GSU INVITATIONAL SLATED FOR SATURDAY

ATLANTA, Ga. -- The 18th annual GSU Invitational cross country meet is scheduled for Saturday (Sept. 15) at 9:30 a.m. at Georgia State's Georgia Regional Hospital Course just off Panthersville Road.

A total of 25 schools will be taking part in the five-mile men's race and the 5,000-meter women's race.

Among the men's entries will be Auburn, Alabama, Alabama State, Samford, South Alabama, Florida State, Florida International, Austin Peay, Alabama-Birmingham, Western Carolina, Mercer, Georgia Southern, Berry, Morehouse, North Georgia, Columbus, Tennessee Tech, North Florida, Alabama A&M, Duke, Murray State, Tuskegee, Stetson and, of course, host Georgia State.

The women's entries will include Georgia State, Auburn, Alabama, Alabama State, Samford, South Alabama, Florida State, Florida International, Austin Peay, Alabama-Birmingham, Western Carolina, Mercer, Georgia Southern, Berry, Morehouse, North Georgia, Columbus, Tennessee Tech, North Florida, Tuskegee, Stetson and Tennessee.

In the men's race, Alabama will rank as the favorite, while the women's competition could become a dual between defending champ Alabama and its powerful Southeastern Conference rival Tennessee.

It will be the second action of the year for the Georgia State University men and women, both of whom finished fourth in the Western Carolina Invitational this past weekend.

The GSU men were led by senior John Rowland, who finished sixth among 73 entrants in the five-mile men's race with a time of 26:35, and the Lady Panthers were paced by sophomore Meri Lukens Poteet, who was eighth out of 61 in the 5,000-meter women's race in a time of 19:23. Overall, East Tennessee captured the men's competition led by individual champ Shamus Power (25:47), while the women's race was won by Clemson and the Lady Tigers' Anne Evans (17:41).
