After two years in the pros, he returned to Georgia as an assistant coach, heading up the freshman offense last year.

The Columbus, Ga., native was All-SEC in 1964 and '65 and led the conference in receiving in 1963.

Pat is married to the former Nancy Williams of Athens, Ga. They have two children.

BILL PARCELLS

Linebackers

This is Bill's second season with the Seminoles, as he is one of two holdovers from last year's staff (the other being Bob Harrison).

The Oradell, N.J., native came to the Tribe last year after four years at Army where he developed some of the Cadets' finest linebacking corps. He has also had coaching experience at his Alma Mater, Wichita State and Hastings College.

At Wichita, Bill was twice an All-Missouri Valley Conference selection, playing guard, tackle and linebacker. Following his graduation he was a fourth round pro-draft choice.

Bill is married to the former Judy Goss of Wichita. They have three children.

MIKE POPE

Director of High School Relations

Mike's duties keep him off the field and "on-the-go," but his task is a crucial one as he heads up the Seminole recruiting operation.

The Monroe, N.C., native stepped into the position this year, after serving a season as a graduate assistant for the Tribe last year. Mike played his college ball at Lenior Rhyne, where he was a quarterback and fullback in the Bear's single wing backfield. He had several highly successful seasons as a high school coach before coming to Florida State in 1970.

Mike is married to the former Lee Lambie of Arlington, Va.

TONIGHT'S GAME

By Lonnie Burt

Tonight's opponent, the University of Tulsa, has been somewhat of a mystery team so far in 1971. The Hurricanes have played extremely well against the tougher competition only to have letdowns against teams not so powerful.

The Hurricanes, now 3-6, reached their peak with a 21-20 victory over Arkansas in their second game of the season.

In that contest, the Razorbacks owned a 20-0 halftime advantage and it appeared they could name their own score. For the record over the past three seasons, the Hogs had defeated Tulsa 56-0, 55-0 and 49-7. However, things changed at half-time and there was no score in the third period.

In the fourth stanza, the Hurricanes made one of the great comebacks when they counted three touchdowns and shocked Arkansas 21-20. Quarterback Todd Starks threw scoring passes of 36, 9, and 27 yards for the margin of victory.

Following that shocker, the Hurricanes registered victories over West Texas State and Virginia Tech. Then came the letdown and Tulsa dropped five straight, the latest being Saturday when a good Air Force club downed the Hurricanes 17-7.

Starks, a six-foot junior from Palo Alto, Calif., has 1,345 yards passing and is connecting on 56.4 percent of his aeriels. His favorite receiver is tight end Jim Butler who has caught 44.

The Hurricanes alternate three running backs with Johnny White, a 5-8, 168-pound speedster being the most effective. Larry Fry and Mike Ridley are also capable ball carriers.

Tulsa's All-America candidate is defensive back Ralph McGill, senior from Sebring, Fla. It was McGill's key interception in the third period of the Arkansas game which turned things around. Scouts think he will go extremely high in the pro draft.

Florida State and Tulsa have faced one common opponent — Virginia Tech. The Seminoles downed the Gobblers 17-3 while the Hurricanes outlasted Tech 46-39.

This will be the second meeting between Florida State and Tulsa, the Seminoles winning in 1969, 38-20 in the Oklahoma city.

Chevrolet. Building a better way to see the U.S.A.

Our Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe at Portland Head Light, Maine.

Chevelle for 1972. It fits more families, more budgets, more garages and more vacations.

It fits so well that in the last eight years it has become an American standard—a yardstick to measure how far your money can go. And how much comfort and room your money can buy.

Our Chevelle fits families so well, in size and price, it's become America's favorite mid-size car. This year we've added improved pollution controls and a long lasting generator, among other things. Improvements with a purpose. We want your 1972 Chevelle to be the best car you ever owned. It's our way of building a better way to see the U.S.A.

FOOTBALL GLOSSARY

Audible — A vocal signal by the quarterback changing the play called in the huddle. Also called Check Off.

Blitz — Commitment by defensive backs and/or linebackers to rush the passer.

Blocking — Legally hindering the progress of an opponent by contacting him with any part of the blocker's body.

Bomb — A long pass attempt for a touch-down.

Buttonhook — A pass pattern in which the receiver goes downfield and U-turns back sharply to receive the ball.

