BILL O'BRIEN

THE GREGORY P. BARBER '69 & FAMILY HEAD COACH

Bill O'Brien enters his third season on The Heights after being hired as the 37th head coach in Boston College Football history on Feb. 9, 2024.

With O'Brien at the helm, redshirt senior wide receiver Lewis Bond had a career year in 2025. He became Boston College's all-time leader in receptions, breaking a three-year record set by first-round draft pick Zay Flowers. In addition, Bond finished the season fourth nationally in receptions per game (7.3) and twentieth in the country in total receiving yards (993) en route to All-ACC Second Team honors. Bond's 88 catches for 993 yards marked career-highs in each category. The Chicago, Ill. native finished his Boston College career with 2,385 reception yards, which is fifth all-time in Boston College Football history.

Under O'Brien's guidance, the Eagles finished fourteenth in total passing offense in the country, averaging 280.4 yards per game in 2025. In 10 games with nine starts at quarterback in his first full season, redshirt sophomore Dylan Lonergan registered 190 completions, moving him inside the top-10 in single-season completions in school history.

In 2025, several key Eagles' defenders made a name for themselves. Junior safety KP Price led the team in tackles in back-to-back seasons, finishing with 94 tackles, including three for loss, three quarterback hits, two interceptions, and one fumble recovery en route to All-ACC Second-Team honors. Price's 5.4 solo tackles per game was third-best in the country and best in the ACC. Sophomore safety Omar Thornton forced 0.33 fumbles per game, which ranked sixth nationally and third-best in the ACC.

In his first season with the Eagles, O'Brien guided Boston College to a 7-6 record and an appearance in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. The Eagles started the season with a top-10 win at Florida State and entered the top-25 for the first time in six years after a 2-0 start. O'Brien and the Eagles also posted the first six-win season at Alumni Stadium since 2009 and sold out two home games for the first time since 2006.

Boston College posted top-25 rankings nationally in nine statistical categories across the FBS. BC was 12th nationally and first in the ACC in the fewest penalties per game at 4.46. The team's 0.69 turnover margin ranked 17th, led by a defense that totaled 17 interceptions; the seventh most in the country and tops in the conference. O'Brien's offense ranked 22nd in team passing efficiency at 114.9 and the defense 22nd in rushing defense at 114.9.

As a senior on O'Brien's first team, Donovan Ezeiruaku led the nation in sacks at 1.38 per game, while tying the BC single-season record at 16.5, which led all FBS players in the regular season. Ezeiruaku earned ACC Defensive Player of the Year and the Ted Hendricks Award as college football's top defensive end. Ezeiruaku also became the 13th consensus All-American in BC history with first-team honors from the AP, AFCA and Sporting News plus second-team honors from the Walter Camp Foundation.

O'Brien owns an all-time coaching record of 76-73 in 11 seasons as a head coach in college football and the NFL. He is 24-25 all-time in the college game.

A 32-year coaching veteran in the college and professional ranks upon his arrival, O'Brien was elevated to his first head coaching post at Penn State in 2012. He guided the Nittany Lions to an overall record of 15-9 and 10-6 Big Ten mark during the span of two seasons while directing the program through a postseason ban. He was named the head coach of the NFL's Houston Texans in 2014, leading the franchise to a 52-48 record, four AFC South Division titles, and four playoff appearances - including two Wild Card round wins - between 2014 and 2020.

While with Penn State, O'Brien was recognized in 2012 with a pair of national coaching awards - the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year, and the George Munger Award for Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club. The Nittany Lions' eight wins in 2012 were the most by a first-year head coach in Penn State history, earning O'Brien Big Ten Coach of the Year honors. In 2013, O'Brien and Penn State won seven games, including two top 25 victories, downing No. 18 Michigan at home and winning at No. 14 Wisconsin. The Nittany Lions boasted two first team All-Americans during his tenure - linebacker Michael Mauti (2012) and wide receiver Allen Robinson (2013) - and 10 All-Big Ten selections.

O'Brien returned to the NFL in 2014 as the head coach of the Houston Texans. During his tenure, Houston posted five winning seasons, including back-to-back double-digit win seasons in 2018 (11-5) and 2019 (10-6). The 21 combined wins rank as the second-most in a two-year span in franchise history. Houston's offense ranked in the top-10 in rushing in the league on four occasions. The 2019 Texans' squad featured a 3,500-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher, and a 1,000-yard receiver for only the fourth time in franchise history.

After his time in Houston, O'Brien returned to the college game as the quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator at Alabama under Nick Saban in 2021 and 2022. He mentored Heisman Trophy winning QB Bryce Young and helped the Crimson Tide reach the College Football Playoff national championship game in 2021. In his second season, Alabama was fourth nationally in scoring offense (41.1 points/game), 11th in total offense (477.1 yards/game) and 19th in passing offense (281.5 yards/game) en route to an 11-2 record and a victory in the Sugar Bowl.

O'Brien, who totaled six years across two stints on Bill Belichick's staff, helped guide the New England Patriots to two AFC titles and appearances in Super Bowl XLII and XLVI in six total years on the Patriots' coaching staff. Most recently, he spent the 2023 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach of the New England Patriots. He served in four different roles in Foxboro, including offensive coordinator during the 2011 season. With O'Brien as the OC, the Patriots went 13-3, earned the top-seed in the AFC, led the AFC in scoring (32.1 points per game), and ranked second in the NFL in total offense (428.0 yards per game) on the way to the Super Bowl. O'Brien was also the quarterbacks coach for two seasons, working directly with Tom Brady. During that time, Brady earned 2010 Associated Press MVP and All-Pro First Team honors.

Before entering the NFL, O'Brien gained 14 years of experience at the collegiate level, including 12 years in the ACC. His coaching career began at his alma mater Brown, serving as the tight ends coach (1993) and inside linebackers coach (1994). He then began an eight-year stretch at Georgia Tech as a graduate assistant (1995-97), running backs coach (1998-00) and offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (2001-02). O'Brien then spent two seasons as the running backs coach at Maryland (2003-04) before a two-year stint as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Duke (2005-06).

Born in Dorchester, Mass., O'Brien was raised in Andover. He played linebacker and defensive end at Brown and graduated with a double concentration in political science and organizational behavioral management in 1992. O'Brien and his wife, Colleen, have two sons, Jack and Michael.

LEADING THE EAGLES

Ben Albert

Defensive Line

Ben Albert enters his fourth overall season with the Boston College Football program as Defensive Line Coach. He returns to The Heights in 2026 after coaching the Eagles' defensive line from 2013-15.

Prior to his return to Boston College, Albert served as Assistant Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator/Defensive Line at Massachusetts for three seasons (2022-24). In his first season back with the Minutemen, his alma mater, Albert helped the defense move from 130th to 55th in FBS.

Before arriving in Amherst, Albert spent six seasons (2016-21) on staff at Duke, serving as Co-Defensive Coordinator while coaching the defensive line.

In 2021, he saw two Blue Devil defensive ends, Chris Rumph II and Victor Dimukeje, drafted by the Los Angeles Chargers and Arizona Cardinals, in the fourth and sixth rounds of the 2021 NFL Draft. For the second straight year, Albert coached the pair to All-ACC honors.

He joined the Duke staff after spending three seasons (2013-15) coaching the defensive line at Boston College. Albert helped the Eagles to bowl game appearances in 2013 and 2014. He mentored defensive end Harold Landry, who was a second-round pick by the Tennessee Titans in the 2018 NFL Draft. Landry earned All-America accolades while at Boston College and established the school's single season record for sacks.

Prior to his time in Chestnut Hill, Albert served two seasons (2011-12) as Linebackers Coach at Temple. In 2011, he helped the Owls rank third nationally in scoring defense (13.9) as Temple posted a 9-4 overall record and defeated Wyoming, 37-15, in the New Mexico Bowl, for the program's first bowl victory in 32 years. While at Temple, Albert played a critical role in developing Tahir Whitehead, who earned All-MAC honors prior to being a fifth-round choice of the Detroit Lions in the 2012 NFL Draft.

A former All-Conference defensive lineman at Massachusetts, Albert coached the defensive line for two seasons (1995-96) before helping Richmond to a pair of conference championships during a four-year (1997-2000) stint coaching the Spiders' defensive line and linebackers.

After one season (2001) mentoring the defensive front at Rutgers, Albert returned to Massachusetts for two seasons (2002-03). During this stretch, he helped the Minutemen to the 2003 Atlantic 10 Conference Championship and aided in the recruitment of fellow Paterson, N.J. native, wide receiver Victor Cruz, to Massachusetts.

Albert graduated from Massachusetts in 1995 with a degree in political science and sociology. He later earned a master's degree in education from Massachusetts in 1997. Albert and his wife, Lisa, have two children, Maya and Elijah.

Kurt Anderson

Offensive Line

Kurt Anderson enters his first season as Offensive Line Coach for the Boston College Football program.

Anderson comes to The Heights after spending last season coaching the offensive line at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst.

Anderson played a role in the development of two first-round NFL Draft selections while at Northwestern in Peter Skoronski (2023 – Tennessee Titans) and Rashawn Slater (2021 – Los Angeles Chargers) in his six years in Evanston. He saw Skoronski become the first unanimous First-Team All-American in Northwestern history while earning Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year, Rimington-Pace Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year and Outland Trophy honors in 2022. Under Anderson's tutelage, Slater was a three-year starter on the offensive line, and did not allow a sack in 11 games en route to a consensus honorable mention All-Big Ten selection in 2019. He graded out as the No. 2 overall among Power Five returning offensive tackles, per PFF, and was named to the Outland Trophy watchlist in 2020.

Before his time at Northwestern, Anderson spent two years as offensive line coach at Arkansas. With the Razorbacks, he mentored 2017 Detroit Lions first round draft pick and All-SEC offensive lineman Frank Ragnow. Anderson aided Ragnow in being named the nation's best offensive lineman, best run blocker, a First-Team All-American by PFF and a Second-Team All-SEC choice by the Associated Press.

Prior to Arkansas, Anderson spent 2013-15 with the Buffalo Bills as assistant offensive line coach. In 2015, the Bills led the NFL in rush yards per game (152.0) and yards per rush (4.8) and were fifth in the AFC in total offense (360.9).. He also coached two 2015 NFL Pro Bowl selections in Eric Wood and Richie Incognito. In addition, running back LeSean McCoy was one of three Buffalo players to rush for 500-plus yards in 2015, marking the first time that feat has been accomplished by the Bills since 1962.

