1981 FLORIDA STATE ORANGE BOWL

MEDIA GUIDE

47th ORANGE BOWL FACTS

REMATCH: Florida State (10-1), ranked second in both the wire service polls, plays Oklahoma (9-2), the Big Eight Conference champions, in a replay of the 46th Orange Bowl, won 24-7 by Oklahoma. The Sooners are ranked fourth.

DATE: January 1, 1981.

SITE: Orange Bowl Stadium (75,414), Miami, Fla.

KICKOFF: 8:00 p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

TV-RADIO: NBC-TV national telecast with Don Criqui (play-by-play), John Brodie (expert analyst) and Bob Trumpy (sidelines) forming the announce team. Mutual Radio will have Tony Roberts (play-by-play) and Al Wester (commentary) in the booth and Gene Deckerhoff on the sidelines.

THE GAME: Florida State and Oklahoma will be playing for the fourth time, the third bowl clash. The latest matchup between the two came last season when Oklahoma knocked the Seminoles from the unbeaten ranks, 24-7, at the Orange Bowl. The teams also played in the 1965 Gator Bowl where the Seminoles won a 36-19 verdict. The second game between the two came in the 1976 season at Norman, Okla., where the Sooners won 23-9.

BOWL RECORDS: Florida State will be making its 11th bowl appearance since the Seminoles began playing football in 1947. Oklahoma will be appearing in its 22nd bowl game. After its loss to Oklahoma at last year's Orange Bowl, the FSU bowl report card now shows a 3-6-1 mark. Last year's Orange Bowl was the first FSU appearance in one of the "Big Four" bowl games. Oklahoma sports a 14-6-1 bowl game record and has appeared in more Orange Bowl games (12) than any other school, and has also won more Orange Bowl championships (eight) than anyone else.

A WRITER'S ANALYSIS OF THE TRIBE

by RAY HOLLIMAN

St. Petersburg Times—Sports Writer

FSU Passing Offense

He was only one man, but he was asked to take the place of two. Rick Stockstill had been waiting, not necessarily patiently.

For three years, he sat and watched Jimmy Jordan and Wally Woodham quarterback Florida State, but could say little about his lack of opportunity since the Seminoles seemed to be doing quite well with those two alternating.

In his freshman year, Stockstill was a little-used mopup, the next year he was redshirted. Last season, just so he could get some playing time, he played on special teams and came on to quarterback only when games were out of reach.

Now, Stockstill is the man. The days of the two-quarterback system ended at Florida State this season, and he never was put in the awkward situation of having to look over his shoulder.

"Rick has not done one thing to make us think he cannot do the job," said coach Bobby Bowden, who never had been a two-quarterback man in the first place but was forced into the alternating system because of the hot-and-cold nature and the near-equal ability of Woodham and Jordan a year ago.

Stockstill bided his time, starring in spring games and making the most of his limited opportunities in regular-season games last year. He played the fourth quarter in a 1979 rout of Memphis State and completed seven of eight passes. He was considered ready.

The arrival of Stockstill this year also changed the offense. No longer was FSU limited to the drop back and fire method of moving the football, because Stockstill possesses sprint-out qualities that allowed a diversification of the offense.

The pass, instead, became more of a percentage play. Stockstill threw much less than his two predecessors — in fact, he threw just a bit more than half as much — but he made them count. His completion rate was 60 per cent.

More use was made of the short pass — running back Michael Whiting was the leading receiver and tight end Sam Childers was second. But the big play wasn't nullified. When a bomb was needed, the man usually there was Hardis Johnson, who averaged 18 yards per catch and already had caught nine touchdown passes going into the final regular season game.

FSU Rushing Offense

Florida State wanted to install a new offensive system—one that called for the ball to be carried more than thrown.

The search was launched for somebody to do the carrying, and it was ironic that the Seminoles borrowed from the passing game to add strength to their running game.

For two years, Sam Platt had been one of FSU's biggest pass receiving threats, but during 1980 spring training coach Bobby Bowden asked him to return to his old high school running back position.

It would be storybook stuff to say Platt responded by becoming an instant Heisman Trophy candidate. It would be accurate to say he responded like a man learning a new position.

Platt had his troubled games — even being benched at one point early in the season — but he also made the experiment a success by becoming a constant running threat.

He said it was a matter of motivation. "I just feel 'up' for the games I know are important to us," he said. "I talk to myself during the week and tell myself I have to get motivated."

Platt talked to himself enough to move into the 1,000-yard range and add a ground threat that FSU had not possessed during Bowden's first four years.

Platt's running mate was fullback Michael Whiting, who gained about half as many yards, but was valuable as a blocker for Platt and also as a pass receiver (he led the club in number of receptions).

Whiting's playing time last year consisted mostly of returning kickoffs. He was backup at both tailback and fullback, but most of the ball-carrying was done by 240-pound fullback Mark Lyles.

Whiting weighs only 200, and the days of a giant carrying three men on his back for a first down were over when Lyles graduated. But Whiting has proven valuable, with or without the ball.

With Lyles' power gone, the emphasis was placed on the offensive line—a veteran crew, but one more skilled in pass protection than in opening holes for running backs.

The linemen could see the change coming, and they knew they had to adjust. There is a difference in firing out to make the running game go and in simply holding the defense out to protect the passer.

"We know we can run the ball this year," said offensive tackle Ken Lanier prior to the season. "All of us have to be more alert. We have to move more so we can turn it upfield whenever we have a chance."

Lanier, in his fourth year as a starter, made that adjustment. He made it so well that he is listed as a potential No. 1 draft choice among professional teams.

The other linemen have made the adjustment, too.

It is the opposing defenses, so accustomed to dropping back to protect against the pass, who have had trouble adjusting.

After watching FSU the last three years, they never thought they'd see the day when the Seminoles could keep the ball on the ground and still rack up the yardage.

FSU Rushing Defense

Ron Simmons was consensus All-America in 1979. Ron Simmons was ninth in Heisman Trophy voting. Ron Simmons was just a junior.

Ron Simmons was the best reason to choose Florida State high in the 1980 preseason polls.

Ron Simmons . . . no telling how good he may have been as a senior noseguard. He never got a chance.

Simmons twisted his ankle in the first quarter of the first game of the season, a 16-0 win over Louisiana State. He came back three games later because he thought it was necessary, since Florida State was heading into its toughest three games of the season—Miami, Nebraska and Pittsburgh — but he was never the same.

Not only was he running at what he estimated at 60 per cent, but his reputation was such that he was double-teamed and triple-teamed every time he lined up opposite the center.

Take away Simmons, everybody thought, and FSU's defense could be a pushover.

Wrong.

First of all, it is necessary to give Simmons some credit despite the fact he wasn't among the leaders in tackles or big plays. After all, when a man is well-thought of enough to have as many as three men working him over on every play, it should be considered that he is breaking down the opposition's defense.

And give credit to the linebackers for taking advantage of those breakdowns.

Reggie Herring and Paul Piurowski are called, in football terminology, "animals." Or, as the coaches would say it in more acceptable terms, "They play the game with intensity."

With Simmons and the rest of the front line shooting down the interference, Herring and Piurowski accounted for more than 200 tackles this season. And it was Piurowski who saved an 18-14 win over Nebraska with a fumble recovery at the FSU three-yard line in the last seconds of the game.

"I made a mistake," Piurowski admitted later. "I was supposed to pick up the fullback, but I was on the blitz. I decided if I was going to make a mistake, I might as well make it at full speed."

This philosophy paid off for the FSU defense, which ranked first in the nation overall and fourth against the rush.

FSU Pass Defense

Bobby Bowden watches from the sidelines, and sometimes he's amazed.

Monk Bonasorte has intercepted another pass or recovered another fumble or come from out of nowhere to make another saving tackle.

"You just look up," says Bowden, "and he's there. You wonder how he ever got there in the first place."

But, then, how did Monk Bonasorte ever get to Florida State in the first place? He walked on, that's how. He just showed up one day, a 180-pounder with no speed, and to show just how impressed the Seminole coaching staff was with him they lined him up at tight end. Bonasorte couldn't play tight end for the local midget team.

But defensive coach Jack Stanton saw something in practice. He saw that this guy Bonasorte was always close to the ball. If he didn't have size or speed, he certainly did have a knack.

After three years of watching Bonasorte practice this knack, Bowden is inclined to give the ultimate praise: "He's played as well as any defensive back in the country."

Bonasorte came back from knee surgery last year to intercept eight passes and recover three fumbles. "Monk comes up with a big play in every game," says Bowden, "and how many defensive backs in the country can say that?"

This year, the opposition learned not to mess with Bonasorte. But, when it was time to pass, where did they go?

The answer was nowhere. Keith Jones, whose interception total is overshadowed by his intimidation of receivers, was out. And Bobby Butler was definitely out.

Of them all, Butler is the man enemy passers avoid. He is always assigned to the other team's leading receiver, and his 4.9 speed in the 40-yard dash makes him a leading pro prospect despite his slight build (5-11, 185).

Butler has the speed. Jones has the killer instinct.

And Bonasorte? He just has that rare ability to be in the right place at the right time.

FSU Kicking Game

For three seasons, Bill Capece was the kickoff man.

Every so often, just to keep him satisfied, coach Bobby Bowden would let him try a long-range field goal. Usually, those field goals were such long range that the kick was only for exercise.

Still, Capece did his duty. He kicked off into the end zone more often than not and watched David Cappelen rack up the scoring statistics.

But Cappelen graduated, and Capece wasted no time in showing that his foot was just as accurate as it was strong.

Capece broke an NCAA record this year for points scored by a kicker, and for one brief period he even carried the team on his 5-foot-7, 170-pound back.

Right in the heart of the season, when the opposition included Nebraska and Pittsburgh — both ranked No. 3 in the country at the time — Capece kicked nine field goals in three games, some of them from long range.

Capece and Rohn Stark give Florida State one of the nation's best overall kicking games, and this was vital in the Seminoles' high national ranking and their trip to the Orange Bowl.

Stark is the antithesis of a college punter inasmuch as he is an all-around athlete whose dream is to participate in the Olympic decathlon.

Many times during the past three seasons, Stark's strong leg has put the Seminoles out of trouble. This year, he ranked high in the nation with a 45-yard plus average. And Stark also has that coveted knack of kicking the ball dead deep in enemy territory.

"He doesn't score points," says offensive coordinator George Henshaw, "so nobody realizes his value to the team. But the coaches know we would have been in big trouble a few times if he wasn't around."

But trouble is not something the Seminoles have come to expect from their kicking game.

In this facet of the game so often overlooked by laymen, but considered indispensable by coaches, Capece and Stark have made FSU one of the best teams around.

FSU Special Teams

Gary Henry was just a sophomore, given his first opportunity to play bigtime college football.

His job was to return punts, but Henry was feeling the pressure. Time after time he fair-caught the ball — never mind that there seemed to be plenty of running room.

The crowd booed. The boos grew louder with every fair catch.

And, had Henry listened, he might have heard the boos even on the sideline — his own sideline.

"Heck, I was booing him myself," said Florida State coach Bobby Bowden.

But Bowden cheered along with the rest when Henry finally decided to field a punt and took it 65 yards in the final minutes of the game to give Florida State a 17-14 win over Southern Mississippi and send the Seminoles on to an 11-0 regular season record.

That was in 1979, and Henry went on to score on another 57-yard return against Miami and set up the winning TD in a come-from-behind win over Cincinnati with a 35-yard return.

This year, as a junior, the dramatics have decreased. In fact, Henry is averaging less than seven yards per return.

But his days of unnecessary fair-catching are over, and now he is known as a sure-handed receiver who, with FSU's highly regarded defense, can often assure the Seminoles of excellent field position.