Clipping — Running or diving into the back of an opponent, or throwing the body across the back of the leg or legs of an opponent other than the ball carrier.

Dive-Tackle Play — A quick-handoff running play over tackle.

Draw-Play — Quarterback drops back as if to pass but instead hands ball to running back, after quarterback's teammates have assumed pass-blocking positions.

Fair Catch — The opportunity for a player of the receiving team to catch a kicked ball that has crossed the scrimmage line, without being tackled or blocked by an opponent, after signaling his intention by completely extending one arm above his head.

Kickoff — A free kick with which each half is opened, and which is employed also following each try-for-point or Field Goal. A kickoff must be either a Placekick or a Dropkick.

Lateral Pass — A live ball thrown toward or parallel with the passer's own goal line.

Linebacker — A defensive player operating immediately behind his line where he can either aid linemen in stopping a running play or cover an opponent's receiver if a pass develops.

Look-In Pass — Receiver runs straight pattern and looks for the ball immediately over his inside shoulder.

Man-To-Man Coverage — Pass defense plan wherein defensive backs cover receivers wherever they go, rather than field areas.

Mike — Middle linebacker, so designated because he usually lines up opposite middle of the offensive line.

Monster — A roving linebacker who may position himself on either side of his team's defensive formation.

Neutral Zone — The space between the scrimmage lines of the offense and defense, approximating 11 inches (the length of the football).

Onside Kick — A kickoff that travels 10 yards or more is anybody's ball. The so-called "onside kick" is an effort by the kicking team to kick the ball barely beyond 10 yards and recover it before the receiving team can do so.

Pocket — Area of protection for the passer, formed by blockers. Passer drops straight back from scrimmage behind the blocking shield into what resembles a "cup" or pocket.

Post — A pass pattern in which the receiver goes downfield to pre-determined depth then cuts at an angle toward the goalposts.

Prevent Defense — A strategem replacing linebackers with additional backfield pass defenders, sacrificing strength against short gainers in order to prevent a long pass completion. Most often employed by a team protecting a lead late in either half.

Pulling Guard — Guard who pulls out behind scrimmage line for a trap block or to lead sweep blocking for ball carrier.

Reverse Play — A running play with backfield action suggesting one direction while ball carrier goes in opposite direction.

Roll-Out pass — Quarterback runs laterally with blockers before throwing, instead of dropping straight back to pass.

Sam — Strong linebacker, so designated because he usually lines up opposite the "strong side" of the offensive line.

Screen Pass — Pass to a receiver behind a wall of blockers, who have permitted defenders to penetrate.

Scrimmage Line — The yard line (marked or unmarked) that passes through point of the ball nearest a team's own goal line.

Slot Back — Back stationed in slot between interior linemen and end. Must be one yard behind the line of scrimmage.

Snap — A quick, continuous motion by which the ball is handed or snapped back with the ball leaving the hands of the snapper on the motion. The snap normally is made by the center.

Strong Side — Overbalance of offensive or defensive linemen to either side of the Center.

Stunting — Defensive players changing positions as the ball is snapped, to confuse offensive strategy.

Sweep — End run with wave of blockers leading the ball carrier.

Spearing — Illegal use of the head and helmet to ram an opponent after his momentum has stopped.

Tackling — Grasping or encircling an opponent with hands or arms.

Tight End — Offensive end who lines up in close formation (as opposed to Split End's wide set) where he can either block for a ball carrier or be employed as a pass receiver.

Widereceiver — A lineman and/or a back who is set wide for pass receiving purposes. Also called Split End, Flanker or Wideout.

Willie — Weak linebacker, so designated because he usually lines up opposite the "Weak side" of the offensive line.

Zone Coverage — Plan of pass defense wherein areas are covered rather than individual receivers Opposite of Man-To-Man.

To patronize another store,
Is not because the busier place
Has better silks, or gloves, or lace,

JOIN THE UPRISING support FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

"In my opinion the importance of intercollegiate athletics to a university has not diminished one whit . . . I suspect we need a high quality, strong athletic program now more than ever" — President Stanley Marshall, June, 1971.

"Athletics at Florida State University is moving into a new era . . . an era in which the fans and friends of Florida State will play an unprecedented role with their support. The object of the National Seminole Club is to organize this support and direct it into one of the most meaningful and personally rewarding areas within the scope of our program . . ."