Before joining the Bills, Anderson spent five seasons at Eastern Michigan, primarily as run game coordinator (2010-12). He helped the Eagles rush for over 2,000 yards in three consecutive seasons for the first time in program history.

Anderson joined Eastern Michigan after a two-year stint at his alma mater, Michigan. While on staff with the Wolverines, Anderson spent the 2007 campaign as a graduate assistant coach for the offensive line, helping develop All-American tackle and the No. 1 overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft, Jake Long.

A standout offensive lineman at Michigan, Anderson was a two-year letter winner (2000-01) as the starting center and received the Hugh R. Rader Jr. Memorial Award as the team's top offensive lineman. He was also named an All-Big Ten Honorable Mention following the 2001 season. As a player and coach, Anderson has been involved in seven bowl games, highlighted by Michigan's 1998 Rose Bowl win that sealed the program's national championship.

Anderson, a native of Evanston, Illinois, graduated with a bachelor's degree in sport management and communication from Michigan in 2001.

Joe Dailey

Wide Receivers

Joe Dailey returns to The Heights in 2026 for his second stint as Wide Receivers Coach. Dailey initially coached the Eagles' wideouts from 2020-21.

Most recently, Dailey served as passing game coordinator/quarterbacks at Hampton University. Prior to his time at Hampton, Dailey was an offensive analyst at Kansas in 2023. That season, the Jayhawks capped a 9–4 season with their first bowl victory in 17 years.

Before arriving in Lawrence, Dailey coached wide receivers with the Carolina Panthers in 2022. Under Dailey's mentorship, D.J. Moore caught 63 passes for 888 yards for a then-career-high seven touchdowns. With Dailey on staff, Carolina won four of their final six games en route to a second-place NFC South finish.

In his first stint at Boston College as wide receivers coach, Dailey helped the Eagles to consecutive bowl-eligible seasons. He mentored future first-round draft pick Zay Flowers during his sophomore and junior seasons in which he compiled a total of 100 catches for 1,638 yards and 14 touchdowns en route to All-ACC recognition both years. He became just the second Boston College All-ACC first-team wide receiver in school history in his sophomore season, joining Alex Amidon (2012).

Dailey initially came to Boston College after serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at New Mexico in 2019. Prior to New Mexico, Dailey spent seven seasons on staff at Liberty.

At Liberty, he was on Turner Gill's staff since 2012, first serving as quarterbacks coach before becoming the offensive coordinator in 2014. In 2018 Liberty ranked 34th nationally in points per game, averaging 33.3 points per game.

Dailey tutored Liberty quarterback Josh Woodrum, who was one of just 22 FCS players invited to the 2016 NFL Combine, eventually going 25-for-36 in the preseason with 321 yards and four touchdowns. Over his seven seasons with Liberty, the Flames won four league titles, advanced to the FCS

Playoffs once and never had a losing season.

Dailey got his start in coaching at the University at Buffalo, where he served as an offensive graduate assistant in 2008 before becoming tight ends coach in 2009, both seasons under Gill. In 2008, the Bulls captured their first Mid-American Conference title, finishing 8-6 and playing in the 2009 International Bowl in Toronto. In both of his seasons with Buffalo, the Bulls ranked in the top 40 in offense.

Dailey then moved to Kansas for a year, where he served as recruiting coordinator before serving as quarterbacks coach at Bethune-Cookman.

Dailey, one of the nation's most sought-after run-pass high school quarterbacks, started his collegiate career at Nebraska. As a sophomore at Nebraska, Dailey established new quarterbacking standards. In Nebraska's matchup against Colorado, he became the first quarterback in program history to throw 300 yards in a game and set a single-game passing record with 342 yards in a 59-27 victory over Baylor.

Dailey transferred to North Carolina where he finished the last two years of his playing career. In 2006, he started seven games as quarterback and led the program with 1,316 passing yards and seven touchdowns. The following year, Dailey finished his Tar Heel days as a starting wide receiver.

A native of Freehold, N.J., Dailey and his wife Carrie have four children, Stella, Noah, Myles and Tyson.

Jonathan DiBiaso

Quarterbacks

Jonathan DiBiaso enters his third season as the Matt and Rebecca Carroll Family Quarterbacks Coach after being promoted by head coach Bill O'Brien in 2024. He spent the 2023 season as an offensive analyst, working closely with the BC quarterbacks.

DiBiaso commanded an Eagles passing attack that finished fourteenth nationally in total passing offense in 2025, averaging 280.4 yards per game. In 10 games with nine starts at quarterback in his first full season, redshirt sophomore Dylan Lonergan registered 190 completions, moving him inside the top-10 in single-season completions in school history.

In 2024, under DiBiaso's mentorship, QB Tommy Castellanos completed 288-of-491 passes for 3,614 yards and 33 passing touchdowns. On the ground, he added 1,307 rushing yards and 15 touchdowns, becoming the first player in Boston College history with 2,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a single season.

With DiBiaso's assistance, Castellanos finished with the second-most rushing yards by an FBS quarterback (1,113), trailing only Heisman Winner Jayden Daniels. Castellanos finished tied with the most rushing touchdowns of any quarterback in FBS (13), and led Boston College to a Fenway Bowl championship.

After starting his coaching career on the Heights as a graduate assistant from 2018-2020, DiBiaso took an offensive analyst job at Vanderbilt in 2021. The 2021 Commodores offense averaged 313 yards per game, including 124 rushing yards per game.

From Vanderbilt, DiBiaso took a graduate assistant position at Pittsburgh for the 2022 season before returning to Boston College. At Pitt, he worked with a Panther team that went 9-4 and defeated UCLA in the Sun Bowl.

DiBiaso, who played high school football at Everett High School in Everett, Mass. for his father John DiBiaso, played two seasons at Dartmouth (2013-14) and two seasons at Tufts (2015-16), earning his degree from Tufts in 2018.

LEADING THE EAGLES

Michigan's Interim Head Coach for one game in 2023, a 35-7 win over UNLV, on the way to the Wolverines winning a national championship. Michigan's all-time leading rusher, Hart was a two-time Doak Walker Award finalist and finished fifth in the 2006 Heisman Trophy voting.

Hart returned to Ann Arbor in 2021 as Running Backs Coach and was elevated to Run-Game Coordinator in 2022 before serving as Interim Head Coach for one game in 2023.

Under Hart, Michigan's rushing attack paved the way to three straight Big Ten titles and a run to the 2023 College Football Playoff National Championship. He helped Blake Corum become Michigan's first back-to-back 1,000-yard rusher since Denard Robinson, as he also set the program rushing record with 58 scores on the ground in four years. Corum led the offense with 1,245 rushing yards and a school record 27 rushing touchdowns, earning unanimous All-American honors and a second straight Big Ten Running Back of the Year Award.

In 2022, Hart guided the Wolverine rushing attack to a top-15 national rank and the No. 1 rank in the Big Ten, including finishing the season ranked No. 5 nationally at 238.9 yards per game. U-M eclipsed 3,000 yards on the ground in two of his three seasons to go along with 39 touchdowns in 2021 (No. 1 in the NCAA) and 41 in 2022 (No. 2 in the NCAA).

Hart has coached two Wolverines to first-team All-Big Ten honors: Corum (2022) and Hassan Haskins (2021). Both backs rushed for at least 1,200 yards and scored at least 18 touchdowns. Haskins scored a Michigan record 20 rushing touchdowns and totaled 169 yards and five touchdowns in the 2021 win over Ohio State, becoming the first-ever player to score five times on the Buckeyes.

In his 10 seasons coaching before Michigan, Hart mentored four 1,000-yard rushers and the 2014 MAC Offensive Player of the Year, Jarvion Franklin.

Before returning to Ann Arbor, Hart spent four years coaching running backs at Indiana University (2017-20). As a member of the Hoosiers coaching staff, Hart was a 2018

Broyles Award nominee. He was elevated to Associate Head Coach in 2020 after serving as an Assistant Coach during the 2018 and 2019 seasons.

Hart returned to his home state as the running backs coach at Syracuse University for the 2016 season before accepting the running backs post at Indiana.

He spent two seasons in Kalamazoo (2014-15), helping Western Michigan earn consecutive bowl bids for the first time in school history in the 2015 Bahamas Bowl and 2014 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Hart coached a pair of Broncos' running backs to MAC Freshman of the Year honors after 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Jamauri Bogan rushed for 1,051 yards and was second in the league with 16 TDs in 2015.

Hart began his coaching career at Eastern Michigan, serving as Offensive Quality Control Coach in 2011 before being promoted to Running Backs Coach in 2012 and 2013.

Hart was a four-year starter at running back for the Wolverines (2004-07), and set the school record with 5,040 yards on 1,015 carries and 41 rushing touchdowns. He holds the Michigan record with 28 career 100-yard rushing games, and his 117.2 rushing yards per contest is at the top in school history.

After graduating from Michigan in 2009, Hart was selected by the Indianapolis Colts in the sixth round of the 2008 NFL Draft. He played three seasons for the Colts, carrying the ball 71 times for 264 yards and two TDs in 21 career games. He was a member of the Colts' Super Bowl XLIV team that was a runner-up to the New Orleans Saints in 2010.

A native of Syracuse, N.Y., Hart attended Onondaga Central High School. He set the national high school career record with 204 rushing touchdowns and finished second with 11,045 rushing yards. Onondaga Central compiled a 46-1 record and won three state championships during Hart's career.

Hart and his wife, Monique, have three children.

LEADING THE EAGLES

Jules Montinar

Defensive Backs

Jules Montinar enters his first season with the Boston College Football program as Defensive Backs Coach.

A 16-year coaching veteran, Montinar arrives at The Heights after serving as Cornerbacks Coach at Oklahoma State last season. He spent the 2023 and 2024 seasons as Defensive Pass Game Coordinator/Cornerbacks at East Carolina, where he led a 2024 defensive unit that finished the regular season ranked No. 9 nationally in defensive touchdowns, No. 11 in tackles for loss, No. 16 in red zone defense, No. 25 in turnovers gained, and No. 27 in interceptions.

