POST GAME NOTES--GAME TWO--TCU vs. Florida State
Florida State 96, Texas Christian 87

*Only the second loss for TCU since Jan. 5, 1998. They are 5-7 in the NCAA Tournament.

*Florida State's Corey Louis scored five unanswered points after Lee Nailon fouled out (4:15 left to play) giving the Seminoles an 85-80 advantage. (Louis finished with a double-double, 20 points and 13 rebounds, and his 20 points is a new career high).

*Lee Nailon's disqualification at the 4:15 mark was only his third time fouling out this season.

*Four of the five FSU starters scored in double figures (Jackson 20, Louis 20, Thompson 17, Greer 17).

*Four of the five TCU starters scored in double figures (Nailon 32, Jones 16, Johnson 14, Davis 12).

*FSU outscored TCU, 52-38, in the paint and outrebounded them, 44-34.

*Florida State substituted 37 times in the ball game (23 came in the first half).

*Florida State's Kerry Thompson's 17 points is a new season high. He missed a double-double by one assist.

*The average time of possession before FSU shot the ball was 12.9 seconds (in the first half 10.7 seconds; in the second half 15 seconds).

*The average time of possession before TCU shot the ball was 8.9 seconds (in the first half 9 seconds; in the second half 8.8 seconds).

*There were ten ties and 20 lead changes.

*TCU shot 37.1 percent for the season from behind the arc, however shot an uncharacteristic 16.7 percent (2-12) from downtown against FSU.

*Despite winning the game FSU committed 19 turnovers to TCU's 16.

*FSU shot 53.8 percent from the field for the game (on the season they averaged 45 percent).