TOMMY WARREN BO MITCHELL

Florida State's football games, whether played at home or away, will be heard throughout "Seminole Territory" on the Seminole Football Network.

With Tallahassee's WTNT acting as the originating station, 30 stations will carry every play to Seminole fans in Florida, South Georgia and South Alabama. In addition, several Florida State games will be heard from time to time as "Pick of Dixie" games.

Heading up the Seminole Network broadcast team once again will be Bo Mitchell. A veteran of more than 20 years broadcasting, Mitchell will be in his ninth season as the Seminoles' play-by-play man. In addition to Seminole games, Mitchell has also done play-by-play for the AFL All Star game, Senior and Tangerine Bowl games.

Joining the former Florida Sportscaster of the Year and station manager of WTRL in Bradenton will be former Seminole quarterback Tommy Warren. The Miami native moves from the playing field to the broadcast booth after directing the Tribe to a 7-4 season last year. Now enrolled in Florida State's Law School, Warren will serve as color man.

The Star Spangled Banner

O, say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that Star-spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and home of the brave?

FOOTBALL STAFF

FRANK DEBORD

Equipment Manager

This will be Frank's second season as the Seminoles' equipment chief after serving three years as the assistant.

A native of Marion, Va., the Quincy resident attended Virginia Tech where he lettered in football and wrestling before receiving his B.S. degree in 1942.

Frank was an assistant football coach at Franklin, Va., High School and also played two seasons with Norfolk in the Continental League.

He is not only in charge of all the Seminoles' grid equipment, but also he directs the practice field's upkeep as well.

Frank and his wife, the former Marian Bradshaw of Franklin, Va., have three children. A fourth, David, was a member of the Marshall football team killed in last fall's tragic air crash.

DON FAULS

Head Trainer

"Rooster," as he is affectionately known by present and former Seminoles alike, will be starting his 18th season at Florida State this fall.

The Ithaca, N.Y., native started his training career in the St. Louis Cardinals' minor league system, working with the Greensboro, N.C., team in 1950-51 and with the Omaha, Neb., club from 1952-54.

Don was honored by being named head trainer for the United States Pan-Am Games team in 1963 and is currently on the Olympic Trainers' Selection Committee.

He lettered in baseball and basketball while attending Ithaca College in his hometown.

Don's success can be underscored by the large number of his former assistants who have gone on to head jobs at other institutions.

Don and his wife, the former Marguerite Morgan of Naples, N.Y., have three children.

DOUG MAY

Assistant Trainer

This will be this Meridian, Miss., native's second season as Don Fauls' assistant.

Since coming to Florida State, Doug has traveled with the Seminole basketball and baseball teams.

A graduate of Ole Miss, he served as a student trainer while attending college, handling the Rebels' freshman football team along with the varsity basketball and baseball clubs.

Doug is married to the former Cissy Knott of Yazoo City, Miss.

FANS RALLY TO BLIND CAGER'S AID

by GUS SCHRADER, Sports Editor, Cedar Rapids Gazette

Anyone who mistakenly thinks a college athlete is quickly forgotten and neglected when his usefulness is exhausted should hear about James Speed.

Jim came to the University of Iowa in September, 1970, as a highly-publicized junior college basketball star. He had been named to the all-California JC team the two previous seasons at Imperial Valley, averaging 23 points and 20 rebounds a game.

Iowa Coach Dick Schultz planned to have the 6-7, 210-pound native of Shreveport, La., take up some of the slack after losing five players from the top six who swept the Hawkeyes to a 14-0 Big Ten record the previous year.

Less than six weeks after basketball practice began in October, James Speed lay permanently blinded in a hospital room. He had been afflicted with a terribly damaging combination of meningitis and sinusitis.

It was, of course, far worse for Jim's personal life than it was for Iowa's basketball team. He seemed destined for two seasons of stardom at Iowa, then he was counting on a pro career to provide the financial means of pulling him and his family out of an impoverished situation back home in Shreveport.

Sight Gone

With his sight gone and his world tumbling about his head, Jim found Iowans quickly loosen their purse strings the minute their heart strings are touched.

