SPIRITED SEMINOLES

James Bozeman(l) and Oren Gilmore (r)
with Florida State Head Coach Joe Williams

SCOUTING REPORT

Louisville and Florida State square off tonight in a game that will be televised as the Metro Conference Monday night game of the week.

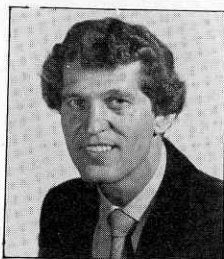

This will be Louisville's second Metro game. The Cardinals defeated Tulane 55-54 in the season opener. As for Florida State, this will be the Seminoles first Metro fight of the year.

The 1981-82 version of the FSU basketball squad is totally different than the one Metro fans are used to seeing. Four starters are gone from last year and several first year players are starting or playing key roles.

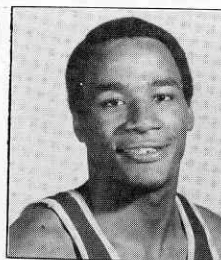

One element that remains the same is the Seminole's classy head coach, Joe Williams.

THE SERIES -- Louisville has a commanding 13-3 series lead but anyone who has watched the teams play since FSU joined the Metro, knows how close the series really is.

Since 1977 the two schools have played 11 times with the Cards winning 9. But 5 games have been decided by 6 points or less and two have gone into overtime. No one will ever forget the classic duel in the Metro Tournament championship game at University of Cincinnati on March 3, 1978. Louisville's Roger

Joe Williams

James Bozeman

Burkman hit a baseline jumper with :02 to play to give U of L a 94-93 victory.

Last year Louisville blew out the Seminole's in Freedom Hall, 98-78. It was the largest point differential in series history. On February 7 at Tully Gym, Louisville came out with a 82-73 victory in overtime.

SEMINOLES HAVE NEW TEEPEE -- A college basketball landmark became a memory this year when FSU moved from Terrible Tully into the New Tallahassee - Leon County Civic Center. The new facility can hold 12,500.

SEMINOLE SCALPERS -- FSU is led in scoring by junior guard Tony William with 15.5 points per game. Four other Seminoles were averaging in double figures. Michael Johnson is scoring 13.7 points per game, freshman David Speights is contributing 13.0 (he is also the leading rebounder with 6.7 per game), 6-9 sophomore Oren Gilmore is chipping in with 12.0, and freshman Maurice Myrick is hanging tough with 10.5.

This list of players could eventually develop into one of the Metro's dominant ball clubs.

You may wonder where two familiar names are, senior James Bozeman and Pernell Tookes. Bozeman was sidelined with a severely bruised knee but he should be back tonight. Tookes, long a crowd favorite in Freedom Hall, will miss his final appearance here due to ligament damage in a knee.

Two other names to keep in mind are 6-5 Mitchell Wiggins and 6-8 Bobby Miles. Wiggins is a transfer from Clemson who became eligible in mid-December. He is expected to start. Miles is a transfer from Georgia who will provide depth on the front line.

COMING ATTRACTIONS -- Louisville is back in action Thursday night for another conference game with St. Louis. That will be the third and final game of the current home stand.

Florida State will travel to the Mid-South Coliseum in Memphis for a game with Memphis State Saturday night. After that, the Seminoles return home for a game with Florida one week from tonight.
