N.C. STATE SWEEPS ACC CROSS COUNTRY TITLES Wolfpack's Joyce, UNC's Godlock take individual titles

(WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.) — North Carolina State's men's and women's cross country teams swept the 1995 Atlantic Coast Conference championships, held Saturday morning on the campus of Wake Forest University. The men's and women's teams from Wake Forest placed second in both championship races.

"We knew our men would run well up front," said N.C. State's Rollie Geiger, the coach of both Wolfpack programs. "But to finish 1-2-3-4 was a surprise. In the women's race, we weren't the frontrunners, but our pack was there where it needed to be. We are excited about winning both championships. Both of our programs are very close. If one team wins and the other doesn't, it's a long ride home for one of the teams."

N.C. State's Pat Joyce won the men's individual championship with an 8,000-meter time of 24:29.90. In the women's race, North Carolina junior Karen Godlock defended her ACC title of a year ago, winning the 5,000-meter race in 17:23.89.

The Wolfpack men dominated their meet, placing the first four finishers and scoring 18 points, the lowest point total in the history of the event. Six N.C. State runners placed in the top 10 to earn all-ACC honors, that total was another conference record. Wolfpack sophomore Pat Joyce won the individual title with a time of 24:29.90 for 8,000 meters. Second was his teammate, senior Jose Gonzalez in 24:48.22, followed by two more Wolfpack runners, senior Mike Brooks in 25:01.49 and sophomore Joe Wirgau in 25:02.49.

The first non-N.C. State finisher was Maryland's Brian Montgomery, in fifth at 25:07.47. Other N.C. State athletes in the top 10 were freshmen Chan Pons and Corey Pons.

Wake Forest, the defending ACC champion, placed three runners in the top 10 to place second with 67 points. N.C. State's 49-point victory margin was the largest ever in the history of the ACC Championships.

In the women's championship, N.C. State scored 40 points to outdistance runner-up Wake Forest, which scored 70. The Wolfpack women placed three top-10 runners, led by junior Kristen Hall, with a time of 17:44.56. Freshman Jackie Coscia placed fifth for N.C. State in 17:50.44. Placing seventh and eighth were junior Heather Hollis in 18:08.50 and freshman Meredith Faircloth in 18:09.43. The final State counter was sophomore Jennifer Lakas, in 16th.

Runner-up Wake Forest placed two senior runners in second and third, with Nicole Stevenson finishing at 17:32.39 and Cindy Moreshead in 17:38.80.
