JOAN GABEL

CHANCELLOR, UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

Joan Gabel is Chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh, where she leads an enterprise encompassing more than 35,000 students, 16,000 faculty and staff across five campuses and an annual operating budget exceeding $3 billion. She has executed comprehensive, metrics-driven strategic plans, first as President of the University of Minnesota System and Twin Cities campus and now at Pitt, producing strong results in student outcomes, research productivity, philanthropic investment and commercial spinouts.

At Pitt, Gabel directs an institution-wide strategy positioning the university in artificial intelligence, expanding research infrastructure, updating curricula and aligning workforce pipeline development with emerging industry demands. Under her leadership, Pitt has achieved high commercialization metrics through expanded patent filings, invention disclosures and technology startup creation. Her portfolio includes one of the nation's premier academic health sciences enterprises, anchored by Pitt's partnership with UPMC.

Gabel's academic background is grounded in corporate governance, risk management and legal studies. She held the DeSantis Professorship of Legal Studies at Florida State University, where she chaired the Department of Risk Management and Insurance, Real Estate and Legal Studies. Her prior administration roles include Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost at the University of South Carolina, and Dean of the Trulaske College of Business at the University of Missouri.

Active in national policy, governance and economic competitiveness, she chairs the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities, Chair of the Fulbright Scholar Advisory Board, Vice Chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference and Academic Vice Chair of the U.S. Council on Competitiveness. Her board service includes UPMC, Ambitious Bio, the Association of American Universities, the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra and the National Academy of Sciences' Science and Innovation Fund for Ukraine.

Recognized by The Wall Street Journal as a "shining star," she was named to Forbes' 2026 50 Over 50: Impact list and elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. Additional honors include the Pittsburgh Business Times Power 100, the Academy of Legal Studies in Business Distinguished Career Achievement Award and the American Council on Education Mentor Award. She speaks and advises on innovation, institutional governance and economic development.

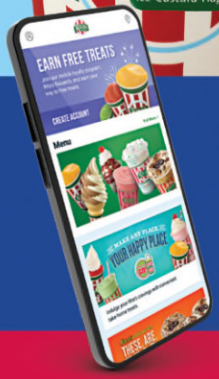

Gabel earned her Juris Doctor from the University of Georgia School of Law and her Bachelor of Arts from Haverford College. Her favorite role beyond being chancellor was being a Pitt mom.

ALLEN GREENE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS, UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

Highly accomplished and nationally respected college athletics administrator Allen Greene was appointed director of athletics at the University of Pittsburgh by Chancellor Joan Gabel in October 2024.

In his first two years, Greene has moved quickly to modernize Pitt Athletics amid a college sports landscape reshaped by conference realignment, revenue sharing and NIL. In August 2026 he launched "The Gold Standard," a three-year strategic plan built around five pillars: student-athlete experience, competitive excellence, revenue generation and resource acquisition, engagement and brand advancement and operational excellence.

Under Greene, Pitt Athletics closed the 2025-26 fiscal year with record fundraising and a 94% Graduation Success Rate, the highest in department history. He oversaw the opening of the $240 million Victory Heights Arena and Sports Performance Center, secured a jersey patch partnership with UPMC and launched H2PNIL, a comprehensive NIL platform developed with JMI Sports. Pitt volleyball has advanced to back-to-back NCAA Final Fours since his arrival, and Greene hired Robin Harmony and Katie Kasprzak to lead the women's basketball and swimming and diving programs, respectively.

Greene brought to Pitt a proven record of building programs and driving revenue growth across three SEC institutions, most recently as senior deputy athletics director at the University of Tennessee, where he helped lead a more than 30% increase in annual revenue. He previously spent a year at the University of Mississippi as senior deputy athletics director for external relations and business development.

From 2018 to 2022, Greene served as director of athletics at Auburn University, where his tenure included eight SEC championships and 47 programs finishing in the national Top 25. In 2021-22 alone, six Auburn programs finished in the nation's Top 10, including a men's basketball team that earned the program's first No. 1 ranking and advanced to its first Final Four. Auburn also completed construction on the $92 million Woltosz Football Performance Center, the largest athletics facility project in program history.

Prior to Auburn, Greene served as director of athletics at the University at Buffalo from 2015 to 2018, where four teams advanced to NCAA championships in a two-year span and the men's and women's basketball teams swept Mid-American Conference championships in 2016, the first time that dual feat was achieved in the conference since 2002.

Greene was a three-year starter for the Notre Dame baseball team, where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance in 2000. He was a ninth-round selection in the 1998 Major League Baseball draft by the New York Yankees and later earned a Master of Business Administration from Indiana University's South Bend campus.

