Welcome To The South's Friendliest Ca

Florida State University is a study in contrasts, its palm trees and oaks shading charming old buildings with Gothic spires and striking contemporary structures of brick and steel.

Its history dates back to 1857, when the state legislature named it the Seminary West of the Suwanee. Later it became Florida State College for Women but in 1947, that venerable institution became coeducational Florida State University and a growth spurt started that hasn't stopped yet. Enrollment this year has topped 21,000.

The University has a total population larger than many towns. Add the staff of over 7,100 employees, including some 1,300 faculty members and you have a nearly 30,000 members of an active, vital community.

Contract and grant expenditures for 1974-75 for research and training at Florida State amounted to $17,285,000. The University has an operating budget of $81 million, which includes state, federal and private sources.

The University's 14 schools and colleges include Arts and Sciences, Business, Social Sciences, Criminology, Communication, Nursing, Work, Library Science, Home Economics, Theatre, Law, Music and Visual Arts. In these fields there are 52 doctoral programs, more than 80 bachelor's and master's programs.

Florida State was one of the first in the nation to have its affirmative action program approved by the U. S. Department of Education and Welfare. The University aims to build a community in which all are equalized and uses its facilities and resources to develop the skills and talents of the members of all groups so they may play significant and productive roles in society.

From One Seminole Fan to Another . .

Florida State football fans are looking to the 1975 season with a high degree of optimism.

That optimistic feeling is stronger than ever in 1975. Darrell Mudra, entering his second year as head coach, began the 1974 season with, for the most part, a team of young, unseasoned players. He enters this season with many of the same players — only this year they have the experience and knowledge of veterans. And when you add the talented freshmen players who chose Florida State, you have what promises to be a very exciting season.

Enthusiasm and spirit among the players, coaches and fans is at an all-time high. The 1975 Seminoles want to win. Winning has been a tradition at Florida State. Everyone is anxious to return to those winning ways!

The 1974 schedule was a rugged one and this year's schedule is equally demanding. Over the past seasons, alumni, students, faculty, staff, friends, and Seminole boosters have shown their loyalty through increased attendance and continued financial support. This year is no exception.

The enthusiasm emanating from loyal fans is reflected on the field. Players reach back, so to speak, for that extra drive that often provides the winning margin. No one can deny that fans play a very important part in any competition.

Let's show our Seminoles and their coaches that they have our full confidence and support.

DR. MARSHALL

Sincerely yours,

Stanley Marshall
President

MEMPHIS STATE UNIVERSITY

During its six and one half decades of service to the Mid-South area, Memphis State University has grown from a rural teachers college to a nationally respected institution offering major study in 82 different areas.

More than 22,500 students are enrolled for courses on the highly developed campus and they represent almost every state in the United States as well as more than 45 foreign countries. Degrees ranging from the associate of arts in nursing to the doctor of philosophy are available.

Founded in 1912, Memphis State University is comprised of a College of Arts and Sciences, a College of Business Administration, a College of Education, The Herff College of Engineering, the School of Law, the Graduate School and the Division of Continuing Studies.

With a total land area of 1,100 acres, the University extends to four separate locations. A 640-acre forest farm houses biology field stations and a retreat area for conferences to the northwest, while Chucalissa Indian Village, a local tourist attraction and archaeological field site, is located in southwest Shelby County. The University also operates the Memphis Speech and Hearing Center in the mid-town medical center. The main campus, now in the heart of the city, comprises 150 acres.

Memphis State was founded in 1912 as West Tennessee State Normal School. It became West Tennessee State Teachers College in 1925 and Memphis State College in 1941. University status was granted by the legislature in 1957.

TURSDAY NIGHT

SPECIAL SALUTE—The Athletic Department and Seminole Boosters, Inc. send a special salute to senior defensive back Chris Griffin who has maintained a 4.0 (straight "A") grade point average through his first three years of work at Florida State.

The Seminole Saturday Night umbrella tonight covers one of the most ambitious array of festivities yet put together. Actually tonight's game is the culmination of a weekend full of "specials."

Consider that tonight is:

"Mom and Dad's Night"—The parents of all FSU students have been invited to campus for a special day and evening of festivities and meetings.

"Scholar Athlete Night"—The Athletic Department tonight salutes its scholar athletes. Those young men you meet the challenges on both the field of battle and in the classroom.

"Bicentennial Night"—The Seminoles take part in a special NCAA Bicentennial program.

A medal for Johnny.

When you give him this medal, tell him of the heritage for which it stands.

For Paul Revere, the Boston

silversmith, who on the night of April 18, 1775, made his legendary ride to Lexington to warn the citizenry, "The Redcoats are coming!"

And for the Minutemen. For those men who fell at Lexington Common on the morning of April 19, 1775. The first American casualties of "the shot heard round the world."

For all the ragged irregulars. All the Johnnys and Nathaniels and Jebbediahs who rose to conquer one of the mightiest military forces to gain the freedom we have held so dear for almost 200 years.

In honor of these men and their deeds, the Congress of the United States, through the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, has issued this commemorative medal.

IF YOU HAVE AN ATTRACTION

As soon as you step on board a Southern jet, you'll see that there's no "First Class" and no "Tourist Class." So no flight attendant will send you to the rear of the plane and then pull that curtain in your face. Every one of our passengers enjoys the same delicious food, the same comfortable legroom and the same courteous attention from our flight attendants. Because on Southern, there's just one class of service. And it definitely isn't second.