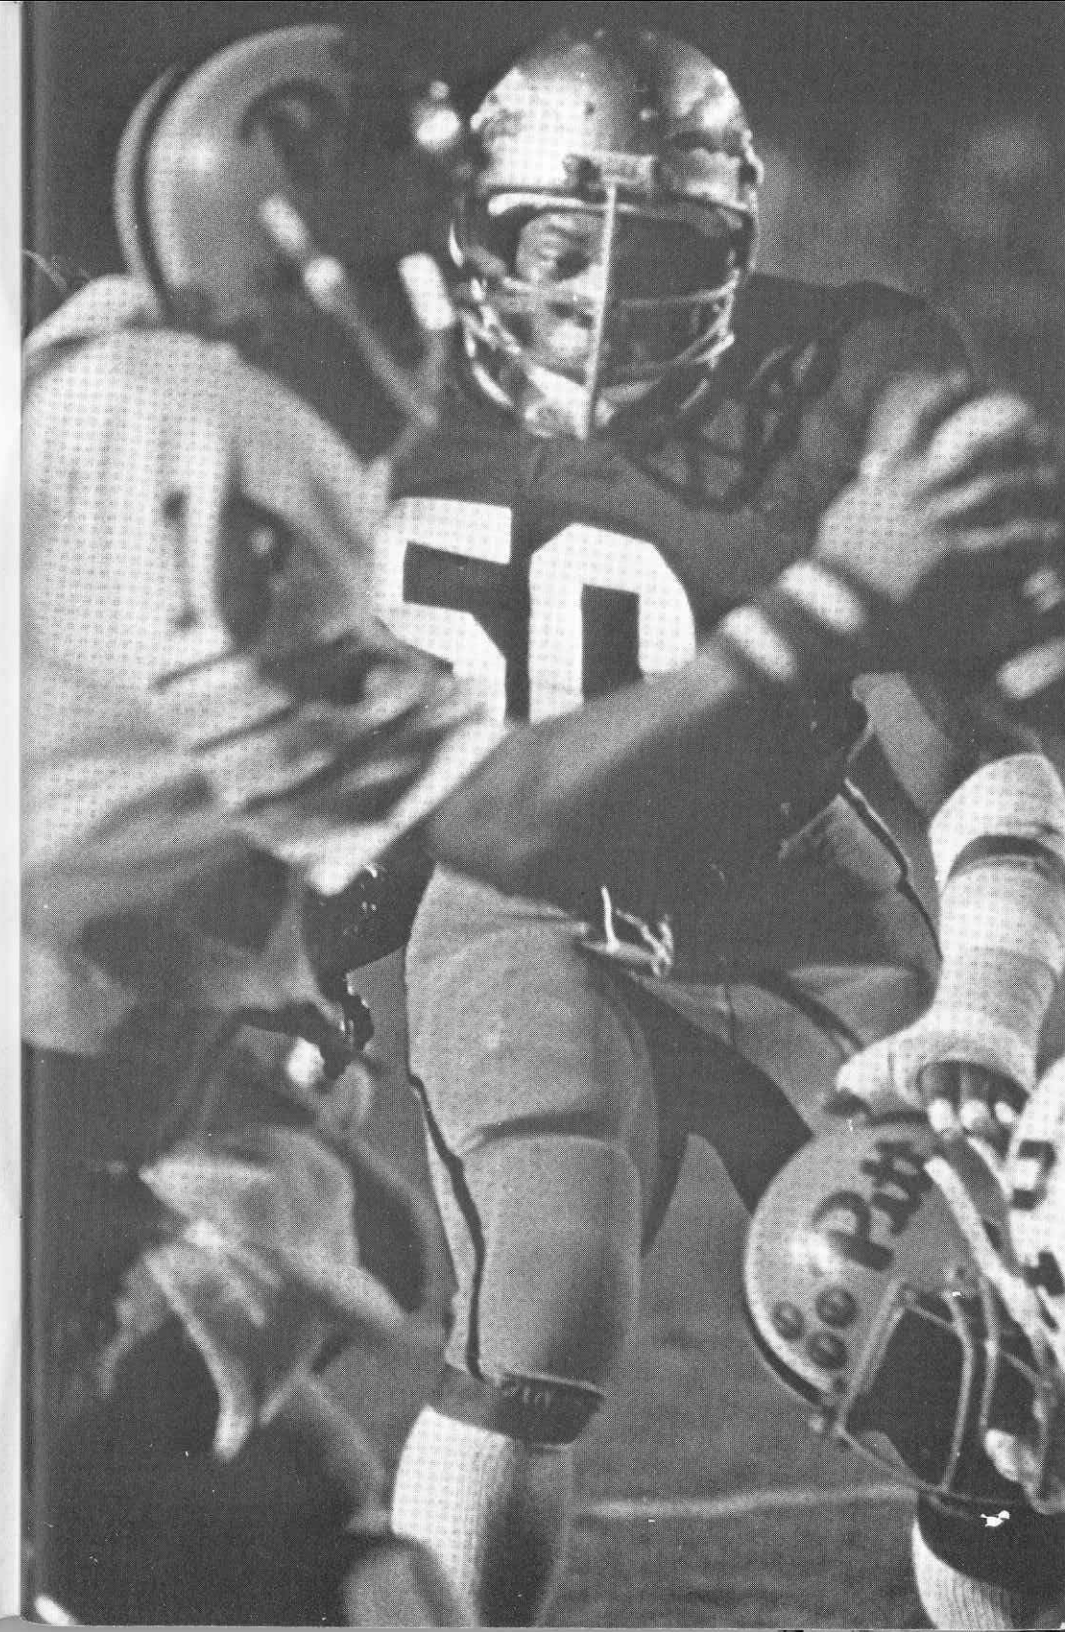

Henry and Dennis McKinnon, who returns kickoffs, give the Seminoles some sure-handed returners, and both have the speed and running ability to break away.

Like most teams, Florida State utilizes players little-used otherwise on its special teams, and the so-called "suicide squads" have given Ron Hester a chance to contribute.

Hester is a junior who came to FSU as a walk-on. He was used only a little at tight end last year, but filled in at linebacker on occasion this season and intercepted two passes, including one returned for a touchdown.

But his forte is the kickoff and punt defense unit. Look for the man closest to the receiver.

It will probably be Hester.

BOBBY BOWDEN: "BOUND FOR GLORY"

By GREG LARSON
Florida Times-Union

They don't make men much more traditional than Bobby Bowden. The 51-year-old Florida State football coach stands for everything this country was founded on — Christianity, strong family ties and the work ethic.

That's why it was such a shock for many Seminole fans to see Bowden tamper with tradition — and get away with it — this past season.

FSU has always built its offense around, recruited its players for and sold tickets on the forward pass. The names of the famous FSU passers and receivers roll easily off the lips.

There was Gary Huff, Bill Cappleman, Steve Tensi, Jimmy Jordan and Wally Woodham passing to Ron Sellers, Barry Smith, Fred Bilet-nikoff, Rhett Dawson and Jackie Flowers.

How many running backs can you name?

Maybe Larry Key, but then it gets tough.

Bowden changed all that. Although Sam Platt fell 17 yards short of 1,000 yards this year, he drew more attention than any Seminole running back in recent history. The reason? FSU depended on him as the meat and potatoes of its offense.

During his first four seasons, Bowden went along with the "use the pass to set up the run" theory which had always prevailed in Tallahassee. The 1980 edition of the Seminole used the run to set up the pass.

FSU rushed 603 times in 1980, destroying the previous record of 519 set in 1975. The Seminoles gained 2,138 yards on the ground, the most since 1953, and it must be noted that opponents were playing the 1980 team for the run after the first few games.

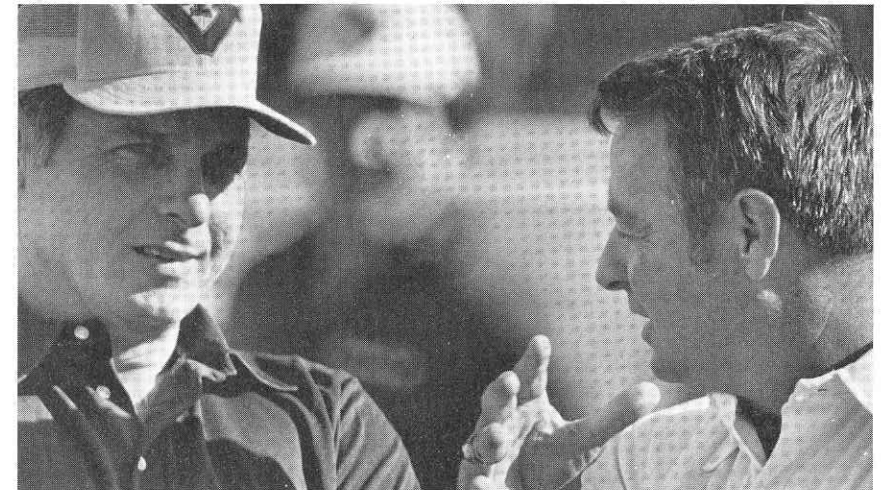

Bowden and his staff crave an annual national reputation. They feel a strong running game is paramount to building this reputation.

"A lot of Seminole fans think we already have a national reputation," Bowden said. "I know better. We still aren't mentioned in the same breath as Notre Dame, Southern Cal and Oklahoma. That is where we want to be."

Before the final gun had sounded signaling the end of Oklahoma's 24-7 victory over the Seminoles in last year's Orange Bowl, Bowden was already formulating plans to install a run-oriented offense.

"Oklahoma set up and played for our passing game and stopped it," said Bowden. "And, we didn't have the balance to run against them. To be a consistent big-time power, you have to establish the running game."

So the Seminoles of 1980 run. They ran 22 straight times against East Carolina. Seminole fans scratched their heads and called Bowden a "closet Bear Bryant," but they learned to appreciate the running game as the Seminoles rolled to a 10-1 record and No. 2 national ranking during the regular season.

Quarterback Rick Stockstill, who replaced the Jordan-Woodham passing tandem, didn't complain, either. The running game made it possible for him to complete 121 of 201 passes, a whopping 60 per cent.

Even if the Seminoles had not enjoyed such success with their running game, it would have been hard to dislike Bowden. His down-home personality has opened recruiting lanes which had been closed to the Seminoles for years. Will Rogers obviously met Bobby Bowden.

His born-again Christian beliefs are strong, but he doesn't flaunt them. Many is the time, however, when he has turned down a healthy fee elsewhere to speak to a church group free of charge.

Three of Bowden's sons, although not exceptional athletes, have played for him. All have been walk-ons.

Tommy Bowden, an assistant coach at Auburn last fall, and Terry, now an FSU law student and part-time assistant coach, played for their father at West Virginia where he was 42-26 in six seasons.

Jeff is a wide receiver on the current Seminole team. A junior, Jeff has seen little varsity action but caught two touchdown passes in a junior varsity game against Florida. A fourth son, Steve, is at a Baptist Seminary in Louisville and Ginger, the youngest of the family, is a student at FSU. Another daughter, Robyn is married and living in Morgantown, W. Va., where she has settled after attending West Virginia University.

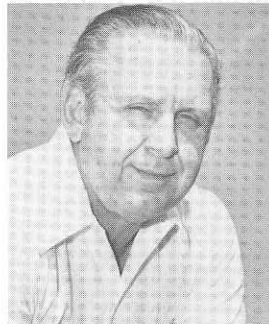

Like most coaches, Bowden feels a little heat from players' mothers, even the mother of his own sons.

"My boys have a lot of heart, but they just aren't big enough or quick enough," he said. "They've played about the amount of time they deserved, unless you talk to my wife, Ann."

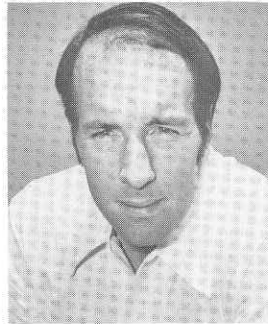

But in his five years at FSU, Bowden has received few complaints. They've written a song about him, "The Legend of Bobby B." They've written a book about him, "Bound for Glory."

And they've built a dynasty around him as indicated by his 44-13 record and three bowl appearances.

FLORIDA STATE 16, LSU 0

BATON ROUGE, LA., Sept. 6 — Bill Capece kicked three field goals and Sam Platt ran for a touchdown as Florida State blanked LSU, 16-0, in Death Valley before 77,535, the third largest crowd in Tiger history.

Turnovers, caused by a rugged Florida State defense, proved to be much of the difference. The Tigers fumbled three times and had a pass intercepted during the game.

LSU's first fumble came on the game's second play. Noseguard Ron Simmons made the hit and cornerback Bobby Butler recovered. The Tribe was unable to get a touchdown, but Bill Capece kicked a 34-yard field goal.

LSU also fumbled on its next series and again Capece booted a 34-yard field goal. That was all the scoring in the first half.

The Tribe sealed the win with a 10-point third quarter. A 45-yard Capece field goal increased the Seminole lead to 9-0 with less than five minutes played in the second half.

Seminole weak safety Monk Bonasorte set up the first Tribe TD of the season with an interception on the next series. Platt got the TD on a three-yard run that ended an 11-play, 57-yard drive.

FSU, hoping to avoid any major mistakes, relied on a running attack for its offense. Tribe QB Rick Stockstill put the ball in the air 11 times and had six completions. Otherwise, FSU stayed on the ground, picking up 197 yards in 57 attempts.

FLORIDA STATE 52, LOUISVILLE 0

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Sept. 13—The defense scored its second straight shutout as Florida State rolled past Louisville, 52-0, in the Tribe's home opener.

Florida State's defense allowed Louisville only 56 yards total offense in 49 plays. The Cards were held to minus five (-5) yards along the ground in 33 attempts and picked up 61 through the air with six pass completions in 16 attempts.

The Seminoles scored the first time they had the ball. After stopping Louisville and forcing a punt, the Tribe got possession on its 44. Ten plays later QB Rick Stockstill hurled an eight-yard scoring toss to wide receiver Dennis McKinnon.

The first quarter ended at 7-0, but the Seminoles added 17 more points in the second quarter. The Seminoles continued their scoring with 14 points in each of the third and fourth quarters.

Unlike the previous week at LSU where the FSU offense was centered around the run, the Tribe used both the run and pass against the Cards. Final stats gave the Seminoles 442 yards total offense—232 along the ground and 210 in the air.

Playing slightly more than two quarters, tailback Sam Platt gained 107 yards in 19 carries. Starting fullback Mike Whiting added 57 yards in 15 attempts.

QB Rick Stockstill also played slightly more than two quarters. But, he did complete nine of 12 passes for 115 yards and four touchdowns, one shy of the school record. McKinnon was on the receiving end of two scoring tosses and wide receiver Hardis Johnson grabbed the other two.

FLORIDA STATE 63, EAST CAROLINA 7

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Sept. 20—Florida State, scoring its third highest total points in history, rolled to a 63-7 win over East Carolina.

The Tribe just missed its third consecutive shutout of the season. And, the East Carolina score didn't come against the defense—it was against the kicking team when Anthony Collins returned a kickoff 100 yards after the Seminoles had jumped ahead 14-0.

Florida State had a 28-7 lead at intermission. The Seminoles added seven more points in the third quarter and came up with 28 in the fourth while mostly reserves were in the contest.

East Carolina's offense could never get started against the rugged Tribe defense. The Pirates had just 41 offense plays—31 rushes and 10 passes. FSU, by comparison, had 100 plays and 81 of those were rushes.

Overall, the Tribe had 559 yards total offense—336 along the ground and 223 in the air. Tailback Sam Platt came up with 130 of the rushing yards in 29 carries.

QB Rick Stockstill was nearly perfect in the passing department. Playing almost three quarters, he completed 10 of 11 for 132 yards. Sub signal callers Blair Williams and Kelly Lowrey completed six of eight attempts during the fourth quarter.

MIAMI 10, FLORIDA STATE 9

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 27—Florida State's 18-game regular season win streak came to an end at the Orange Bowl with the Miami Hurricanes holding off a late Seminole rally to win, 10-9.

The loss was the first in the regular season for the Seminoles since the seventh game of the 1977 season. Ironically, FSU had seen a 15-game win streak broken in the same Orange Bowl on January 1 against Oklahoma, 24-7.

Miami was the leader from the start. The Hurricanes scored with 44 seconds remaining in the half to take a 7-0 lead at intermission. A one-yard sneak by QB Jim Kelly gave the Hurricanes the TD and Dan Miller booted the PAT. The score came after a 76-yard, six play drive that included a 49-yard interference penalty against the Tribe.

The teams traded field goals in the third quarter. FSU's three points came on a 26-yard field goal by Bill Capece while Miller booted a 22-yarder for the Canes.

FSU made the game interesting late in the fourth quarter. Under the direction of QB Rick Stockstill, the Tribe drove 55 yards in 11 plays late in the fourth quarter. An 11-yard scoring toss from Stockstill to Sam Childers brought the Seminoles within one point of the lead, 10-9. At that point, coach Bobby Bowden elected to go for the win rather than the tie. The play was to be a pass from Stockstill to wide receiver Phil Williams across the middle. But it was broken up by Miami noseguard Jim Burt to preserve the Cane victory.

Stockstill had been brilliant in the scoring drive. He completed seven of eight passes and managed to push the Tribe into the end zone even though the drive was stalled at one point by a 15-yard holding penalty.

The Seminole offense had its problems all afternoon. Much of the trouble involved the center-quarterback exchange where the Tribe had a converted guard handling the snapping chores for the first time ever after injuries to the first two centers. Five snaps were fumbled before a play could ever start and another five were bobbled.

FLORIDA STATE 18, NEBRASKA 14

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 4—Florida State rallied from a 14-3 deficit to upset third-ranked Nebraska, 18-14, and score what many believe to be the biggest football victory in Seminole history.

"There have been some big regional wins, but I doubt that Florida State has ever had a win that has meant as much on the national level as this one," said head coach Bobby Bowden. "Beating Nebraska at Nebraska will draw attention to our football program across the entire country."

Nebraska led 14-3 at intermission and it took some Cornhusker turnovers forced by the rugged Tribe defense to help FSU to its fourth win in five starts.

