FSU CROSS COUNTRY

Tallahassee, Fla.---Florida State runners swept the first five places as FSU defeated Troy State 15-45 in a women's cross country meet Saturday at Seminole Golf Course. Senior Carla Borovicka won the 3.1 mile race in a time of 16:52. FSU's Janie Regis was second while Nancy Rettie came in third. Other Florida State finishers were freshman Brenda Moore (4th), Barbara Matthews (5th) and Sue Pockell (7th). Janice DeHaye was the first Troy State runner to cross the finish line (6th).

The Florida State men's team fell to the Troy State Trojans 18-37. FSU freshman Chris Brooks finished fifth in a time of 26:00.6 over the five mile course to lead the Tribe. He was followed by Seminole runners Greg Doss (26:03.0) and Jeff Muth (26:05.5). FSU was without the services of its top runner, Basil Magee, who has a leg injury.

Both FSU teams are in action at home again next Saturday as they host the 12th Annual Seminole Invitational meet. Over 10 teams, including Florida, Alabama and Auburn will vie for the 1984 college division title.
