FSU 15, Auburn 21

Auburn quarterback Jimmy Sidle etched his name to the list of All-Americans who dealt the Seminoles plenty of misery in A. D. '63. He ran 8, 2, and 7 yards for touchdowns as Auburn downed FSU, 21-15.

Star halfback Dave Snyder didn't even dress for the game because of a knee injury, but the Tribe gave the Tigers a game fight before 28,000 in Auburn's Cliff Hare Stadium.

Sidle went about his business in the first half, and Auburn led 14-0 at halftime.

But Maury Bibent, defensively an A student the year long, picked off a Sidle aerial with 4:38 left in the third period and Ed Pritchett came on to quarterback the Tribe. On a first down situation at the Auburn 27, Pritchett leaped and faked a pass to right end Red Dawson, then heaved to LE John Wachtel in the end zone. Doug Messer converted.

Halfback Winfred Bailey scared the Auburn crowd good in the fourth period. He lugged a punt 56 yards to the 13, and Pritchett sneaked over from the one for FSU's second touchdown six plays later.

A late Seminole passing attack failed to get underway.
