

MOCS WIN 5-3

The Seminoles dropped the opening game of the series to Southern Friday afternoon 5-3 when the Mocs took advantage of Royce Burt's weakness in the ninth to score twice and break a 3-3 deadlock.

After Burt had retired the first man to face him in the final frame, Green singled to start the Mocs winning rally. A wild pitch moved the receiver to second, and a pair of passes sandwiched around an infield out loaded the bases with two out. Basketball star Chuck Terry drew a pass forcing in the winning run, and Burt wild pitched the final tally across.

After Southern had taken a 1-0 lead in the second, the Seminoles rallied to go out in front 3-1 in the fifth.

A pair of infield errors on Rip Collins and Ronald Melton set the stage for the Indian rally. Lamar Brown's single to left scored Collins, and Melton and Brown rode home on Sam Cox's three-ply wallop.

Burt, who hurled nifty two-hit ball through the first six frames, weakened in the final frames and Southern finally tied the count at 3-all with single scores in the seventh and eighth.