FSU narrowed its deficit to 14-6 early in the third quarter. The Tribe got the points after the Nebraska punter fell to the ground at his own 17 while fielding a snap. FSU was unable to move the sticks for a first down but Bill Capece booted his second field goal of the afternoon, a 27-yarder.

Another Cornhusker turnover preceded the Seminoles' first touchdown. Keith Jones intercepted a pass and returned the ball eight yards to the Nebraska 47. Seven plays later Sam Platt scored from six yards away. A two-point conversion pass failed, but the Tribe was trailing by just 14-12 with 5:17 remaining.

The rugged Seminole defense also caused a turnover on the next Nebraska offensive series. This time freshman defensive tackle Alphonso Carreker recovered a Jarvis Redwine fumble. The Tribe couldn't get to the end zone but Capece booted a 40-yard field goal that gave the Seminoles their first lead of the day, 15-14.

The final Seminole score came with just 2:37 remaining in the game. Again the points came from the foot of Capece, who kicked his fourth field goal of the day. This time the boot covered 41 yards.

Final statistics would make most fans think the Cornhuskers had won this game easily. The hosts ran 79 plays compared to 66 for the Tribe. In total yardage, Nebraska had a 368-166 advantage. But, in the turnover category, Nebraska had four major miscues compared to just one for the Tribe.

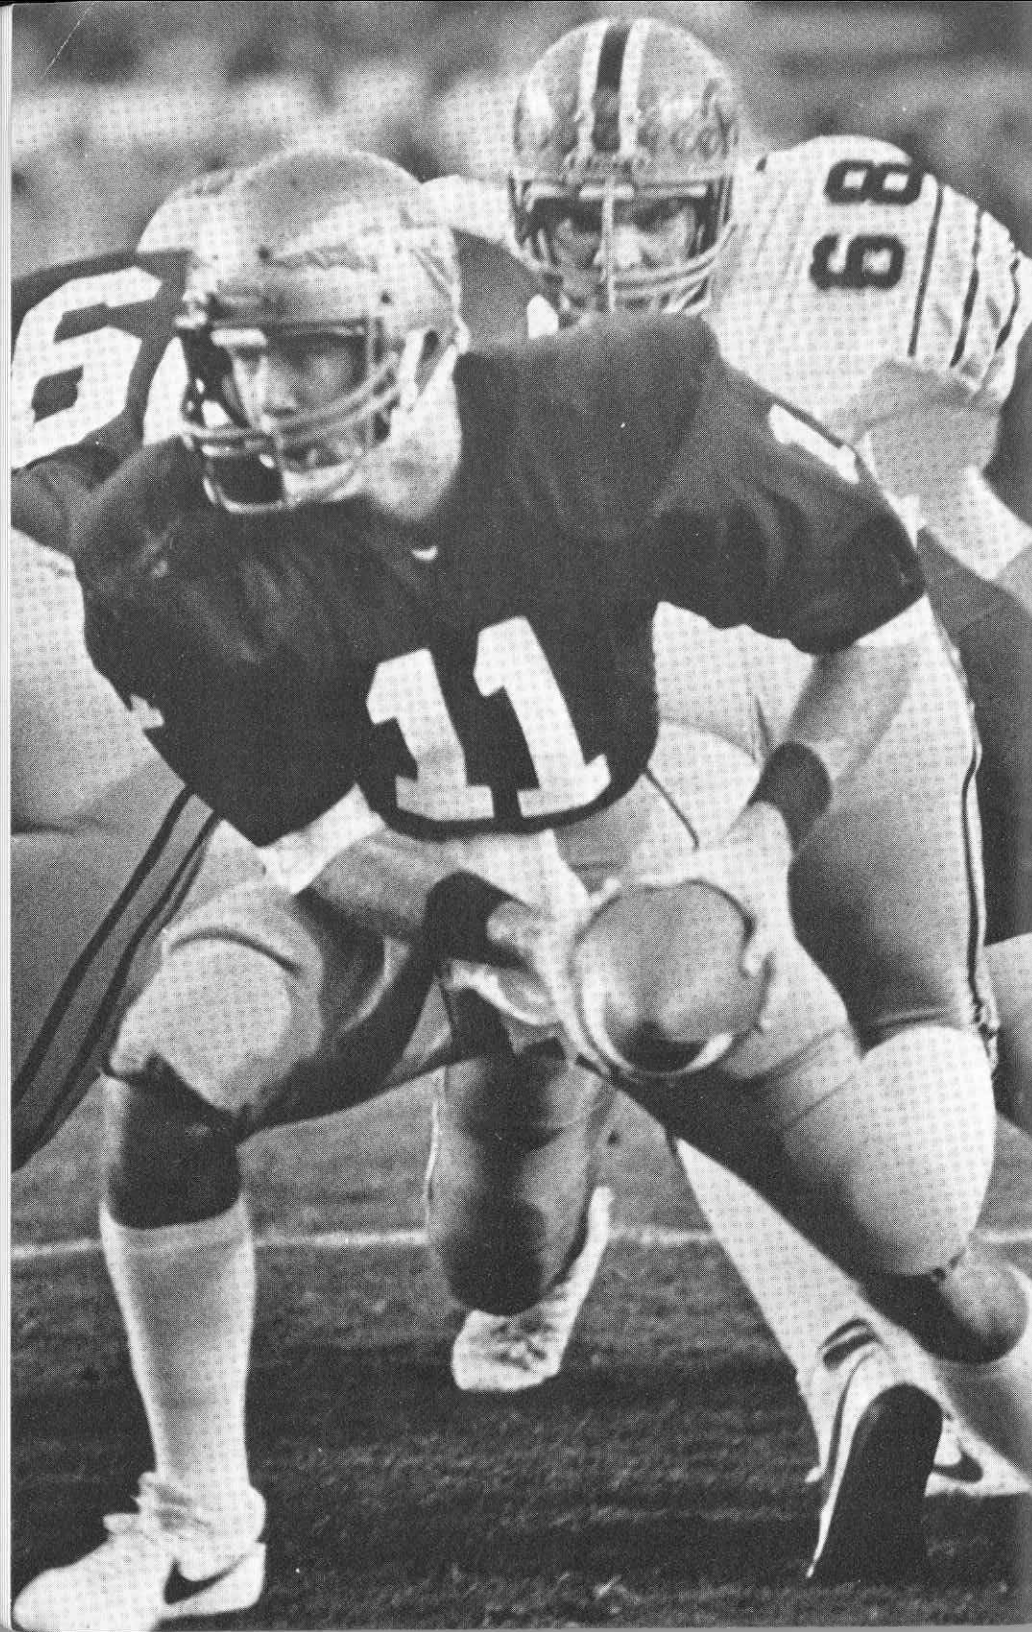

A major factor in the Tribe victory was the kicking game. Capece was not the only individual to stand out in that category. Junior punter Rohn Stark also had an impressive outing. He kicked seven times for a 48.4 average, the longest a 59-yarder.

FLORIDA STATE 36, PITTSBURGH 22

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Oct. 11—Florida State met the nation's third-ranked team for the second consecutive week and the result was the same—a Seminole victory. This time the victim was Pittsburgh, 36-22.

Trailing 7-3, Florida State broke on top with a 20 point second quarter. In that second 15 minutes, the Tribe had a pair of field goals and two touchdowns.

The TDs came first and both were passes initiated by QB Rick Stockstill. The first went for 23 yards to Hardis Johnson and the second for four yards to tight end Sam Childers. Bill Capece kicked the PAT after each TD and then booted the field goals at distances of 43 and 50 yards. The second field goal came on the final play of the first half and gave the Tribe a 23-7 intermission lead.

Pittsburgh came right back at the start of the second half to narrow the Tribe lead to 23-15. The Panthers moved 80 yards in just five plays with Dan Marino throwing a 36-yard scoring strike to Dwight Collins for the score. Marino also threw to tight end Benjie Pryor for the two point conversion.

During the quarter, the Seminoles increased their lead to 29-15 on field goals by Capece of 30 and 44 yards. Pitt's scoring ended with just 16 seconds remaining in the quarter on a two-yard run by fullback Joe McCall and a one-point PAT.

Wide receiver Kurt Unglaub caught his first touchdown pass since the 1978 season to complete the scoring. The pass covered 13 yards and was thrown by Stockstill—his third scoring pass of the game.

Pittsburgh came up with 386 yards total offense compared to 290 for the Seminoles. But the major difference came in the turnover department. The visiting Panthers had seven miscues during the game compared to zero for the Tribe. Florida State's defensive backfield came up with three interceptions and the Seminole defenders also covered four Pittsburgh fumbles.

Florida State surprised the Panthers with a sound ground game. Prior to the game, Pitt led the nation in rushing defense, yielding less than 70 yards a game. FSU generated 163 net ground yards, including 123 by senior tailback Mike Whiting.

FLORIDA STATE 41, BOSTON COLLEGE 7

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Oct. 18—Florida State jumped ahead of visiting Boston College 20-0 and coasted past the visiting Eagles, 41-7, in the Seminoles' Homecoming Game played before 52,396.

Thanks to two field goals and a 33-yard return of a blocked punt, the Tribe had a 13-0 lead after the first quarter. Bill Capece was responsible for the field goals—27 and 39 yards. Linebacker Ron Hester returned the blocked punt 33 yards for the score with Capece booting the PAT.

Each team traded touchdowns in the second quarter. The Boston College score came on an 83-yard interception return. FSU closed the scoring with three points in the third quarter and 18 more in the fourth.

FSU had an almost flawless defensive performance. Boston College had just 105 yards total offense—27 along the ground and 78 in the air. Those 27 rushing yards came in 34 attempts while the Eagles could complete just six of 23 passes.

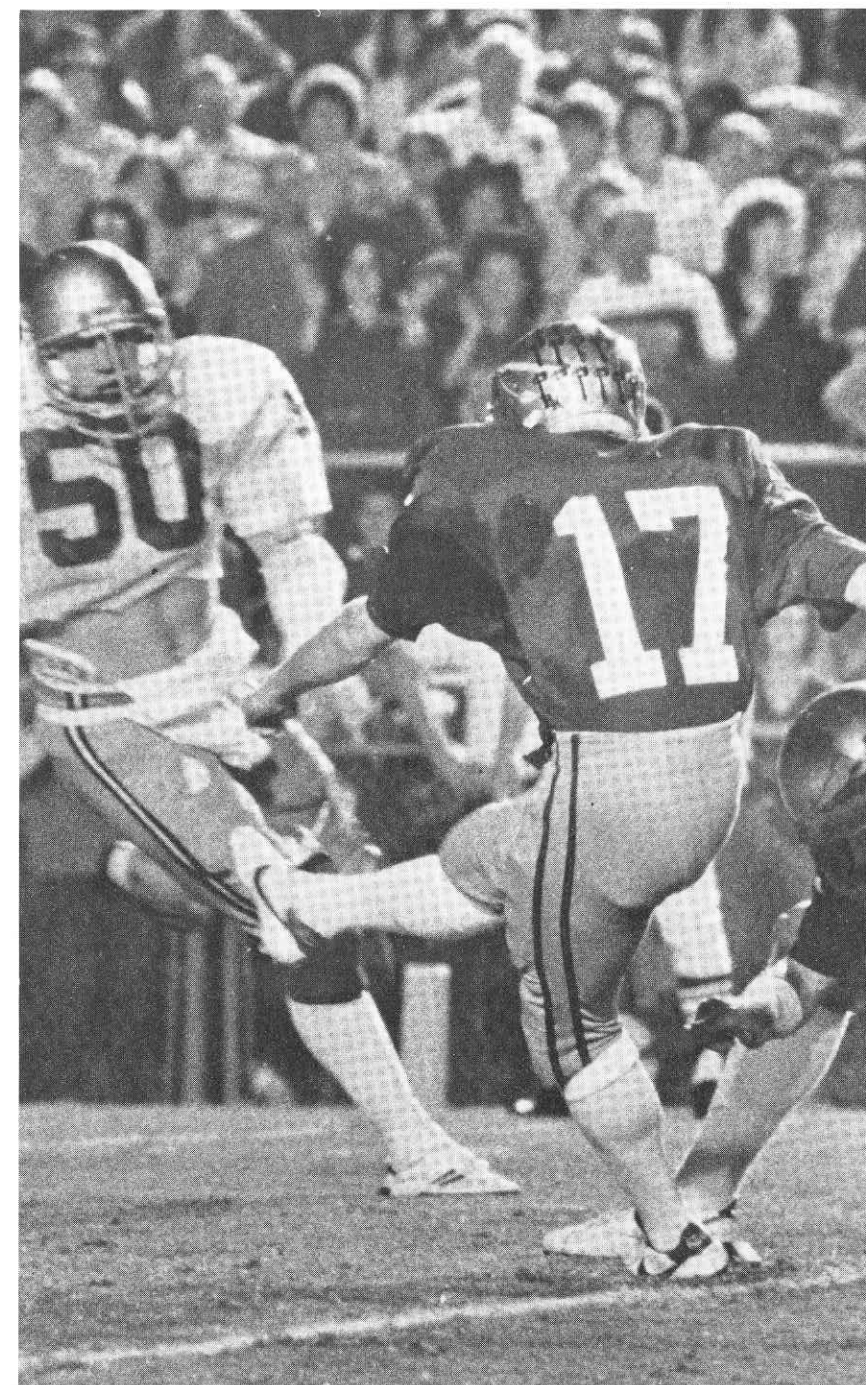

Sub tailback Ricky Williams had the best running day of his career, picking up 109 yards in 12 carries. FSU had 213 yards along the ground with another 125 in the air on 12 Stockstill completions in 19 attempts. Tight end Sam Childers was the favorite receiver with five catches for 39 yards.

Seminole mentor Bobby Bowden cleared the bench during the third and fourth quarters. More than 70 players participated in the game with nine different backs showing up in the rushing statistics and eight players catching passes.

Capece booted four field goals during the night. His first was his 15th of the season—a new school record.

FLORIDA STATE 24, MEMPHIS STATE 3

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 25—Senior tailback Sam Platt set a new Florida State single game rushing record as the Seminoles coasted to a 24-3 win over Memphis State in a game that was shown by ABC-TV as its southern regional telecast.

Platt, who was named the ABC-TV/Chevrolet Most Valuable Player for FSU, carried 29 times for 188 yards and one touchdown. His longest gain was for 21 yards. His effort erased the old single game record of 170 yards set by Larry Key during the 1977 season.

The visiting Seminoles were in command from the start. The Tribe missed a field goal in its opening series, but then scored the next two times it had the ball.

Platt came up with the first six points—on a one-yard run with 3:47 remaining in the first quarter. Bill Capece booted the PAT—his first of three. He made it 10-0 with a 25-yard field goal early in the second quarter.

Later in the second quarter the Seminoles hiked their advantage to 17-0. The TD came on an 18-yard pass from QB Rick Stockstill to wide receiver Hardis Johnson.

