THE COACHES--This is the second season Joe Williams has guided the Florida State basketball program. Last season the Seminoles compiled a 19-10 record. In his 16 seasons as a college head coach, Williams has compiled a record of 264-163. Prior to accepting the Seminole assignment Williams was head coach at Jacksonville (92-61) and Furman (142-87).

Sonny Smith is in his second season as the Auburn head coach. He guided the team to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament and the Big Sun Tournament championship last year. In addition the Tigers captured victories over two teams ranked in the nation's Top 10 at the beginning of the season. Formerly head coach at East Tennessee, Smith replaced Paul Lambert. Lambert had just been hired from Southern Illinois as Auburn's lead coach in April and had been on the job for two months when he was killed in a motel fire. Overall, he has a 51-50 career record, including a 30-23 mark at East Tennessee.

THE SEASON--Florida State ended a three-game losing streak with a 54-52 victory at Cincinnati Saturday. The Tribe, prior to that game, had lost four of its last five games. The Seminoles had a 9-1 record earlier in the season and an eight-game win streak.

Auburn has lost its last four games, including a 70-60 loss at Florida Saturday. The other losses in the streak have been administered by Alabama (50-46 in overtime), Ole Miss (71-54) and Kentucky (64-62).

THE METRO--FSU returns to Metro Conference action Thursday when it hosts Memphis State. The Seminoles also entertain Cincinnati Saturday in another league game. That contest is slated for broadcast over the Metro TV network.
