Florida State vs. South Alabama

Florida State will attempt to continue its string of six consecutive victories over South Alabama as the Jaguars visit Tully Gym for tonight's non-conference matchup.

Florida State, with its 15-2 record and No. 12 ranking, has a hold on the Metro Conference lead while the Jaguars are gliding to a 12-6 record in the Sun Belt Conference.

FSU has been idle since its 88-75 win over St. Louis a week ago when Kris Anderson pumped in a career-high 21 points. Anderson, averaging 8.8 points a game, has showed marked improvement during the past few games.

Four Florida State players are scoring in double figures. Harry Davis leads the scoring parade with a 19.5 average followed by Mickey Dillard with 14.3, David Thompson with 12.2 and Eugene Harris with 10.7.

FSU

For the third time during the 1977-78 season the Seminoles have cracked the nation's Top 20 in both wire service polls.

This week United Press International's board of coaches voted Florida State 12th while the Associated Press placed FSU 15th, according to its voting sportswriters and sportscasters.

The Seminoles were rated briefly after the Missouri game but were knocked out of the polls after losing to Cincinnati. They regained their Top 20 status after whipping Louisville.

FSU

Harry Davis remains in second position in the Metro Conference scoring statistics.

Davis' 19.5 overall average places him behind Georgia Tech's Sammy Drummer who is scoring 21.3 a game. In conference games, Davis is averaging 20.2 a contest which puts him just behind Louisville's Darrell Griffith's 20.8 clip.

FSU

Florida State's next home opponent will be Memphis State on February 11. At present the Seminoles and Memphis State share the lead in the Metro Conference with identical 5-1 league records.

Tipoff is scheduled for 8:05 p.m. and plenty of good seats remain on sale.
