FLORIDA STATE BASEBALL ROLLS OVER WAKE FOREST 11-7

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. -- Second baseman Scott Zech belted three hits and drove in three runs as he led No. 12 Florida State (23-4, 7-0 ACC) to its' 16th consecutive victory as the Seminoles defeated Wake Forest (11-17, 1-5 ACC), 11-7, at Gene Hooks Stadium.

The Seminoles began the game with a seven-run first inning sparked by a lead-off double and two-run basehit in two appearances by shortstop Brooks Badeaux. Third baseman Adam Faurot, Zech and first baseman Geoff Sprague contributed a trio of RBI-singles to the Florida State first inning campaign. Zech extended his hitting streak to nine games with a 3-for-5 performance.

Freshman Chris Chavez (2-0) earned his second victory of the season in relief of right-handed starter Mike Davis. Chavez shut out the Demon Deacons for 4.1 innings after entering the game in the fourth inning, but Wake Forest scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth in a last ditch effort.

Davis gave up four runs on four hits and five walks, including a two-run home run by Ben Danosky in the second inning.

Wake Forest starter Peter Princi (2-4) gave up five runs on four hits and one walk with out getting an out in the first inning for the loss before he was relieved by Bobby Wood. Wood gave up two unearned runs in the first inning, but shutout the Seminoles for the remainder of his outing.

J.D. Drew's 15-game hitting streak was snapped with an 0-for-2 performance by the Seminole centerfielder. Drew walked and was hit by a pitch twice in the game.
