WRITTEN FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

St. Leo (4-12)
vs.
Florida State (8-8/3-2)
Monday, January 25, 1982
Tallahassee Leon County Civic Center

THE GAME--Tonight's contest matches two streaking teams. The Seminoles after defeating St. Louis Saturday have won four straight games -- their longest win streak of the season -- and St. Leo has been defeated in seven consecutive outings.

LATELY--The Tribe evened its season's record and broke the .500 plateau in conference competition when they defeated St. Louis 89-73 Saturday. It was the second win of the season for FSU over St. Louis. The Tribe led by as much as 20 points in the second half and coasted to the win. Guard Mitchell Wiggins led all scorers with 27 points and every FSU starter was in double figures. After starting the season 4-5, St. Leo has not won since. The squad's last loss was against Biscayne College Saturday at Miami when they were defeated 82-65.

THE LAST MEETING--This game will mark the second meeting between these two Florida teams. In the first contest played during the 1977-78 season at retired Tully Gym FSU won 90-49.

STILL HOT AFTER TEN--In ten games since gaining eligibility, FSU guard Mitchell Wiggins has not been held under double figures. He has scored less than 20 points just once, and has scored 27 twice -- ninth all time best FSU single game. He is averaging 26.7 points per game to lead the team and the Metro Conference, and tops the squad in rebounding average with a 10.4 mark. For his work he has been selected the Metro Conference Player of the Week twice -- the only conference player to earn that honor -- and the Honeywell Player of the Game in a nationally televised broadcast.

NOT A ONE MAN SHOW--While Wiggins has been the dominating force in the Seminole lineup, he has had a lot of help. Every starter for the Tribe is averaging double figures, and guard Tony William tops the team in assists (82) and steals (39).

NOT JUST A COINCIDENCE--In Florida State's four game winning streak, William has hit in double figures all four games. William has been leading the Seminole fast break offense and has played well defensively.

THE COACHES--Florida State is led by Joe Williams who hopes to start his second 300 wins tonight. Saturday, Williams earned career win No. 300 in 17 plus seasons. His previous coaching stints have been at Jacksonville (1965-70; 92-61), Furman (1970-78; 142-87) and Florida State (1978- ; 66-38). Williams coaching ledger reads 300-186.

St. Leo is guided by second year coach Gary Richert who is 8-35 in one plus year at the Monarch helm. St. Leo is Richert's first head coaching assignment.
