Head coach Dean Smith following the Florida State game on Feb. 6, 1997:

"There was certainly a difference in the Florida State team we met in Tallahassee than the one we met tonight. Fortunately, I think there was a little bit of a difference in the North Carolina team, although we shot well down there. I thought our defense has come on. The crowd certainly helped, they have been sensational this year and every year really. I don't know where they got that reputation. We realize this was kind of freakish in the way it went, but I want to give credit to (Ademola) Okulaja. He was all over the place defensively. We put him on (James) Collins and Collins still got by some people. He's a great player. They missed some easy shots but we played very good defense. I thought Cota had his best game. I thought he did a great job penetrating.

They are a hard team to play against. They are a sound defensive team. Still we got some shots and then it mushroomed. Nobody felt early comfortable in the second half, based on the Maryland game. We mentioned it, Ademola mentioned it, just to concentrate.

I thought Webb Tyndall did a nice job. He did a good job the second time off the bench, really helped us.

(on Cota):

He has been working hard defensively. I wasn't worried about him offensively. His main job is to get people the ball and not lose it and play defense.

Our perimeter defense was active. We are getting better defensively."