Basketball fans who had never seen this young man play—had never seen him at all—began mailing in checks for the James Speed fund. It mushroomed as organizations all over the state staged benefits in his behalf.

By May 1, 1971, the fund had grown to $14,300. When the news spread, money also was received from people back home in Shreveport, and from those around El Centro, Calif., who had watched him play JC ball.

Although his illness had no connection with athletics, the University of Iowa picked up the tab for Jim's medical bills. The state of Iowa gave him a free training course at its school for the blind in Des Moines.

When he finished there, he planned to return to the University to finish his education. Iowa promised him his scholarship—room, board, books and tuition—would be continued whenever he chose to use it.

If a man had to have such terrible misfortune, at least he could be thankful he had a coach with as much feeling and thoughtfulness as Schultz. The Schultz family had Jim's mother stay at their home for two months during Jim's illness. They gave him gifts, went to see him, drove him everywhere, catered to his every need.

Round-the-Clock Shifts

Jim's teammates didn't neglect him either. His roommate was Ken Grabinski, junior forward from Clear Lake, Iowa. Ken and the other Hawkeye players arranged around-the-clock shifts to sit with Jim during his feverish illness so he couldn't accidentally harm himself in the hospital.

"It's still amazing how this could happen to Jim," said Schultz. "Iowa City is practically one big medical complex. Yet this illness struck him so swiftly that his sight was gone before doctors could battle it."

Speed complained of a heavy cold the week prior to Thanksgiving. He didn't think it was important to tell the team physician that he had a history of sinus problems, probably because he hadn't been bothered during the two school years he spent at Imperial Valley in the California desert.

An unfortunate coincidence occurred. Last November 27, Jim told his coach, "My teeth are killing me." So Schultz directed him to the university dental clinic, where he had two carious molars removed.

Jim was back watching his teammates practice later in the afternoon. But a few hours later he developed a headache. After a nearly sleepless night, he returned to the dental clinic and received a mild medication for pain. The teeth sockets were healing normally.

That was Saturday, November 28. Next day Schultz went to Chicago for a Big Ten basketball meeting and wasn't able to fly home until Monday. He called to Iowa City Sunday night, however, and learned Speed had phoned Mrs. Schultz to say he could not go to classes Monday because the headaches were worse.

When Schultz got back to Iowa City Monday, he decided to see if the headaches were caused by something more serious than tooth extraction. Dr. W. D. Paul, team physician, immediately sent Jim to the student infirmary.

"Unreal Timetable"

"The timetable of this thing is un-

JAMES SPEED

Iowans came to help

real," Schultz said. "Jim had only a half-degree of temperature when we checked him into the hospital that afternoon. Yet between midnight and 4:30 the next morning it had leaped to 104."

Experts in ophthalmology and neurology were summoned. They discovered from a spinal tap he had meningitis. But the real culprit was a severe swelling of the ethmoid sinus cavities. His eyes were swelled shut, cutting off the blood supply to the optic nerve.

Not only did this quickly destroy his eyesight, but his very life was endangered because of pressure on the brain. An emergency operation probably saved him from suffering brain damage.

"Once this infection was solidly under way," said Dr. Maurice Van Allen, professor of neurology who headed the team of physicians, "I am of the opinion nothing could have been done to save his sight. The pulling of his teeth had nothing to do with it. This merely was a red herring that delayed finding out what the real problem was."

It must always be a world of darkness for James Speed. If the damage had been to the cornea at the front of the eyeball, there would be the possibility of transplant. But the retinas at the back of his eyeballs were so badly scarred he will never have any useful vision.

Jim isn't alone in his darkness. Big-hearted Iowans and others—sight unseen—have forked over $14,300 to help this unfortunate young man find a pathway to guide him in the years to come.

Florida State's 1971-72 Basketball Team promises to be one of the Seminoles' most exciting ever. Three of the top four scorers return, four starters are back, plus some top-notch sophomores coming up from the freshman ranks. Among those returning to COACH HUGH DURHAM'S club this season are RON KING, who broke the Seminole single game scoring record with a 46-point effort; also big REGGIE ROYALS, one of the nation's top rebounders, although only a sophomore last year. And don't forget other exciting players like 5-7 passing whiz OTTO PETTY, leaping ROWLAND GARRETT and slick GREG SAMUEL.
