PRINCIPAL INDIVIDUAL PLAYS

List all scoring plays; also non-scoring plays (including punts) gaining 50 yards or more, and all missed field goal attempts.

Under "type of play" indicate rush, pass, int. runback, punt runback, kickoff runback, punt or field goal. List tries-for-points as P.A.T. kick, P.A.T. rush or P.A.T. pass.

On pass play, give passer first, then receiver, and combined yardage of pass and run. Measure runbacks from goal line, if started in end zone. Measure field goal attempts from point of kick. All other plays are measured from line of scrimmage.

CONDENSED RULES FOR RECORDING FOOTBALL STATISTICS*

(Originated by the N.C.A.A. Football Rules Committee's Sub-committee on Football Statistics)

SECTION 1 — FIRST DOWNS.

A first down shall be recorded whenever the yardsticks are ordered forward by the officials, and when a touchdown is scored from scrimmage (by rushing or passing) within a series of downs starting 10 yards or more from the goal line. A first down is not recorded on a touchdown runback, regardless of the distance of the scoring run.

SECTION 2 — RUSHING.

Article 1: All offensive running plays are to be classified as rushing plays, not as "plays from scrimmage," since any play begun with a snapback from center actually is a play from scrimmage.

Article 2: Rushing yardage is measured from the line of scrimmage to the point where the ball is declared dead, or is recovered by opponents in the case of a fumble.

Article 3: The rushing total is a net figure. All rushing losses must be recorded so as to account for the net figure.

Article 4: All gains on lateral passes which originated or grew out of a rushing play are included in rushing yardage. (See Article 1 of Section 4.)

SECTION 3 — FORWARD PASSING.

Article 1: Forward passing gains or losses are measured from the scrimmage line to the point where the ball is declared dead (or is recovered by opponents in the case of a fumble), so as to include both length of pass and running advance after completion. All yards gained or lost on each completed pass play are credited to both the passer and the receiver.

Article 2: Loss from a completed forward pass which did not advance the ball to the scrimmage line is a yardage charge against passing gain.

Article 3: Any loss by a player apparently intending to pass, but thrown behind the line of scrimmage, is recorded as a loss by rushing. He is not a passer until he has thrown the ball, and he retains at all times the option of running.

Article 4: Interception returns are measured from the point of interception to the point where the ball is declared dead (or is recovered by opponents in the case of a fumble).

Article 5: There is no pass completed by penalty. A gain through interference on a passing play is a penalty against the defending team. The passer is not charged with a pass attempt, nor credited with a pass completed or yards gained; nor is the intended receiver (or the player interfered with) credited with a pass caught. The passing team is credited only with a first down by penalty. The defensive (offending) team is charged with a penalty, and the distance from the line of scrimmage to the spot of the penalty under "yards penalized."

Article 6: The forward passer is charged with a forward pass attempt when a forward pass is ruled intentionally grounded.

SECTION 4 — LATERAL PASSING.

Article 1: A lateral pass is always a component part of the ultimate play, whether it precedes or follows that play, since the lateral is merely an extension of the original or ultimate play, in effect.

(Approved Ruling — Player A receives a forward pass for a gain of 10 yards, then throws a lateral pass to Player B, who gains an additional 5 yards. Player A is credited with one pass caught and 10 yards under "receiving." Player B is credited with NO pass caught and with 5 yards under "receiving." Player who threw the forward pass is credited with 15 yards under "forward passing.")

(Approved Ruling — Player A catches punt and returns 10 yards before throwing a lateral pass to Player B, who returns another 5 yards. Player A is credited with one return and 10 yards under "punt returns." Player B is credited with NO return and with 5 yards under "punt returns.")

Article 2: Incomplete lateral passes are scored as fumbles, and yards lost are charged against the player who, in the scorer's opinion, was responsible for the failure of the pass.

Article 3: Intercepted lateral passes are scored as fumbles, the offensive team being charged with a fumble lost.

Article 4: The official scorer rules on whether a completed pass to a flanker or man-in-motion is a forward or a lateral pass. If the latter, the play is recorded under "rushing." If the pass is incomplete, the subsequent action of the officials reveals whether the pass was a forward or a lateral.

SECTION 5 — TOTAL OFFENSE.

Article 1: Total offense is the combined result of rushing and forward passing only, since these two are the only methods by which legal advance can be initiated while retaining possession of the ball.

Article 2: Total offense yardage is the total of net gain by rushing and net gain by forward passing. "Receiving" yards gained are not included in total offense.

WILD PASS FROM CENTER.

Any loss resulting from an obvious wild pass from center is charged to "center pass," and not to any individual player.

NEWS RELEASE--FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

JANUARY 1, 1965

Les Murdock, Florida State University's senior placekicker from Hollywood, Fla., will not play in tomorrow's Gator Bowl game against Oklahoma.

Florida State officials said today that after an intensive review and consultation with National Collegiate Athletic Association officials, Murdock would be eligible to play in the game under an NCAA regulation which allows a Student-Athlete 10 semesters of residence to complete his varsity eligibility.

Because Florida State did not have any knowledge of Murdock's previous attendance at the University of Tampa, however, University officials say it seems advisable for Murdock not play in the Gator Bowl game because of another NCAA regulation which states

"A student athlete shall not represent his institution unless he has been admitted in accordance with the regular published entrance requirements of that institution."

Upon completion of his application for admission to Florida State in August, 1960, Murdock did not indicate previous attendance at the University of Tampa.

It was learned only Thursday that Murdock had attended Tampa in the fall of 1959, before enrolling at Florida State as a non-athlete in September of 1960. Murdock reportedly dropped out of the University of Tampa before the end of one semester and has attended Florida State for nine semesters.

When it came to light about Murdock's previous attendance at Tampa, University officials determined that a 10-semester regulation of the NCAA was applicable in the Murdock case. Since his initial enrollment at Tampa was in 1959, his eligibility is determined under the NCAA regulation in effect at that time.

The earlier 10-semester regulation was superseded in January, 1961, by the current NCAA regulation that calls for a student-athlete to complete his varsity eligibility within a five year period after he initially enrolls in college.

MURDOCK 2

FSU officials say they recognize extenuating circumstances in the case, however. They reported that Murdock says he left the University of Tampa before taking final examinations in the fall of 1959. After thorough review of the apparent circumstances, FSU officials say they are convinced Murdock was under the impression that he had earned no credit hours at the University of Tampa.

Florida State has no record of Murdock's having earned credits at Tampa or of his previous attendance at the Tampa institution.

University officials emphasized that when Murdock applied for admission to Florida State in 1960, he had no intention of playing football for Florida State. After being at the University for more than two years, Murdock decided on his own late in the 1962 season that he might have something to offer the football team as a place-kicker.

Murdock handled kickoffs for the Seminoles in their final two games of the 1962 season. He developed into a talented placekicker during the 1963 and 1964 seasons.

Officials said the University regrets the circumstances of "what is certainly an unusual case of a student who was not recruited through athletics but who later decided to play football."

Further review of the case will be given by University officials, they say, but because of the question posed by the language of the NCAA regulation, the University "feels it inadvisable for Murdock to play against Oklahoma."
