March 5, 1998

Game 1 N.C. State 65 Florida State 63

Steve Robinson, Florida State

"I told the team in the locker room that at times like these, it's not easy to find the right words to make them feel any better about what just happened. We played hard, we came close, and we had a shot to tie it up. The thing that I'm most proud of is that we never quit. We kept fighting. We tried to give ourselves a chance after we dug a hole. We believed we could do it and we certainly had a shot, but the credit goes to Herb and his staff and his players. They hung tough and they did the things necessary to win the game.

[Think about taking three-pointer on last play?] "We had an option to either take it to the basket, or if they helped a lot, we were going to look to penetrate and pitch it to the outside. Kerry got a good look at the basket. He was two feet away and they made a tremendous defensive play to block the shot. I think in that situation being aggressive and taking the ball to the basket puts a lot of pressure on them to make a defensive stop or they're going to feel you. Either way it was an opportunity for us to score. They were certainly going to guard us to stop us from taking a three-point shot, and I didn't want to just hurry and throw it up at the basket. Again, we had two option. We had the option of dribble penetration and if they came and helped we were going to kick it to the outside. We were going to take the best shot we could get.

LaMarr Greer, Florida State (on last play) "We wanted to get Kerry going to the basket, and if he didn't have an open shot, he was going to look for somebody to spot up, either me or Ronald Thompson or Matt. He had a lane to the basket and he took advantage of it.

Herb Sendek, N.C. State

[On Ishua Benjamin] "He's had many outstanding games in our two years together, but I'd be hard-pressed to recall a better one than tonight. He was outstanding on both ends of the floor and equally important for us he provided stable and excellent leadership. I'm glad he rode our bus over tonight."

[On Tim Wells coming into game and blocking shot attempt] "We decided under the circumstances that we wanted the quickest possible lineup on the floor. It turned out that he made a great blocked shot. In order to have a chance in this league, you have to have people do extraordinary things. It takes more than simply the common to be good enough. Tim did something that's very difficult to do: he stepped up and made a great play.

"I thought Florida State responded well. It came down to the last shot. Basketball is a game of runs, especially in competitive games like tonight. I was impressed with their ability to keep coming after you."

[On facing North Carolina] "I don't have time to change our offense before tomorrow. Unless we go back to the hotel and I get a brilliant stroke of lightning that we can teach tomorrow before we come over here."