FSU completely dominated the first half, rolling to 301 yards total offense compared to 36 for the host Tigers. Platt picked up 105 of his rushing yards on 18 carries in the first two quarters.

Mike Whiting's three-yard TD run on the opening series of the third quarter completed the Seminole scoring. Memphis State's only points came on a 27-yard field goal by Rusty Bennett.

Final statistics showed the Seminoles with 455 yards total offense compared to Memphis State's 183. The Tribe picked up 365 yards on the ground, its best total of the season.

FLORIDA STATE 45, TULSA 2

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Nov. 1—Scoring in every quarter, Florida State easily raced past Tulsa, 45-2, for the Seminoles' eighth win of the campaign.

Offensively the Tribe put up some big numbers both on the ground and through the air. Tailback Sam Platt led the way on the ground with 113 of FSU's 273 yards. Meanwhile, QB Rick Stockstill was completing 14 of 18 passes for another 171 yards and two touchdowns.

Stockstill was especially effective throwing in the opening half when he completed 13 of 16 for 155 yards and two touchdowns. One of those TD throws went to wide receiver Hardis Johnson and the other to wide receiver Kurt Unglaub.

The Tribe led 21-2 at intermission. In addition to the two TD throws, fullback Mike Whiting ran two yards for a score. Place-kicker Bill Capece was successful on all three PAT attempts.

FSU put the game out of reach with a 21-point third quarter. The final three Seminole points came on a 24-yard field goal by Capece with 9:21 left in the game.

Tulsa was able to generate little offense against the highly-ranked Seminole defense. The Golden Hurricane had 90 rushing yards in 45 attempts and added another 70 yards through the air with seven completions in 16 attempts.

FLORIDA STATE 31, VIRGINIA TECH 7

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Nov. 8 — Quarterback Rick Stockstill threw two touchdown passes and ran for another as Florida State won its sixth straight, 31-7, over visiting Virginia Tech in an ABC-TV regional game.

The Seminoles trailed 7-0 at the quarter but rebounded with 14 points in the second quarter on two Stockstill to Hardis Johnson touchdown throws. The first covered 45 yards and came on a fourth and two call.

Less than a minute later the Seminoles had another seven points. This TD came after FSU had recovered a Tech fumble. Stockstill then threw 11 yards to Johnson for the score.

FSU added to its cushion with seven points in the third quarter and 10 more in the fourth. Three of those fourth quarter points came off the foot of Bill Capece, who broke the existing NCAA single season points record for kickers with the field goal.

The Seminole defense caused problems for Tech all afternoon. The Gobblers lost one fumble and had three passes intercepted. Tech managed just 83 yards rushing and 57 passing for 140 yards. FSU, meanwhile, was picking up 181 along the ground and another 143 through the air.

Tailback Sam Platt gained more than half of FSU's ground yards. He carried 24 times for 108 yards. In the process of going over the 100-yard barrier, he did it for the sixth time in the '80 season, setting a new school record.

FLORIDA STATE 17, FLORIDA 13

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — December 6 — Florida State, playing superior defense in the second half, rallied from a 13-3 halftime deficit to trip arch-rival Florida, 17-13, before a record-breaking Doak Campbell Stadium crowd of 53,772 and millions more who watched the game on national television.

The victorious Seminoles had problems getting started. Some felt the slow start was due to a four-week layoff. FSU had not played since November 8. The Seminoles had taken the break so the game could be played on national television. FSU had just five first downs and 89 yards total offense in the first 30 minutes.

But the second half was much different. FSU got the kickoff and went 82 yards in 11 plays for its first score of the day. The final 19 yards were erased on a pass from QB Rick Stockstill to wide receiver Hardis Johnson.

FSU's go-ahead touchdown came on the second play of the fourth quarter. Again it was Stockstill and Johnson who combined to damage the Gators. This time the scoring toss went 20 yards. The play concluded a 54 yard, seven play drive.

While the offense was getting the points, the defense was giving it solid field position. The Gator offense had a hard time of it during the second half, picking up just 31 yards total offense.

Veteran linebackers Paul Piurowski and Reggie Herring, who were playing their final game at Doak Campbell, keyed the defensive effort. Piurowski was credited with 15 tackles, including two for loss. Herring had 10 tackles and recovered a Gator fumble.

Also instrumental in the defensive scheme were members of the backfield — Monk Bonasorte, Bobby Butler, Keith Jones and James Harris. Jones came up with two critical interceptions during the second half to halt Florida drives. Butler had an interception in the first half. Bonasorte and Harris combined for 15 tackles and three times Bonasorte broke up Gator quarterback Wayne Peace passes.

Offensively, Johnson was on the receiving end for seven of Stockstill's 11 completions. Those receptions covered 107 yards and were good for FSU's only touchdowns. Stockstill completed 11 of 18 attempts for 137 yards.

A shoulder separation took Sam Platt out of the game in the first half and prevented him from gaining 1,000 yards rushing for the season. He picked up 29 yards in nine carries, but needed 46 to break the 1,000 barrier.

Platt's replacement, Ricky Williams, took over most of the running duties. He carried 21 times for 75 yards. Williams, a sophomore, also caught two passes for 17 yards.

Capece fell two short of setting a new NCAA single season field goal record. He did score five points, however, and that raised his season total to 104, a new NCAA Division I record for kickers.

The win was the fourth straight for the Seminoles over the Gators. It was also the 16th consecutive home victory for the Tribe. The ABC-TV announce team awarded its FSU MVP scholarship award to Johnson.

Bobby Butler

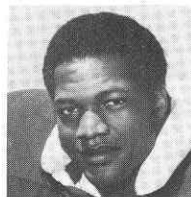

Bill Capece

Seminole First Team All-Americans

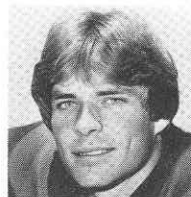

BUTLER, BOBBY—Cornerback, 5-11, 185, Senior, Delray Beach, Fla.—was a first team selection for the NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSOCIATION All-American squad . . . many believe that Bobby may not have had the best year of his career since he didn't have statistics that he has had in previous campaigns—that was only because the opposition refused to throw in his area . . . Butler did have three interceptions and continued to make a name for himself by blocking kicks . . . this season he had two blocks which brought his career total to seven . . . other big plays were two fumble recoveries and four tackles for loss . . . Bobby has been a four-year starter, although as a sophomore he was hampered by ankle injuries . . . did block an Oklahoma punt in last year's Orange Bowl, but Tribe was unable to get any points from Sooner miscue . . . his actions and play remind many of former Tribe DB Bobby Jackson, who now has a starting role with New York Jets of NFL . . . despite his size you can expect Bobby to get an NFL opportunity after completion of college career . . . he has tried to persuade Tribe coaches to use him on punt returns but so far has not been successful . . . for two straight years he has been first team on Associated Press All-South Independent team and this year he was AP third team All-American . . . born May 28, 1959.

CAPECE, BILL—Placekicker, 5-7, 170, Senior, Miami, Fla.—his opportunities prior to this season had been limited to mostly kickoffs and long field goal attempts . . . through his first three years he had kicked one field goal and two PATs . . . that changed in 1980 as he booted 22 field goals, two short of setting a new NCAA record and 38 PATs . . . his 104 points are a new FSU single season record and also a new NCAA Division I-A record for kickers . . . had a school record five field goals vs. Pittsburgh after kicking four the previous week vs. Nebraska . . . after the Boston College game he had hit on 18 of 20 field goal attempts and then he made four of final eight . . . longest field goal of the campaign was for 50 yards on closing play of first half vs. Pittsburgh . . . his 22 regular season field goals were seven more than the previous FSU single season record set in 1979 season by Davey Cappelen . . . his best range is between 20 and 29 where he was six-for six . . . over the years he has improved his technique by working with members of the Miami Dolphins . . . he was a high school teammate of David Shula, the son of the Dolphin head coach . . . Bill should be a serious contender for a kicking position on an NFL club next fall . . . was first team on SPORTING NEWS All-American squad . . . born April 1, 1959.

Ron Simmons

Rohn Stark

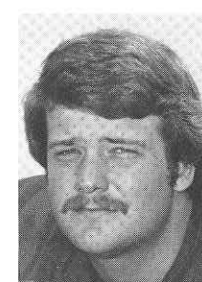

SIMMONS, RON—Noseguard, 6-1, 240, Senior, Warner Robins, Ga.—Ron will be the first to admit this hasn't been his best season at FSU . . . an ankle injury in opening game at LSU kept him out of next two games and he hasn't been at full speed since . . . in addition to strength his main asset is speed and the injury has slowed him considerably . . . still Ron was named to the first team on All-American squads picked by UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL, WALTER CAMP, FOOTBALL NEWS and KODAK (Coaches) . . . he was also a finalist for the Lombardi Award . . . this is the second straight year he has made those four All-American teams and in '79 he was a Lombardi semifinalist . . . despite the injury Ron has managed to participate in 45 tackles and his reputation still forced opposition offenses to figure another spot to run . . . his big play statistics include one caused fumble, two fumble recoveries, three tackles for loss and a pair of quarterback sacks . . . four times in his career he was the ABC-TV/Chevrolet Most Valuable Player on network telecasts . . . only three other players have won the award more times . . . Simmons has been an All-Star ever since he set foot on the FSU campus . . . in his freshman year he was named to the FOOTBALL NEWS Freshman All-American team . . . since Ron arrived on campus the Tribe has compiled a record of 39-7.

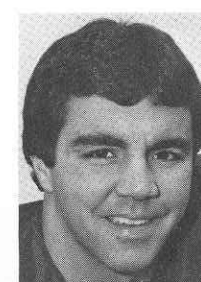

STARK, ROHN—Punter, 6-3, 195, Junior, Fifty Lakes, Minn.—was first team on All-American teams selected by FOOTBALL WRITERS and UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL . . . those honors came following a season where he kicked 57 times for 2,576 yards, a 45.1 yard average . . . his longest boot was for 67 yards in the Pittsburgh game . . . his abilities became widely recognized in the Nebraska and Pitt games where he kicked seven times in each averaging 48.4 at Nebraska and 48.1 vs. Pitt . . . his final average probably could have been two or three yards better but several times in campaign he was asked to put the ball out of bounds deep in opponent territory and the kick needed to travel only 30 to 35 yards . . . Rohn is the first to admit that football is not his athletic love — it's track and field . . . he is a member of the FSU outdoor track and field team and participates in the decathlon, an event which he hopes some day will give him a berth on the United States Olympic team . . . as a freshman he was the Metro Conference champion in the event and last year the Seminole coaches elected to red-shirt him in the sport . . . an amateur pilot and excellent student who was nominated for Academic All-American this season . . . married while a freshman . . . born May 4, 1959.

SEMINOLE PLAYER PROFILES

ADAMS, LEE—Offensive Guard, 6-4, 245, Senior, Ruskin, Fla.—has drawn most of the starting duty at guard this season for the Seminoles . . . returned to starting duty this season after just seeing spot action in '79 campaign . . . has been injured off and on during his career . . . finishing out his career at FSU after starting at Georgia Tech under Pepper Rodgers, who was a color analyst for ABC-TV in the Virginia Tech game November 8 . . . Lee also spent a summer in the farm system of the Cincinnati Reds after graduating from high school . . . born October 23, 1957.

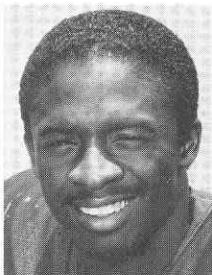

BARNES, TRENT—Center, 6-4, 235, Senior, Lakeland, Fla.—handles the Seminole long snap duties . . . this is the second season he has had that assignment, not just for punts, but also PATs and field goals . . . prior to the current assignment, Trent had been just a backup player at guard and center . . . he has been in the role of centering for long snaps since former center Gil Wesley went down with a knee injury in LSU game of '79 . . . born July 29, 1958.

BONASORTE, MONK—Weak Safety, 6-1, 175, Senior, Pittsburgh, Pa.—real name is Francis, but nobody calls him that . . . has 15 interceptions for his career and that is an FSU record . . . four of those thefts have come this season . . . last year he had eight, fourth best in the country . . . named by FOOTBALL NEWS to its second team All-American squad this season . . . last fall he was a third team choice of Associated Press . . . for the second straight year he was an Associated Press All-South Independent first team choice . . . was a walk-on at FSU and first attempted to play tight end . . . wasn't even invited to Pitt as a walk-on where his brother played with Tony Dorsett . . . born March 11, 1957.

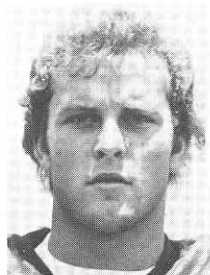

BRANNON, TOM—Offensive Tackle, 6-3, 250, Junior, Albany, Ga.—is the only newcomer for '80 in the offensive line . . . he replaced Nate Henderson, another product of Albany (Ga.) football system . . . Tom earned his starting position during spring drills . . . a quiet player, few fans even realize who he is, but the coaches will tell you he has improved with each outing . . . next season he will be the veteran of the interior offensive line since other Orange Bowl starters are graduating . . . born May 22, 1959.

Brent Brock

Bobby Butler

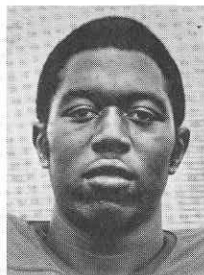

Ken Burnett

BROCK, BRENT — Offensive Tackle, 6-1, 250, Senior, Albany, Ga. —hails from the same hometown that produced Brannon . . . Brent has never been a starter for the Tribe, but has had backup duty for two seasons . . . has made the travel squad because he can play both guard and tackle in the offensive line . . . was red-shirted while a Seminole . . . born April 2, 1958.

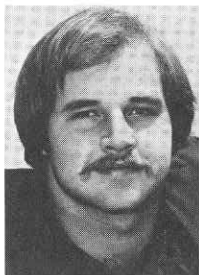

BUTLER, BOBBY—Cornerback, 5-11, 185, Senior, Delray Beach, Fla.—was a first team selection for the NEA All-American squad . . . after the Pittsburgh game won 36-22 by FSU the Panther coaching staff was quoted as saying Butler was “the best cornerback in America” . . . teams rarely throw to Bobby’s side and when they do there is a good chance it’s going to be intercepted—he had three this season . . . has developed a specialty for blocking punts and placement attempts . . . had a blocked punt last year in Orange Bowl game vs. Oklahoma . . . was a first team choice for Associated Press All-South Independent and also was third team on the Associated Press All-American squad . . . his intercollegiate athletic career will not end with the Orange Bowl, Bobby is expected to be a member of the Seminole track and field squad this spring . . . last year he helped the Seminoles finish third in the NCAA Outdoor Championship . . . born May 28, 1959.

