Florida State 12, Georgia State 4

TALLAHASSEE -- Ninth-ranked Florida State (44-17) tuned up for NCAA Regiona1 play by pasting Georgia State 12-4 in its regular season finale Saturday night at Dick Howser Stadium.

Georgia State held tough through the first half of the game until the bottom of the fifth when FSU touched starter and loser Jason Flurry (1-11) for five runs. The big blow in the frame was a two run homer by senior Kevin McCray.

The Seminoles then added four more in the sixth and were well on their way. Atlantic Coast Conference Freshman of the Year Jonathan Johnson went the first six innings in picking up his ninth victory. Johnson struck out eight, gave up six hits and allowed one run in improving his record to 9-1.

Six Seminoles had two hits each, including Mickey Lopez who drove in three runs. Mike Martin, Clint Hendry and McCray were each a perfect two-for-two on the night.

Florida State next returns to action Thursday night when it hosts the NCAA East Regional Tournament.
