

TONIGHT'S GAME

For the second straight game, Florida State entertains a talented Pacific Eight Conference title contender as the University of Oregon provides tonight's opposition.

The West Coast Ducks opened their season Tuesday night, bowing to Missouri Valley Conference Wichita 97-84. At the same time, Florida State was getting by Oregon State 69-68.

Like the Beavers, Oregon figures to be another toughie. Coach Steve Belko has nine lettermen returning, including four starters. Likely Duck starters include 6-1 Bill Gaskins and 6-5 junior Bill Drozdiak at guards, 6-9 junior Stan Love at center with 6-3 junior Larry Holliday and 6-5 junior Leonard Jackson at forwards.

Holliday, although only 6-3, was the Pacific Eight rebound runnerup last season behind UCLA's Lew Alcindor. Against Wichita, he collected 15 points and hauled in nine 'bounds.

Gaskins is the Duck playmaker and also gets his share of the points. He scored 16 Tuesday night, a figure matched by reserve center Rusty Blair. Blair, a sophomore, saw a good deal of playing time against the Shockers since Love got in foul trouble early and departed with his fifth personal with 11:09 remaining.

Seminole Coach Hugh Durham probably will start the same five which opened against Oregon State. That would mean Dave Cowens at the high post, Vernell Ellzy at the low post, Skip Young and Rowland Garrett at wings and Ken Macklin at the point.

Tonight's officials are K.C. Hall and Bill Bennett.
