

Reserve outfielder Bob Roselle lined a single over third base in the bottom half of the ninth inning here Monday afternoon to lift Florida State to a 6-5 victory over the Georgia Teachers.

Roselle's single, which came with the bases loaded and two out, scored shortstop Phil Hunt, who had reached third on an error, sacrifice and infield single by leadoff man Owen McCarron.

It was the third consecutive victory for the Seminoles, who opened their season Friday and Saturday with a pair of triumphs over Gorman. The Tribe faces the Teachers here again today at 3:30 p.m.

Florida State had Monday's game apparently won—5-3—until the top half of the ninth, when Teachers put together doubles by losing pitcher Jim White and Ralph Berryhill and a single by Norm Griffen for the tying runs.

Jim Atwood was the winner for the Seminoles. Atwood, who struck out 12 and allowed seven hits, was the third FSU pitcher in as many games to go the distance.

Four men paced the winning attack with two hits apiece—Lee Corso, Carlee Hendrix, Owen McCarron and Gary Ashley.

Hendrix got the biggest hit, a towering solo homer over the right-centerfield fence in the third.

Both White and Berryhill got a pair of hits for the losers.
