Florida State 3, Appalachian State 1

TALLAHASSEE -- Freshman pitcher Jonathan Johnson pitched a two-hitter and struck out 10 over seven innings to lead 10th-ranked Florida State to a 3-1 victory over Appalachian State in college baseball action Wednesday. The win improved FSU's record to 4-0 while Appalachian State fell to 0-2 on the year.

Johnson, a righthander from Ocala, allowed only two singles and walked four in his first career start to pick up his first collegiate victory. Relievers Jeff Tam and Phil Olson gave up just one more hit between them as FSU pitchers totalled 13 strikeouts on the day.

Florida State took a 2-0 lead in the third off ASU starter and loser Chris Vullo, 0-1. With one out, Chad Sheffer doubled and advanced to third on a wild pitch. Jack Niles then hit a ground ball just inside the third base bag for an infield hit that scored Sheffer. Niles advanced to second when third baseman Ryan Cox' throw got away. Niles went to third on Grady Jordan's sacrifice bunt, then stole home for FSU's second run.

The Seminoles added a run in the eighth with two outs. Niles walked and eventually came around to score on Link Jarrett's single.

ASU broke up the shutout in the ninth, John Bonner scoring on an Olson wild pitch.

Jarrett led Florida State with two hits. Jody Boyles collected two of ASU's three singles on the day.

Florida State plays the College of Charleston in a three-game set this weekend in Tallahassee beginning Friday at 3:30 p.m.
