

SEMINOLES BLAST HATTERS

FSU's Seminole baseballers found the range against Stetson's pitching staff to blast out a 10-1 win in the Hatters' backyard Friday.

The Seminoles pounded out 13 hits off the offerings of three Stetson hurlers while John Witt handcuffed the opposition with four safeties. Witt struck out six Hatters and gave the same number of free passes.

Calvin Collins led the Seminole offense by pounding out four hits in four trips to the plate. Ronnie Melton got three for five and Bobby Trowbridge connected on two of his four times at bat.
