HONEYCUTT'S FIVE RBI LEAD TECH PAST FSU, 12-11\

ATLANTA -- Heath Honeycutt drove in five runs with four hits, including the game-winning single through a five-man infield in the 10th inning to give 13th-ranked Georgia Tech a 12-11 ACC baseball victory over No. 9 Florida State Sunday night at Russ Chandler Stadium.\

It was the only win for Tech (34-8, 12-3 ACC) in the three-game series and kept the Yellow Jackets a half-game ahead of N.C. State (13-5) in the conference standings and 1-1/2 games ahead of the Seminoles (33-13, 12-6).\

J.J. Thomas and Kris Wilson drew walks to start the 10th, setting the stage for Honeycutt, who had hit a grand slam homer and singled twice earlier in the game. FSU coach Mike Martin substituted a fifth infielder to cut off a ground ball, but Honeycutt drilled a single past second baseman Scott Zech to score Thomas with the winning run.\

David Elder (6-2), after taking the loss in relief Friday night, got the win with five innings of relief work. He gave up five hits and three runs, including a game-tying homer to Kevin Cash with two out in the top of the ninth.\

Mike DiBlasi (2-1), who got a save for FSU Friday, took the loss after issuing the free pass to Thomas.\

Tech scored six runs in the first to take a 6-2 lead, highlighted by Honeycutt's slam, his second homer of the season, and a two-run shot by Mark Fischer, his 16th of the season. The Jackets also got home runs from Adam Leggett in the second, his ninth, and J.J. Thomas in the sixth, his 15th.\

Geoff Sprague and Terry Henderson homered for Florida State.\

Neither starting pitcher lasted long. FSU's Chris Chavez gave up 10 hits, including three of Tech's home runs, and allowed 10 runs in 4-2/3 innings. Tech's L.J. Yankosky lasted five and gave up eight runs, but only two were earned because of the Yellow Jackets' five errors.\