BURNETT, KEN—Fullback, 5-11, 198, Sophomore, Brandon, Fla. —in a backup role this fall he has been one of the more pleasant surprises for offensive backfield coach Nick Kish . . . he replaces Mike Whiting at fullback when the starter takes a breather . . . Ken rates as the fourth leading rusher with 145 yards in 32 carries, an average of 4.5 yards per attempt . . . first two touchdowns of his career came on runs of two and four yards vs. East Carolina . . . brother Mike was a starter at University of Tampa in early 70s and now coaches in the Tampa area . . . Ken was a high school quarterback but was quickly switched after arriving at FSU . . . born January 29, 1962.

Alphonso Carreker

Sam Childers

Harvey Clayton

Redus Coggin

CARREKER, ALPHONSO—Defensive Tackle, 6-6, Freshman, Columbus, Ohio—Seminole coaching staff found him at the same school they saw senior tackle Ken Lanier, who has been a four-year starter . . . Carreker has not been a starter like Lanier was as a freshman, but he has moved into a backup role and finished the season with 14 tackles . . . that includes three quarterback sacks . . . was a member of the travel squad for each of the four road games this season . . . coaches will put him on a rugged weight program prior to spring drills . . . will be a contender for one of the starting slots when spring practice begins.

CHILDERS, SAM—Tight End, 6-2, 210, Junior, Tallahassee, Fla. —appears to have secured a permanent starting position after alternating with sophomore Zeke Mowatt early in the year . . . finished the campaign as Tribe’s second leading receiver with 20 catches for 157 yards . . . two of those catches were good for touchdowns . . . one of his TD catches came in the final moments of the Miami game where the Tribe lost a 10-9 verdict . . . he has had two TD grabs in each of the last two years . . . hails from Leon High School in Tallahassee, the same school that gave Seminoles its two-headed quarterback of 1978 and 1979—Wally Woodham and Jimmy Jordan . . . Sam’s 20 catches of this season were eight more than his total as a freshman and sophomore . . . born December 2, 1959.

CLAYTON, HARVEY—Cornerback, 5-10, 170, Sophomore, Florida City, Fla.—with a veteran defensive backfield, Harvey has seen very limited duty during the ’80 campaign . . . he began the fall in a dead-lock for one starting cornerback slot with James Harris, but Harris won out . . . next season big things will be expected of Harvey with so many seniors playing their final game as defensive backs in the Orange Bowl.

COGGIN, REDUS — Offensive Guard, 6-3, 230, Junior, Chipley, Fla.—except for one game this season he has seen action in just a backup role . . . but he was a starter in the Miami (Fla.) game, not

Jarvis Coursey

Garry Futch

Greg Futch

at guard, but center after being switched when both first team centers sustained injuries the previous week vs. East Carolina . . . Redus had worked at the center slot for only a week and it did cause some problems for the Tribe on snaps . . . is well-versed in offensive line techniques since he has played every position . . . born July 28, 1960.

COURSEY, JARVIS—Defensive End, 6-5, 225, Junior, Gray, Ga.—has been a consistent starter during '80, but he shared playing time with another junior, Scott McLean . . . they replaced the graduated Scott Warren, who held the slot for four seasons . . . Jarvis finished the season with two recovered fumbles plus 54 total tackles, 22 solo and 32 assists . . . received his initiation into college football by being a valuable member of the special teams for two seasons . . . coaches believe he will be a candidate for all-star honors as a senior . . . birthday falls on November 1, the same day Tribe bounced Tulsa, 45-2.

FUTCH, GARRY—Defensive Tackle, 6-2, 240, Junior, Ocala, Fla.—has not received the recognition of other Tribe defensive players, but he started all 11 games in '80 . . . he did impress enough folks to take second team honors on the Associated Press All-South Independent squad . . . final stats compiled by the coaching staff showed him with 30 tackles . . . included in that number are two quarterback sacks and five tackles for loss . . . this is the first season for Garry as a starter . . . in '79 season he alternated between noseguard, where he was a Simmons' backup and defensive tackle . . . followed brother Greg to FSU . . . born May 12, 1960.

FUTCH, GREG—Offensive Guard, 6-3, 255, Senior, Ocala, Fla.—in playing football at the major college level he has done what most coaches figured he couldn't . . . in fact he had to walk-on at FSU when no major schools offered him a scholarship . . . has overcome a diabetic condition while playing college football . . . has not made an impression on just the Seminole coaches, but also fellow players . . . they have so much respect for Greg that they elected him one of the four captains for the '80 season . . . one of just a handful of married players on the current team . . . born June 29, 1958.

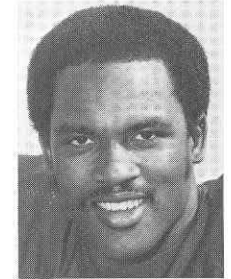

GILBERT, JAMES—Noseguard/Defensive Tackle, 6-0, 240, Junior, Miami, Fla.—has proved to be a very valuable member of the defense this season, alternating at nose and tackle . . . his starting

James Harris

Larry Harris

assignments (three) all came at the nose position while Ron Simmons was coming back from the ankle injury . . . Gilbert was a starter vs. Louisville, East Carolina and Miami . . . has the same knack for making the big play that Simmons does when he's healthy . . . final '80 defensive stats showed James with 45 tackles, including seven quarterback sacks and seven more tackles for loss . . . born February 2, 1959.

HARRIS, JAMES—Cornerback, 6-0, 180, Junior, Gainesville, Fla.—worked his way into a starting role this season after two years duty with the speciality teams . . . has not been spectacular, but has been steady in cornerback role . . . finished the season with a single interception . . . did total 47 tackles, including 31 solo and 16 assists . . . one of those tackles was for a loss and he's credited with causing three opposition fumbles . . . started the fall listed with Harvey Clayton as the starter at one cornerback post, but received the starting call in first game . . . elected to attend FSU rather than Florida which is located in his hometown . . . born July 11, 1960.

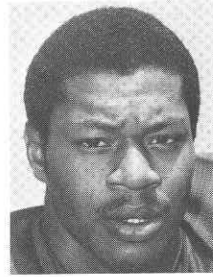

HARRIS, LARRY—Tailback, 6-1, 195, Freshman, Gainesville, Fla.—was the only freshman running back who saw duty carrying the ball in '80 . . . final regular season stats show Larry with 52 yards in 19 carries . . . began the campaign as the backup tailback, but lost that assignment with a knee injury that caused him to miss several games . . . now his playing time is limited to mostly special teams . . . returned kickoffs in final regular season games—five for 57 yards . . . had an advantage over other freshmen since he went through '80 spring practice . . . born September 11, 1961.

HENRY, GARY—Strong Safety, 6-1, 185, Junior, Orlando, Fla.—when the Seminoles use the fifth back in passing situations, he's the extra defender . . . defensive stats show eight tackles, plus a tackle for loss and quarterback sack . . . returns most of the punts for Tribe—21 for 124 this season . . . didn't return a punt for score in 1980 compared to '79 campaign when he had two—one for 66 yards vs. Southern Mississippi and another for 57 vs. Miami . . . punt return career totals show 53 returns for 421 yards, an average of nearly eight yards per return . . . he has one career interception . . . can play either of the safety positions . . . born May 15, 1960.

Reggie Herring

Ron Hester

Hardis Johnson

HERRING, REGGIE — Linebacker, 6-1, 215, Senior, Titusville, Fla.—was one of 15 Seminoles who earned some sort of honor during 1980 . . . he was second team Associated Press All-American and first team Associated Press All-South Independent . . . also after the Virginia Tech game he was picked by Associated Press as its South-eastern Lineman of the Week . . . for the third straight year he led team in tackles . . . this year's final count was 165 which included six quarterback sacks, two caused fumbles, two fumble recoveries, five tackles for loss and an interception . . . this season's tackle total was the best of his career . . . last season he was credited with 144 tackles, seven more than his sophomore campaign . . . probably the most intense player on the Seminole defense, his FSU career started with him in the defensive backfield . . . NBC-TV will "mike" Reggie for the Orange Bowl game with Oklahoma . . . born July 3, 1959.

HESTER, RON—Linebacker, 6-2, 210, Junior, Umatilla, Fla.—has been one of the most pleasant surprises for Tribe this season . . . was thrust into a starting role for Pittsburgh game after Paul Piurowski was felled by appendicitis attack . . . Hester had such a good outing — 13 tackles and two fumble recoveries — that he was picked as the Associated Press Southeastern Lineman of the Week . . . the Pitt game was his first career start . . . Ron also started against Boston College before Piurowski returned to his old slot vs. Memphis State . . . Hester has still seen enough playing time that he ranks fifth on tackle chart with 60 hits . . . Ron also has some impressive big play stats — three quarterback sacks, five fumble recoveries, two interceptions, three tackles for loss and two blocked kicks . . . prior to moving to linebacker last spring he was a tight end . . . one of several Seminole walk-on starters . . . born May 26, 1959.

JOHNSON, HARDIS — Wide Receiver, 6-0, 185, Sophomore, Tampa, Fla.—has become known as the "big play" receiver for Tribe . . . 38 career catches and 12 have gone for touchdowns . . . best day of his career came December 6 against Florida where he caught seven, two for touchdowns . . . among receivers with more than one catch he leads team in average yards per catch, 17.4, compared to 18.0 as a freshman which was also tops for team . . . his nine TD receptions this fall are four off the school record of 13 set in 1972 by Barry Smith . . . with two years still remaining Hardis already ranks sixth among the career touchdown reception leaders for FSU . . . three times this season he caught two scoring passes—vs. Louisville, Virginia Tech and Florida . . . five of his nine touchdown passes this season came in games played on either regional or national television . . . born February 11, 1961.

Keith Jones

MACEK, MARK—Defensive Tackle, 6-2, 260, Senior, Wyandotte, Mich.—does not receive some of the publicity other defensive players get, but he was an 11-game starter for Tribe and finished fourth in total tackles (61) . . . had four tackles for loss, one caused fumble and two quarterback sacks . . . has been a starter for three seasons, although he shared those duties as a sophomore . . . was picked for the first team of this year's Associated Press All-South Independent squad . . . accomplished the dream of every defensive lineman in '78 when he returned a block punt for TD against Miami in a regional television contest . . . one of eight seniors on the starting defense . . . born April 30, 1959.

MADDEN, JOHN—Center, 6-2, 220, Senior, Fort Walton Beach, Fla.—will be a starter in Orange Bowl for second time . . . in '79 season he was the backup center until starter Gil Wesley injured knee in sixth game . . . Madden then took over after coaches had hoped to give him a red-shirt season . . . John missed two games this season after suffering an ankle injury in East Carolina game . . . he didn't get starting call against either Miami or Nebraska, but returned vs. Pittsburgh . . . his snap duties do not include kick situations . . . that assignment belongs to Trent Barnes . . . will be a three-time letter winner . . . had the benefit of practicing vs. All-American noseguard Ron Simmons in spring of '79 and coaches believe that experience made John a better football player . . . born August 10, 1959.

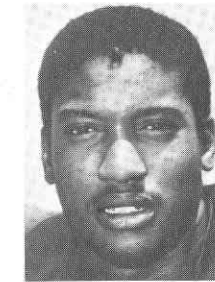

McKINNON, DENNIS — Wide Receiver, 6-1, 175, Sophomore, Miami, Fla.—is one of four wide receivers Seminoles use to carry plays . . . has 12 catches for season, good for 195 yards and three

RYAN, ERIC—Offensive Guard, 6-4, 255, Sophomore, Sarasota, Fla.—had a start early in the season but now has a backup role at guard for both Lee Adams and Greg Futch . . . he's one of the Seminole linemen who have aided their careers by accepting red-shirt status for a season . . . when he arrived on the FSU campus he was just 17 years old . . . he will have an excellent opportunity to become a starter next season with so many senior starters in the offensive line . . . hails from the same town that produced linebacker Paul Piurowski . . . born December 30, 1960.

SCOTT, ARTHUR — Defensive End, 6-2, 240, Senior, Brandon, Fla.—a fifth-year player he has been a two-year starter for Tribe . . . does a consistent job but his work doesn't receive the public recognition of some other Seminole defenders . . . final regular season stats tell Arthur's story — 67 tackles, third best on the team, with six tackles for loss and four quarterback sacks . . . he spent the summer in ROTC training and probably reported to fall camp in best shape of his career . . . has recovered from a '77 knee injury that provided a medical red shirt season . . . prior to being placed at end, the Tribe coaching staff had tried him at linebacker and defensive tackle . . . married . . . born September 1, 1958.

SMITH, MIKE — Defensive Back, 5-11, 175, Senior, Panama City, Fla.—with other seniors in starting roles at safety for the last three seasons, Mike's play has been limited . . . he's one of the first coming off the bench when either Keith Jones or Monk Bonasorte are rested . . . Mike did come up with one interception this season, returning the steal 15 yards against Louisville . . . was a part-time starter in '78 but his work the last two seasons has been confined to speciality team duty . . . born February 1, 1959.

Rick Stockstill

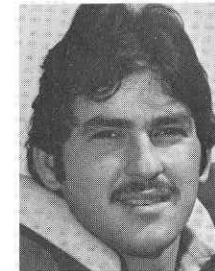

Kurt Unglaub

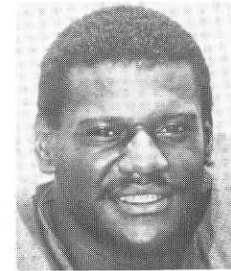

STOCKSTILL, RICK — Quarterback, 6-1, 185, Junior, Fernandina Beach, Fla.—has been the starter for Tribe in all 11 games ... starting assignment came after he rode the bench for three seasons behind Jimmy Jordan and Wally Woodham, who have graduated ... Rick finished the campaign with a 60 percent completion ratio, hitting on 121 of 201 attempts ... the completions went for 1,377 yards and 15 scores ... just eight of his passes were intercepted ... in Miami loss he completed 19 of 30 for 182 yards — all three totals are season highs ... following victory over Louisville he was named the Associated Press Southeastern Back of the Week ... his season is even more remarkable when one remembers he had thrown just eight passes previously in college competition ... his starting assignment was never in doubt, before the 1979 regular season had been completed Bobby Bowden said Stockstill was his quarterback of the future ... Rick has more mobility than previous Seminole quarterbacks and for that reason the Tribe playbook does have some rollout pass patterns ... brother Jeff is a Clemson wide receiver ... born December 23, 1957.

WILLIAMS, BLAIR — Quarterback, 6-1, 185, Sophomore, Tallahassee, Fla.—has been on the travel squad all season but his playing time is limited . . . will be listed for Orange Bowl behind Rick Stockstill and Kelly Lowrey . . . Blair has appeared in three games, completing eight of 19 passes for 144 yards and three scores . . . he was involved in the Tribe's longest scoring pass of the season—47 yards to Dennis McKinnon vs. Louisville . . . hails from the same high school (Leon) that produced Jimmy Jordan and Wally Woodham and current receivers Sam Childers and Kurt Unglaub . . . born March 26, 1961.

