TAMPA—Florida State's Seminoles wrapped up their second basketball success of the season here Tuesday night against the Tampa Spartans by a 73-63 score.

The Seminoles headed for Lakeland and an engagement tonight with Florida Southern. They're due back in Tallahassee and a couple of days rest before going to Deland for a Saturday night date with Stetson.

Ham Wernke sparked FSU with 27 points in the Tampa tussle. Wernke, who has been "off" since a Friday station wagon accident that shook up several Seminole players, appeared to have regained his old form. Dick Artemeir added 20 points in the FSU cause.

Marty Brooks, who was hampered by an eye injury in the last quarter, led the Tampans with 15 points.

It was a nip-and-tuck opening quarter, with the lead changing hand six times in the early moment, but FSU finally moved ahead in the fading minutes of the period and stayed out front the rest of the way.
