Durham, NC - T.R. Marcinczyk hit two solo homeruns and Ty Mueller added a third as Florida State toppled Duke, 8-5, at Jack Coombs Field Tuesday. The victory moved FSU's record to 22-4 overall and a 6-1 record in ACC play while the Blue Devils fell to 21-5-1 and 3-2, respectively.

Florida State pounded out 14 hits to support pitcher John Wasdin who upped his record to 5-0. Wasdin pitched five and a third innings, striking out eight and allowing just six hits. Duke also added two homeruns in the contest with Cass Hopkins leading off the bottom of the first with his second of the year. Casey Jowers also had a two-run shot in the sixth inning to close the FSU lead to 8-4.

John Nedeaue pitched the final three and 2/3 innings for Florida State to earn his first save of the year. He retired Duke in order in the bottom of the ninth to secure the win.

The two teams square off again tomorrow, in the rubber game of the series, at 3 p.m.
