Florida State 12, Ball State 2

TALLAHASSEE -- Second-ranked Florida State completed a three-game sweep of Ball State with a 12-2 victory over the Cardinals Thursday afternoon before a crowd of 1,011 at Dick Howser Stadium.

Eduardo Perez was once again the hitting star for FSU with three hits in four trips to the plate and three runs batted in. Perez, who had four hits in Wednesday's game, collected 10 hits in the series with Ball State and raised his average on the year to .435.

Florida State touched Ball State starter and loser Steve Niehaus, 0-1, for a pair of runs in the second to take a 2-0 lead. FSU extended its lead to 5-0 with a three-spot in the third, including a pair on Chris Roberts' deep sacrifice fly to center.

FSU broke the game open in the fourth with five runs for a 10-0 lead and coasted the rest of the way behind the pitching of Roger Bailey, Bryan Harris and John Nedeau. Bailey pitched five innings and gave up only one hit to pick up his third win of the year against one loss.

Nandy Serrano also collected three hits in the game and scored twice for FSU, while Kenny Felder and Tony Liebsack had two hits each. Felder's solo home run to left in the seventh, his third of the year, accounted for FSU's 11th run.

Ball State scored its two runs in the sixth off Harris on a single by Dan Lehrman which scored Todd Daugherty, who had singled and Scott Murr, who doubled.

FSU won its fifth straight game to improve to 15-3 on the season while Ball State dropped to 0-5. The Seminoles play host to intrastate rival Florida Saturday at 7 p.m. in the opening of a two-game set.
