

TONIGHT'S GAME

After opening their season with five wins, the visiting Hoyas of Georgetown University have run into two top-twenty teams and bring a 5-2 record into tonight's Tully Gym contest.

The Washington D.C. based club suffered its first set back to St. Johns, 71-64 earlier this week, and then lost to Jacksonville, 41-26, Thursday night in a game that lasted less than a half. Just before the intermission at Jacksonville, a fight broke out, and by the time peace was restored Hoya Coach Jack Magee had pulled his team off the floor and forfeited the contest.

Magee has been shuffling his starters and may not make his final decision until tipoff. The two most likely starters are Art White, a 6-6 wingman and the team's leading scorer with a 17.0 average. The point man in the 1-3-1 offense will probably be 5-8 Don Weber. Possible choices at the other spots are 6-7 Mike Laughna at low post--the club's top rebounder averaging 9.5, 6-6 Charlie Adrion and 6-5 Jerry Pyles. Mike Laska, a 6-0 guard could break into the line up however.

The Seminoles, who have been taking final exams for the last week and one-half, will be trying to bounce back from last week's loss to North Carolina. Poor shooting and too many turnovers were the prime factors in that one.

Coach Hugh Durham has made one line up change, moving Willie Williams into Vernell Ellzy's low post spot. Against Carolina, Williams hit for 16 points and 11 rebounds, his best performance of the year. Other starters will be Ken Macklin (8.8) at the point, Ron Harris (8.3) and Skip Young (15.0) on the wings and Dave Cowens (19.5 points and 17.3 rebounds) at high post.

This is the first of three straight home games for the Seminoles who will battle, Louisville Monday night and Texas next Saturday.