Montinar was critical in the development of cornerback Shavon Revel while at East Carolina, who earned All-AAC second-team and All-AAC Honorable Mention honors under Montinar's guidance. Revel was later selected in the third round (76th overall) by the Dallas Cowboys in the 2025 NFL Draft.

Prior to his time at East Carolina, Montinar spent one season at Temple in 2022 serving as Cornerbacks Coach.

Montinar was Florida's Cornerbacks Coach for one season in 2021, where he mentored a unit that ranked No. 1 in pass defense in the SEC, improving from a ninth-place ranking in 2020.

From 2016-18, Montinar spent three seasons as Cornerbacks Coach at Texas State. Here, he established himself as an elite recruiter, earning 247Sports' 2017 Sun Belt Recruiter-of-the-Year honors.

While at James Madison from 2014-15, Montinar commanded a secondary that collected a total of 22 turnovers and scored seven touchdowns, with the Dukes' corners leading the FCS with four pick-sixes in 2014.

Montinar spent two years as a Graduate Assistant coaching the defense at Alabama from 2012-13, working alongside Nick Saban and Kirby Smart.

Prior to getting into coaching, Montinar played at West Virginia before transferring to Eastern Kentucky. He participated in a pair of Gator Bowls while at West Virginia, and was a starting defensive back and special teams captain at Eastern Kentucky. He won an Ohio Valley Conference championship as a senior in 2007.

He and his wife, Brittany, have two sons, Madden and Maverick, and two daughters, Maya and Macy.

Ted Roof

Kevin T. Fee Family Defensive Coordinator

Ted Roof enters his first season with the Boston College Football program as Kevin T. Fee Family Defensive Coordinator.

Roof first became a defensive coordinator in 1995-96 at Massachusetts. He has led defenses at Georgia Tech, Duke, Minnesota, Auburn, UCF, Penn State, North Carolina State, Appalachian State, Vanderbilt and Oklahoma during his career. He also served as Head Coach at Duke from 2004-07. In all, he has mentored over 110 student-athletes who went on to the professional ranks.

Roof has been part of teams that combined for 17 bowl appearances, including a Bowl Championship Series national title run as Auburn's defensive coordinator following the 2010 season. He has 30-plus years of Power 4 coaching experience.

Roof mostly recently served as Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers at UCF. Under Roof's tutelage, defensive back Mac McWilliams was selected by the Philadelphia Eagles in the fifth round (145th overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft, becoming just one of two Knights drafted that season.

Before his time at UCF, Roof spent two seasons at Oklahoma as Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers. In 2023, the Sooners ranked third nationally in takeaways per game (2.0), seventh in tackles for loss per game (7.5) and 14th in third down defense.

Prior to his time at Oklahoma, Roof spent the 2021 season on Clemson's staff as a Defensive Analyst. That year, Roof assisted a Tigers defense that finished top-5 in the ACC in several categories, including second in sacks (42), third in fumbles recovered (8), and fifth in interceptions (12).

Assistant Coaches

LEADING THE EAGLES

Roof's head coaching tenure came at Duke, where he first served as Defensive Coordinator during the 2002 and 2003 seasons. He was promoted to Interim Head Coach during the 2003 season and held the position for four more years.

After his time in Durham, Roof served as Defensive Coordinator at Minnesota (2008), Auburn (2009-11) and Penn State under Coach O'Brien (2012) before returning to his alma mater — Georgia Tech — for five seasons (2013-17).

As Auburn's Defensive Coordinator and Linebackers coach, he helped guide the Tigers to at least seven wins in each of his three seasons, which included a 14-0 campaign and BCS National Championship in 2010. In the national title game, Auburn held Oregon to 19 points, which was 30 points below the Ducks' season average.

From 2008-20, Roof's defenses limited opponents to 110 or fewer rushing yards 57 times and posted a 48-9 record in such games.

Roof's first stint at Georgia Tech came in 1998 as Linebackers Coach before being promoted to Defensive Coordinator, a position he held from 1999-01.

Prior to moving to Atlanta, he was the Defensive Coordinator at Western Carolina (1997) and Massachusetts (1995-96). He coached the defensive line at UMass (1994) and linebackers at Duke (1990-93) and West Georgia (1989). Roof began his coaching career as a Graduate Assistant at Alabama from 1987-88.

A Lawrenceville, Ga. native, Roof was a four-year letterwinner (1982-85) and three-year starter at Georgia Tech as a linebacker. He earned Freshman All-America honors in 1982 and was a team captain and First-Team All-ACC selection as a senior in 1985 when the Yellow Jackets went 9-2-1 and beat Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. He remains among the top 10 in Georgia Tech history in career tackles with 417 stops, and was inducted into the school's Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998. After his time in Atlanta, Roof had a brief stint with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers before going into coaching.

Matt Thurin

Special Teams Coordinator/ Safeties

Matt Thurin enters his seventh season as Boston College's special teams coordinator/safeties coach. Thurin came to the Heights after a five-year stint at Ohio State.

Matt Thurin enters his seventh season as Boston College's special teams coordinator/safeties coach. Thurin came to the Heights after a five-year stint at Ohio State.

In 2025, Luca Lombardo garnered national attention. The redshirt junior ranked third in the country in field goal percentage (94.1%) after making 16-of-17 attempts, including a long of 52. He also made all 35 of his extra point attempts this season. Under Thurin's tutelage, the Eagles allowed just three yards per punt return this season, which ranked sixth nationally and second in the ACC. In addition, safeties KP Price, Omar Thornton and Carter Davis were the Eagles top three tacklers in 2025. Price finished with 94 tackles, including three for loss, three quarterback hits, two interceptions, and one fumble recovery en route to All-ACC Second-Team honors. His 5.4 solo tackles per game was third-best in the country and best in the ACC. Thornton's 82 tackles were second-best on the team to go with four forced fumbles, two sacks and one interception. He forced 0.33 fumbles per game, which ranked sixth nationally and third-best in the ACC. Davis finished the 2025 campaign with 59 total tackles, third-best on the team this season.

The BC special teams unit blocked two kicks in 2023 and did not allow a blocked kick or punt on the season. Thurin oversaw the development of Connor, who ascended to placekicker after serving as the kickoff specialist as a freshman in 2022. Connor went 11-for-14 on field goals, including three makes of 45 yards.

Boston College's 2022 special teams unit was one of just four in the ACC to block two or more kicks. A blocked extra-point against Louisville proved to be the difference in the Eagles' first league win of the season.

Assistant Coaches

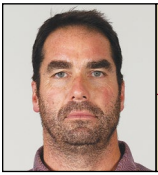

LEADING THE EAGLES

In 2021, Connor Lytton was second in the ACC and 11th nationally in field goal percentage, connecting on 11 of his 12 attempts including both from 40+ yards. Grant Carlson ranked top-30 nationally in punting average (44.2) while Travis Levy ranked second in the ACC and 15th nationally in kickoff return average (27.5). In his first season at the Heights, Thurin made a major impact in the improvement of Boston College's special teams. BC finished 34th nationally in field goal percentage in 2020, the best finish for the Eagles since 2013. Aaron Boumerhi converted 16-of-20 of his field goal attempts while Grant Carlson averaged over 42 yards per punt, including 15 punts pinned inside the 20-yard line.

Thurin worked together with former BC head coach Jeff Hafley for one season with the Buckeyes as Thurin worked with the safeties and on special teams as a defensive quality control coach. Thurin was part of three consecutive Big Ten Conference championship teams at Ohio State and also victories in the 2019 Rose Bowl, the 2018 Cotton Bowl and the 2016 Fiesta Bowl.

A native of Louisville, Ohio, Thurin attended Baldwin Wallace University where he played football and baseball before an injury ended his playing career. He played for Baldwin Wallace's 2003 Division III playoff team and graduated in 2007 with a degree in early childhood education. He has a master's in education from Akron (2009).

Thurin is married to Elizabeth Tinto, from Chesapeake, Va. The couple has an eight year old daughter, Adaline, and a four year old son, Joseph Rhett.

Craig Fitzgerald

Director of Football Performance

A veteran with more than 25 years of experience at the collegiate and professional levels, Craig Fitzgerald enters his third season with the Boston College Football program as the director of football performance. He previously worked with head coach Bill O'Brien at Penn State (2012-13) and with the Houston Texans (2014-17).

Fitzgerald spent four seasons with the New York Giants as the head strength and conditioning coach before accepting a position at Florida in the 2023-24 offseason, but ultimately made the move to Chestnut Hill to reunite with O'Brien and work with the Eagles. He also has head strength coach experience at Harvard (2005-09), South Carolina (2009-11) and Tennessee (2018-19).

Fitzgerald holds the highest honor awarded in his profession, the certification of Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA). He is also certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

As a player, Fitzgerald was a three-year letterwinner and starting tight end at Maryland, where he earned his degree in 1996, after beginning his career as a walk-on.

Fitzgerald and his wife Mary have three sons; Mac, Joe and Luke.

MAROON AND GOLD

In the mid-1880s, a committee of students was appointed to determine which hue would best represent BC. After considering the colors of rival Jesuit institutions — Holy Cross's purple, Fordham's maroon, Georgetown's blue and gray — the committee selected two of the Papal colors, maroon and gold. The student body unanimously approved.

EAGLE NICKNAME

The Eagle nickname and mascot were conceived by Rev. Edward McLaughlin, S.J. Fr. McLaughlin, incensed at a Boston newspaper cartoon depicting the champion BC track team as a cat licking clean a plate of its rivals, penned a passionate letter to the student newspaper, The Heights, in 1920. "It is important that we adopt a mascot to preside at our pow-wows and triumphant feats," Fr. McLaughlin wrote. "And why not the eagle, symbolic of majesty, power and freedom? Its natural habitat is the high places. Surely the Heights is made to order for such a selection."

SUPERFANS

As juniors in the 1997-98 school year, Jeff Bridge and Chris Millette embarked on a mission that would change the atmosphere at Boston College football, basketball and hockey games. The two fans started to plan a way to make games at BC more exciting. They created a "Gold Rush Game" and sold gold "Superfans" T-shirts for just a few dollars in the BC Bookstore. Today, the gold-clad "BC Superfans" can be seen en masse.

