Florida State vs. Tulane

The Metro comes to Tallahassee.

After long anticipation by Florida State fans and players, the Metro Conference finally moves to Tully Gym where the Seminoles will play their first ever league home game.

Tulane, who left the friendly confines of the Louisiana Bayou, will serve as the Tribe's opponent, marking the third occasion the two teams have met this season.

Florida State enters tonight's game with a 11-2 record following an impressive 85-43 win over Fairleigh Dickinson last Wednesday night. Harry Davis pumped in 23 points while David Thompson, making his first start of the season, added 20 points. The Tribe dominated the boards, out-rebounding visiting FDU 50-20.

Davis continued to lead Florida State in scoring with a 20.2 average with reserve guard Mickey Dillard coming off the bench to add 13.9. Thompson has moved up to the stat sheet, adding 11.8 a game, while Eugene Harris is averaging 10.8 a game. Davis is also the top rebounder, hauling down 8.5 a contest. Guard Tony Jackson, FSU's playmaker on the court, has collected 89 assists this season.

Forward Carlos Zuniga leads the Green Wave with a 14.4 scoring average followed closely by guard Pierre Gaudin at 14.2. Forward Eric Dozier is cracking into double digits at 11.9 per game. Marc Fletcher at guard and Terry McLean at center round out the starting lineup.

FSU first encountered the Green Wave on December 30 in the first round of the Pillsbury Classic. Harry Davis pumped in 21 points to lead the Seminoles to a 71-56 win.

The second meeting of the two conference teams came just last Saturday afternoon in the Superdome when Tony Jackson's 25-foot jump shot with four seconds remaining lifted FSU to an 87-85 victory.

Davis had another big day for the Tribe as he scored a season-high 29 points. Harris added 16 points, Thompson 14 and Dillard 11. Tulane had six players score in double figures in the loss. Due to a quirk in the scheduling, this will be the third meeting of the two teams in 16 days.

Florida State's next home game comes Tuesday night as the Seminoles host Cincinnati, another conference opponent, at Tully Gym. Tickets are on sale at the Athletic Ticket office.
