NO. 6 FLORIDA STATE EDGES NO. 8 MIAMI, 8-7, IN BASEBALL

TALLAHASSEE, FL -- Rightfielder Terry Henderson ripped a double to leftfield to drive in the winning run in the fifth inning as No. 6 Florida State (30-12) edged No. 8 Miami (29-13), 8-7, in front of 3,739 fans at Dick Howser Stadium.

Third baseman Brian Cox ignited a two-out rally in the fifth inning with a single to leftfield and catcher Jermei Salazar reached base on a walk before Henderson came to the plate. Henderson belted a double in the left-center gap to drive in Cox and Salazar and then scored on Jose Zabala's double to rightfield to give the Seminoles an 8-5 lead.

Lefthander Mike DiBlasi (2-0) was the pitcher of record for FSU as he pitched one shutout inning in relief of Chris Chavez. Chavez struck out five, but gave up five runs on eight hits in four innings. Righthander Chuck Howell earned his first save of the season as he struck out four in four innings.

Miami jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first inning on a two-run double by rightfielder Jason Michaels. Second baseman Bobby Hill scored on a single by Mandy Jacomino in the third inning to give the Hurricanes a 3-0 advantage.

Centerfielder J.D. Drew cut Miami's lead to 3-2 as he blasted his 20th home run of the season over the rightfield screen in the bottom of the third inning.

Trailing 4-2 in the fourth inning, second baseman Scott Zech lined a basehit to leftfield to drive in two runs and tie the game. Miami regained the lead in the top of the fifth as DH Rick Saggese scored on a sacrifice fly by shortstop Brad Brewer before FSU rallied in the bottom of the inning.

Righthander Alex Santos (6-1) took his first loss for Miami as he gave up six runs on six hits and three walks. Santos struck out six batters in 4 2/3 innings pitched.

Miami scored a run in the eighth and ninth innings, but could not overcome FSU's lead. Herman Alvarez hit a pinch-hit home run in the ninth inning for Miami.