THE GRIDIRON CLUB EAGLE

In celebration of BC's 50th season in Alumni Stadium, the Boston College Gridiron Club made a generous contribution to fund a "Gridiron Club Eagle" tradition display adjacent to the team's locker room. At each home game, when the team emerges from the locker room, each member touches the eagle in honor of all the student-athletes, coaches and fans who have played a role in establishing BC's proud football tradition. The eagle was unveiled before the 2006 thrilling double-overtime win over Clemson.

TRADITIONAL SONGS

FOR BOSTON

For Boston, for Boston,
We sing our proud refrain!
For Boston, for Boston
'Tis Wisdom's earthly fane.
For here all are one
And their hearts are true,
And the towers on the Heights
Reach to Heav'ns own blue.
For Boston, for Boston,
Till the echoes ring again!

For Boston, for Boston,
Thy glory is our own!
For Boston, for Boston,
'Tis here the Truth
is known.
And ever with the Right
Shall thy heirs be found,
Till time shall be no more
And thy work is crown'd.
For Boston, for Boston,
For Thee and Thine alone.

ALMA MATER

Hail Alma Mater!
Thy praise we sing.
Fondly thy mem'ries
'Round our hearts
still cling.
Guide our youth, through
Thee we shall prevail,
Hail Alma Mater!
Hail! All Hail!

BOSTON COLLEGE

A HISTORY OF EAGLES FOOTBALL

BC dedicated Boston College Stadium, the new home of the Eagles, in Chestnut Hill at the start of the 1932 season.

Text by Reid Oslin, Boston College, '68

The 2026 season will be the 128th year of intercollegiate football competition for the Boston College Eagles. Here are a few of the milestones that have been reached along the way:

1891 — The Boston College student body was granted permission, but no money, by President Edward I. Devitt, S.J., to organize a football team. Joseph F. O'Donnell (1892), a Dorchester, Massachusetts, native with some previous amateur football experience, helped organize a team that played an informal schedule the following year.

1893 — Boston College began formal football competition. The team's first game was a 4-0 victory over St. John's Institute, an amateur power of the day (touchdowns were scored as four points by existing rules). BC played its first intercollegiate game on Oct. 25, a 6-0 loss to Tech '97, an MIT class team. The first varsity game was a 10-6 victory over Boston University in the final contest of the year. Joseph C. Drum ('94) served as BC's first football coach and the team's captain was Bernie Wefers ('94), who briefly held the world record in the 200-meter dash and 220-yard dash.

1894 — The Boston College football team got its first compensated coach, William Nagle. The school adopted the team colors of maroon and gold.

1896 — Boston College and Jesuit rival Holy Cross met for the first time in a home-and-home series. Boston College won both games, by scores of 6-2 and 8-6.

1900 — College President W.G. Read Mullan, S.J., refused to allow a football team to play under the school's name. Students formed an independent team named "Boston Combination" that competed locally. Fr. Mullan relented and allowed a varsity team to be fielded the following year.

1903-07 — In a reaction to the growing public outcry against the violence of college football, as well as for economic considerations, the sport was dropped at Boston College. United States President Theodore Roosevelt summoned the leaders of college football to Washington and urged that the rules of the sport be tightened. The resulting rules committee evolved into the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

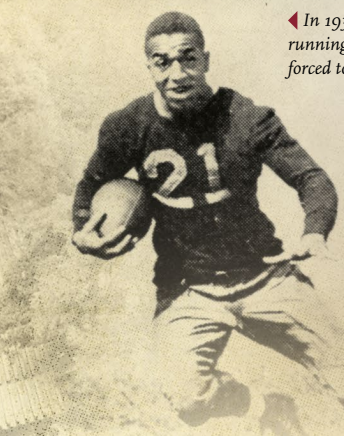

1908 — Varsity football was restored at Boston College. The team practiced on the Massachusetts Avenue Grounds, the site of a former city dump. Team members mowed the grass and lined the field before practice sessions.

1913 — The college moved from its original location on James Street in Boston's South End to a new campus in Chestnut Hill. The football team's locker room and equipment storage area were located in the basement of the "Recitation Building" (renamed Gasson Hall in 1952), but coach Hiker Joy's team walked to the public park in Cleveland Circle for daily practice.

1915 — The original Alumni Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 30; however, the inaugural game was won by arch-rival Holy Cross by a 9-0 score before some 5,000 fans. A week later, Boston College won its first on-campus game, defeating Fordham, 3-0. The stadium was located on Middle Campus on the site of today's Stokes Hall.

1918 — Because of required military training for students in preparation for World War I, the football team was forced to limit practice sessions to no more than one hour per day.

1919 — A returning war hero, Frank Cavanaugh, was hired as BC's football coach. Known as "The Iron Major," Cavanaugh had been badly wounded in the Battle of San

In 1937, Lou Montgomery '41 became the first Black athlete in BC history. A dominant running back, Montgomery contributed to the Eagles' 1940 championship season, but was forced to sit out the Sugar Bowl due to discriminating laws in America's south.

Led by "Chuckin" Charlie O'Rourke, head coach Frank Leahy's Eagles went undefeated at 11-0 to win the 1940 National Championship. The Eagles finished the year with a 19-13 win over Tennessee at the 1941 Sugar Bowl.

Mihiel, but recovered to launch a coaching career that would eventually lead him into the College Football Hall of Fame. In his first season at BC, he led his team to a startling 5-3 victory over heavily favored Yale — the biggest win in school history to that point. A 1943 movie, "The Iron Major" starring Pat O'Brien, chronicled Cavanaugh's life story. Part of the film was shot at the former Liggett Estate (now O'Connell House) on BC's Upper Campus.

1920 — The Boston College football team adopted the nickname "Eagles." The season was capped by a stirring 14-0 victory over Holy Cross before 40,000 fans at Braves Field. The win gave the team a perfect 8-0 season and the school's first "Eastern Championship."

1921 — The team's budding success drew national interest. The Eagles were invited to play Baylor in the dedication game of Dallas' Cotton Bowl stadium. The BC team, which made the 2,400-mile trip by train to play its first inter-sectional contest, responded with a 23-7 win over the Bears.

1926 — The final year of the Cavanaugh era produced another unbeaten season (6-0-2). The team captain was Joe McKenney, who would return to coach the Eagles from 1928-34.

1928 — McKenney's first year as head coach was a perfect 9-0 season and yielded another Eastern title. McKenney would later gain entrance into the College Football Hall of Fame as a highly respected college football official.

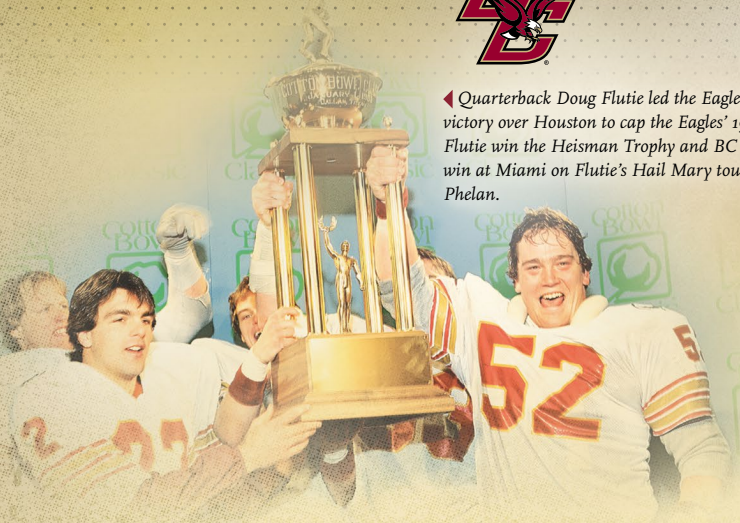

1936 — BC named Gilmour Dobie, another future College Hall of Fame member, as its head football coach. The Eagles' schedule was upgraded to include such national rivals as Kansas State, Kentucky, North Carolina State, Indiana and Florida, and home games were shifted to Fenway Park and Braves Field. Dobie's teams lost only six games in his three-year tenure.

1939 — On Feb. 7, Frank Leahy was named head football coach. "I have come here to succeed and to win football games," he told alumni a few days later. He did both, as the Boston College football team won 20 of 22 games played in the ensuing two seasons. The Eagles lost only one regular-season game in the 1939 campaign (7-0 to Florida) and became the first New England team in 20 years to earn a New Year's Day bowl invitation. The Eagles met Clemson in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, but lost a close 6-3 decision to the Tigers.

1940 — An undefeated (11-0) season, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship made this arguably the greatest season in Eagle football annals. On Nov. 16, BC handed Georgetown its first football loss in three years when "Chuckin" Charlie O'Rourke eluded a host of tacklers and took a safety in his own end zone as the clock expired to give the Eagles a memorable 19-18 victory. Sportswriter Grantland Rice described the contest as "the greatest game of football ever played."

1941 — On Jan. 1, the Eagles would lay claim to the national championship with a 19-13 victory over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl. Again, O'Rourke provided the heroics, scoring on a 24-yard touchdown run with three minutes remaining in the game. Leahy had installed the game-winning play in the BC offense one day before the game. Leahy and five members of the Sugar Bowl championship team would eventually be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame (HB O'Rourke, C Chet Gladchuk, E Gene Goodreault, FB Mike Holovak and G George Kerr). A crowd of 100,000 people welcomed the Sugar Bowl victors back to Boston's South Station, but Leahy would leave Boston College for Notre Dame within a month of the game.

1941 — From a field of 80 candidates, Denny Myers

Quarterback Doug Flutie led the Eagles to a Cotton Bowl victory over Houston to cap the Eagles' 1984 season, which saw Flutie win the Heisman Trophy and BC pull off a last-second win at Miami on Flutie's Hail Mary touchdown pass to Gerard Phelan.

David Gordon's 41-yard field goal as time expired ignited a celebration from the visiting sideline as the Eagles came from behind to stun No. 1 Notre Dame, 41-39, and end the Irish's chance at a national championship.

was named Boston College's new head football coach.

1942 — The Eagles were undefeated and ranked No. 1 in the land as they headed into the final game of the season against Holy Cross on Nov. 28. The Crusaders pulled off one of the biggest upsets in college football history that day, upending BC by a 55-12 score. Many BC players and fans were so bitterly disappointed that a planned "victory party" at Boston's Cocoanut Grove restaurant was canceled. The Cocoanut Grove was destroyed by fire that night, and 492 people lost their lives.