WILLIAMS, PHIL— Wide Receiver, 5-10, 170, Junior, Warner Robins, Ga.—hails from the same hometown that produced Seminole All-American noseguard Ron Simmons . . . they arrived at FSU via different routes, however . . . Simmons as a high school senior was one of the most recruited players in the nation . . . Williams was never offered a major college scholarship and came to Tribe as a walk-on candidate . . . does not have outstanding speed but runs excellent pass routes and always manages to be open in critical situations . . . tied for fourth on team this fall in receptions with 14 for 195 yards and a pair of scores . . . he was supposed to catch the pass on two-point conversion that failed in 10-9 loss to Miami . . . the ball was batted down by Miami's noseguard . . . a first team Academic All-American as a sophomore with Keith Jones . . . born August 25, 1959.

WILLIAMS, RICKY — Tailback, 6-10, 170, Sophomore, Griffin, Ga.—was scheduled to work in the defensive backfield this fall, but injuries in tailback corps early in fall practice moved him to offense where he was as a freshman . . . finished as the Seminoles' third leading ground gainer with 383 yards on 73 carries, an average of 5.2 yards per carry, the best average among the top four ball carriers . . . his best game came against Boston College when he rushed for 109 yards in 12 carries . . . came to FSU with impressive credentials, including honor of being named the 4-A Back of the Year in Georgia as a senior . . . is the quickest of the Seminole runningbacks . . . born March 28, 1961.

PAST BOWL GAMES IN REVIEW

1950 CIGAR BOWL

FLORIDA STATE 19, WOFFORD 6

TAMPA, FLA., JAN. 2, 1950—Red Parrish scored twice and Buddy Strauss rushed for 132 yards to give underdog Florida State a 19-6 win over Wofford in the Cigar Bowl football game.

The victory was a come-from-behind effort by the Seminoles as the Terriers scored only moments into the contest to make the score 6-0. That touchdown came when Wofford defenders blocked a Bo Manuel punt and recovered it in the end zone. The extra point attempt was no good.

For the balance of the first quarter, Florida State mounted several drives that stalled around midfield while Wofford netted virtually nothing offensively. Early in the second period, however, Wofford had its first real threat. It died on the Seminoles' 16-yard-line when Bill Dawkins intercepted a pass and returned it to the Terrier 20. Shortly after, Parrish bolted to the Tribe's initial touchdown that tied the score at 6-6.

Late in the half the Seminoles got cranked up again. Strauss busted up the middle for a 15-yard gain and an interference penalty pushed Florida State into Wofford territory. On the next play Parrish lofted a lefthanded halfback pass to Norman Eubanks who made a spectacular catch between two defenders at the Terrier two-yard line. On the last play of the half Strauss busted into the end zone and Jerry Morrical's extra point sent the Seminoles to the locker room with a 13-6 lead.

The third period was a dogged defensive battle with no serious scoring threats. But in the final period FSU pinned Wofford deep in its own territory with a 63-yard Manuel punt. After the Terriers fumbled on their own eight, the Seminoles were unable to cash in as Parrish came up a foot short on fourth down.

Unable to move the ball out of the deep hole, Wofford was forced to punt giving the Seminoles excellent field position with only minutes remaining. This time Don Veller's team wasted no time cashing in. With only seconds showing on the clock, Parrish sliced in from the five and Florida State had a 19-6 upset victory.

1955 SUN BOWL

TEXAS WESTERN 47, FLORIDA STATE 20

EL PASO, TEX., JAN. 1, 1955—Florida State's defense collapsed in the second quarter allowing Texas Western to move well ahead and capture a 47-20 Sun Bowl victory.

With the score tied 7-7 at the end of the first period, the underdog Miners put together a magnificent 28-point quarter that buried the Seminoles on this steamy January afternoon. Texas Western quarterback John Griner ran the option to perfection in that second quarter, and the Seminoles, fighting a blinding sun and the high altitude, just couldn't keep pace.

After leading 7-0 in the first four minutes of this 20th renewal of the Sun Bowl, the Seminoles allowed the aroused Miners to tie the score late in the period. On their first play of the second quarter, Florida State fumbled on its own 24 and Texas Western needed only two plays to grab its first lead of the day. That touchdown came on a nifty run by Miner ace Jesse Whittenton.

At that point the flood gates opened. Tom Nugent's Seminoles made three more costly mistakes in the quarter that led directly to Texas Western touchdowns and the homestanding Miners eased into the locker room with an unbelievable 34-7 advantage.

In the final half, the Miners ran the count to 41-7 before the Tribe managed to get on the board for the second time in the afternoon. Quarterback Len Swantic led a third quarter drive that was sparked by a 43-yard touchdown pass to Tom Feamster. But Western wasted no time in countering that Seminole score. On the next kickoff, Bob Forrest raced 95 yards for the final Miner touchdown of the day.

The Seminoles were able to tack on a final tally in the fourth period. Harry Massey hit Billy Odom on a 16-yard pass play for the score.

1958 BLUEGRASS BOWL

OKLAHOMA STATE 15, FLORIDA STATE 6

LOUISVILLE, KY., DEC. 13, 1958—A frantic fourth-quarter comeback was not to be as Florida State couldn't fight off the bitter cold and Oklahoma State went home with a 15-6 victory in the only Bluegrass Bowl ever played.

A crowd of just over 7,000 was able to brave the 10-degree weather for the first-ever meeting between the two schools. Players on both teams wore tennis shoes in an effort to combat the frozen turf. It was the Seminoles' first nationally televised game and a relatively obscure Howard Cosell handled the color that day.

Florida State got off to a good start in this one, mounting two drives deep into OSU territory. Both times they came up empty-handed though as field goal attempts from the 16 and 23 fell short.

Oklahoma State managed to dent the scoreboard early in the second quarter as swift halfback Duane Wood sprinted in from the Florida State 17.

Unable to get anything going in that second period, the Seminoles were forced to rely on their defense. Repeatedly, it came through to stop Oklahoma State drives. The last assault came in the final two minutes of the half. The Aggies drove inside the Florida State five and on fourth down with 1:15 left FSU's Ron Hinson stopped Forrest Campbell one foot from paydirt. That sent the clubs to the locker room with the score still at 7-0.

Early in the third period the Seminoles did themselves in with a pair of fumbles. The second miscue set up the Aggies at the Florida State 39. It took 10 plays but Wood finally scored his second touchdown and then caught a two-point conversion to make it 15-0.

Switching to a double wing spread, the Seminoles came very close to getting back in the game. A 38-yard touchdown pass from Joe Majors to Carl Meyer made it 15-6. The two-point try was no good. Later in the quarter Majors hit Bobby Renn on a 40-yard toss that carried to the Aggie six. After three plays netted nothing, a fourth-down pass was intercepted in the end zone and the game was history.

1965 GATOR BOWL FLORIDA STATE 36, OKLAHOMA 19

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., JAN. 2, 1965—A brilliant passing combination of Steve Tensi and Fred Biletnikoff rewrote the Gator Bowl record book and gave the upstart Seminoles an impressive 36-19 victory over Oklahoma in this post season event.

The Florida State victory will long be remembered as one of the greatest passing shows in the history of college football. Tensi completed 23 of 36 passes for 303 yards and five touchdowns while Biletnikoff hauled in 13 for 192 yards and four TDs. Both players signed professional contracts on the field at the completion of the game.

Oklahoma claimed the first break of the day as Tensi was intercepted. The Sooners marched to the Seminole 34 but on third down FSU defensive back Howard Ehler picked off an OU pass and sailed 63 yards for the initial touchdown. Later in the quarter the Sooners came back to claim the lead 7-6 but that lead lasted only as long as it took the Tribe to move 90 yards.

Phil Spooner was instrumental in the drive and Tensi continued to pick the OU defense apart. From the 15, Tensi hit Biletnikoff for a 12-7 lead. Twice more before the intermission, Tensi found Biletnikoff for touchdowns. The first score followed a George D'Allesandro fumble recovery and the second came on a long drive against the clock. The halftime score was 24-7.

Early in the second half Oklahoma recovered a Seminole fumble and cut the lead to 24-13, but as the third period drew to a close the Seminoles executed an 82-yard drive. On the last play of the quarter Tensi hit Don Floyd in the Oklahoma end zone for the touchdown.

Just to prove they could go to the air as well, Oklahoma put on some heroics of its own early in the final stanza when Sooner quarterback Ron Fletcher found speedy Ben Hart behind the FSU defenders for a 95-yard scoring play.

With 10 minutes left and the score at 30-19 it was time for the Seminole defense to take over. Two drives late in the game came up short for the Sooners and finally FSU tacked on its final TD—a 14-yard Tensi-to-Biletnikoff toss that made it 36-19.

1966 SUN BOWL WYOMING 28, FLORIDA STATE 20

EL PASO, TEX., DEC. 24, 1966—Florida State's vaunted passing attack was not enough to overcome a stingy Wyoming defense and the Seminoles fell 28-20 in their second try for a Sun Bowl title.

Though the Seminoles got a couple of early breaks it was the Cowboys who first drew blood. The initial score came on a Jim Kiick plunge and the score stood 7-0 at the end of the first period. Florida State bounced back, however, as Bill Moreman fell on a Vic Washington fumble and FSU had the ball at the Wyoming 49. From there Kim Hammond found Ron Sellers for the tying touchdown.

The Seminoles managed to grab the lead in the game shortly before the intermission. This time Hammond hit T. K. Weatherall behind the Cowboy secondary for a 54-yard scoring strike. At the half it was 14-7.

It didn't take long for the Cowboys to tie the score. Early in the second half Wyoming quarterback Rick Egloff found Jerry Marion for a 39-yard touchdown. Late in the third quarter the Cowboys went ahead to stay. Kiick, who gained 135 yards on 23 carries, picked up 43 of them on a touchdown run that gave the Cowboys a 21-14 lead.

Florida State made a last-ditch attempt to regain a part of the lead as time ticked away in the final quarter. Hammond hit Ron Sellers in Wyoming territory. As the lanky receiver was hit, he fumbled the ball and it was recovered by teammate Chip Glass at the Cowboy five. But the tenacious Wyoming defense held in the final three minutes. From there Wyoming used a pair of 15-yard penalties and the running of Kiick to drive to the FSU 14 in the waning minutes. Egloff scampered into the end zone for the final Cowboy touchdown.

The Seminoles were not quite finished. Hammond led the Tribe down the field as the clock ran down. He hit Sellers for a 23-yard touchdown pass and the final score reached 28-20.

1967 GATOR BOWL FLORIDA STATE 17, PENN STATE 17

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., DEC. 30, 1967—Penn State jumped to a commanding 17-point lead at intermission but Florida State battled back in the second half to gain an exciting 17-17 tie.

The Seminoles received the kickoff but were stalled at the Penn State 25. The Lions fumbled after one play but an intercepted pass gave them the ball back and they got the first score on a 27-yard field goal by Tom Sherman in the closing minutes of the first quarter.

Late in the second period Sherman passed to Jack Curry on a 10-yard touchdown play and then came back to hit All-America tight end Ted Kwalick on a 12-yard scoring aerial with 50 seconds remaining in the half. The Seminoles were completely stopped before intermission as Penn State threw up a stingy defense that kept Kim Hammond and his mates at bay.

The momentum changed in the second half, however. Penn State received the kick but was forced to punt. The Tribe drove quickly to the Lion one but couldn't punch the ball in. However, on the next series, the Lions gambled on fourth down at their own 15 and the Seminole defense held. Three plays later Hammond passed to Ron Sellers for the initial Florida State score.

When Lion halfback Charlie Pittman fumbled the ball on the kickoff the Seminoles were back in business at the Penn State 22. Passes to Sellers and Bill Moreman moved the ball to the one and from there Hammond took it on himself to cut the lead to 17-14.

With just over a minute to play in the game, Hammond directed a picture-perfect drive from the Seminole 31 to the Penn State 15. There Florida State was faced with a fourth-and-five situation with 17 seconds remaining. Coach Bill Peterson decided to go for the sure three points and a tie rather than to risk a 17-14 loss. Grant Guthrie booted the field goal and the 1967 Gator Bowl had co-champions.

1968 PEACH BOWL

LOUISIANA STATE 31, FLORIDA STATE 27

ATLANTA, GA., DEC. 30, 1968—Competing in its fourth consecutive bowl game Florida State couldn't outscore Louisiana State and the Seminoles fell 31-27 in a soggy game that initiated Atlanta's Peach Bowl.

The Seminoles had been considered a slight favorite in the game until the teams took the field for the pre-game warmups. It was at that point the rain began to fall and it didn't let up until the final minutes of the contest played at Georgia Tech's Grant Field.

Despite the rain, the Seminoles wasted little time getting on the scoreboard. LSU won the toss but the Tigers bobbled the ball and FSU's John Crowe pounced on the loose ball at the Tiger 36. Tom Bailey swept around right end on the game's first play from scrimmage and went all the way for the touchdown.

That was the only score of the first period, however, as the heavy rain hampered both teams. In that first period, the Seminoles recovered two more LSU fumbles and intercepted a Tiger pass.

Early in the second period Bill Cappleman capped a 75-yard drive with a 21-yard touchdown pass to Bill Gunter that gave the Tribe a 13-0 lead. LSU's first score came midway through the second period on a 39-yard punt return of a stray Bill Cheshire kick. A 32-yard field goal in the waning minutes of the half cut the Seminole lead to 13-10 at intermission.

The Tigers came roaring back in the third period and a pair of touchdowns staked them to a 24-13 lead. But the Seminoles were not finished. A fourth-quarter Cappleman to Sellers pass brought Florida State within five and with 6:15 left in the game they went on top 27-24 with a Cappleman-Sellers aerial and a two-point conversion pass to Chip Glass.

LSU's winning touchdown capped a long drive that culminated with 2:39 left. The last-ditch Seminole effort was thwarted when a fourth-down pass to Sellers was tipped away.

1971 FIESTA BOWL

ARIZONA STATE 45, FLORIDA STATE 38

TEMPE, ARIZ., DEC. 27, 1971—In one of the most dazzling offensive shows in bowl history Arizona State managed to score with 34 seconds remaining in the game and capture the first-ever Fiesta Bowl 45-38.

Over 51,000 partisan Arizona State fans crowded into Sun Devil Stadium and Ray Scott was on hand to call the shots over a 140-station TV network. Florida State's initial drive stalled and Arizona State wasted no time in grabbing a 7-0 lead. FSU's Barry Smith brought the kickoff back 49 yards and like lightning Gary Huff and his mates tied the score. Huff's passes put the Tribe at the one and from there Paul Magalski slammed home.

Thirty-two points went on the board in the second quarter. The locals drew first blood but soon a field goal by Frank Fontes moved the Seminoles to within one at 14-13. The momentum seemed to swing to Florida State as it raced 63 yards on a later drive and added a two-point conversion to lead 21-14. With just over two minutes left in the half ASU's Danny White hit Steve Holden for a 55-yard scoring pass that tied it at 21-21.

