FSU MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY PLACES SECOND AT BARNETT BANK INVITE

TALLAHASSEE -- The Florida State men's cross country team ran to a second place finish Saturday at the Barnett Bank Invitational held at the University of Florida Golf Course in Gainesville. The women's team also competed Saturday morning. They placed third overall.

Florida State scored 99 points, behind team champion University of Florida's 26 points. Mark Grey led all Seminole harriers with a 14th place finish in 26:01.2. Crossing the line one spot behind Grey was Ian Potter. His time was 26:04.5.

Stacey Bowrosen led the Lady Seminoles to their third place finish with an 18:11.6 clocking. Her time was good enough for fourth place individually. FSU scored 78 team points, finishing behind Florida (33 points) and Florida International (63 points).

Florida State's cross country teams next travel to Tampa for the Florida Intercollegiate Championships on October 15.