1943 — Again playing on New Year's Day, Boston College lost to Alabama in the Orange Bowl, 37-21. One bright point in the game for the Eagles was the play of Holovak, who scored all three BC touchdowns and averaged 15.8 yards every time he touched the football — an Orange Bowl record that stands to this day.

1943-45 — A large number of Boston College players and coaches departed to serve their country in the United States armed forces during World War II. The teams fielded on campus found competition against service teams such as Melville PT and Squantum Naval Air Station.

1946 — Myers returned as head coach after the war and the Eagles undertook a national schedule that included LSU, Tennessee, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Michigan State and Penn State in following years. Two members of that September's freshman class — linemen Art Donovan and Ernie Stautner — would one day be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The roster also included lineman Ed King, who, after a brief pro football career, would later be elected Governor of Massachusetts.

1949 — On Nov. 26, Boston College scored its most lopsided victory, 76-0, over annual rival Holy Cross. BC fullback/kicker Ed Petela scored a record 34 points in the game — four touchdowns and 10 PATs.

1951 — Mike Holovak, who had played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Chicago Bears, returned to his alma mater as head coach. He later would be the head coach of the Boston Patriots and long-time general manager of the Houston Oilers.

1956 — After losing to Holy Cross, 7-0, on Dec. 1, Boston College was told that football games will no longer be played at Fenway Park. The school considered dropping the sport.

1957 — On Jan. 23, Boston College President Joseph R. N. Maxwell, S.J., announced the decision to build a new stadium on campus. Athletics director William J. Flynn and former head coach Joe McKenney led the successful $250,000 campaign to construct the new facility on the site of a filled-in reservoir on BC's lower campus. On Sept. 26, Alumni Stadium opened with a game against Navy that had been arranged with the assistance of then-U.S. Senator John F. Kennedy. The visiting Midshipmen spoiled the day, however, with a 46-6 victory before a standing-room-only crowd of 26,000-plus. The referee in the dedication game was the legendary Albie Booth.

1964 — The Eagles knocked off highly ranked Syracuse, 21-14, on Sept. 19 in the season opener as Larry Marzetti hit Bill Cronin with a 45-yard touchdown pass on a fourth-down play as time ran out. A freshman running back for the Orangemen that year was Tom Coughlin.

1968 — Joe Yukica took over as the Eagles' head coach. He served notice of things to come with a stunning 49-15 win at Navy in his BC coaching debut. Among the defenders for the Midshipmen in that game was end Tom O'Brien.

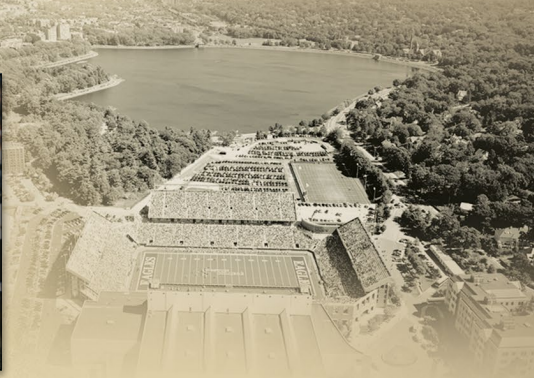

1970 — Fred Willis became the first running back in BC gridiron history to surpass 1,000 yards rushing (1,007) in a 10-game season.

1971 — Alumni Stadium was expanded to 32,000 seats, an artificial surface was installed and lights were added for night play.

1974 — The Eagles, under Yukica and offensive backfield coach Jack Bicknell, were the hottest team in college football down the stretch, outscoring opponents by a 270-27 margin in the season's final six games. FB Keith Barnette was the nation's top scorer with 22 TDs on the season. However, the team's 8-3 record did not attract any bowl invitations to Chestnut Hill.

Alumni Stadium was renovated and expanded to its current 44,500-person capacity for the 1994 season, which included an upset of No. 8 Notre Dame at home as well as a shutout of No. 14 Syracuse.

1975 — The Eagles opened the season with an ABC-TV "Monday Night Football" appearance against Notre Dame at Schaefer Stadium in Foxboro. A record 61,000 fans filled the facility to watch the Irish take a 17-3 victory.

1976 — BC upended seventh-ranked Texas, 14-13, in a thrilling season opener at Alumni Stadium on Sept. 11. A key tackle by Kelly Elias on a Longhorn two-point conversion try with 4:38 remaining in the game proved the difference in this victory, the biggest for a BC team in years.

1978 — The Eagles suffered their worst season in history, losing all 11 games, including a 28-24 loss to Temple in a game played in Tokyo on Dec. 10.

1981 — Former BC assistant Bicknell was hired as head coach. He opened the season with a 13-12 home victory over Texas A&M on Sept. 19. Freshman Doug Flutie saw his first action — on one special teams play. Flutie would be named the team's starting quarterback by Bicknell and QB coach Tom Coughlin prior to the Navy game on Oct. 17.

1982 — The Eagles opened the season with a smashing 38-16 victory over Texas A&M in College Station. Two weeks later, BC tied defending national champion Clemson 17-17 at "Death Valley," and once again Boston College football was drawing national attention. After beating Holy Cross 35-10 in the final regular season game, the Eagles were invited to the 1982 Tangerine Bowl in Orlando to play Auburn. Fans watching that game saw two future Heisman Trophy winners: BC's Flutie and the Tigers' Bo Jackson. Auburn won the Dec. 18 game, 33-26.

1983 — The Eagles finished the regular season with a 9-2 record, including the first win over Penn State (27-17 at Foxboro) and a last-minute 20-13 victory over Alabama on a rainy November night in Foxboro that was remembered as the game "that the lights went out." Fortunately, power crews restored electricity just as officials were considering stopping the game and BC went on to score on its final possession to win. The Lambert Trophy champions were matched up against Notre Dame in the Liberty Bowl on Dec. 29 — a game that was played in frigid, icy conditions. Each team scored three touchdowns in that game, but BC missed all of its extra-point tries, while the Irish converted one of three to account for the heart-breaking 19-18 final score.

1984 — Perhaps one of the most storied seasons in Boston College football history, an early highlight was the Eagles' stunning 38-31 victory over Alabama in Birmingham before a national television audience on Sept. 8. The Eagles scored on their final possession of the game to beat the Crimson Tide — an omen of rallies to come. On Nov. 22, at the Orange Bowl, Flutie and Boston College football went into the storybooks as No. 22 threw a 48-yard "Hail Mary" touchdown pass to WR Gerard Phelan on the game's final play to give BC a memorable 47-45 victory over the Miami Hurricanes. A week later, Flutie completed one of his final college football goals by throwing a touchdown pass to his brother Darren, a freshman, in the final game of the regular season at Holy Cross on Dec. 1. He then flew to New York City where he was presented with the Heisman Trophy later that night.

1985 — Boston College scored its first postseason victory since the 1941 Sugar Bowl with an impressive 45-28 victory over Houston in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day. The Eagles were ranked No. 4 in the final college football poll and won the Lambert Trophy as Eastern Champions for the second consecutive year.

1985 — Appearing in the Kickoff Classic, the Eagles lost to high-powered Brigham Young, 28-14, in the college football curtain-raiser, but NG Mike Ruth chased Cougar QBs all over the field en route to eventually win-

Mathias Kiwanuka and the Eagles wrapped up the team's Big East era with a 9-3 regular season in 2004; winning a share of the conference's regular season title. BC's season was highlighted with a win over Notre Dame and bowl victory over eventual league-opponent North Carolina.

The Eagles won their second of back-to-back ACC Atlantic Division titles in 2008 behind first-team All-ACC LB Mark Herzlich. Herzlich missed all of 2009 due to Ewing's Sarcoma, but returned healthy in 2010 and won the ACC's Brian Piccolo Award.

ning the Outland Award as college football's top lineman that season.

1986 — After thrashing Holy Cross by a 56-26 score in Worcester on Nov. 22, the Eagles were invited to play Georgia in Tampa's Hall of Fame Bowl on Dec. 23. There, QB Shawn Halloran hit WR Kelvin Martin with a 5-yard scoring pass with just 32 seconds left in the game to give BC a 27-24 victory. Two months later, Holy Cross abruptly canceled the BC-HC rivalry that had begun in 1896.

1988 — A rebuilt Alumni Stadium with matching upper decks and state-of-the-art press facilities was dedicated in a nationally televised game against Southern Cal. On Nov. 19, Boston College and Army made sports history by playing the first American college football game in Europe. The Eagles topped the Cadets 38-24 in that contest, played at Dublin's Lansdowne Road Stadium.

1991 — Coughlin was hired away from the Super Bowl Champion New York Giants as BC's newest head football coach. BC played the first BIG EAST Football Conference game at Rutgers on August 31, the coach's 45th birthday.

1992 — BC scored three consecutive shutout victories (vs. Northwestern, Navy and Michigan State) on the way to an 8-2-1 regular season and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl against Tennessee. The Vols won the Sugar Bowl "rematch" by a 38-23 score.

1993 — The Eagles bounced back from losses in the first two games of the year to reel off eight consecutive victories and earn another postseason invitation. Highlighting this drive was a magnificent 41-39 victory at Notre Dame on Nov. 20, when David Gordon kicked a 41-yard field goal with no time remaining to shock the No. 1-ranked Irish. The Eagles' final 8-3 showing earned them a slot in the Carquest Bowl in Fort Lauderdale, where they beat ACC representative Virginia, 31-13, on New Year's Day.

1994 — Alumni Stadium was expanded to its current capacity of 44,500 and was completely refurbished. Unfortunately, as had happened on three previous occasions, the Eagles lost the dedication game, this time, 12-7, to Virginia Tech on Sept. 17. BC made up for the loss, however, by scoring an impressive 30-11 victory over Notre Dame in Chestnut Hill on Oct. 8 — the Eagles' first win in their new lair. BC went on to cap the season with a Christmas Day appearance in the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu where the Eagle defense led the way to a 12-7 victory over Kansas State.

1995 — Boston College was again invited to participate in the Kickoff Classic at the Meadowlands, but fared no better than in their 1985 appearance and lost to Ohio State by a 38-6 count. All 12 of the Eagles' games were on network television that year.