He is highly regarded by his peers, having served on the executive committee of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and as 1st vice chair of LEAD1. In July 2026, he was named to the NCAA Division I Cabinet as the Atlantic Coast Conference's athletic director representative.

He and his wife, Christy, have three children: daughters Rian and Seneca and son Samuel.

PAT NARDUZZI

CHRIS BICKELL '97 HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Like the region it calls home, Pitt football under Pat Narduzzi has proven rugged, relentless and continuously rising.

Now in his 12th season as Pitt's Chris Bickell '97 Head Football Coach, Narduzzi has made an emphatic imprint on the Panthers. He owns an 80-61 record, and his 80 victories rank second in program history behind only legendary coach Jock Sutherland. From 2015-25, Narduzzi led Pitt to 52 ACC wins, the conference's third-highest total during that span behind only Clemson and Miami.

The defining achievement of his tenure came in 2021, when Pitt stormed to 11 victories, its most since 1981, and captured its first outright conference championship with a 45-21 triumph over Wake Forest in the ACC title game. The Panthers finished No. 13 nationally, their highest final ranking since 1982. A year later, Pitt went 9-4, defeated nationally ranked UCLA in the Sun Bowl and finished No. 22, giving the program consecutive Top 25 finishes for the first time since 1979-83.

Narduzzi has coached 10 first-team All-Americans at Pitt. Linebacker Kyle Louis earned that distinction from The Sporting News in 2024, becoming Pitt's first sophomore defensive player so honored since Hugh Green in 1978. Narduzzi's program has also become a prolific pipeline to the NFL. Pitt produced 20 selections in the 2021-25 drafts, second most among ACC programs, including six picks in 2023. Calijah Kancey and Kenny Pickett became consecutive first-round selections in 2023 and 2022, respectively.

The Panthers have repeatedly delivered against elite competition. In 2016, Pitt handed eventual national champion Clemson its only loss and defeated Penn State, which finished No. 5 in the College Football Playoff rankings. The Panthers later toppled undefeated No. 2 Miami in 2017 and ended UCF's 27-game non-bowl winning streak with the unforgettable "Pitt Special" in 2019.

Narduzzi's impact extends beyond competition. Pitt led all college football programs in community service hours during the 2021-22 academic year and received the 2025 AFCA Academic Achievement Award. His commitment is also personal: Narduzzi and his wife, Donna, made a six-figure gift to the Pitt Football Championship Fund to support student-athlete development, facilities, technology and recruiting.

The University of Pittsburgh Cheerleaders and Dance Team are among the finest spirit teams in the nation. The Pitt Cheerleaders and Dance Team are highly visible throughout Western Pennsylvania and beyond. Their colorful and energetic performances add to the exciting atmosphere of Pitt Athletics events. They annually represent the University of Pittsburgh at events throughout the community participating in corporate events, charity walks, and benefits along with numerous youth camps and clinics.

The Pitt Cheerleaders and Dance Team annually compete at the National Collegiate Cheer and Dance Championships held in Daytona Beach, Florida. In 2019, our Cheerleaders brought home a 1st Place finish and National Championship title from the NCA Collegiate National Championships in Small Coed Division 1A. The Cheerleaders have enjoyed strong finishes, most recently placing 7th in the nation. The Dance team continues to have impressive competitive appearances and placed 5th amongst the top dance teams in the country at the 2024 NDA Collegiate National Championships. This past year, Roc, was selected to compete at the National Collegiate Mascot Competition and placed amongst the top performers. Roc placed 3rd in 2025 when he brought home the Bronze!

The Cheerleaders and Dance Team have been coached for the past 44 years by Theresa Nuzzo. Under her direction, Roc, continues to engage in our Pitt community and is loved by all ages. Roc participates in numerous community and University events as well as continues to be the face of the Panthers. In addition, Ms. Nuzzo is one of the founders of Elite Cheerleading Inc., the Original Private Cheer Camp Company in the United States which has provided excellent cheerleading instruction at all levels.

When I grow up, I want to be a Teacher!

Last year, Sam was too sick to dream. He has Primary Immunodeficiency or PI. Thanks to the Jeffrey Modell Foundation, he has been properly diagnose and treated.

Now he's head of the class.

COUNT ON US TO HANDLE THE Xs AND Os.

They say football comes down to blocking and tackling. The basics. Do those right, and success is inevitable.

It's the same with health insurance. With UPMC Health Plan, you get affordable plans, great medical access, comprehensive coverage, and amazing (and local) customer service. Like they say, blocking and tackling. With the goal of helping you live your healthiest life possible. No wonder more and more Panthers fans are choosing UPMC Health Plan.
