Seminole win streak shattered

Florida State had an 11-game win streak snapped Saturday afternoon when it ran into Wright State pitcher Dave Lochner and lost the second game of a doubleheader, 6-2.

The Seminoles won the first game with ease, 12-0, and finished the day with an 18-4 record.

Lochner, displaying a good fast ball and an outstanding curve, held the red-hot Seminoles to only five hits and struck out nine batters in seven innings, as Wright State, a Division II team from Dayton, Ohio, upped its record to 5-2.

In the first game, the Seminoles had their bats warmed up, as they have over a recent streak.

Center-fielder Mike Fuentes, who had six hits Friday in a doubleheader against Division III Otterbein, tied a Florida State record in the first game Saturday, going four-for-four to stretch his hitting streak to eight at-bats.

However, as a sign of things to come, Lochner struck out Fuentes the first time the two faced off in the second game to end the streak. Fuentes later hit a homer, his second in two games, and drove in both Seminole runs off Lochner.

Shortstop Don DeLoach was the only other Seminole to solve Lochner's pitching, getting two hits in three trips to the plate.

Florida State didn't manage any home runs in the opener, but banged out 17 hits against Wright State. Pitcher Rick Hatcher benefitted from the attack, picking up his fourth victory in five decisions.

Florida State takes a road trip to Louisiana this week for games Monday against Tulane and Tuesday against New Orleans.