1996 — Tom O'Brien was named head coach at Boston College on Dec. 13.

1997 — O'Brien recorded his first victory as a head coach on Sept. 13, as BC beat West Virginia, 31-24. It was the first time the Eagles had defeated the Mountaineers in Chestnut Hill since 1976.

1998 — Mike Cloud rushed for a BIG EAST and then-BC single-season record 1,726 yards to become Boston College's all-time leading rusher with 3,597 yards. He became a consensus first-team All-America selection and a finalist for the Doak Walker National Running Back of the Year Award. The Kansas City Chiefs selected him in the second round of the NFL Draft.

1999 — Boston College engineered the third-best turnaround in major college football by finishing the regular season with an 8-3 record and ranked 22nd nationally. BC received an invitation to play in the Insight.com Bowl, its first postseason appearance since 1994.

2000 — Boston College made its second straight trip to a bowl game as the Eagles defeated Arizona State by a 31-17 score in the Aloha Bowl. William Green became the third-straight Eagle back to rush for 1,000 yards or more in a season and offensive tackle Paul Zukauskas earned first-team All-America honors and was later picked in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

2001 — The Eagles posted an 8-4 record and earned back-to-back bowl game wins with an impressive 20-16 win over Georgia in the Music City Bowl. Green rushed for 1,559 yards and earned first-team All-America honors. Green (16th, Cleveland) and OT Marc Colombo (29th, Chicago) were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

2002 — BC's 51-25 win over Toledo in the Motor City Bowl, an unprecedented third consecutive bowl victory, sent the 2002 senior class out with 32 victories in four years (32-17), tied with the 1981-84 group for the most wins in a four year period in 60 years of Boston College football. One of the top highlights of the season occurred on Nov. 2, when the Eagles marched into Notre Dame Stadium and defeated the previously undefeated, fourth-ranked and green-clad Fighting Irish, 14-7, to end ND's dreams of a national championship.

2003 — On Oct. 12, 2003, BC President William P. Leahy, S.J. and Director of Athletics Gene DeFilippo held a press conference to announce that Boston College accepted an offer to become the 12th member of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Eagles notched impressive victories over Notre Dame, No. 25 Penn State and No. 12 Virginia Tech en route to winning their 40th game in five seasons, tying an all-time school record. On New Year's Eve, the Eagles appeared in a school-record fifth consecutive bowl game at the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl. Their 35-21 victory over Colorado State made the Eagles the first team in BC football history to win seven or more games for five consecutive seasons and the only team in college football to have won a bowl game the past four years in a row. Senior running back Derrick Knight became BC's all-time rushing leader, finishing his career with 3,725 yards.

2004 — The Eagles rolled to another 9-3 season, winning a share of the BIG EAST Conference championship and missing a Fiesta Bowl bid only by a loss to Syracuse on the final day of the 2004 campaign. Senior QB Paul Peterson engineered a thrilling 24-23 victory at Notre Dame with a last-minute 30-yard touchdown pass to Tony Gonzalez setting up the stunning victory. Peterson was injured two weeks later in a win against Temple, but the Utah native returned to the lineup to lead the Eagles to a 37-24 victory over future ACC rival North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl in Charlotte.

2005 — After season-opening victories at Brigham Young and Army, Boston College played its first ACC game — a nationally-televised contest against Florida State on Sept. 21. ESPN's "GameDay" crew was on hand to broadcast from campus prior to the much-anticipated ACC match-up. The Eagles lost to Bobby Bowden's powerful Seminoles 28-17 in their league debut, but introduced themselves as a force to be reckoned with in the ACC with a 16-13 overtime victory at Clemson a week later. BC finished with another impressive 9-3 record and went on to play Boise State in the Humanitarian Bowl where they handed the host Broncos a rare defeat, 27-21, on their home blue turf.

2006 — Another successful year for BC football, as the team finished with a 10-3 record, including back-to-back double-overtime victories over Clemson (34-33) and Brigham Young (30-23). The big news of the year, however, came in December as Coach Tom O'Brien left Chestnut Hill to become head coach at ACC rival North Carolina State. Defensive coordinator Frank Spaziani took over leadership of the team for the Meineke Care Bowl against Navy in Charlotte and recorded his first head coaching victory as linebacker Jolann Dunbar recovered a Midshipman fumble late in the game and QB Matt Ryan led the Eagles back into scoring range where kicker Steve Aponavicius booted a 37-yard field goal to give BC a narrow, 25-24, victory.

2007 — With new coach Jeff Jagodzinski — a former BC offensive line coach and NFL assistant — at the helm, the new-look Eagles rolled off eight straight victories to start the year — the best of them a stunning 14-10 win at Virginia Tech that featured two Matt Ryan touchdown passes in the game's final 2:11 — the game-winner a 24-yard scoring strike to RB Andre Callender with just seconds to play. The victory propelled BC to the No. 2 slot in the national rankings and helped them finish the regular season with a 10-2 mark, earning a spot in the ACC Championship game in Jacksonville vs. Virginia Tech. The Eagles lost to the Hokies, 30-16, in the title game, but bounded back to trim Michigan State, 24-21, in Orlando's Citrus Bowl, giving the team an 11-victory season, the most wins at Chestnut Hill since the legendary Sugar Bowl Champions of 1940.

2008 — As All-America QB Matt Ryan departed for the NFL (he was the first round draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons), the Eagles regrouped quickly to post another 9-3 regular season that included a 17-0 shutout of Notre Dame — the Eagles' sixth consecutive win over the Irish. BC again won the ACC Atlantic Division crown and advanced to the league's title game again where Virginia Tech won a second straight championship at BC's expense. After losing to Vanderbilt, 16-14, in Nashville's Music City Bowl, Jagodzinski looked into NFL job possibilities and departed Chestnut Hill.

2009 — A longtime BC defensive assistant, Frank Spaziani became the school's 34th head football coach, inheriting a team that was picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division. He led the team to an 8-5 record, earning a spot in San Francisco's Emerald Bowl against Southern California.

2010 — The defensively powerful Eagles qualified for a school-record 12th consecutive postseason bowl game, returning to San Francisco to meet Nevada in the re-named Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl.

2011 — For the first time in more than a decade, the Eagles slipped below .500 and missed out on postseason play. The season spotlight belonged to two-time All-America LB Luke Kuechly who made a "clean sweep" of national defensive honors, including ACC Defensive Player of the Year, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Butkus Award, the Rotary Lombardi Award and the Lott Impact Trophy after leading all collegiate football players in tackles (191) and solo tackles (102) during the 2011 campaign. Kuechly entered the NFL Draft after his junior season and was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the first round.

2012 — The Eagles slipped to a disappointing 2-10 season, the worst showing since the winless (0-11) season in 1978. At the end of the year, coach Frank Spaziani was replaced by former Temple head coach Steve Addazio, who was named BC's 35th head coach of football on Dec. 4.

2013 — The Addazio era began with a 24-14 victory over feisty Villanova in his BC coaching debut. The Eagles turned in a successful seven-win season and an invitation to play Pac-12 opponent Arizona in the Advocare v100 Bowl game in Shreveport, Louisiana on Dec. 31 — the Eagles' first post-season appearance since 2010. Along the way, BC scored ACC victories over Wake Forest, Virginia Tech, Maryland and North Carolina State. The 38-21 victory over the Wolfpack on Nov. 16, made the Eagles bowl-eligible and set off an enthusiastic celebration in Alumni Stadium, hailing the program's return to the ranks of college football's upper echelon. Running back Andre Williams rushed for a school-record 2,177 yards and 18 touchdowns. Williams was accorded consensus All-America honors; won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back; and became BC's first Heisman Trophy finalist since the Doug Flutie nearly 30 years earlier.

2014 — Addazio kept the Eagles on track with another winning season and another postseason bowl trip. BC went 7-6, highlighted by an electric, 37-31 upset over ninth-ranked Southern California in Alumni Stadium on Sept. 13. The Eagles topped the Trojans for the first BC victory versus a top-10 team in seven years and the first win for an unranked BC team against a top-10 team since 2002. BC became bowl eligible on Nov. 1 with a three-point victory at Virginia Tech and later earned a berth to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl in Yankee Stadium against Penn State on Dec. 27. The defense ranked second in the nation, allowing just 94.5 yards per game and the offense finished the season 14th with 254.7 yards per game, setting a BC school record with 3,311 total yards. Quarterback Tyler Murphy made a lasting impression in his one season at The Heights, setting both the Boston College and Atlantic Coast Conference records for rushing yards by a QB with 1,184.

2015 — Although the team went 3-9 to miss out on a bowl game for the first time in three seasons, it was led by the nation's best defense. The Eagles held defending national champion Florida State to only one offensive touchdown and kept the Eagles within a touchdown of winning five games. The Eagles ranked first in total defense and first downs defense and fourth in scoring defense.

2016 — The Eagles won seven games (7-6) and returned to a bowl game for the third time in four seasons. Boston College won its first bowl game since 2007 after a 36-30 victory over Maryland in the Quick Lane Bowl. The Eagles finished the season with three consecutive victories and featured the nation's ninth-best defense. Junior Harold Landry earned All-America honors from the Associated Press and Walter Camp Football Foundation as he led the nation in sacks (16.5) and forced fumbles (seven).

2017 — The Eagles won seven games (7-6) and returned to a bowl game for the fourth time in five seasons. Boston College was just one of two bowl teams nationally to play 10 teams who qualified for a bowl in ▲ AJ Dillon completed his three-year career at BC in 2019 as the program's all-time leading rusher with 4,382 yards on the ground.

2017. The Eagles featured ACC Rookie of the Year AJ Dillon, the nation's second-leading rusher among freshmen and the country's No. 7 overall rusher with 1,589 yards and 14 touchdowns. Boston College had nine players earn All-ACC honors, tied for the most in school history. Three Eagles earned All-America accolades (Lukas Denis, Walter Camp Second Team; AJ Dillon, Freshman All-America; Ben Petrula, Freshman All-America).