But, at that point the Seminoles proved they had come to play. Huff put on a brilliant passing display, hitting Gaydos for 46 yards to the Sun Devil 10. With time running out, Rhett Dawson snared his second touchdown pass of the day to give the Tribe a 28-21 lead at halftime.

The third quarter was all Arizona State. Holding the ball almost the entire quarter, the Sun Devils put 10 points on the board and led 31-18 heading into the final stanza. Early in that last quarter Florida State culminated a 75-yard drive with a Florida field goal to tie the game 31-31. On an exchange of punts, Holden hurt the Seminoles again. This time he returned a Dwane Carroll punt 63 yards for a touchdown. Florida State came back to tie the game again as Dawson made a sensational touchdown grab between two defenders with 4:44 left in the contest.

A final ASU drive resulted in a Woody Green score with 34 seconds left to provide the final margin.

1977 TANGERINE BOWL

FLORIDA STATE 40, TEXAS TECH 17

ORLANDO, FLA., DEC. 23, 1977—Florida State, making its first bowl appearance in seven years, demolished Texas Tech, 40-17, in the 32nd Tangerine Bowl.

A record-breaking crowd of 44,502 witnessed almost total domination by the Seminoles, who became the Only Division I school currently playing major college football in Florida to achieve 10 victories in a single season.

FSU jumped ahead with 5:50 remaining in the opening quarter on a 23-yard Dave Cappelen field goal. It stayed that way until Mike Mock of Texas Tech evened the count with a 24-yarder early in the second quarter. At that point, however, the Seminoles took over. It was a 93-yard kickoff return by Larry Key following the Tech field goal that gave the Seminoles the lead for good.

Later in the same quarter, quarterback Jimmy Jordan found tight end Grady King on a 37-yard scoring pass that boosted the Seminole lead to 16-3 at intermission.

The Seminoles continued to add to their cushion in the third quarter. First Jordan found Mike Shumann with a 40-yard scoring toss. Next Cappelen booted a 22-yard field goal. That made it 27-3.

Tech returned to the board with 7:46 remaining in the quarter on a 44-yard scoring pass to make it 27-9. The count remained that way until Wally Woodham found Roger Overby on a 15-yard scoring toss to increase the Seminole lead with just 3:34 left.

Neither team was through yet, however. Tech came back to score on a 21-yard run by Billy Taylor and with just 48 seconds remaining, FSU completed the scoring on a 44-yard pass involving Woodham and Chip Sanders.

The defenders were so impressive that it was hard for observers to decide who should win the Most Valuable Player Defensive trophy. The sportswriters covering the contest picked end Willie Jones while the Mizlou TV network, which telecast the game across the nation, tagged the other end Scott Warren.

Jordan, however, took MVP honors for the game and offense. The rifle-armed sophomore had his best game as a Seminole, completing 18 of 25 passes for 311 yards and two touchdowns.

Many thought the offensive and game award should have gone to Key, playing his final game for the Garnet and Gold. He rushed for 83 yards in 21 attempts, caught six passes for another 100 yards and returned an additional three kickoffs for 131 more yards.

1980 ORANGE BOWL

OKLAHOMA 24, FLORIDA STATE 7

MIAMI, Fla. — January 1 — Florida State was unable to hold an early lead and lost a 24-7 verdict to Oklahoma, the Big Eight champion, in the 46th Annual Orange Bowl Classic.

Although it lost, FSU gained some much needed national recognition from its first ever appearance in the Miami classic. The game marked FSU's first appearance ever in one of the New Year's Day Big Four bowl games. The Seminoles entered the game as the nation's fourth ranked team and despite the loss finished sixth in the final Associated Press poll and eighth on the United Press International Top 20.

FSU received added exposure when head coach Bobby Bowden was "miked" for the entire game by the NBC-TV network. Often during the game NBC opened the Bowden microphone and allowed its nationwide audience to listen to the Seminole head coach call the plays and discuss game strategy.

The Seminoles jumped ahead of the Sooners in the first quarter. On the Seminoles' second possession, the Tribe drove 74 yards in 12 plays with fullback Michael Whiting scoring on a one-yard plunge with Davey Cappelen booting the PAT to make it 7-0.

But the second quarter all belonged to Oklahoma. The Tribe had missed scoring early in the quarter after moving the ball to the two and having a third and goal. But a delay penalty pushed the ball back five yards and the snap was bobbled on the potential field goal.

After that Seminole mishap, Oklahoma went 81 yards in just four plays. The final 61 yards were covered by quarterback J. C. Watts and after the Michael Keeling PAT it was 7-7 with 11:35 remaining in the quarter.

A Tribe turnover set up the next Oklahoma score—a five-yard run by Stanley Wilson. The Sooners came up with the ball after a Jimmy Jordan pass had been intercepted and returned to the FSU 10.

A 24-yard field goal by Keeling with 3:08 remaining in the half made it 17-7. The Keeling field goal came after a FSU punt traveled just 14 yards and gave the Sooners possession at the Tribe 41.

The third quarter was scoreless, but Oklahoma put the game out of FSU's reach late in the fourth quarter. This time the Sooners marched 99 yards in 14 plays with Billy Sims covering the final 22 after a pitchout from Watts. During the drive Oklahoma used 7:13 of the game clock.

This was a night the FSU offense could never get started. The Tribe had just 185 yards total offense—85 rushing and 100 passing. The biggest ground gainers were fullback Mark Lyles and tailback Mike Whiting, who picked up 40 yards apiece.

FSU's double-headed quarterback of Jimmy Jordan and Wally Woodham could complete just eight of 27 passes. Three of those attempts were intercepted. Oklahoma, meanwhile was gaining 445 yards, including 409 along the ground where Sims and Watts led the way with 164 and 127, respectively.

THIS IS FLORIDA STATE

Dr. Bernard F. Sliger
President

Florida State University — the home of more than 20,000 Seminoles — has a campus that starts at the top of one of Tallahassee's famed seven hills, and rolls gently downward and westward across 340-odd acres of pines, palms and pecan trees.

Founded in 1857 as the Seminary West of the Suwannee, its heritage is evidenced in the wide range of architectural struggles to preserve history and keep up with modern times and air conditioning. Yet it still ranks as one of the South's last, few bastions of campus greenery—the kind that combines the blossoms of camellias, azaleas and dogwoods with moss-hung oaks that are, in some cases, as old as the University itself, if not older.

From the Gothic towers of Westcott at the eastern entrance to the campus, to the modern glass and steel structures of its Science Complex to the west, Florida State University has moved forward in time and growth more rapidly than many of its newer counterparts in the State University System. Its enrollment has quadrupled since it became coeducational in 1947, following nearly half a century as the Florida State College for Women.

Today, its 14 schools and colleges are spread through $150 million worth of buildings, its annual budget exceeds $100 million and it attracts more than $18 million a year in research contracts and grants. Students can pick and choose from more than 100 career options offered in arts and sciences, business, communication, criminology, dance, education, home economics, law, library science, music, nursing, social sciences, social work, theatre and visual arts programs.

The location of FSU in the Capital City of Florida offers unusual opportunities for study and research in the social and policy sciences, and an optimum environment for internships and on-the-job learning experiences for students in many fields of study.

A city within a city, Florida State has 1,200 faculty members, more than 6,000 additional employees and a construction program that will exceed $50 million between now and 1981. The construction of a new civic center and a center for continuing education — both near the State Capitol — are destined for completion by the fall of 1980.

WRITTEN FOR USE AS DESIRED

RUN FOR ONE--Florida State (10-1) and Oklahoma (9-2), both with hopes of winning the national championship, meet in the 47th Annual Orange Bowl, January 1, 1981.

KICKOFF--8:00 p.m. EST, or immediately after the Rose Bowl conclusion.

SITE--Orange Bowl (76,114), Miami, Fla.

EXPECTED ATTENDANCE--The game will be a sellout. Each school received 12,500 tickets and the Orange Bowl Committee distributed the remainder. In addition to its original allocation, FSU received an additional 2,900 tickets that were not sold at Oklahoma.

TV & RADIO--NBC-TV will send the game across the nation with an announce team of Don Criqui (play-by-play), John Brodie (expert analyst) and Bob Trumpy (sidelines). Mutual has the nationwide radio rights and its announce team will include Tony Roberts (play-by-play), Al Wester (color) and Gene Deckerhoff (sidelines).

THE SEASONS--Florida State is riding a seven-game winning streak after losing 10-9 to Miami (Fla.) in the Orange Bowl on September 27. The loss snapped an 18-game regular season win streak for the Seminoles. That was the second extended winning streak of the Seminoles broken at the Orange Bowl in 1980. On January 1, last year, the Seminoles bowed 24-7 to Oklahoma in the 46th Orange Bowl ending a 15-game win streak. Oklahoma also has a seven-game win streak. The Sooners have not been beaten since October 11 when they lost a 20-13 verdict to Texas. After the loss to Texas, the Sooners stood 2-2.

HOW THEY GOT HERE--FSU received its Orange Bowl invitation as an independent. The Tribe was invited on November 15, an open date on the Seminole schedule. Oklahoma's invitation came with its championship of the Big Eight Conference. The league winner qualifies for the Orange Bowl.

ABOUT FSU AND ORANGE BOWL--The Tribe will be making its second consecutive Orange Bowl appearance. It's also just the second time ever the Tribe has appeared at the New Year's Day Classic. Last year FSU rode an 11-0 record into the 46th Orange Bowl and lost a 24-7 verdict to Oklahoma after the Seminoles had taken a 7-0 lead early in the game.

ABOUT OKLAHOMA AND ORANGE BOWL--The Sooners will be making their fourth consecutive appearance in Miami, their fifth in the last six years, and their 12th overall. Oklahoma has a 8-3 Orange Bowl record.

FSU AND BOWLS--The upcoming New Year's date marks the 11th time FSU has been invited to participate in a post-season football game since the school began playing football in 1947. It will be the third time in the last four seasons the Tribe has played an extra game at the conclusion of the regular season. Overall, the Tribe has not fared well in bowl games, winning three, losing six and tying one (3-6-1).

OKLAHOMA AND BOWLS--Oklahoma has a long bowl tradition. The Sooners will be playing in their 22nd bowl game and seeking to improve on their current 14-6-1 record. Besides the Orange, the Sooners have played five times in the Sugar Bowl, twice in the Gator Bowl, twice in the Bluebonnet Bowl, and once in the Fiesta Bowl. Their record is the best in the Big Eight and their total of 14 victories leaves them in a third place tie with Georgia Tech and Texas for most bowl wins. Southern California with 19 and Alabama with 17 are the only schools with more.

THE SERIES--FSU and Oklahoma will be meeting for the fourth time on the football field, the third time they've matched up in a post-season bowl game. Oklahoma has a 2-1 record in previous meetings. The Seminoles won the first meeting 36-19 in the 1965 Gator Bowl. The schools didn't meet again until the 1976 season at Norman when the Sooners captured a 24-9 verdict. The third meeting came in the January 1, 1980, Orange Bowl where the Sooners won 24-7.

THE LAST TIME--FSU jumped ahead of the Sooners, 7-0. The score came on a one-yard Mike Whiting run with 3:24 remaining in the period. Oklahoma struck back for 17 points in the second quarter when the Sooner cause was aided by Seminole mistakes, including a five yard delay of game penalty after the Tribe had moved to the OU two early in the quarter. Failing to get a score at that point seemed to deflate FSU and gave Oklahoma momentum. The teams were scoreless in the third quarter, but Oklahoma clinched the win with a fourth quarter score. The Sooners rushed for an Orange Bowl record 411 yards and had 447 total offense while FSU mustered only 85 ground yards and 100 through the air.

FSU VS. BIG EIGHT--The Seminoles have a 9-6 record vs. teams from the Big Eight. Included in that overall record is a 5-2 ledger since Bobby Bowden took over as head coach in 1976. The latest Seminole win came this season (October 4) when the Tribe went to Nebraska and won an 18-14 decision against the third-ranked Cornhuskers.

THE COACHES--Bobby Bowden (Samford '52) is completing his fifth season as Florida State's head coach. In that time he has watched the Seminoles roll to a 44-13 record, including just one regular season loss in the last two years, 10-9 to Miami on September 27. Bowden's record looks even more remarkable when one realizes that six of those losses came in the first season (1976) when the Tribe went 5-6. Since then the Seminoles have put together records of 10-2, 8-3, 11-1 and 10-1. Bowden last year was cited by ABC-TV and Chevrolet as its Division I-A Coach of the Year. Twice in his five years at the Seminoles' helm he has been the Associated Press Southern Independent Coach of the Year. This is the third head coaching stop for the Birmingham, Ala., native. He was previously at Samford (31-6) and West Virginia (42-26). His overall coaching mark is now 117-45. The victory total at the start of the current season (107-44) ranked 10th among active head coaches in I-A. The percentage (.709) was 11th among I-A and I-AA head coaches.

Oklahoma head coach Barry Switzer (Arkansas '60) is finishing his eighth year at Oklahoma. In that time he has compiled a record of 82-9-2, including a 4-1 ledger in bowl games. Percentagewise, Switzer is the nation's winningest coach. His record figures to a percentage of .901, making him the only major college coach in the country (with five years of service or more) to top 90 percent. He is 2-0 against Florida State and 3-1 in the Orange Bowl.

BOWDEN VS. OKLAHOMA--Bobby Bowden is 0-2 against Oklahoma while head coach for FSU. The Seminoles lost a 24-9 verdict at Norman in 1976, Bowden's first season with FSU, and last year the Tribe bowed 24-7 in the Orange Bowl. Oklahoma and Miami are the only schools with more than one victory vs. FSU since Bowden arrived on the Tallahassee campus. Miami has beaten the Tribe three times.

BOWDEN & BOWL GAMES--This FSU football team is the seventh Bobby Bowden has ushered to a post-season bowl. In the previous six, he has a 3-3 record, 1-1 at Samford, West Virginia and FSU. At Howard, his team won the 1959 Textile Bowl (52-20 over Gordon Military) and lost the 1962 Golden Isle Bowl (21-14 to McNeese State). While at West Virginia, Bowden saw the Mountaineers lose to North Carolina State, 49-13, in the 1972 Peach Bowl and then return to beat the Wolfpack, 13-10, in the 1975 Peach Bowl. Bowden took FSU to the Tangerine Bowl in 1977 where it toppled Texas Tech, 40-17, and last season the Tribe was beaten 24-7 by Oklahoma in the 1980 Orange Bowl.

STADIUM ISN'T PARADISE--Miami's Orange Bowl Stadium will never be regarded as paradise for FSU head coach Bobby Bowden. The Tribe has played in the huge facility four times since the Bowden '76 takeover and the record shows just one victory--31-21 over Miami in 1978. Miami has administered losses in 1976 (47-0) and 1980 (10-9) and Oklahoma was responsible for the third defeat, 24-7, in last year's 46th Orange Bowl Classic.

