FSU BASEBALL OPENS WITH 11-2 WIN OVER UNC-ASHEVILLE

TALLAHASSEE, FL -- No. 1 Florida State's offensive explosion was a combined effort as each starter contributed at least one base hit in the Seminoles' season-opening, 11-2, win over UNC-Asheville (0-1).

Florida State (1-0) was led by seniors Scott Zech and Jeremy Morris who combined for five hits and four RBI on the day. Zech had three base hits, while Morris crushed a double and a solo home run.

Junior lefthander Randy Choate (1-0) was credited with the victory as he struck out four batters in six innings. Choate, a preseason Collegiate Baseball All-American, gave up two runs on five hits and a walk.

Bulldogs' righthander Fred Rask (0-1) suffered the loss, giving up seven runs on nine hits through four innings. Rask struck out two and walked three.

The Seminoles closed out their 15-hit attack with three home runs in the eighth inning by Morris, junior rightfielder Brian Cox and freshman first baseman Reggie Griggs. Cox' and Griggs' home runs were their first hits as Seminoles.

Florida State will host UNC-Asheville tomorrow, Sunday, Feb. 2 at 1:00 p.m.