2018 — The Eagles won seven games (7-5) and returned to a bowl game for the fifth time in six seasons. The Eagles made their first appearance in the College Football Playoff Top 25 rankings, returned to the national AP and coaches' polls for the first time since 2008 and hosted College GameDay for the third time in school history. BC started the season 7-2 overall and spent four weeks in the national rankings, the most weeks ranked since the 2007 campaign. Four players captured All-America honors (Hamp Cheevers, Chris Lindstrom, Michael Walker and Zach Allen) while BC tied a modern-day record with four players selected in the 2019 NFL Draft (Chris Lindstrom, Zach Allen, Will Harris, Tommy Sweeney). Lindstrom became the 20th first-round pick in school history going 14th overall to the Atlanta Falcons.

2019 — Boston College finished the regular season 6-6 overall and AD Martin Jarmond announced a change in leadership following the win over Pitt in the regular season finale. Jarmond appointed Ohio State defensive coordinator Jeff Hafley as the program's 36th head coach in history on Dec. 14, 2019.

AJ Dillon and John Phillips earned All-ACC first-team honors following the season while Dillon finished fourth in ACC history in career rushing yards. He was a second-round pick of the Green Bay Packers in the 2020 NFL Draft and an AP All-American third-team selection.

2020 — First-year head coach Jeff Hafley finished with the most victories of any first-year head coach in college football in 2020 with a 6-5 record.

More impressive than the marked improvement on both sides of the ball from Boston College in 2020 was how the program handled playing in the COVID-19 pandemic. BC's team had just one positive COVID-19 result in over 9,000 administered tests since the team returned to campus last June.

Tight end Hunter Long was named a Second Team All-American by multiple outlets as he led all tight ends nationally in receptions and finished the year second in receptions.

2021 — Boston College started year-two under Hafley a perfect 4-0 in non-conference play, capped by an overtime win over Missouri from the SEC at Alumni Stadium. The Eagles finished the year 6-6 and earned a bid to the Military Bowl in Annapolis, Md., which was ultimately cancelled.

Offensive linemen Zion Johnson and Alec Lindstrom both earned All-American status, while Johnson was selected 17th overall in the first round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Chargers.

2022 — Zay Flowers rewrote the BC record book for receivers as the program's all-time leader in receptions, touchdowns and yards. He captured single-season marks in touchdowns and receptions on his way to earning All-America and being the first BC wide receiver to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. He finished the season with 12 receiving touchdowns and 1,077 yards on 78 receptions, which tied the program record. Flowers' career ended atop the record books at 200 receptions, 3,056 receiving yards and 29 receiving touchdowns.

2023 — BC overcame a 1-3 start with its first five game win streak since 2010 to gain bowl eligibility. The Eagles upset future ACC opponent and No. 17/24 SMU in the Wasabi Fenway Bowl behind Offensive MVP Thomas Castellanos and Defensive MVP Kam Arnold. Castellanos became the first BC quarterback to record a 2,000-yard passing and 1,000-yard rushing season and just the fifth ACC quarterback to reach both milestones since 1996.

2024 — Bill O'Brien was hired on Feb. 9 as the 37th head coach in program history and wasted no time in announcing the Eagles' presence with authority. In his inaugural game on the sidelines with Boston College, he engineered a 28-13 drubbing of No. 10 Florida State in Tallahassee on Sept. 2. After a 2-0 start, O'Brien's squad made a return to the national rankings for the first time in nearly six seasons and went on to win seven games in the regular season, earning a trip to the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl in New York City, falling 20-15 to Nebraska on Dec. 28. Donovan Ezeiruaku became the 13th Eagle to earn consensus All-American honors, while also being honored as the ACC Defensive Player of the Year. He was a second round pick of the Dallas Cowboys in the 2025 NFL Draft, while teammates Ozzy Trapilo (Chicago Bears) and Drew Kendall (Philadelphia Eagles) were selected in the second and fifth rounds, respectively.

Fish Field House

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

Boston College opened its new athletics field house, a $52.6 million, 115,700 square-foot facility that provides indoor practice space for BC football and other varsity sports, at the start of the 2018 training camp.

Named the Fish Field House in recognition of a leadership gift from former BC Board of Trustees Chairman and current Trustee Associate and Board of Regents Chairman John Fish, P '13, '18, the donor-funded facility features a full regulation field with an AstroTurf playing surface, and a 12,000 square-foot strength and conditioning center.

The Field House features a full weight training facility, sports medicine rooms and equipment rooms. A stadium-sized videoboard is displayed on the wall of the south end zone and provides live, in-practice film playback from the facility's in-house video control room.

Fish played football at Bowdoin College and credits sports with teaching him the values of collaboration, empathy and humility.

"This new field house will help Boston College Athletics by providing BC's student-athletes with one of the best indoor practice facilities in the country," said Fish. "I am a big fan of Boston College football and all of BC's teams, and I am pleased to help them succeed through this facility."

The Fish Field House is part of a $200 million investment in facilities that includes new baseball, softball and intramural fields in the Harrington Athletics Village on the Brighton Campus, and the 240,000 square-foot Connell Recreation Center, which opened in the summer of 2019.

Fish Field House is also used as the early-season home for Boston College's two-time NCAA Championship women's lacrosse program.

Boston College Athletics Sponsorships
Radio Network

TUNE IN ALL SEASON LONG

Van Wagner, the exclusive radio rights holder for Boston College Athletics, produces home and away broadcasts for Boston College Football.

For the 22nd straight season, Jon Meterparel will serve as the Eagles' play-by-play voice. He is joined in the broadcast booth by expert analyst Pete Cronan and sideline reporter Scott Mutryn. Boston College fans can listen to the Boston College Athletics Radio Network on Flagship station WEEI 850 AM or WEEI 93.7 FM, additional stations across New England, or globally on SiriusXM satellite radio.

Additionally, all games are streamed live over the internet and available on your mobile device free of charge via BCEagles.com.

In addition to being the voice of Boston College Football, Meterparel also serves as one of the voices of the Arena Football League on CBS Sports Network. The Weston, Massachusetts native began his career at WFNZ in Charlotte. He spent 12 years as a member of the Dennis and Callahan Show on Sports Radio WEEI in Boston from 2000-2012. Meterparel call Harvard University Football on TV and Harvard Basketball on radio. For his work on BC Football, he was named the Lindsey Nelson Northeast Sportscaster of the Year in 2007.

Cronan, a star defensive tackle and inside linebacker at Boston College who captained the 1976 Eagle squad, begins his 38th year as the color analyst for Boston College Football. A second-round pick for Seattle, Cronan enjoyed a nine-year career in the NFL with the Seahawks (1977-81) and Redskins (1981-85). He has been the color commentator on the Boston College Athletics Radio Network since 1988, and his broadcast partners have included Gil Santos, Dale Arnold, Dick Lutsk, Sean McDonough, Sean Grande, John Rooke, and Jon Meterparel.

Mutyrn, a quarterback at Boston College from 1994-1998, is entering his 14th season on the Boston College broadcast team. Mutryn was a Parade All-American out of Saint Ignatius H.S. in Cleveland, Ohio, and finished his BC Career ranked among the school's top 10 quarterbacks in total career yardage, passing yards, attempts and completion percentage. Mutryn signed a free agent contract with the New England Patriots in 1999.

Screaming Eagles

MARCHING BAND

Boston College spirit organizations are a cornerstone of the game-day experience, bringing energy, tradition, and pride to every event. From the iconic "Screaming Eagles" Marching Band to the cheerleading, pom, and dance teams, these student leaders help create the electric atmosphere that defines Boston College athletics while representing the university on campus, across the country, and around the world.

"Screaming Eagles" Marching Band

Founded in 1919, the "Screaming Eagles" Marching Band is one of the largest and most recognizable student organizations at Boston College. With nearly 200 members, the band plays an integral role in BC tradition, performing at every home football game, pep rallies, campus events, and major performances throughout the year.

The band has appeared at prestigious events including the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, Presidential Inaugural Parade, and the Emerald Isle Classic in Dublin, Ireland. Members have also performed alongside the Boston Pops Orchestra and the Dropkick Murphys, showcasing Boston College spirit on both national and international stages.

Beyond performances, the "Screaming Eagles" foster a strong sense of community and school pride. As the soundtrack of game day at Alumni Stadium, the band energizes fans with spirited traditions, halftime performances, and the unmistakable excitement that defines Eagles athletics. The organization welcomes students from a variety of musical backgrounds and provides opportunities for leadership, travel, and unforgettable performance experiences.

BC Athletics Cheerleading and Pom Team

The Boston College Spirit Program consists of Cheer, Pom, and Baldwin the Eagle mascot, all dedicated to promoting school spirit and supporting BC Athletics. The cheerleading and pom teams are highly visible ambassadors of the university, performing at football and basketball games, postseason tournaments, community events, and national competitions throughout the year.

The cheerleading team is made up of talented male and female students who combine athleticism, leadership, and enthusiasm to engage fans and support one of the nation's premier athletic programs. In addition to game-day performances, the team regularly competes at NCA Nationals in Daytona, Florida, and has appeared on major national broadcasts including ESPN, ABC, Fox Sports, and College GameDay.

As the Official Dance Team of BC Athletics, the Pom team brings dynamic choreography, precision, and energy to every performance. Team members perform at home and away football games, men's and women's basketball games, postseason events, and community appearances while also competing at NDA Nationals. Athletes come from a variety of dance and performance backgrounds, including studio dance, ballet, hip hop, jazz, lyrical, and varsity dance programs.

Together, the cheer and pom teams embody the spirit, excellence, and tradition of Boston College. Beyond performances and competitions, members develop leadership skills, lifelong friendships, teamwork, and unforgettable experiences representing the Eagles both on and off campus.

Screaming Eagles Marching Band Golden Eagles Dance Team

The Golden Eagles Dance Team brings excitement, precision, and high-energy performances to the Boston College game-day experience. Performing alongside the "Screaming Eagles" Marching Band during football season, the team helps create the spirited atmosphere that energizes Alumni Stadium and enhances BC traditions.

Known for dynamic choreography and strong school spirit, the Golden Eagles perform at football games, pep rallies, campus events, and other special appearances throughout the year. Their performances contribute to the pageantry and excitement that make Boston College athletics unique while showcasing the talent, dedication, and pride of BC student performers.

