Florida State 9, Mercer 0

TALLAHASSEE -- Bryan Harris and Jeff Tam combined on a one-hit shutout and fourth-ranked Florida State pounded out 15 hits in a 9-0 blanking of Mercer Tuesday night in college baseball action at Dick Howser Stadium.

Harris (5-2), a junior lefthander from Peachtree City, Ga., struck out eight in six innings and allowed just one hit, a fifth-inning single by Mercer's Clay McElroy. Tam, a righthander from Melbourne, Fla., fanned three in as many innings to earn his first save.

Grady Jordan and Doug Mientkiewicz blasted two-run homers in a five-run fourth inning for Florida State, 33-9. Mercer dropped to 10-27.

Jordan's shot to straight away center, his second of the season, gave the Seminoles a 3-0 lead. Mientkiewicz hit his second round tripper in three games and his third of the year over the screen in right to extend FSU's lead to 6-0.

Jordan, Mientkiewicz, Mike Schmitz and Mickey Lopez had two hits each for Florida State.

Mercer starter Matt Barefield (1-3), one of six Bear pitchers on the night, took the loss.

Florida State hosts Jacksonville Wednesday night at 7 p.m. The contest will mark the 1,000th game for FSU Head Coach Mike Martin, who is in his 14th season as the head man at Florida State.
