

TONIGHT'S GAME

Louisville, ranked No. 14 in one wire service, brings its balanced scoring machine to Tully Gym tonight as Florida State tackles its second nationally-rated team in less than two weeks.

The Cardinals from Kentucky are 3-1 for the season, their latest victory being a 94-87 triumph over Florida Saturday night in Gainesville.

Coach Hugh Durham's Seminoles, 4-1, registered No. 4 also on Saturday when the Tribe knocked off Georgetown 98-65.

Tonight's contest could be a rebounding dual between a pair of All-America center hopefuls--Louisville's Mike Grosso and Florida State's Dave Cowens.

At 6-10, Cowens has an inch over his opponent. However, Grosso tips the scales at 235 pounds, five more than the Seminole senior.

Louisville has claimed victories over California at Riverside (99-63), Furman (93-69) and Florida. The Cardinals' lone loss came when Dayton took a 72-56 decision.

Florida State's victories have been over Oregon State, Oregon, Rollins and Georgetown. The Seminoles bowed to seventh-ranked North Carolina 86-75.

The visitors start Grosso and four talented sophomores. The second year starters are Henry Bacon (6-3), Larry Carter (6-0), Jim Price (6-2) and Al Vilcheck (6-9).

All five Louisville starters are averaging in double figures. Grosso's 16 rebounds per game leads the Cardinals.

Florida State will go with the same five which opened against Georgetown. That includes Dave Cowens (18.6) at the high post, Willie Williams (8.2) at the low post, Skip Young (16.4) and Ron Harris (8.2) on the wings with Ken Macklin (9.2) at the point.