"EVER TO EXCEL"

Boston College was founded in 1863 by the Society of Jesus to serve the sons of Boston's Irish immigrants. It was the first institution of higher education to operate in the city of Boston. Today it is one of the nation's foremost universities, with an enrollment of approximately 15,000 undergraduate and graduate students from all 50 states and more than 80 countries.

Boston College is consistently ranked among the nation's best national universities. This year, Boston College received 39,684 undergraduate applications for the Class of 2029 and admitted less than 14 percent of applicants, making it one of the nation's most select institutions. Its graduate programs in the School of Social Work, Lynch School of Education and Human Development, Morrissey College of Arts and Sciences, Clough School of Theology and Ministry, Connell School of Nursing, Law School, Carroll School of Management, and Woods College of Advancing Studies are all ranked among the top schools in their respective disciplines.

After more than 160 years of growth and evolution, Boston College holds fast to the ideals that inspired its Jesuit founders. The University today remains focused on its mission of helping students to develop their minds and talents while instilling in them the motivation and compassion to use those talents in the service of others.

"Deeply rooted in its Catholic and Jesuit origins, Boston College offers an education that is distinctive in spirit and content, that is doubly rich with the best of human thought and with the profound insights of faith," writes William P. Leahy, S.J., who assumed the presidency of Boston College in 1996. "We believe that Boston College provides a transformative experience for our young men and women."

A continued expression of this philosophy, based on the Jesuit principle of cura personalis, or care for the whole person, is the faculty's dedication to teaching. BC faculty members have been honored for their teaching by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Education and the MacArthur Foundation.

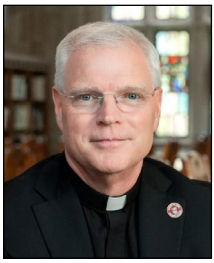

A Boston College education focuses not only on intellectual growth but also on personal, spiritual, social, and ethical development. Students are asked to use their abilities, education, and skills to help others in need. Each year, for example, BC undergraduates volunteer more than 550,000 hours of community service in the Boston area, while approximately 700 students trade vacation for service during Spring Break. Nearly 3,000 students take part in retreats and spiritual formation activities annually.

Today, the Boston College motto "ever to excel" also extends to a broad array of extracurricular activities and opportunities ranging from sports to the arts. Athletics is integral to the University's focus on the development of the whole person in mind, body, and soul. BC offers 31 men's and women's varsity sports that compete at the NCAA Division I level, and perennially has one of the highest student-athlete graduation rates in Division I.

True to its calling as a university, BC offers a wide variety of resources that enrich intellectual and cultural life, including: the Jesuit Institute; Center for Ignatian Spirituality; Roche Center for Catholic Education; Church in the 21st Century Center; Boisi Center for Religion and American Public Life; Center for Human Rights and International Justice; Center for Christian-Jewish Learning; Winston Center for Leadership and Ethics; Center for Retirement Research; Center for the Study of Testing, Evaluation, and Educational Policy; TIMSS and PIRLS International Study Center; Center for International Higher Education; Shea Center for Entrepreneurship; Burns Library of Rare Books and Special Collections; Robsham Theater Arts Center; McMullen Museum of Art; Center for Optimized Student Support; Center for Corporate Citizenship; Center for Irish Programs; Weston Observatory; and the Institute for Advanced Jesuit Studies, among others.

President

FR. JOHN "JACK" T. BUTLER, S.J.

John T. Butler, S.J., an educational administrator, trained counselor, and spiritual director, who had served as the Haub Vice President for University Mission and Ministry since 2010, began his tenure as the 26th President of Boston College on July 31, 2026.

As Haub Vice President, Fr. Butler led a coordinated university-wide effort to maintain and promote the distinctive academic and societal mission of Boston College. In this role, he advanced the University's commitment to formative education, which seeks to integrate the intellectual, social, and spiritual dimensions of students' lives, while enhancing BC's heritage as a Jesuit, Catholic university.

Fr. Butler grew up in Atlanta and entered the Society of Jesus in 1991. He was ordained in 2000 and took final vows in 2015. He is a member of the United States East Province of Jesuits. During his career, he has served in internal ministry for the Society of Jesus as a formator; worked in both inpatient and outpatient clinical settings as a therapist; and engaged in prison ministry for more than 30 years. Since 2002, he has worked exclusively in the higher education apostolate at Boston College.

Fr. Butler holds degrees from St. Thomas University, B.A.; Providence College, M.S.; Loyola University Maryland, M.S.; Boston College Clough School of Theology and Ministry, S.T.L.; and Loyola University Maryland, Ph.D. He received an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree from St. Thomas University in 2016.

BLAKE JAMES

Blake James was named the William V. Campbell Director of Athletics at Boston College, effective July 1, 2022.

James is an experienced, nationally respected athletics administrator who has established a student-athlete approach focused on academic achievement, athletic success, and individual development. A proven leader within the NCAA and ACC, James served the first of a four-year term as a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Ice Hockey Committee during the 2024-25 academic year. Previously, James served on the NCAA Board of Directors (2017-2019), NCAA Board of Governors (2017-2019), the NCAA Football Oversight Committee (2015-2017), and held leadership roles on the NCAA Student Athlete Experience Committee (2019-2021).

He also served as chair of the NCAA Division I Council, the group responsible for the day-to-day decision making for all Division I athletics. Within the ACC, he served on the Football Committee, the NIL Committee, and the Finance and Audit Committee, and was named chair of the conference's athletics directors. He was selected as one of four recipients of the Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year award by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics in 2016.

Prior to arriving at Boston College, James served as the director of athletics at Miami, where he set records for athletics fundraising and led the completion of major capital projects, including new indoor facilities for football, baseball, and golf, and facility enhancements for men and women's basketball. He negotiated and managed one of the largest collegiate sports apparel deals in the country, and significantly increased ticket sales for the school's football and basketball programs. James served as the school's director of athletics from 2013-21, leading the Hurricanes to multiple NCAA and ACC championships across numerous sports. In his role, he oversaw 18 varsity sports involving more than 400 student-athletes, with a staff of more than 250 individuals and an annual budget of $123 million.

In announcing the appointment, University President William P. Leahy, S.J., praised James as an individual with the proven record of accomplishment to lead Boston College Athletics into the future.

"Blake brings extensive experience, understands the issues facing intercollegiate athletics today, and is committed to BC's mission," said Fr. Leahy. "I look forward to welcoming him to Boston College."

"It is truly an honor to join the Boston College family as the William V. Campbell Director of Athletics," said James. "I am grateful to Fr. Leahy for the opportunity to lead the Eagles and for his confidence in me and in our shared vision for BC Athletics. We will strive for excellence in all of our pursuits in alignment with our Jesuit values. We will compete for championships with integrity, with incredible young men and women, and talented and compassionate coaches and staff supporting their journeys."

A graduate of Minnesota State University-Mankato with a degree in marketing, James earned a master's degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University.

He began his athletic career at the University of Miami in tickets sales and development before moving to Providence College to work in athletic development. He later served as director of athletics at the University of Maine where he directed 19 Division I sports programs from 2005-10, before returning to Miami as interim athletics director and senior associate A.D. for Development and Ticket Operations. He was named Miami's Director of Athletics in 2013.

Remembering Jay McGillis: A Young Man, His Legacy, and a Promise

TOM COUGHLIN JAY FUND 31

31 YEARS

Some people would say Jay McGillis' story ended on July 3, 1992, when he passed away nine months after being diagnosed with leukemia. I believe that was only the beginning of his legacy.

When I was the head coach at Boston College, Jay was my strong safety. He was hardworking, tough, and wore #31 with pride. When he was diagnosed, his family dropped everything to be by his side. Then the medical bills came.

His fellow Eagles stepped up and organized a lift-a-thon, raising $50,000 to help. That was a remarkable amount in those days, long before social media.

Then came a moment that gave everyone hope. After treatment, doctors decided Jay would try a cord blood transplant, with his brother Michael serving as his donor. Everyone wanted to believe this would be the moment things turned.

When it didn't, Jay called me and asked, "Coach, do you know?" I said, "Yeah, I know. Jay, keep fighting." And Jay replied, "I will, coach. I will."

There was a lot of praying from the BC community, but we did not get the outcome we hoped for. After the funeral, Judy and I made a promise: If we were ever in a position to give back, it would be in the name and spirit of Jay McGillis.

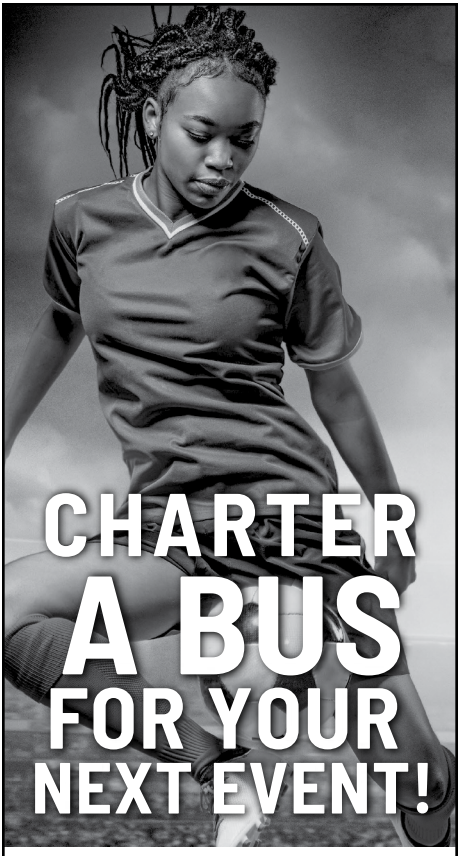

As the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation marks 31 years of standing beside families facing pediatric cancer, it is clear the impact of Jay's fight did not end in 1992. Today, the foundation means parents can stay close to a child receiving treatment instead of worrying about rent. It means a mortgage payment is covered when work becomes impossible. It means gas in the tank for another drive to an appointment. Food in the refrigerator. Space to breathe when life narrows to scans, treatments, and uncertainty.

At Boston College, that legacy still feels close. In many ways, Jay's spirit, and that of his BC teammates who inspired the foundation's 31 years of giving back, is ingrained in the very field the Eagles play on. The promise remains the same: Keep fighting. No one does it alone. It takes a team.

Thank you, Boston College, for being part of ours. And remember, there's always more room on the bench. Scan the QR code to join the team families can always count on.