OFFENSE HAS BEEN BAD--Since Bobby Bowden took over as head coach for the Seminoles, the three worst offensive performances for the Tribe in those 57 games have all come at the Orange Bowl. The Tribe was able to muster just 174 total yards in that 1976 defeat to Miami. The second worst was the 182 gained in last year's Orange Bowl's loss to Oklahoma and the third worst was this season (207) in the Miami defeat.

THE CAPTAINS--Florida State elected four at the start of the season. Offensively Ken Lanier (72) and Greg Futch (70) represent their teammates. Defensively the duties fall to noseguard Ron Simmons (50) and linebacker Reggie Herring (39). Oklahoma has five captains--David Overstreet (22), Louis Oubre (66), Steve Rhodes (24), Richard Turner (96) and J.C. Watts (1).

MAKE COMPARISONS--Final regular season records will show the current FSU Seminoles finished 10-1, one victory less than the 1979 team that went 11-0 to become the first Seminole team to ever finish a major college schedule undefeated. But, in many ways, especially defensively, this team has a better record. We offer the following comparisons between 1979 and 1980.

ABOUT SINGLE SEASON TEAM RECORDS--Offensively the current Seminoles set new team records this season for points (352), field goals made (22), field goals attempted (30), first downs rushing (137) and most rushing plays (603).

HOW ABOUT THIS?--There are many interesting aspects to the FSU vs. Oklahoma matchup, several are very evident. How about the Florida State defense which led the nation in scoring defense (7.7 points per game) going against an Oklahoma offense that finished fourth in the nation for scoring at 34.4 points per outing.

THINK ABOUT THIS--In one game this season, Oklahoma scored 82 points in rolling to an 82-42 win at Colorado. Now...the FSU defense game up just 85 points in 11 games during the regular season.

NCAA RANKINGS--FSU was rated in several team categories at the close of the '80 regular season. The Seminoles were sixth in scoring offense at 32.0 points per game, second in total defense yielding 208.2 yards per game, fourth in rushing defense (89.5), first in scoring defense (7.7), tied for first in net punting with Michigan at a net average of 42.6 yards per kick and tied for third in turnover margin at 1.909 per game.

INDIVIDUALS RANK, TOO--Three Seminoles were ranked in the final NCAA individual statistics. Kicker Bill Capece finished third in scoring with 104 points and was second in the field goal category with 22. Quarterback Rick Stockstill rated 10th in the passing efficiency statistics with 134.4 rating points and punter Rohn Stark finished third with an average of 45.2 yards per kick in 57 attempts.

NEVER--No matter what happens in the 47th Orange Bowl Classic, the current Seminole defense will have one statistic that future teams will only be able to match and that will be quite difficult. The Seminoles were never scored on during the fourth quarter in the '80 season. The Seminoles enjoyed a 96-0 scoring advantage in that final 15 minutes.

SECOND HALF BEST--When reviewing statistics for the '80 season one can immediately judge the second half to be the best for FSU. The Tribe had a 193-21 scoring cushion in the third and fourth quarters compared to a 159-64 advantage in the opening two quarters.

A TELLING STATISTIC--In its 11 regular season games, the Seminoles lost just six fumbles and tied Richmond for the least number of fumbles lost by a Division I-A competitor. If you're looking for a comparison with Oklahoma, the Sooners lost 26 fumbles in 11 games.

WHAT THE PLAYERS SAY...

LB REGGIE HERRING--"Revenge is only for newspapers--we're going to Miami to win a football game. This could turn out to be our shot at the national championship. It's my last game as a Seminole--I want to go out a winner.

"The biggest thing we have going for us is that we're FSU and that means we're winners. You never want to lose a game, especially one like the Orange Bowl, so it really doesn't matter what Georgia does against Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl.

"Oklahoma showed us up pretty good last year. We're hungrier now than we were a year ago. We have grown as a football team through hard work and pride in ourselves and the program.

"This team faces the greatest challenge we've had all season. We have the opportunity to play Oklahoma, a school with great tradition, but don't forget they (Oklahoma) have the opportunity to play Florida State."

WR HARDIS JOHNSON--"You can tell there is going to be something special about the Orange Bowl. Our practices have been enthusiastic. We seem to be working harder because everyone knows there could be something special at the end if we do well.

"There won't be additional pressure. We just have a chance to do something really big. We have a shot to be number one for the first time ever at Florida State and many of us believe that's where this program belongs.

"Oklahoma might key on me more because of the Florida game, but that will only make me try more. I don't mind that people know the ball is coming my way. There will be some revenge for me. In last year's game I caught a pass that I thought was a touchdown and the officials said I fumbled. I hope to be able to reverse that call this year.

"We have a chance to do something special (win the national championship) and set a standard for all teams that follow us here."

TB SAM PLATT--"Yes, I will be trying harder this year because of what happened last year. Oklahoma owned us in the second half. I think the coaches will have us better prepared this time. Last season we were ready to play a football game but really didn't know what to expect--it won't happen again.

"Oklahoma will be a special challenge for me. Those Sooners have a good defense and as a runner you always want to go against the best.

"Last year I saw the game as a receiver, far away from the line. This year I'll be seeing it from behind the quarterback. I expect to be able to read their defense better.

"I'm disappointed that I didn't get 1,000 yards rushing for the season, but that's all behind me now. Oklahoma and a possible shot at winning the national championship are the only things I'm thinking about."

QB RICK STOCKSTILL--"I think we'll be more confident this year. Last year we thought we might be able to beat them, but weren't sure. This year we know that if we play a good game and don't make the critical mistake the game can be ours.

"There will be more pressure if the national championship is at stake, but it's the good kind of pressure. We knew last year if we won it still wouldn't give us a national championship. This year that's different.

"Whether Georgia wins or loses doesn't matter. We will go onto the field wanting to win no matter what happens at the Sugar Bowl. There's really no revenge factor for me. At quarterback you just try to do the best you can whether the team has beaten you before or you've beaten them."

DB MONK BONASORTE--"Oklahoma lost only two people from its starting offense of last year so that means they're going to be strong again. I think this Oklahoma team is more balanced, they rely on a number of backs instead of just Billy Sims.

"If you try to get ready for a game with revenge in mind it will just confuse the issue. We must play our game and do what we do best.

"It won't matter to us whether Georgia wins or loses. If they win we can still have the best ranking of any Florida State football team ever. In fact, no school in the state but us will be able to say they've finished number two. If Georgia is beaten then we've got our chance. It's that simple.

"This is my last game ever for Florida State. I want to remember my last game as a win. In my four years we've been 39-7. Why not make it 40-7?

"Oklahoma quarterback J.C. Watts is just a super football player. He could be a quarterback, runningback or wide receiver. He's a threat no matter where they put him. We've got to figure out a way to stop him."

FSU PLAYERS TO WATCH...

DB BOBBY BUTLER (No. 21, 5-11, 185, Senior, Delray Beach, Fla.)--was selected first team All-American by Newspaper Enterprise Association...also was third team Associated Press All-American and first team Associated Press All-South Independent...many would believe by his statistics that he hasn't had a good season, but the coaches will tell you differently--the Pitt staff after the Seminoles' 36-22 victory called Butler "the best cornerback in America"...his statistics for the year show 31 tackles with big play totals including two blocked kicks, two fumble recoveries, four tackles for loss and three interceptions...over the years he has developed a speciality for blocking kicks--he has seven for his career, including one in last year's Orange Bowl loss to Oklahoma...Bobby was also a member of the Seminole outdoor track and field team that finished third in NCAA competition last spring.

PK BILL CAPECE (No. 17, 5-7, 170, Senior, Miami, Fla.)--was named to the SPORTING NEWS first team All-America squad that is selected by the pro scouts...also was a first team pick for the Associated Press All-South Independent squad...this was his first year of full-time duty as the Tribe kicking specialist...previously he had handled just kickoff chores and some long distance field goal duty...but, in '80 he has managed 104 points, a new NCAA Division I-A record for points scored by a kicker and a new FSU single season mark...he was good on 38 of 38 place-ments and also connected on 22 of 30 field goal attempts with the longest being for 50 yards vs. Pittsburgh on the closing play of the opening half...he set a single game field goal record for FSU against Pitt with five after tying the previous record (four) a week earlier at Nebraska...at one point in the season he was 18 of 20 in field goal attempts...on the career he is 40 of 40 in PAT conversions.

NG RON SIMMONS (No. 50, 6-1, 235, Senior, Warner Robins, Ga.)--despite an ankle injury that kept him out of two games and portions of others he was named first team on four All-American squads--FOOTBALL NEWS, UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL, WALTER CAMP and KODAK (Coaches)...it marked the second consecutive year he was named to those teams...Ron was also a finalist for the prestigious Lombardi Award...did not have the big play statistics this season he has had in other years, but the opposition still had enough respect for Ron's ability that he was double-teamed on nearly every play. Final stats showed Ron with 45 tackles, one caused fumble, two fumble recoveries, three tackles for loss and a pair of quarterback sacks...Ron has made some sort of All-American team ever since he arrived on campus...in freshman year he was first team on the Freshman All-American team picked by FOOTBALL NEWS...he is a three-time choice on the Associated Press All-South Independent squad and following '79 season he was ninth in the Heisman Trophy ballot, the highest place for any lineman.

P ROHN STARK (No. 3, 6-3, 195, Junior, Fifty Lakes, Minn.)--following in Simmons' path by being named an All-American as a junior...he was first team on All-American squads picked by FOOTBALL WRITERS, UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL and SPORTING NEWS...finished third in the country with a punting average of 45.1 in 57 kicks...his talents became widely recognized following the Nebraska and Pittsburgh victories where he punted seven times in each game for an average of 48.4 and 48.1, respectively...he frankly admits that football is not his favorite sport--it's track and field where he participates in the decathlon and was the Metro Conference champion for the event as a freshman...FSU track coaches red-shirted him last season...he's a left-footed kicker with better than average hang time, which has allowed opposition to return less than half of his boots this season...thanks to Rohn, the Seminoles finished '80 campaign tied with Michigan State in team net punting at 42.6 yards...Rohn is an amateur pilot who one day may follow his father into aviation...dad is a commercial pilot for one of the nation's leading commercial airlines (TWA).

WHAT BOBBY SAYS...

ABOUT FSU & NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP--"I've told my boys they could have the opportunity that comes along for very few players in college football--play for the national championship. We've asked them to concentrate on what they're doing for the next couple of weeks like they've never concentrated on football before. This is a fine group of young men. No matter what happens they've gained the respect of football teams and fans throughout the country."

ABOUT 10-1 SEMINOLE RECORD--"In my mind this season's 10-1 is more impressive than last year's 11-0 because of the way we've done it. There have been a couple of real challenges on this schedule. We went to Nebraska and won 18-14 and the following week had Pittsburgh in Tallahassee and won 36-22. At the time both those teams were ranked third in the country and undefeated. Nobody gave us much of a chance to win one of those games, much less two and we took them both. The win at Nebraska was most impressive because we did it there. There was nothing funny about that win. I think that win helped FSU's football image across the country more than anything we've ever done."

ABOUT OKLAHOMA--"Last year when we played them in the Orange Bowl I thought at the time Oklahoma was the best team in the country. I'm not sure anyone could have beaten them at the end of the season. I'm starting to believe the same thing again this year after looking at films. Yes, I know this Oklahoma team hasn't been as impressive as the one last season, but just like last year's Sooner team they have come on at the end of the season."

ABOUT HOW TO BEAT SOONERS--"If they don't make mistakes, I don't know if we have a chance. I don't know if anyone can beat Oklahoma if they don't make mistakes. I think we've got a chance, no matter what they do, but most coaches feel that if Oklahoma doesn't fumble, they don't lose."

"I know we don't have the speed and possibly the physical strength of Oklahoma. We have to win with perfection--great kicking, keep the other team backed up and our offense has to cash in on the mistakes the other team makes. If Oklahoma doesn't make mistakes, you don't stop Oklahoma."

ABOUT OKLAHOMA'S TRIPLE OPTION--"We've had to do a lot of studying because nobody runs the dad gum thing better than those Sooners. The way Oklahoma runs the wishbone isn't an art--they've made a science out of it. They take the triple option one step further than other college teams. I've never seen a quarterback like J.C. Watts, who takes the ball as far as he does before pitching it. He's the most daring one I've seen."

IMPORTANT: Most player categories are ranked on per-game average. Thus, it's vital that you consider every player (on both teams) with any statistics in any game this season (get season player statistics from both SIDs). Then list below the last name of players who have season figures but did NOT play in this game. All players with previous statistics will be charged with a game unless you indicate otherwise under DID NOT PLAY IN THIS GAME. A game played is one play—whether or not the player touches the ball. (For guidelines on a game played, refer to BI-7 in 1980 Official Football Statisticians' Manual.) If a player with first-time statistics has missed games, fill in below—after getting from his SID how many games missed.

SCORING SUMMARY

List all scoring plays in sequence. "Time left" means time remaining in the quarter at the conclusion of the scoring play. Under "play," to save you time, please use only: Rush, Pass, INT, PR, KOR, FUM, FG, or SAF (instead of writing out interception, punt, kickoff and fumble returns, field goal or safety).

On pass play, list passer first, then receiver and combined yardage of pass and run. All plays are measured from the line of scrimmage except field-goal attempts—from the point of kick to the goal posts (goal line plus 10 yards).

After each touchdown, please continue on the same line and under "FOR EXTRA POINTS ONLY" check (✓) type of PAT (kick, pass or run) and whether good (G) or no good (NG).

OKLAHOMA QUOTES

HEAD COACH BARRY SWITZER

"I knew we had them all the way.

"To play as poorly as we did—three turn overs in the first half, three in the second, a fumbled punt—we were lucky to come back and win against such a good team. Michael Keeling should kiss all the players for coming back and saving him. I would have rather played the passing team they had last year than the running team they have this year. When Wilson couldn't play it really ~~hurt~~ hurt us. Did you see that guy in our backfield? That was the responsibility of the fullback."

PLAYER QUOTES

Kicker Michael Keeling—"I was praying we would win. I'll kiss Rhodes but I will just hug the rest of the guys.

~~Tight~~
Tight End Forrest Valora—"We ran the crossing route a few times and it worked well. On the two point conversion, J.C. had an option to run or pass. I was open so he threw to me.

Quarterback JC Watts—"It is a great thing to know that we held together and never gave up. Our passing game worked well all night. The corners gave us a cushion all night. I didn't know what Steve was doing on the long pass. I just wanted him to catch it. He gave 100% on an injured leg.

Split end Steve Rhodes—"We designed the passing play at halftime. It was a variation of the pass route Forrest ran all night. I told Coach Hall that ~~the~~ the route I caught the TD on would be open so he designed it and then we ran it. J.C. threw it in there. My leg never really hurt. It just slowed me down a little.
