

Seminoles Scoot Past Southern Here, 92-74

Pull Away In Closing Half; Oler, Wold Hit 32 And 18

Jim Oler and Gary Wold, a study in contrast, scored 50 points between them here Monday night to pace Florida State to its 22nd straight home court basketball victory over a hot-and-cold Florida Southern five, 92-74.

The triumph left the Tribe still atop the Florida Intercollegiate Basketball Conference with a 7-0 record. Second place Miami has won as many as the Seminoles but has lost a pair, one to FSU and one to Stetson.

THE ENERGY

When the Moccasins threw a scare into the Tribe early in the third period by cutting the FSU lead to a mere point, it was Oler, a diminutive 5-9, and Wold, who towers 6-7, who furnished the winners with the energy to pull away.

Oler was particularly deadly at the foul line, from where he scored on 20 of 23 attempts. Wold had several tap-ins and teamed with center Bob Williams to give the Seminoles a good portion of the night's rebounds.

Oler, holder of almost every scoring mark in the state, increased his season totals to 592 with a 32-point effort and Wold had one of his best nights, being only two shy of 20.

The losers now have a 1-7 record in conference play.

The Moccasins dogged the Tribe for the entire first half and trailed by a slight 43-40 margin at intermission.

The Seminoles have only one more contest remaining at home. The Tribe engages Georgia here March 5.
