

TONIGHT'S GAME

Florida State can match the second highest number of basketball victories in history tonight if the Seminoles, now 18-2 and ninth-ranked in the country, get by Florida Southern.

The Seminoles, during Hugh Durham's second year as head coach, recorded 19 wins and gained their first bid to the NCAA Tournament.

No other Seminole team has ever gone this deep in the season with only two loses. During the 1954-55 campaign, Florida State went into the final six contests with a 17-3 mark and wound up at 22-4.

This year's Florida State outfit has a chance at that 22-4 record since the Seminoles have six more games to play. After tonight's contest, the Seminoles will be home only twice more, against Tulane Saturday night and against Georgia Tech Feb. 21.

Southern, now 5-15 following its 85-68 loss to Georgia Southwestern College last night, figures to start Rick Heaston and Bill Brown at guards, Mike Lester at center with Josh High and Jazz Jones at forwards. Lester is the leading scorer with 12.1 average.

Durham will go with the same five which has seen the Seminoles run up a school-record nine straight triumphs. That means Dave Cowens at the high post, Willie Williams low, Skip Young and Ron Harris on the wings and Ken Macklin at the point.

However, there is a hitch since Cowens is suffering from a slightly sprained ankle. If the 6-10 senior can't go full speed, he won't start.
